Under the auspices of Court Stanley, No. 7680, will be given its third annual concert in the Opera House on Wednesday, Dec. 7th, when a programme of high merit will be rendered by the Sims Richard family of Toronto, consisting of quartettes, solos and duets, both vocal and instrumental. Recitations, archery drill and shooting at the target. Fancy sword drill by Mr. Sims Richards' four young daughters. Hear what the Muskoka Herald says of Mr. Sims Richards as an elocutionist:—"The town hall was crowded last night at the concert given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church. Sims Richards the celebrated tenor, was the great attraction, while we are not disposed to accord him the unlimited praise which some give to him, yet he is a talented vocalist, and was enthusiastically encored in all his numbers. Sims Richards is also famed as an elocutionist, his recitation of Scott of Arden was a fine effort and brought down the house." Mr. Sim Richards will recite Scott of Arden. Don't fail to hear him. Worthy Bro. D. F. MacWatt, the High Chief Ranger, of Barrie, will be present and give a short address. Only 25 cents admission, reserved seats 35 cents. Plan of hall at Peterborough Bookstore. 1d

CHURCH CHIMES.

Special services will be held in the Baptist church after the week of prayer.

Messrs. Squires, Steen and Wesley sang a trio at the Y.M.C.A. meeting last night.

Mrs. Hamilton sang a solo with pleasing effect in the George street Methodist church last evening.

Rev. Mr. Goldsmith in St. Paul's church preached two powerful and eloquent sermons yesterday.

The annual week of prayer in all the evangelical churches will be held from January 2 to January 9th.

Mrs. Jones and Miss Harris sang a duet entitled "Hope Abides Forever," in St. Andrew's church last evening.

The choir in the Charlotte street church yesterday morning sang "No Nigot There," Mr. Davis taking the solo part in a rich voice.

Special collections were taken up in the Murray street Baptist church yesterday in the interest of the Grande Ligne Mission, Quebec.

The choir of St. Paul's church rendered the anthem, "I am Alpha and Omega," at the evening service yesterday with exquisite taste.

Rev. J. E. Trotter yesterday morning preached an able sermon on "Power, where to be had and how to use it" to an unusually large audience.

The Sunday evening service in the Y.M.C.A. Hall was addressed by Rev. J. C. Davidson, who spoke sober and inspiriting words to a large gathering.

The annual collections were taken up yesterday in the George street Methodist church on behalf of the local Y.M.C.A. organization, and a good sum realized.

The Christmas service of St. Luke's church this year will be of an especially interesting character. The choir are preparing special music for the occasion.

During the offertory in St. John's church last night the choir sang "Oh Home of Fadeless Splendor," master Maitland Boswell taking the solo part in a cultivated voice.

Mr. W. H. Chapman, general secretary Y. M. C. A., will address the regular meeting of the Epworth League of Christian Endeavour in the Charlotte street Methodist this evening.

Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Hastings, preached at both services in St. Andrew's church yesterday to attentive congregations. He will remain in town until after the Sunday school convention.

Mr. Louis Crowley conducted the evening service at the Park street Baptist mission yesterday evening. The attendance at the Sunday school is largely increasing and much good being done.

Rev. McWilliams, B.A., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, officiated yesterday, both morning and evening at the Presbyterian church, Hastings, of which D. A. Thompson, President of Peterborough County Sunday School Association, is the popular pastor.

Large congregations were present in the Mark street Methodist church yesterday morning and evening. Great earnestness was manifestly prevalent. Several more persons rose to indicate their purpose to turn to the Lord. Evangelistic meeting this evening at half past seven o'clock. Any and every person who chooses, walk in and take a seat.

The special revival services in the George street Methodist church will be be continued every night of the present week. The attendance at these services is large, and the interest and power of the meetings continue unabated. Rev. Mr. Locke last evening invited all, especially the young people, many of whom have been converted through these meetings, to attend.

The programme of the County Sunday School Convention was published in the EXAMINER last week, hence there is no need of calling further attention to the convention. Some forty delegates from the county will be in attendance, besides a large number from town. The principal speakers will be Rev. John McEwen, Lakefield; Rev. Dr. Smith, pastor of the Metropolitan church, Toronto, and Rev. Pres. Thompson, who will speak on Tuesday evening, Mr. Geo. Anderson, Toronto, Hon. S. H. Blake, Q.C., Toronto, and Rev. W. G. Hanna, B. A., Uxbridge, will be the distinguished speakers on Wednesday.

Rev. Mr. Locke in the George street church yesterday preached two persuasive and potent sermons to large congregations of which young people formed the major element. In the evening the minister spoke from II Chronicles, xxxiv chapter and 3rd verse: "For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young he began to seek after the God of David his father." The reverend gentleman dwelt strongly upon the excellent reign of Josiah, the God fearing king, how he sought Christ early in life and his destruction of idolatry in all its forms. He urged the young people to come to Christ, none were too young to serve Him, and youth was the most opportune and brightest period in which to seek salvation, as witnessed in the good effects of Josiah's sovereignty who accepted Christ's guidance at an early age. Sin grew upon the sinner. It hardened the heart and dwarfed those inclinations which led us to seek after things above, and with life and all its uncertainties before us and the doubtful chances of our repenting and seeking forgiveness when old. Truly now is the accepted time, now was the day of salvation. A noble Christian life was the grandest thing on earth.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Sillsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

AN EXPLANATION.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I notice in Saturday's issue of the Review a letter in reference to "the Hospital," written in language so coarse—to the point of scurrility—in both its words and sentiments that I am surprised that a junior legal luminary, or according to his own estimate, an entire legal solar system, who lays claim to so much literary refinement and culture, could bring himself to its production. Like a local Don Quixote this gentleman always has his lance in rest to tilt with some imaginary evil—some windmill of his sportive fancy—like that he assails in the letter in question and since ill used children do not absorb all his sympathy he turns his attention to the adults. The point of attack is the refusal to admit an outside patient to the hospital—without the pay for her maintenance being guaranteed. The hospital is permanently endowed and its maintenance assisted by the contributions of the tax payer for the benefit of townspeople, and it would be to the last degree, unfair to admit free patients from outside places which are abundantly able to pay, to the detriment of our town afflicted. If the whole of the medical staff should recommend the free admission of a patient from, say, a rich township like Otonabee, the rules would not admit of it, and common sense would not endorse it either, for Otonabee is just as able as the town of Peterborough to pay for the treating of its sick; besides the limited capacity of the hospital forbids the wholesale admission of outside patients. If outside patients were admitted free the hospital would be filled to overflowing, and a town patient could never have a chance for admission. "Taxes" has struck a wrong cord if he thinks to gain the applause of the thinking ratepayers of the town for a proposal to tax themselves to relieve wealthy outside municipalities from paying for the treatment of their afflicted citizens. Indeed the chairman of the Hospital Board is rather to be commended for the stand he takes in this matter. While the ratepayers of the town are willing to tax themselves to maintain the hospital in the interest of themselves and fellow townsmen, they decidedly object to pay for the treatment of a "friendless" girl—(where are her kind-hearted employers?) from a family in whose service, according to the letter of "Taxes," she has fallen faint and exhausted from "overwork," and from a township abundantly able to pay for the treatment of their unfortunate sick. As to the scurrility elements of the letter, I shall make no reply—I turn that matter over to some fish-wife who may possibly do them justice.

Yours, etc.,
"JUSTICE."

THE FIRE BRIGADE AND FIRE INSURANCE.

The recent sensation in Fire Brigade circles has called public attention, which was previously aroused over recent arsons, to the question of the fire insurance rate of the town. Now that emphatic attention has been called to this matter, the town council should direct its efforts to the problem of re-organizing our Fire Brigade and system. For some time past there has been considerable friction between the council and some of the members of the Fire Brigade in regard to recent changes in the Fire Department, but that need not prevent the council from going a step further and making such changes as would place Peterborough, in insurance rating, in Class A, instead of Class B. And this can be done with a comparatively small expense. The town has now twenty paid firemen, of whom eighteen are paid $50 per year, the assistant chief $75 per year and the chief $100 per year. This is a total of $1,075.00. This equipment in the matter of amount paid to firemen does not fill the underwriters' requirements to place the town in class A. What we would suggest is that the town establish a fire brigade of six or seven firemen, whose whole time will be given to the fire hall and its duties. This can be done without any additional expenditure. These men whose whole time will be given to the town can save during the year over $100, now paid to special constables by acting in that capacity when required, and they could also take care of the town offices, thereby making an additional saving of $200 per annum which would about cover the increased expenditure. We have now three paid, whole-time men on the brigade and if the council will meet the wishes of the people by adding four more paid men, the brigade will then be on the footing required by the insurance corporations to entitle the town to rank in Class "A," and we believe will provide as complete and efficient service. Since the recent incendiary fires, we are in a position to know that the insurance companies have been considering the raising of the rates of insurance, which will be a serious matter for, especially, the business portion, as it would mean an increase of from $12,000 to $15,000 taken out of the town for insurance. As it is now, Peterborough people pay for the protection of their buildings and the property they shelter, about $50,000, and any increase in this rate would be a matter of serious moment. The advance of the town to Class "A" would reduce the annual amount paid, by at least $3,000, and, even if the town had to procure a chemical engine, would pay for it. We believe the town council would be supported, in establishing a paid brigade, by the citizens, who would feel that they were under no special obligations to a fire brigade inadequately paid, and some of whom feel doubtless at times that they devote too much time for the renumeration received, whereas a paid brigade would be maintained on a pure business basis.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON.

Four Members of the Fire Brigade Charged With Arson—Arraigned and Admitted to Heavy Bail.

On Saturday evening a decided sensation was created in fire brigade circles by the arrest of Ernest Hutchinson, Geo. Kincaid, M. Metheral and Archie Moore, all of whom occupy sleeping rooms in the fire hall, on a charge of arson in connection with the numerous incendiary fires that have lit the town within the past short time—felonously setting fire to the Royal Oak Hotel property, Hunter street, Nov. 21st. The arrest was the result of a quiet but exhaustive investigation, which was instituted by the Fire, Water and Light Committee. A detective and Police Constable Stewart were charged with working up the matter. They communicated the result of their investigations to the town solictor who handed the matter over to County Crown Attorney Wood, and the arrests as indicated above, are the result. At present it would be unfair to both the accused and the public interests to discuss the matter in connection with the former. The accused were admitted to bail, themselves in $2000 each and two sureties of $1000 each. The hearing of the charge takes place on Friday.

It may however be pointed out that within a short period their have been a large number of fires of undoubted incendiary origin. In nearly every case with one or two exceptions the properties fired have been of minor value. Beginning with the burning of the Duncan plastered house on Water street there followed the fire at the corner of Perry and Alymer streets, the burning of the Cameron stables, the burning of the Mrs. Barbino building, Hunter street, the fire at Mr. Phelan's property, Charlottee street, the fire in rear of China Hall, the Rathbun Agency fire and the burning of Mr. R. B. Lundy's warerooms on Bethune street. All these fires are regarded as of undoubted incendiary origin and there began to be a decided uneasiness only partially allayed by the prompt and ready subjection of the fires by the brigade, who provoked complimentary comments as to the quality of the work done. To allay this uneasiness the authorities instituted an investigation which has resulted in the truly surprising arrests made on Saturday evening, which were the last which would have been expected to be made on such a charge.

A MOVEMENT TO MEET A NEED.

Christian Co-operation and Earnest Devotion Strongly Urged.

Yesterday at the morning service in St. John's, the Rector, Rev. J. C. Davidson, gave an address upon the subject:—A present day Need and a present day Movement." There was a large congregation and a bright and cheerful service, particularly the singing. The preacher took his text from the third epistle of John: "We therefore ought to receive such that we might be fellow helpers to the truth." It was a wonderful fact that God had committed the keeping of His truth to His apostles and followers, and more remarkable that he has committed to a body, the Church, composed of divers classes and individualities, all of which were called upon, according to their talents and opportunities, to be fellow helpers of the truth. God called all men and women alike, clergy and laity, to be such fellow helpers to the truth. The church was not the mere monument of departed fellowship, power and victory over the world, but a congregation combined to be fellow-helpers of the truth. But Satan seemed to have captured the churches—he has persuaded the people that their responsibility ends with the perfunctory performance of their religious duties on their own account. The preacher pointed out to the congregation how much at variance this spirit was with their real duty and urged them to bring into the church a spirit of united helpfulness. Individualism had crept into the church to chill hearts that should be warm with the Holy Spirit. We should go to the word of God for and apply them. Religion should be a reality and exercise a definite power. This could be done by avoiding conformity with the world, by shaking off the shackles of passion and custom and taking place boldly as members of the church of God. The end was being effected through the agency of St. Andrew's Brotherhood, whose success did not lie not on the fact that 10,000 picked men were banded together. It lay in the truth that these men were animated by a different spirit than has been witnessed in the church in past years. The members trust one another, have an active fellowship one with another and realise that each had his definite responsibility and duty of fellowship and co-operation. This spirit should be practiced in the church. Every member, high or low, who enters it should feel in the atmosphere that he is not alone, that the whole congregation is behind him. St. Andrew's Brotherhood had revolutionized many churches of which examples were given. The speaker put it to the congregation to enquire if they had a fellowship, if they were living as memembers of one family? was their religion a mere name or a reality? The St. Andrew's Brotherhood involved putting into practice the simplest elements of church life—devoted, fervent, earnest, frequent, personal prayer and applying the rule of service—whatever you are our Lord asks for your personal service in His work—your definite action help and work. The application of these simple principles to the church as a whole was urged. Each should take the definite work—no matter how simple—for which he was fitted and not do it by himself but in conjunction with all the others. The community had a claim upon the church, which took too little interest in a great many public questions and movements. The preacher closed by urging his people to set themselves right under the banner of their king, devote themselves to the church and work for its interests with unity and fellowship.

In the evening Rev. C. B. Kenrick delivered an eanrest and logical sermon in the St. John's church mission along the same lines as that given by Rev. Mr. Davidson in the morning. The mission was crowded to the doors, quite one-half of those present being men. The singing, which has of late greatly improved under the effective direction of Mrs. J. S. Boswell, who has assumed charge of the organ which the uses in a really masterly manner, was a bright feature of the service.

The Lack Of Snow

Don't disturb our business one whit. Our measure book keeps piling up the orders for Suits and Overcoats just the same as if the snow was mountains high. Our customers, like sensible fellows, are looking ahead. The cold wave is coming and they know it, and they ain't going to wait until both lungs are frozen before they order warm winter clothing.

Take Pete's advice, you fellows that are waiting until it gets as cold as Greenland, and leave your measure on the spot. He can make you a Suit or Overcoat in 10 hours if you like. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

"PRICE!" to suit your purse. Men like bargains as well as women do—almost.

"FIT!" Well, we do love to see the man that's hard to fit come in our store.

"STUFF!" Yes, we've got the stuff in any kind of cloth you like. Always tasty and good. Now, catch on; only 4 weeks to Christmas.

"STYLE!" We are as familiar with the wants of our patrons as you are with your own door yard or the multiplication table.

STAR OF BETHLEHEM.

O star of wonder!
Star of Night!
O star of wondrous beauty bright!
Onward leading,
Still proceeding,
Guide us to that perfect Light.

The more others are untrue the more God needs loyalty in us.—Ram's Horn.

Every kindness done to others is a step nearer to the life of Christ.—Dean Stanley.

Thank God for sympathy; it has a wonderful power of turning keys in rusty locks.—N. Y. Observer.

A watchful soul is a soul upon the wing—a soul out of gunshot—a soul above the clouds.—Phillips Brooks.

Happiness is a sunbeam which may pass through a thousand bosoms without losing a particle of its original ray.—Sir Philip Sidney.

From David, learn to give thanks in everything. Every furrow in the Book of Psalms is sown with seeds of thanksgiving.—Jeremy Taylor.

A true faith can no more be separated from good works than the light of the candle can from the heat, or the heat from its light.—Chicago Standard.

Lost, yesterday, somewhere between sunrise and sunset, two golden hours, each set with 60 diamond minutes. No reward is offered, for they are gone forever.—Horace Mann.

A man who owes an honest debt ought to be willing in all honesty to give his note for that amount. And on the same principle of honesty, one who owes to God a service ought to be willing to pledge himself to render that service.—United Presbyterian.

If we wait until we have more than we want before beginning to give, we shall die without giving. But if we give out of our scanty portion to those whose need is greater than ours, we shall live as givers, and shall enjoy living. The man who gives from his surplus never knows the real joy of giving.—S. S. Times.

A PARABLE.

"Who sang that strain that thrilled my soul last night?"
Queried the King. His courtiers bowing low
Before the throne with gold and gems alight.
Answered him, musing: "Sire, we do not know.

"We heard the song. It echoes in our heart—
The singer from our vision passed away;
We deemed him only of his song a part—
And then—it is so long since yesterday!"

The singer heard, nor hearing felt regret;
What could it matter where their praise might fall?
The song, at least, they did not quite forget.
Naught is the singer, but the song is all.

MANTLES FOR LITTLE GIRLS.

In the way of juvenile warm garments for winter, permit me to recommend two mantles. One is for a little girl of from seven to twelve years of age. The material is silver grey cloth; belt, cuffs and front of either black or dark grey velvet, embroidered in silver grey silk, or the velvet only can be used instead. The hat is of black of dark grey velvet with silver grey wings and ribbon strings. The other little belle wears a mantle of a very warm and comfortable shape for the winter.

Hoods are coming in again, the big, shrouding and covering hood, that is of some good, and from the depths of which a girl looks so sweet and ungetatable. Why not call up the quaint old name of one of the dearest of these hoods. In Louis XIII time such hoods were worn, and they were called "Chaperons." Now, do you know, I think our word chaperone is of later date than the name of the hood. But at any rate, to call a hood so now would be to attach to it a pretty significance. What better chaperone, by the way, than a jealous hood, that will not let even a single hair out to be admired? And what chaperone so easily put aside? Just now and then, you know.

A sleeve, or rather a pair, made of strands of ribbon closely put into the armholes and then gathered into a wrist band, or into a band at the elbow, will give style and freshness to a party gown when the sleeves have to be taken out because they are old fashioned or worn. The same device put over the old sleeves, the ribbons being of contrasting colors will rejuvenate a whole costume. The fashion may easily be an extravagant one, but just as easily it may be turned to economical use.

FLORETTE.

Will Kill Consumption.

The Norwegian cod is destined to kill consumption. It has always been known that its oil, when properly prepared, contains all the potent elements for rebuilding wasting tissues in the human body. The difficulty has been to conserve the energies of the oil in its refining, and this has only been accomplished by the manufacturers of "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil." All who suffer with lung troubles, and of course all who are threatened with consumption, should take it. In big bottles, 50c and $1.00, at all Drug Stores.

News About Town.

It is the current report about town that Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs is making some remarkable cures with people who are troubled with Coughs, Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Any druggist will give you a trial bottle free of cost. It is guaranteed to relieve and cure. The large bottles are 50c. and $1.

Immigration in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The annual report of W. D. Owen, Superintendent of Immigration, shows that 579,663 emigrants arrived in this country during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1892; 2301 came in violation of law and were returned to their homes. Of this number 1763 were contract laborers.

The distressed condition of labor throughout Europe, the report asserts, tends to increase emigration to America, and the number of landings would have been increased enormously but for the restrictive features of the law of March 3, 1891.

Fired on Europeans.

TANGIER, Dec. 3.—Excitement was caused here yesterday by a Moorish police guard firing upon four Europeans, killing one and wounding another.

Robbery in Kingston.

KINGSTON, Dec. 3.—Yesterday morning a daring burglary was committed in John Marshall's residence, notwithstanding there were seven people asleep in the house. The burglars went upstairs and they carried a desk belonging to Mrs. Marshall, sr., downstairs to a shed at the rear. The desk being locked they had to pry it open and found inside $51.25. A bag containing a handsome gold watch was also in the desk, but they did not consider it safe to take jewelry.

Mr. Marshall's brother-in-law was first awakened by dogs barking and he called Mr. Marshall, who ran downstairs and found the back door open and the desk in the shed. The robbers could not be seen.

Indicted on Three Counts.

TAUNTON, Mass., Dec. 3.—Lizzie Borden has been indicted by the grand jury on three counts.

It is understood that Miss Borden will not be immediately arraigned to plead, but that the indictments will be served on her at her quarters in Taunton jail. She was notified to-day by friends of the return of the indictments by the grand jury, and is said to have preserved the same stolid demeanor which has marked her course during the trial.

An Overdue Steamer.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The steamship Spree, from Bremen, was 42 hours overdue at noon yesterday.

"When your heart is bad, and your head is bad, and you are bad clean through, what is needed?" asked a Sunday-school teacher of her class. "I know—Ayer's Sarsaparilla," spoke up a little girl, whose mother had recently been restored to health by that medicine.

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral

Has no equal for the prompt relief and speedy cure of Colds, Coughs, Croup, Hoarseness, Loss of Voice, Preacher's Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis, La Grippe, and other derangements of the throat and lungs. The best-known cough-cure in the world, it is recommended by eminent physicians, and is the favorite preparation with singers, actors, preachers and teachers. It soothes the inflamed membrane, loosens the phlegm, stops coughing, and induces repose.

AYER'S

taken for consumption, in its early stages, checks further progress of the disease, and even in the later stages, it eases the distressing cough and promotes refreshing sleep. It is agreeable to the taste, needs but small doses, and does not interfere with digestion or any of the regular organic functions. As an emergency medicine, every household should be provided with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Having used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, I can confidently recommend it for all the complaints it is claimed to cure. Its sale is increasing yearly with me, and my customers think this preparation has no equal as a cough cure."—S. W. Parent, Queensbury, N.B.

THAT SILVER PROBLEM.

ROTHSCHILD'S PLAN IS NOT GENERALLY ACCEPTABLE.

An American Asserts that Europeans Are Much More Interested Than Americans in the Working of United States Mines.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 3.—The report of the committee to the conference on the proposals submitted commenced by explaining that the opinions expressed are given on the individual responsibility of the members of the committee, and continues by setting forth that a necessary preliminary for a proper examination of any of the proposals was a precise understanding:

First, as to the legislative measures likely to be taken by the countries producing silver.

Second, existing probabilities of the future production of silver in the United States and Mexico.

Third, the policy of the United States as to the purchase of silver.

Fourth, the policy of India regarding the mintage of silver.

Regarding the first question, United States Delegate Henry W. Cannon stated that the question of limiting silver had been considered in the United States and it was recognized that under existing legislation there were no means for attaining that object and that the modification of the present law in that direction was improbable. The Federal Government had no direct or indirect interest in the working of the silver mines. European capitalists were, moreover, greatly interested in the American mines, making the problem more complicated.

The value of the silver extracted from the American mines was insignificant compared with the annual total of the general production.

Mexican Delegate Casseus, in behalf of the Mexican Government, declared that the production of silver in Mexico had perhaps reached the maximum.

As silver was the chief article of export it was not to the interest of the Government to interfere with the industry, and under the constitution no means existed to restrict the output or to prohibit its export.

Regarding the third question Mr. Cannon said that the American Democrats and Republicans, besides the great bankers, advised a repeal of the Silver Purchase Act of 1890.

Should the conference fail to make some disposition of the questions at issue it was more than probable that America would not be willing to continue the purchase of 54,000,000 ounces of silver annually.

India Wants Bi-Metallism.

Sir Guilford Molesworth, one of the delegates from India, in speaking on the fourth question said that while there was hope of an international entente India would hesitate to modify her present system.

The adoption of a gold standard in India, though difficult, would be attended by more disastrous results in gold-using countries than in India. The only satisfactory solution would be international bi-metallism, in which India would join with the Latin union and America.

Rothschild's Scheme Paltry.

CALCUTTA, Dec. 3.—The Calcutta Englishman attacks Rothschild's proposal and declares it to be too paltry to have great effect.

Beyond revealing the anxiety of the British Government to arrive at a settlement, the proposals are practically valueless.

ROTHSCHILD'S SCHEME.

The American Delegates Have Reported Liberalising Modifications.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Secretary Charles Foster said yesterday that he has private advices in regard to the proceedings of the International monetary conference at Brussels to the effect that the committee to which the Rothschild silver plan was referred has reported modifications, liberalising that plan, but that the conference has decided to first consider the general question of bi-metallism.

The secretary expressed his belief that the conference has already accomplished some good, but he would not commit himself on the subject.

It is learned from another source, however, that the American delegates to the conference are not altogether satisfied with the Rothschild plan and will endeavor to secure further concessions in the same direction.

Cured Sick Headache.

Mrs. D. A. Campbell, North Segrum, Ont., writes:— "I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly. My daughter was a terrible sufferer with sick headache for twelve months, and no medical aid could relieve her, but, by the use of two boxes of your Pills, she is completely cured." From all dealers or by mail at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50. Beware of imitations. Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Expel the worms by using the safe and reliable anthelmintic Freeman's Worm Powders,

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water on to the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c. and $1

MRS. MCARTHUR, Copleston, Ont.

What is Dadruff?

A disease of the scalp that causes falling of the hair, fading of the hair, in fact, death of the hair. It irritates the scalp and causes scales and eczematic eruptions—produces baldness. Bear in mind that Anti-Dandruff removes Dandruff with three applications—stops falling and restores fading hair to its original color. Sold by druggists at 75 cents per bottle.

Victoria Carbolic Salve is a great aid to internal medicine in the treatment of scrofulous sores, ulcers and abscesses of all kinds.

The action of Carter's Little Liver Pills is pleasant mild and natural. They gently stimulate the liver, and regulate the bowels, but do not purge. They are sure to please. Try them.

Blotches Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—In 1890 my body was covered with blotches and I was at last induced to try Burdock Blood Bitters by the time I had used 3½ bottles of it I was completely cured, and I cannot speak too highly of it.

THE BEST FAMILY PILL IN USE

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 15, 1892.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that [illegible] can use. Life is as the time-piece; [illegible] are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. P. ATWELL.

THE LEAKS ON A FARM.

The Small as Well as the Larger Matters Should be Carefully Watched.

Economy on a farm should never be obtained by half-cultivating, but by good management and a good arrangement of labor. Where the farm is the only source of income the amount paid in rent is a very considerable item and the farmer should always endeavor to get his rent reduced as much as possible if he does not own his own farm.

In the case of a farm there are few occupations in which there can be such constant leakage, and this occurs in small matters. While carefully looking after the large matters it is the small ones that should be most carefully watched. The good farmer must be a man of varied accomplishments and diversified knowledge. He must utilise his property for the purpose for which it is best adapted in order to secure the best results.

A very considerable amount of waste will occur through the use of improperly constructed buildings, or from a scarcity of them. For instance, cows should not be allowed to stand in yards where the water drips from the roofs without any system of drainage. A plethora of mud and discomfort is not calculated to increase either the yield or the quality of the cow's milk, and the expenditure of a small amount of money with a little labor, so as to carry off the rainfall, would be amply repaid.

Every large farm should have its own weighbridge. This is just as necessary as a barn if a farmer wishes to have any idea, based upon his own knowledge, of the quantity and value of the products that he ships to market. Otherwise he is entirely dependent upon the buyer for value received, and the buyers interest is naturally not that of the seller. Again in buying fertilizers, for instance, he will be able to know if he is receiving proper weight on the farm. The cost of a weighbridge on a large farm will soon pay for itself and yield a good rate of interest on the investment besides giving the farmer the satisfaction of knowing whether he is receiving full value for his money or full money for his value.

In the cultivation of the land there is very often considerable waste. It can be overtilled, plowed too deeply or plowed out of season, which involves a repetition of the work. There is also often waste in the matter of seed, some soils needing not nearly so much as others and here the farmer must study and judge for himself. The making of hay can probably afford as much opportunity for waste as anything else. Hay is often left to make itself. Waste occurs if it is left too long. When all the nourishment goes to form the seed, the grass is reduced to a condition of straw and nothing exhausts the land so much as allowing grass or clover to go to seed. The early cutting and quick making of hay are both points of economy.

In the purchase of fertilizers it is a waste of money to buy those that are not suited to the crop or the soil for which they are intended. Again in the purchase of feeds the cheapest in the end are those that give the best returns. It will also be found more economical to invest in a few planks, and properly repair the barn, than to be compelled to bury a valuable horse or cow that has died of pneumonia. Arrange all outside work carefully and systematically at night so as not to waste time in the morning when you ought to be doing it, because on every farm time is money, and it is money that makes the mare go.—Farm and Home.

Drafted Five Days.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The British steamer Cynthiana from Hamburg arrived last night, having on board Capt. Lorimer and his crew of 24 men of the steamer Lunedale, which sailed from Philadelphia Oct. 31 for Copenhagen and was found sinking in mid-ocean.

She had drifted five days with her engines broken down and leaking badly. She went down soon after all on board were rescued. She carried no passengers.

Hood's Sarsaparilla stands at the head in the medicine world, admired in prosperity and envied in merit by thousands of would-be competitors. It has a larger sale than any other medicine. Such success could not be won without positive merit.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring the peristalic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathatic.

"It Cured Mother."

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which [illegible]'s Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

National Pills are a mild purgative, acting on the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, removing all obstructions.

For any case of nervousness, sleeplessness, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia, try Carter's Little Nerve Pills. Relief is sure. The only nerve medicine for the price in market.

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

A FATAL JUMP.

A Young Commercial Traveler Killed at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Dec. 5.—The first fatal accident which has occurred on the Grand Trunk Railway in the vicinity of the station here occurred Saturday, Henry Melzar, a young man who has been in this city a week, meeting his death in trying to board a moving train. Melzar is a commercial traveler, his line of business being with the shoe trade. He arrived here on Saturday, Nov. 26, just one week ago to-day, and registered at the Royal Hotel.

Saturday he started for the station to board the 9.25 train for the west. As he got to the platform the train started. The platform was slippery after the night's rain and frost, but Melzar made a good run, and after passing two cars attempted to get upon the third—the car behind the smoker. He had a regular traveler's valise in his right hand, and with this hand he caught the hind hand rail, and at the same time catching at the front hand rail with his left hand he jumped for the step. It was a fatal leap. He missed the front hand rail, and having no support, he was swung around backwards between the two cars and fell.

The wheels of the car did not go over him, but he was terribly crushed diagonally across the stomach by being squeezed between the truck beams and the roadbed. His left arm was broken in three or four places and his head was bruised. The skin was not broken in any place. Deceased was a well-built, handsome and steady young man of about 28 or 30 years. He has no relatives here, and as far as is known this was his first business trip to this city.

The body was removed to Blachford's undertaking establishment, where it was identified by Mr. Hood. Deceased had left instructions at the hotel to have his mail forwarded to Elder P. Melzar, No. 628 Ridge-avenue, Evanston, Ill. A telegraphic message was at once sent to this address, carrying the terrible news. In his valise was found an envelope, judged, from a note across the front of it, to contain papers. It was addressed to Mrs. Henry G. Trickey, 34 Monadonck-street, Dorchester district, Boston, Mass. In the note on the face of the envelope was a reference to "Gertie," evidently a young girl and a relative. A portion of an envelope was also found, on the corner of which was the business address of the American Shoe Tip Company, Boston.

A Small Boy Accidentally Shoots Himself.

HAMILTON, Dec. 5.—A terrible accident occured early Saturday to a little boy named George Humphreys, son of Mr. Joseph Humphreys, who resides at 219 Picton-street east. The little fellow, who is only 5 or 6 years old, was playing with a loaded gun belonging to his father, and the weapon went off, the charge lodging in the lad's left thigh. An awful wound was the result, the gun being heavily loaded with buck shot. Some little time elapsed before medical aid could be procured. Dr. White was called through the telephone, but was not at his surgery. Subsequently he saw the injured boy, and it is feared that the injuries will prove fatal.

QUEBEC'S PREMIER.

Mr. Taillon May Be Asked to Form a Ministry for That Province.

MONTREAL, Dec. 5.—The provincial crisis consequent upon De Boucherville's resignation was fully discussed at a meeting of Conservatives here Saturday, and it was decided, in the event of Mr. De Boucherville's resignation being accepted, to appoint Mr. Taillon leader.

It is understood that Mr. Taillon will be asked to form a Ministry.

Leading Conservatives express the opinion that Mr. De Boucherville's resignation will strengthen the Government.

A BLOCK CREMATED.

Four Simcoe Business Men Suffering from the Fire Fiend.

SIMCOE, Ont., Dec. 5.—A serious fire occurred here yesterday about 4 o'clock, by which Perry's block was totally consumed. The losses are:

G. R. Perry, art gallery and building, $20,000, insurance $14,200; J. S. Collins, gents' furnishings, stock $3000, insurance $2000; O. Hendry, drygoods, stock badly damaged by water, insured for $5000; A. W. Smith, dentist, loss on furniture $200; Board of Trade rooms, total loss.

Suicide of a Jockey.

COLUMBUS, Ga., Dec. 5.—Bob Maynard, the well-known jockey, committed suicide here Saturday morning by shooting himself through the heart. Tom Grims, one of Maynard's friends, was reading a letter to him at the time concerning some property he had sold in Southwest Georgia. No cause for suicide is known. Maynard's body will leave for Atlanta by the 3.45 train to-day.

Robbed the Poor Boxes.

KINGSTON, Dec 5.—Burglars resumed work Saturday. McDonell's music store suffered to the extent of about $100 and the poor boxes in St. Mary's Cathedral were broken open and robbed of their contents. No arrests made.

Charged With Incest.

ROCKWOOD, Ont., Dec. 5.—John Carter, the constable, was arrested yesterday on a charge of incest, laid by his eldest daughter Sarah. He was tried by Squire Strange and sent up to stand his trial. Acting Constable Soper conducted him to Guelph jail.

WANTED TO DIE

An Immigrant Woman Refuses Food Because She Is Not Allowed to Remain in the United States.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—At the immigrant station on Ellis Island is a pale-faced, hump-backed woman, who seems bent on starving herself to death. She is Christina Schoefferberger and 48 years old.

She arrived last Wednesday, and since then has steadfastly refused to take any food. She said, "There is no more peace for me in this world, and I might as well die now as I must die going back over the ocean."

She is to be sent back on Tuesday on the steamer Westernland, by order of Col. Weber. She came here with her man, Knepper, to act as his housekeeper. The man was allowed to land, but she was barred.

A Plain Funeral for Gould.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—It was decided Saturday to have the funeral services of Jay Gould at the house this afternoon at 4 o'clock. There will be no pallbearers and no addresses. After the service the friends of the family will have an opportunity to view the body in the front parlor on the 47th-street side. The casket has been prepared. It is of plain oak, covered with black broadcloth, and having oxydized silver handles and an oxydized silver plate. A number of telegrams of condolence have been received by the family.

Captured the Desperadoes.

GRAND FALLS, Mont., Dec. 5.—Four of the desperadoes who held up the Great Northern train Tuesday near Malta were captured yesterday. They are Alexander Black, Henry Bass, W. C. Hunt and W. T. Baugh.

THE BATTLE OF FREEDOM

SAID TO BE WON BY MODERN BIBLICAL CRITICISM.

The Actual Trial of Dr. Briggs for Heresy Commenced—He Believes in a Middle State After Death, But Not in Purgatory.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The actual trial of Dr. Briggs was begun here yesterday. Col. McCook of the Prosecuting Committee read extracts from the second edition of Dr. Briggs' inaugural address and introduced in evidence the confession of faith, the Bible, the catechisms and other documents to be used during the hearing.

Then Dr. Briggs read a statement telling what he had to present against the evidence of the prosecution. He offered in evidence the Holy Scriptures and the standards of the Presbyterian Church, from which he quoted at length.

Dr. Briggs declared that he did not believe in purgatory according to the teachings of the Catholic Church. He also rejected the Armenian doctrine of sanctification after death. He did believe, however, in a middle state, for the Bible, he said, did not teach that a man was sanctified immediately after death.

In speaking of the divine and human authority of the Bible Dr. Briggs said:

The Bible is the Word of God and its authority is divine authority that determines the life and faith of man. Biblical scholars have been long held in bondage to eccles asticism and dogmatism, but modern Biblical criticism has won the battle of freedom.

On all sides it is asked, not what do the creeds teach, what do the theologians say, what is the authority of the church; but what does the Bible itself teach us?

Dr. Briggs occupied nearly all the afternoon in reading his paper.

A BIG DEAL

The Sandwich, Windsor and Amherstburg Road to Exchange Owners.

WINDSOR, Dec. 6.—The Sandwich, Windsor and Amherstburg Railway will in all probability change hands before many days go by.

The deal is on and its consummation is a mere matter of time. At present there is a difference of $2500 between the parties, but as each has been giving and taking in the matter the sale will undoubtedly be made.

The price at which the present company offer the road is $160,000, while the prospective purchasers are willing to give $157,500.

When negotiations were opened they offered $150,000, but the railway company refused to look at less than $163,000. Since then the company have dropped $5000 and the other parties to the deal made a corresponding raise.

Since then they have agreed to split the difference and their offer now is $157,500.

As to the composition of the company who wish to obtain the road the full facts are not known. William Gibson of Beamsville, Ont., M.P. for Lincoln, is the prime mover, and with him are associated William Hendrie of Hamilton and presumably the Hendries of Detroit street railway fame.

A GRAND FINALE.

Lizzie Borden's Friends Came Up at the Eleventh Hour.

BOSTON, Dec. 6.—In The Globe yesterday one of the grand jury men is reported as saying that the Attorney General and District Attorney were so worked up over the abuse and vilification to which they were subjected in the Borden case that they sent for Andrew J. Jennings, counsel for the defence, and asked him to put the evidence for the defence and he did so.

Mr. Knowlton sat back and took no part in the matter, but left it to the jurors to ask questions.

"The Government witnesses," said the juror, "acted as if they wanted to believe Lizzie Borden innocent. The witnesses for the defence, however, came in, testified freely and handled truth carelessly."

At the eleventh hour the friends of Lizzie Borden came up and told what clinched the case in the minds of the jurors.

H. G. Trickey's Death.

FALL RIVER, Dec. 6.—News of the death of Henry G. Trickey, the reporter who wrote up the Borden case, and who was killed at Hamilton, Ont., on Saturday, causes much comment in this city as to the outcome of the indictment said to have been found against him.

To-day one of the grand jurors stated that Mr. Trickey's death would not produce any effect on the indictment and that there were other parties concerned.

FOOTPADS AND SUCH.

It Looks as if St. Louis is Getting a Haven for Toughs.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 6.—Within a week there have been daylight highway robberies and scores of hold-ups, or attempted hold-ups, at night.

Yesterday at Broadway and Washington-streets Thomas Houlihan was stopped at an early hour by three men, two of whom have since been arrested. The street was crowded at the time.

A little later Frank Glinder was held up in Fifteenth-street and gave up a watch and about $10 in cash.

WHILE AT LUNCH.

A New York Editor a Victim of Heart Disease.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—While taking lunch in a restaurant this afternoon Louis Neumann, managing editor of the German edition of The Daily News, died suddenly of heart disease.

He was 45 years old and has been well known in German journalism in this city since he was a young man.

A SWINDLER'S RETURN.

How the Former Toronto Broker Was Traced Through Europe.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—A. T. Kerr, the former Toronto broker, whose arrest in Liverpool for swindling the Jarvis Conkling Mortgage Trust Co. of Kansas City, of which he was head bookkeeper, has been reported, arrived in New York yesterday on the Aurania in charge of Detective Bowman of Chicago.

The landing of the pair marked the end of an exciting chase extending over a considerable part of America and Europe. When Kerr disappeared last March and with him $30,000 of the Jarvis Conkling Mortgage Company's money, Detective Bowman was instructed to find him. After a search in the United States the detective went to Europe. A month's work in England and he had no clue. Then he crossed to France, and in Paris he heard of the object of his journey. Bowman chased his prey all over Sweden from town to town. He finally lost track of him and for two months could get no trace of him. While in Paris he again got a clue of his man, this time from Monte Carlo, the famous gambling resort. The detective immediately went there, but just reached the place in time to learn that Kerr had left, having won £1000 the night before. The Chicagoan pressed for another chase. He traced his man to Versailles, to Berlin, to Brussels again, and to Paris. It seemed that as the detective went in one side Kerr went out the other. Finally Bowman got authentic news that the man had crossed the channel. The detective reached London the day of the Derby and went down to the race. Kerr was there, but Bowman could not find him. It was not until three months later that the inspector placed his hands upon Kerr, and the long search was brought to an end. He caught him in Liverpool, and it is said that Scotland Yard had a hand in the final capture.

SHORT WEIGHT.

An Ingenious Scheme to Rob the Customers of a Coal Company.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—The arrest of Thos. Addison, 125 Agnes-st., last night for receiving a bag of coal stolen from R. C. Gibson is believed by the police to satisfactorily explain the reason why numerous citizens of late have been suspicious that when they ordered a ton of coal they did not receive 2000 lbs.

Detective Harrison learned that a carter named Macdonald, in the employ of the Conger Coal Company, was in the habit when delivering coal in bags to retain one bag in his cart and drive off with it. He notified the company, with the result that Macdonald was watched, and after he had delivered Mr. Gibson's coal the wagon was searched at the stable and a sack of coal found. Macdonald was accused of the theft, but took to his heels. He was captured by Detective Harrison late last night, however. Thomas Addison, the owner of the horse and wagon, came out and it is alleged tried to settle. He was promptly arrested as a receiver.

DAVIDSON'S EXTRADITION.

The Governor-General Wires the British Minister to Mexico to Expedite Matters.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—Some time ago Charles E. Davidson was arrested in Mexico on a charge of obtaining about $10,000 from the Bank of Hamilton at Hamilton by discounting forged orders for nursery stock. Detective Murray, who is trying to get him back, has written to the provincial authorities complaining of what he considers unnecessary delay in the extradition proceedings. The Lieut.-Governor of Ontario represented the matter to the Governor-General and on Saturday His Excellency telegraphed to Sir Spencer St. John, British Minister to Mexico, asking him to use his good offices to expedite the extradition in so far as it was proper to do so.

KICKED BY A HORSE.

Accident to a Young Lad Which May Prove Fatal.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Harry Williams, a six-year-old lad, was kicked by a horse belonging to J. Puddy, milk-dealer in Gerrard-street east. The horse had been unhitched from the wagon and was being led into the stable when the lad ran up to it and was knocked six or seven feet by the kick the horse gave him. The little fellow was carried to the residence of Dr. Bray, 288 Gerrard-street. The physician found a portion of the skull one and a half inches long and half an inch wide crushed in. When this was removed the membrane inside was seen to be intact and the brain uninjured. The boy returned to consciousness during the operation, and this gives the doctor hope that he may survive the accident, though in that case the brain will have to be protected with a silver plate. The boy was the youngest son of Frank Williams, the Colborne-street pickle manufacturer.

SUDDEN DEATH.

A Former Toronto Citizen Found Dead in Bed.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—Mrs. Joseph Dundas of this city received a telegram last evening announcing that her brother, Dr. Jonas Jones, formerly of Toronto, had been found dead in bed at Rochester.

Deceased, who was born in Canada in 1837, had been for many years the leading physician of Rochester. He was a member of the Park Commission, Vice-President of the Trustee Board of the Mechanics' Institute and President of the Humane Society.

MORE DISMISSALS.

Off Go the Heads of Another Batch of C.P.R. Conductors.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—Several more Canadian Pacific Railway conductors having runs between Toronto and Detroit have received their conge during the past few days as the result of the trip of a spotter over the road, and rumor has it that the basket still yawns for more heads.

It was reported that the removals were the result of an investigation into the smuggling of Chinamen across the border, but there is no truth in this report.

ANOTHER NEWSPAPER.

A New Provincial Organ For the Irish Catholics.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—It is understood that a company is in process of formation to commence the publication early next year of a new newspaper devoted to the Irish Catholic element. The scheme is to absorb Bro. Boyle's Irish-Canadian and The Catholic Review. The necessary capital has already been subscribed.

Bro. Boyle, when spoken to about the new venture yesterday, said: "It would be premature to say anything about the matter just now. See me again."

Gold in Newfoundland.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—A private despatch received by a Toronto capitalist yesterday states that Newfoundland copper ore contains a good percentage of gold. From that mined at Tilt Cove this year $50,000 worth of gold was extracted, and the company now, finding the news has become public, are working up the refuse copper at the works, thinking to make it pay. Speculators are much excited over this discovery, which presages a boom in mining operations.

Blaine Recovering.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Mr. Blaine is making good progress towards complete recovery.

OFFICIALS IN TROUBLE.

ALDERMAN OF HALIFAX IN A PRETTY PICKLE.

The Board of Works Have Conducted a General System of Lax Account-Keeping For Years—Instances of Bungling.

HALIFAX, N.S., Dec. 6.—At a meeting of the city Board of Works yesterday exposures were made which will no doubt lead to a civic scandal.

It came out that for years the business of the department has been conducted without any system of proper bookkeeping, no regular cash book being used, and a general system of looseness the rule.

Many thousand dollars are annually expended by the board, nearly all the public works of the city being conducted through it.

There is no charge of boodling so far, but an investigation will be held.

Accounts have been paid twice, money paid has not been credited and innumerable instances of other bungling, if not something worse.

THE PAPAL DELEGATE.

He Has Not the Authority of a Pope In the American Church.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Mgr. Satolli authorizes the following statement in reference to the Baltimore despatch of yesterday morning:

"The report is not exact. It is true that by letters dated from the beginning of last month I have received authority to examine and decide without appeal the controversies arising between bishops and priests, etc., in the United States. It is absurd to ascribe to me the place and authority of a pope in the American Church."

As to Cardinal Gibbons, for whom the Apostolic delegate entertains the highest veneration and a special affection, he preserves all the dignity and authority which belong to his office. There is no reason for surprise in this case, as the Pope is accustomed to send delegates from time to time to various countries on similar missions and with similar powers.

DEATH IN A CELLAR.

Whisky Made His Foothold Insecure and He Plunged Headlong to the Bottom.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—Richard Lockhart, an ex-soldier in the British Army, went to the Central Lodging House, 66 Jarvis-street, last night when under the influence of liquor and was refused lodgings. He went away, but soon returned and started down stairs to the sitting room. When about half way down he lost his footing and fell the rest of the way. The back of his head struck the floor and he was unconscious when picked up. He was taken to the Hospital, when an examination of his injuries showed that the base of the skull was fractured. At an early hour this morning he was no better. The injured man was formerly employed by Morton & Co., 3 Adelaide-street east.

WRECKERS OF TRAINS.

Make an Ineffectual Attempt to Throw a Passenger Train.

ERIE, Pa., Dec. 6.—The Erie accommodation on the Philadelphia and Erie Railway last night was running at a 45-mile rate when, two miles west of Langdon, the engineer detected an obstruction.

He got his train down to a 10-mile rate before he struck the obstruction. Three ties, which had been placed in a most ingenious manner across the track, failed to derail the engine entirely.

The trainful of passengers was severely shaken up, but none were seriously injured.

UNCLE SAM'S DEFENCES.

He Will Spend a Million and a Half More On His Army.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The estimates submitted by the Secretary of the Treasury for the support of the army during the fiscal year of 1894 call for $25,922,955, a million and a half more than the appropriation for the fiscal year of 1893.

U. S. Estimates.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The Secretary of the Treasury yesterday transmitted to Congress the estimates of appropriations required for the service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894.

The total estimates are $421,612,215, being $12,003,522 more than estimates and $1,649,753 less than the appropriations for the present fiscal year.

Included in the above statement are the figures relating to every branch of the Government. The estimates for pensions are $166,831,350, being $19,766,800 more than the estimates and $12,033,482 more than the appropriations for the current fiscal year.

Extradition Refused.

ALBANY, N.Y., Dec. 6.—United States Commissioner Frothingham has decided that William Ferguson, alias Oscar Hopkins, whose real name is now given as Oscar Tammann, cannot be extradited by the Canadian Government on account of defective papers. June 30, 1887, he was convicted of forgery and sentenced to 10 years. Dec. 24, 1889, he escaped. In Aug., 1890, the amendment to the treaty was enacted and he cannot be extradited.

He has served a term in the Albany Penitentiary for flim-flaming.

A New Pest.

BRIDGETON, N. J., Dec. 6.—The farmers in some of the lower counties of this state are greatly exercised over the appearance of an insect found imbedded in the wheat and corn kernels, which threatens its destruction.

In Cumberland and Salem counties the pest has developed alarmingly and the entire contents of many corn cribs and wheat bins have been found possessed by the little stranger.

Erie Canal Transportation.

ALBANY, Dec. 6.—Superintendent Hanson of the State Department of Public Works said yesterday afternoon that eastbound boats on the Erie Canal were moving along and he thought that all but a few would get through to tide water.

At the request of mill owners of Rochester the water will not be drawn off the section between Rochester and Lockport until Dec. 10, in order that the 20 boats at Rochester loaded with grain may be unloaded.

Working Up a Stampede.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 6.—The gold excitement in the Sul Hills east of here continues at a high pitch. Outbound trains carry hundreds of persons who are going to prospect in an endeavor to locate a claim. Several hundred tons of valuable ore were taken out yesterday, and it all showed the same high grade as in former tests.

MANY MOMENTOUS MATTERS

ENGAGE THE ATTENTION OF THE CIVIC LEGISLATORS.

The Waterworks Purchase—Bequest of Mrs. Nicholls for Public Parks—An Inquest to be Held in the Cause of the Recent Fires—Mason vs. Town of Peterborough to be Appealed—A Taxpayer's Grievance—Minor Affairs, Reports and Communications.

At a regular meeting of the town council held last night, the Mayor presided, and all the members were in their places.

LETTERS AND COMMUNICATIONS.

After routine the following communications were presented:

Mr. E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, wrote in reference to the case of Mr. McDonald vs. the town of Peterborough, as follows:

"This case was tried yesterday before Mr. Justice Falconbridge at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, and at the close of the argument judgment was given dismissing the motion; costs to be costs in the case on the suggestion that if on the ice melting in the the spring deposit of sewage might be found so be injurious, the judge directed that the dismissal of the motion should be without prejudice to the motion being renewed if there appeared to be danger to the health of the plaintiff or his family. Relying upon the evidence of Mr. MacDougall and others, there seems to be little ground for apprehension on this score. The effect of this judgment is that the town is at liberty until the trial of the action to deposit the sewage from the Edison Works into the river as proposed. If then it can be shown to be injurious to the health of the plaintiff, the further discharge at this point may be restrained. In showing cause to the motion the fact was emphasized that this was only a temporary measure until the main outfall sewer should be constructed, and the decision went largely upon this ground, and in order to succeed at the trial, which will take place next spring, it will be of the greatest service to be able to show that steps are being taken for the construction of the main outfall sewer during the summer of 1893.—Received.

From E. B. Edwards, enclosing form of by-law to appoint places for holding elections, etc., viz', the election of election of mayor and councillors and members of the school board for 1893.—Received.

DESIROUS OF BUILDING THE ROAD.

The following letter was read from the Canadian General Electric Works:

We are desirous of obtaining the franchise for exclusive right of operating street railway in the town of Peterborough, and the right to erect poles on any streets where it may be necessary for the stringing of wires for the distribution of electric current. Please give the matter your consideration and let us hear from you as to the terms for agreement which could be arrived at between your council and our company.—Refered to Special Committee on Street Railways.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RESOLUTION.

MR. J. R. COBB.

DEAR SIR,—Please express to the councillors of the town of Peterborough the sincere thanks of myself and family for their kind sympathy in my recent bereavement, also for their feeling appreciation of my late husband's services during the brief period he was among them.

G. FERGUSON.

Peterborough, Dec. 5th, 1892.

—Received.

THE CASE WILL BE APPEALED.

Mr. Town Solicitor Edwards in reference to the suit of Mason vs. Peterborough says in his communication:

"The motion on behalf of the town to enter a non-suit was heard before the Divisional Court, on 29th November, and was dismissed with costs. The case is thus sent back to be tried again before a jury at the Spring Assizes unless the council shall deem it a wise course to appeal from this judgment. In my opinion the case should be carried to appeal, and my reason for this opinion is that the higher courts—the Supreme Court especially—have decided that not only is a municipality not bound to answer for a trifling difference in level, but also that a person who knows of the defect complained of, and who in broad daylight thoughtlessly steps into danger is guilty of contributory negligence and is therefore not entitled to recover damages, and against this there is the fact that juries are as a rule inclined to find verdicts rightfully or wrongfully against municipalities."

Mr. Mulhern was in favor of settling with Mr. Mason if possible and not put the town to any more costs.

Mayor Kendry was in favor of referring the matter to the Finance Committee to deal with it.

Mr. Best said the question of a precedent was at issue and a far greater one than the one of costs in relation to the town. He was in favor of fighting the trouble to the end.

Mr. Dennistoun said it was a new point in municipal law regarding the defect of a depression of ¾ of an inch in a side walk and this was the point which Mr. Edwards wanted to test.

The matter was dropped by Mr. Dennistoun moving, seconded by Mr. Meldrum that the town solicitor obtain the advice of counsel (Mr. Christopher Robinson's name being suggested) regarding the matter of appealing the decision of the Divisional Court to the Supreme Court, and abide by the decision of such counsel—Carried.

TWO SEPARATE TAX BILLS DEMANDED.

A communication was read from Dr. Hugh Spears stating, that being assessed erroneously and excessively for lot No. 22, Homewood Avenue before he either became an owner or a resident in this municipality, the county judge reduced and changed the assessment to the proper owners who had assumed the entire responsibility for said taxes, yet on the 11th inst the writer received a combined tax bill for 337 George street and said lot 22, which error he wanted rectified without seeking higher authority again.

On motion Dr. Spears was heard. He said his communication contained all he had to say in the matter. He asked the tax collector for a separate bill for 337 George street and was refused. Mr. Cobb told him that the solicitor would not allow him to give a separate bill. The speaker continuing said the taxes on Howewood Avenue would have to be collected by distress. He wanted a tax bill for 337 George street, which taxes he was bound to pay.

Mr. Dennistoun said Dr. Spears had evidently got in to some legal tangle and wanted the council to get him out of it.

Dr. Spears—No, I have not. I am here for justice, and justice I will have.

Mr. Bradburn moved, if not contrary to the town solicitor's opinion, that Dr. Spears be given a separate tax bill as desired. Mr. Mulhern seconded this motion.

Mr. Dennistoun thought that Dr. Spears should pay the taxes on both places in one bill, just the same as with two separate sheets.

Messrs. Dawson and Meldrum said they were assessed seperately for all their properties.

Mr. Dennistoun explained that property holders owning all their land in one ward received one bill, but if in separate wards received seperate bills.

Mr. Bradburn moved, seconded by Mr. Kelly, that the tax collector be instructed to issue two tax slips to Dr. Spears.

Mr. Dennistoun moved in amendment that the tax collector be instructed to issue separate tax bills to all who applied for them.

Mr. McIlwain seconded this motion.

The Mayor was inclined to refer the matter to the town solicitor and abide by his decision.

Mr. Cahill moved in amendment to the amendment, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that in the case of the application from Dr. Spears for separate tax bills, the clerk be instructed to ascertain from the town solicitor whether there is any legal objection to granting the request, if not the same be granted.

Messrs. Bradburn and Dennistoun withdrew their motions in favor of Mr. Cahill's, which was carried.

AN INVESTIGATION SOLICITED.

Mr. R. E. Wood, County Crown Attorney, wrote suggesting the advisability of ordering an inquest to ascertain the origin of the late fires. It appeared that more light would be got in this way than in any other, as it was a court of discovery.—Received.

A LIBERAL POLICY.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always gives rise to dissatisfaction and disputes, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

WANT THEIR TAXES REMITTED.

A big batch of communications were read asking that their taxes for 1892 be remitted. J. W. Bennett, on behalf of the Y. M. C. A., John Robertson, Hugh Reilly (dog tax), W. M. Savigny (statute labour tax), E. Phelan, James H. Savigny, Eliza Byrns, Charlotte Scott, Barnardo Home, Robt. Morrow, Mrs. Jas. Noble, Margaret Jinks and others.—Referred to Court of Revision.

On motion of Mr. Dawson, seconded by Mr. Winch, the request of Mrs. Allen Rogers, Murray street, for remission of taxes was granted.

From Mrs. M. A. Griffin asking that the tax on $400 income of her late husband, Joseph Griffin, and $100 personal property—$500 in all, be remitted. Mr. Davidson moved, seconded by Mr. Mulhern that the request be granted—Carried.

From LePlante & Letellier calling attention to wrongful assessment of $1,000 on market stall (No. 2 Ward.)—Court of Revision.

From Rev. J. E. Trotter re wrongful assessment of $300 too much on income—Court of Revision.

THE DICKSON CO. AND RINK STREET.

From E. B. Edwards stating that at the request of Mr. Cahill, chairman of the Street and Bridge Committe he had written to Mr. Hazlitt re Race street and bridge over the race again asking him for information in regard to these and asking if the company was prepared to register proper plans and have the street assumed by the council and also asking what arrangement the company is prepared to make, if any, as to the numerous bridges over flumes and cuttings—including the race in question—made by the company for their own purpose. Mr. Edwards further states that no reply has been received and that he cannot make a report to the committee until he hears from Mr. Hazlitt.—Received.

The usual installment of accounts were presented and referred to the Finance Committee, after which Mr. chairman Dennistoun presented the recommending that the following accounts be paid :—

J. R. Stratton, $50.95 ; G. D. Mitchell & Son, $10; Jas. English, $13.21; McKee & Davidson, $24.67; Kingan & Co., $23.-23; M. Martyn, $9; Stapleton & Elcombe, $26; W. H. Quinlan, $8.75; W. Detcher, $6.75; F. Mason, $25; H. Carveth, $6.50; T. E. Boddy, C.P.R., $2.01; A. McDonald, $2; Cox & Davis, $3.75; Mrs. E. Dunsford, $6; Alex Elliott, $7.05; T. Williams, $2.50; J. R. Stratton $1.50; W. Brundrete, G.T.R., $1; R. H. Green $10.75; Walter Stocker, $3.25; Jas. Edgcombe, $18.75; J. H. Yelland, 18.05; Peterborough L. & P. Co. $34.48; E. A. Peck, $2; W. Caldwell, $7 ; John Aamstrong, $10.00. The report also recommended that $35.00 be paid to Mr. E. B. Edwards as per demand, being arbitration fees agreed to be paid by the town in reference to extension of proposed sewer through the township of Monaghan, also the further sum of $85.35, being disbursements as per statement of account rendered in suits of Mason vs. Peterborough and McDonald vs. Peterborough.

With reference to the application of W. H. Moore on behalf of the C. P. R. railway company respecting a proposed settlement of certain outstanding matters pertaining to real estate between the company and the town, the committee recommended that no further action be taken with reference thereto by the council The report also stated that as required under the by-laws, the town officials were requested to give security ; they had examined their respective bonds and approved of the same.

The report was on motion adopted.

THE FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT

report was presented by Mr. Chairman Meldrum, stating that they had advertised for tenders for town snow ploughing (the names of the tenders have already appeared in the EXAMINER), and had awarded the tenders for the northern district to John Hoban for $80, and to Wm. Breckenridge for $87.50 for southern district. These gentlemen have furnished satisfactory security for the performance of their contracts. The report was on motion adopted.

ON BEHALF OF HEALTH COMMITTEE.

Mr. Chairman Dawson reported verbally saying he had called a meeting of the Health committe together and they decided to postpone the employment of two scavengers for this year owing to the lateness of the season. The health authorities were advised to go ahead do what they could though in keeping the town in a satisfactory sanitary condition.

THE CHARITY REPORT

was presented by Mr. Chairman Winch stating that the amount of relief disbursed during the months of October and November amounted to $218.70, apportioned as follows : No. 1, $75.00 ; No. 2 (October only) $49 ; No. 3, $34.50 ; No. 4, $60.25.

Mr. Winch added by way of postcript that the sum of $75.00 was not dispensed solely to the inhabitants of No. 1 ward. While Mr. Young was away he dispensed charity in No. 2 Ward during the month of October, and this amount was included in the sum applied to No. 1 Ward.

Mr. Dawson said that a large number of people were sent to the Charity Committee by ratepayers for charity. These people never paid a cent of taxes, were non-residents of the town, and it was unfair. Strangers should not be advised by neighbors to go to the council for support. It was not right, and caused the large expenditure each month, thereby raising the taxes.

The report was, on motion, adopted.

A LIVELY DISCUSSION OVER WATER-WORKS PURCHASE.

Mr. Best asked Mayor Kendry what he had to communicate re purchase of waterworks by the town, if he had no information he pressed the adoption of report as left over two months since awaiting the communication of the Mayor to be given on the subject.

Mayor : "There is a great deal of information to collect yet. I didn't wish to shuffle with the matter. It is an important question and the committee should have all the information they could get. I would call a special meeting to consider the matter."

Mr. Best still asked the Mayor to disclose the information he had if he had any at all.

Mayor Kendry—"The committee want to sift a question of this nature thoroughly, Mr. Best."

Mr. Best—I press my motion.

Mr. Meldrum said the committee thought the question should be submitted to the ratepayers at the forthcoming municipal election. It was a supreme question and should be left to the people to answer it at the ballot box whether they were in favor of the waterworks being owned by the corporation or not.

Mr. Best maintained that the rates in Peterborough were three times as high to-day as they were in Toronto. He contended the sooner that Peterborough owned her own waterworks the better. In Peterborough they paid 35 cents per 1,000, while in Toronto ratepayers only paid 12½ cents. That was the difference.

Mayor Kendry said he did not think a man who had put his money in the waterworks had got a cent out. It would not pay without a sewerage system in connection.

Mr. Meldrum said if the works were not purchased before the new dam was completed the town would have to purchase the dam in connection with the deal. The dam, however, could not be completed this winter. Their was no hurry in consequence. Mr. Meldrum moved that it be left to ratepayers to decide as he had previously intimated.

Mr. Best—You are shirking the question.

Mr. Meldrum—No sir, I am not.

Mr. Best -- You were one of the hottest men 3 or 4 months ago for the purchase of waterworks."

Mr. Dennistoun said a carefully prepared report should be up before the council on their statuatory meeting on the 15th inst. This information should be put in the hands of the ratepayers. They could not be expected to pass an intelligent opinion knowing nothing of the transaction.

Mr. Best "I still press the adoption of the committee's report.

The Mayor—"I had it left over so as to investigate. We want to consider an important question like this carefully."

Mr. Best declared that Brockville by a vote of 701 to 26 had taken over the waterworks plant. He did not want to wait until a speculative dam was built first. The sooner the ratepayers took the plant over the better it would not cost $1 more to take it over to-day than six months hence.

Mr. Mulhern said Mr. Meldrum had apparently gone back on the waterworks scheme and in assisting Mr. Best in the matter.

Mr. Meldrum—I have not gone back on Mr. Best of any body else. The council nor town have not a sufficient amount of information regarding the question of costs or plant, to take the system over now. The waterworks have not paid a dividend but—

Mr. Dennistoun—They have paid a dividend of 6 per cent for six times.

Mr. Bradburn—How long.

Mr. Dennistoun—On behalf of certain clients of mine for whom I act I may say three half years.

Mr. Meldrum said the company were constantly adding to their plant anyway and so increasing the valuation of their property.

Mr. Best—How are we going to get this information? I am sure the Waterworks Company will not give it to us.

The Mayor—You are out of order. You have spoken half-a-dozen times to-night.

Mr. Best—You are trying to shuffle the question.

Mr. Dennistoun moved that the Fire, Water and Light Committee be requested to report to the council re assumption of waterworks by the town, at the next meeting to be held on Dec. 15th. Mr. Meldrum seconded the motion. which was carried.

Mr. Dennistoun introduced the first reading of a bylaw, entitled Bylaw No. —, to appoint the places for holding the elections, and the deputy returning officers to preside thereat, in elections of mayor, councillors and members of the Board of Education for the town of Peterborough for the year 1893.

The bylaw was read a second and third time and passed.

The various polling places and deputy returning officers were as follows :

Ward No. 1—Mission School House building, 292 Dalhousie street ; Joseph Lundy, Deputy Returning Officer.

Ward No. 2—Market building, Chas. Cameron Deputy Returning Officer.

Ward No. 3—Shop of J. & W. Metheral, Aylmer street; John Irwin, Deputy Returning Officer.

Ward No. 4—Wm. Lee's shop, Smith street ; F. Mason, Deputy Returning Officer.

NEW PANTS FOR THE POLICE.

Moved by Mr. Kelly, seconded by Mr. Young that the committee on Supervision of Police be requested to ask for tenders for winter pants for the police force and report to this council. —Carried.

THE NICHOLL'S BEQUEST FOR PUBLIC PARKS.

Mr. Dennistoun said he had a public matter of great importance to bring before the council. He observed Mr. Richard Hall present and any remarks he had to make he (Mr. Dennistoun) wanted to state them openly. The speaker held in his hand a copy of the will of the late Mrs. Nicholls and read that clause of the will dealing with the bequest of $60,000, to be used in beautifying and purchasing public parks, etc., for the citizens of the town. This was a clause, said the speaker for which every ratepayer was truly grateful to the late Mrs. Nicholls. He, as a ratepayer of the town and as a councillor, without wishing to arrogate any authority to himself in the matter, thought it was in his power to ask information from the executors of the will in reference to the bequest to the town. He had done so several times and received no satisfactory answer. During the day he called upon Mr. Hall in the interest of the matter of which he was now speaking. Mr. Dennistoun related the circumstances of the interview which had taken place. Mr. Dennistoun continuing said it appeared that the trustees took the ground that they could not give this money legally to the town of Peterborough and the point had also been raised as to whether the town could accept the bequest. The speaker said he had understood that Peterborough was indebted to Mrs. Nicholls and not to anybody else for the parks. True, the trustees were to have time to consider the will, but they cannot postpone it forever. It was time the people spoke out for themselves.

He thought the matter should be discussed without feeling, and if there was any defect, legal or otherwise, to prevent them from receiving this money the sooner it was known the better. Lands in and about the town were increasing in value and he thought it was time to move in the matter, before ten or 12 years elapsed and they would not be able to get anything at all. He would move, seconded by Mr. McIlwain, that a committee consisting of Messrs. Best, Meldrum, Cahill, and the mover and seconder, be a committee to meet the executors of the Nicholls' estate in reference to the appropriation of $60,000 for public parks, with authority to consult the town solicitor as to the advisability of applying for special legislation at the next session of the Legislature to confirm the said bequest, if deemed necessary, and report to this council. Carried.

A NEW STREET.

Moved by Mr. McIlwain, seconded by Mr. Dennistoun, that the Street and Bridge Committee be authorized to inquire into the necessity for and the probable cost of a street connecting George and Water streets, between Smith and Argyle streets, for the purpose of opening up a highway to the North Ward school.—Carried.

HIS INCOME TAXES REMITTED.

Moved by Mr. Meldrum, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that W. J. Hall's taxes on income for the year 1891, for which he was wrongfully assessed, be remitted.

Mr. Dennistoun opposed the motion, as it established a bad precedent. On motion, Mr. Hall was heard with reference to the matter, after which the motion was carried.

THE TOWN'S RICHES IN RAILWAYS.

Mr. Cahill believed the town owned stock in the Midland Railway to the sum of $30,000, and the G.T.R. were now assuming the Midland and converting its stock in Grand Trunk Stock. It was advisable to look after the town's interests as soon as possible. He moved seconded by Mr. Best, that a special committee be appointed for the purpose of ascertaining the position the town held in the stock in reference to the Midland Railway by this corporation, as it appears that the Midland Railway stock is now being converted into G.T.R. stock. The committee to consist of Messrs. Dennistoun,(chairman), Bradburn, Meldrum and the mover—Carried.

AN INQUEST INTO THE CAUSES OF THE FIRE.

Moved by Mr. Meldrum, seconded by Mr. Dennistoun, that the mayor and council be requested to issue a request to the coroner to hold an inquest into the causes of the fire on Hunter street on November 21st.—Carried.

Mr. Meldrum said he had simply carried out the instructions given him by the council and committee in investigating the causes of the recent fire. Many had asked him what evidence there was to convict those arrested. The speaker said he did not know. He had nothing to do with the matter, and was not chargeable for the arrests in this connection. He was simply carrying out the instructions given him by the committee and council, and was not to be considered. The detective was brought here at first to investigate who cut one of the fire horse's tails, and while here the Hunter street fire occurred, and the speaker had asked the detective to ferret out the cause. When the latter had such information in the matter as he thought sufficient, he asked him to go to the town solicitor. That was all he knew about the affair.

Council then adjourned at 10.15 p. m

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

FORCED

REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked or renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 8 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, so we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well, if not better, in the future.

JOHN McKEE'S
NEW
PHARMACY PALACE.

It is with great pleasure that I now announce my removal into my splendid new premises, No. 384 George Street, two doors south of my old stand.

The NEW PHARMACY PALACE gives to Peterborough one of the handsomest and most complete drug stores in Canada. But, while we have devoted great attention to the architectural beauty and convenience of our new premises, we have bestowed our best skill and experience in procuring a thoroughly reliable stock of Pure Drugs, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, Druggist Sundries, &c.

In addition to our regular lines we can offer exceptional value and variety in our elegant stock of Fine Imported New Perfumes, Toilet Articles, Brushes, English and Canadian Toilet Soaps, Sponges, and a variety of other similar goods which require your personal inspection to fully appreciate them.

OUR STANDARD PROPRIETARIES ARE:

McKee's Ontario Cough Remedy,
McKee's Celerine Bitters,
McKee's Beef, Iron and Wine,
McKee's Family Aperient Pill,
McKee's Hair Invigorator.

These we can recommend as faithful and conscientious specialties in each case.

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS carefully and skillfully compounded.

FAMILY RECIPES AND HORSE AND CATTLE MEDICINES made up accurately and at reasonable prices.

Prices will continue to be very moderate in all cases.

CONGRATULATIONS.

The following congratulatory lines have been received from Messrs. Parke, Davis & Co.: the well-known American wholesale druggists:

DETROIT, Nov. 4th, 1892.

Mr. John Mckee:—

SIR,—We have to congratulate you upon your enterprise and progressive spirit, inasmuch as our representative in Canada advises us that your new quarters are conceded to be the finest in Canada.

PARKE, DAVIS & CO.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to take this opportunity of thanking my numerous customers for their liberal patronage during the past fourteen years, and would solicit a continuance of their favours in the future. Your orders will be always appreciated, no matter how small, and you can rest assured that my constant aim will be to give my customers the most reliable goods at the most reasonable prices.

JOHN McKEE,
Druggist and Chemist.

Wants Particulars of the Feat.

"Vulcan" writes the EXAMINER in reference to the paragraph which appeared in these columns a few days ago stating that Mr. J. Batten, blacksmith, has put on 104 horseshoes in one day. "Vulcan" is desirous of ascertaining how many new shoes there were out of the 104, and if they were fitted beforehand, how many were helping the horseshoer and if he did all the work himself and fitted the shoes himself.

A Peterborough Man's Slight Loss.

Wednesday morning shortly after 8 o'clock, says the Lindsay Post, a strong smell of smoke was noticed in the Daly House, of which the genial Joe Daly is proprietor. Search was at once instituted, and the fire was speedily located in room No. 10, vacated by its occupant a couple of hours previously. It had started evidently in a small closet in the corner of the room, and the flames had followed the wall paper and finally got in between the walls at the casing at the top of the closet. The alarm was sounded and the firemen were quickly on the scene, but by energetic work on the part of those present the flames were quenched without the hose being brought into requisition. The loss will be covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is a mystery, as there was no stove in the room.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—School Board meeting to-night.

—A false alarm called out the fire brigade a few minutes before 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Wm. Christie left to-day for Ohio where he will locate. His many friends will wish him success.

—The Hockey Club held a meeting at the office of Mr. T. E. Bradburn last night and transacted some minor business.

—A meeting of the non-commissioned officers of the 57th Battalion will be held to-night at the drill shed. All are requested to be present.

—Thieves are still getting in their work on London street. One night recently two residences were visited in that vicinity and quantities of meat and poultry stolen.

—Mr. Theodore Joy, Mark street, Ashburnham, while planing some short strips of boards in Mr. D. Bellegham's furniture factory yesterday afternoon, let his right hand come in contact with the planer, severely lacerating two of the fingers. Drs. Halliday and Bell amputated the injured digits.

—Otonabee Lodge No. 13, I.O.O.F., met last night with a large attendance. One candidate was initiated and four received their third degree. Further preparations were made for the anniversary of the lodge, which will be fitting celebrated in their rooms to-morrow night. A fine programme has been prepared.

Prang's Fine Art Pictures.

Mr. G. B. Sproule has just received from Prang's, the well known Boston Art House a rare collection of fine art pictures, including oil and water colour studies, artists' proofs of gravure etchings and neographs from English paintings. Nothing like them has been brought into Peterborough before. Parties desirous of securing copies of some of the finest works of celebrated authors should pay a visit to Mr. Sproule's art rooms, Charlotte street.

Spencely Committed for Trial.

The enlarged case of Geo. Spencely, charged with perjury in the police court case of Spencely and Tyler charged with depositing night soil in Spaulding's Bay, came up before the magistrate this morning. The magistrate committed the accused for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction. Spencely was allowed out on bail, himself at $300, and two sureties of $150 each. His counsel, Mr. Stone, thought that too much bail was exacted.

The Ethel Armstrong Concert Company

Scored a great success at Hastings last night where they appeared under the auspices of the Foresters. They were greeted by a bumper house and the excellent programme presented was received with every demonstration of delight. Miss Ethel Armstrong, the brilliant young violiniste, scored a great triumph. This clever company appears in Bradburn's Opera House, Thursday evening. Prices 50, 35 and 25 cents. Seat plan at Greatrex's drug-store. ld

Peterborough Vocalists at Centreville.

The tea and entertainment given by the Presbyterian church, Centreville, last night was a grand success. Material aid was furnished from Keene and Peterborough. Miss Boyce and Mr. McCamus, of Keene, contributed solos, as did Messrs. W. F. Nelson and John Crane, Peterborough. The Keene mixed quartette rendered one selection with nice expression, which was encored. The Peterborough quartette, composed of Messrs. McKee, Crane, Nelson and Turner, adding four numbers to the programme, all of which were finely rendered and were encored. Revs. Smith, Kilgour, Bloodsworthy and Pickey delivered, short, spicy addresses during the evening. The proceeds amounted to $95, which is in aid of the organ The pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Drummond, filled the position of chairman. The new organ recently purchased by the church is a magnificent one.

Butcher's orchestra will be in attendance and give selections.

It is a Fine Production.

An Ottawa paper says of "Rob Roy, which is to be produced at the opera house here on Saturday night: The St. Andrew's Society of Ottawa made a new departure this year when instead of holding the usual concert it was decided to have a representation of the romantic drama, "Rob Roy," adapted from Sir Walter Scott's masterpiece. That the experiment was welcomed as a change was evident from the fact that the place was filled to overflowing, and the vociferous applause and frequent encores testified to the appreciation of the play and delight in the artistically rendered Scottish songs. Mr. Wilson Rennie's company is an exceedingly well balanced one, the principal characters in the cast displaying an amount of histrionic talent not usually found in combination with musical ability. The songs introduced were all well sung.

Of course the main interest of the piece centered about "Rob Roy," the outlawed Highland chieftan, and Mr. Wilson Rennie's representation of the part was well worth of his high reputation and left nothing to be desired.

Card of Thanks.

To Mr. W. A. Hopkins, District Manager Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company:

I am to-day in receipt of your cheque for one thousand dollars in payment of policy No. 6690 on the life of my late husband the late James Cahill. Considering the promptness and kindness with which this claim has been settled, I can recommend your company to everyone, as a company which will take no advantage of a policy holder. In my case the benefits of life insurance have indeed been realized. The proofs were sent in Dec. 1st, and the claim paid Dec. 6th.

Yours very truly,
ANNIE CAHILL.

Lynn, Mass.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Sillsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

Alarm Clocks!

There are a great many small Alarm Clocks which have been running for a few years and are now out of order, which the owners are allowing to remain idle, because they think it will cost too much to repair them. If you bring them to us you will find that we will make them run as well as they ever did, at a very small charge. We have already changed hundreds of them from being merely rubbish into good timepieces. If you want to buy a new one, we will sell you an Alarm Clock at a lower price than any one else in the trade. We sell only the very best make and warrant every one.

Stomach Ache.

We all know what it is; we acquired a perfect knowledge of the "Pet" in our youth, after a raid on things we were expressly forbidden to touch. Mr. John McClelland's New Premises—Brief Sketch of His New Business Home.

"McClelland's Jewelry Store" has been a rallying point for farmers, wishing to meet each other in town on market days for nearly a quarter of a century. For twenty-three out of the twenty-eight years Mr. John McClelland has carried on business in Peterborough, he has occupied the well-known shop, corner of George and Hunter streets, from which he removed on Friday last to the elegant new premises fitted up for him on the site formerly occupied by McKee's drugstore.

The new premises are excellently adopted to the business and are much larger than the old, to accommodate the increasing business and the enlarged business which Mr. McClelland will hereafter conduct. The new shop consists of a bright, well lighted room 18½ x40 feet, the floor laid with maple, the walls and ceilings beautifully papered in Watson's way and fitted up with the best of furnishings in the most modern designs. Three rich, darksolid black walnut tables take the place of counters and on these reat elegant walnut plate glass show cases, 16 inches high, the top of each being of a single plate, 9 feet in length and 3 in breadth. In rear of these is a central wall-case of

WALNUT AND PLATE GLASS,

6 feet wide and 8 feet high, flanked by two other wall cases also of walnut, and plate glass, fitted with cabinets. These will contain part of the large stock of silverware and the more ornamental clocks, etc. A double line of walnut shelving runs along the northern wall of the shop to hold a part of the great stock of clocks carried. A small cross table at the rear of the shop contains a collection of fancy clocks. A fine screen of walnut, cathedral glass and sliding doors, separates the front shop from the rear shop, space being left between the two for an office and room for safes. The rear shop, nearly as large as the front, well lighted and fitted up, serves for the workshop for clocks and jewelry, while accommodation for watch repairing and fine work of that kind is afforded by a walnut sceen that surrounds the window at the front of the shop. This window, which is of plate glass 7 ft. 9 in. x 10 ft. 2 in., admits abundant light by day, and two neat chandeliers with two incandescent electric lamps each of 32 candle, furnish light at night. Altogether the shop is perfect of its kind, elegant, modern, and well suited for carrying the greatly enlarged stock with which Mr. McClelland has loaded his shelves for the holiday trade. The fine fittings have been put in by that veteran furnisher, Mr. D. Bellegham, and do credit to his reputation.

THE CONVENTION OPENED.

Delegates Arrived and the Two Days Proceedings Begun.

The sixth annual convention of the County of Peterborough Sabbath School Association opened its two days session in St. Andrew's church at three o'clock this afternoon. There was only a fair attendance owing to the inclement weather. The president, Rev. D, A. Thompson, of Hastings, presided, and the proceedings opened with devotional exercises led by Rev. Mr. MacWilliams. The names of the delegates in attendance were published in yesterday's EXAMINER. The principal business this afternoon was the appointing of nominating committee to be business committee to the close of the convention and also receiving reports from the different townships. At this evening's meeting Rev. President Thompson, Rev. Dr. Smith, Toronto, Rev. J. McEwen, Lakefield, and others will deliver interesting addresses.

They Will be Tried by Jury.

The enlarged case of Wm, Taylor, charged with keeping a house of ill fame, and the woman who gave their names as Lou Taylor, Georgina Earl, and Rose Elliott, charged with being inmates, came up before County Police Magistrate Edmsion yesterday afternoon, Mr. R. E. Wood represented the Crown, and Mr. E. B. Stone appeared for the prisoners, who who elected to be tried before a jury. The preliminary hearing of the case will come up this afternoon, and if there is sufficient evidence to justify it, the magistrate will commit the prisoners for trial at the county court and general sessions to be held on the 13th inst.

Ball Family Jubilee Singers.

The Calgary Herald speaking of the appearance of the Ball Family Jubilee Singers in that town in April of this year says :—"The entertainment given by the Ball Family of Jubilee Singers in the Methodist church last night was one of the finest musical treat of the season. It was good from begining to end, and although the stormy weather prevented the audience from being large, those present showed that they appreciated the programme fully. The family have all good and well-trained voices, and the younger members specially were strong favorites with the audience. It was marvellous how nicely they sung, keeping time and bearing themselves like veterans, and their voices could be heard distinctly in every part of the church." This clever company will give two concerts in the Charlotte street Methodist church on Monday and Tuesday evening's, Dec. 12th and 13th. Admission 25 cents. 1d

THE FIRE BRIGADE.

To the Editor of the Examiner :

DEAR SIR,—You express my sentiments exactly in your editorial yesterday on the re-organization of the Fire Brigade. What the town really requires is a small number of regularly paid men whose services will belong to the town throughout the year, and who can be removed at any time that the Fire, Water and Light Committee are satisfied of their incompetence and insubordination. By all means let the council take this matter up at once and deal with it. Mayor Kendry here is a chance for you to place the town in a proper position. In the meantime Mr. Editor keep the people aroused to its importance.

Yours very truly,
A RATEPAYER.

The Lack Of Snow

Don't disturb our business one whit. Our measure book keeps piling up the orders for Suits and Overcoats just the same as if the snow was mountains high. Our customers, like sensible fellows, are looking ahead. The cold wave is coming and they know it, and they ain't going to wait until both lungs are frozen before they order warm winter clothing.

Take Pete's advice, you fellows that are waiting until it gets as cold as Greenland, and leave your measure on the spot. He can make you a Suit or Overcoat in 10 hours if you like. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

"PRICE!" to suit your purse. Men like bargains as well as women do—almost.

"FIT!" Well, we do love to see the man that's hard to fit come in our store.

"STUFF!" Yes, we've got the stuff in any kind of cloth you like. Always tasty and good. Now, catch on; only 4 weeks to Christmas.

"STYLE!" We are as familiar with the wants of our patrons as you are with your own door yard or the multiplication table.

HOME DECORATION.

A Very Cosy Corner and How to Make It at Low Cost.

Here is a corner, says Charlotte Whitcomb in the Housekeeper, in which you may write or read with as much comfort as if there were a combined bookcase and writing table costing one hundred dollars instead of less than five. There is no patent on this corner; anybody is welcome to use the idea and to improve upon it. You may have several more tiers of books, and, instead of this bracket lamp, a hanging one just back of your left shoulder. Then maybe you would like a sloping pad on which to write, and a cabinet under the shelf for the bestowal of letters and manuscripts, wills and mortgages. The scrapbasket may be a peachbasket lined with turkey red or gay flowered chintz or cretonne.

Another Good Idea.

Here is another idea for a scrapbasket or for a newspaper holder. I saw one like it being made for the Exposition. Get a milking stool in the natural soft pine or basswood, unpainted or unvarnished. Turn it bottom upward and fasten any pretty box or basket in the tripod formed by the three legs. Then shellac and varnish the stool, basket and all. Line the basket if you like, and trim with ribbons. The one I saw had a second stool standing the ordinary way under the first for a support. The whole was painted with white enamel paint and fitted up with pale blue silk and ribbon and was intended for a work-basket.

Pine for Decorative Purposes.

The magazine called "Painting and Decorating" is authority for the statement that pine is a beautiful wood having a grain of velvety softness of texture when properly finished, but becomes vulgar when stained to imitate walnut or cherry, for it shows at once a sham has been attempted. But the same article says, "Many very artistic effects can be obtained by the use of various colored stains such as green in varying tones, and light brown and yellow colors. Some of the aniline dyes seem to make good and effective colors for this kind of work, which is far different from the vulgar imitation stains so frequently employed."

Rouge Used Long Ago.

Personal adornment by means of cosmetics has been practiced from most ancient times. Classical writers inform us that the dames of Greece and Rome derived the custom of using cosmetics from the Egyptians. Eastern women of all times have freely indulged in "painting and decorating," and it, Spare Moments thinks, is probable that also from the Egyptians the Jewish women learned the habit, which, being used by Jezebel on a memorable occasion, has made her name forever proverbial in connection with the subject. In England the use of rouge as a cosmetic commenced with the days when ladies disfigured themselves by patches of courtplaster stuck on different parts of the face—that is, about the middle of the sixteenth century. The fashion as to patches and abuse of cosmetics culminated during the reign of the two Charles. While the wearing of patches has almost completely disappeared—although it is impossible to say it might not be revived—the use of rouge, in perhaps more moderate fashion, has continued down to the present day. In the case of vegetable rouge, if properly prepared, its use is completely innocuous; but much that is sold is said to contain preparations of lead, making it highly dangerous to use.—Philadelphia Times.

No better preparation for the hair has ever been invented than Ayer's Hair Vigor. It restores the original color to faded and gray hair, and imparts that natural gloss and freshness, everyone so much admires. Its reputation is world-wide.

THE POWER OF BEAUTY.

Woman's Greatest Pleader Has Quite Good Looks.

A very readable and instructive article in one of the newspapers lately has had as its subject the potency of woman's physical charms over the mind and judgment of those called upon to pass sentence on offenders of the fair sex. It argued that no matter how wise or how eloquent the plain-faced maiden might be, her words freighted with the wisdom of a Solomon would bear no weight in comparison with the pleading glance from a pair of lovely orbs, or the entrancing demeanor of some beautiful culprit who breathed never a word, but whose very appearance won the favor of judge and jury where learned arguments and dissertations signally failed.

The beautiful murderess then, according to this, stands far better chance of acquittal than the plain faced, middle-aged creature who, perhaps, stole bread for her starving children; therefore, cannot all the great world of women read between the lines and carry home into their own being the lesson intended to be taught? According to this, brains versus beauty, the world over, would be but an unequal fight. Talent against the greater force of physical attractions would stand no show. According to this it is well by all the means that lie within our power to cultivate by bath, massage and nutrition the dormant beauty that may be needed for just such an emergency.

Go in for the physical culture; it may stand you in good stead before a jury. Bring to perfection by every known process eyes, ears, lips, throat and bust; then with them as your best allies justice will be given over to admiration and you can murder, steal and deceive with impunity.

Notwithstanding the force of such an argument, truth compels us to state that though beauty is an acknowledged power, history and romance alike can show striking examples of women whose personality had no charm, yet whose fascinations of mind and manner outvied the attractions of physical beauty when arrayed against them, therefore be not discouraged if your pretty face never is called upon to plead for you, for hidden under such a superficial magnet may be attributes stronger and far more binding.

Will Kill Consumption.

The Norwegian cod is destined to kill consumption. It has always been known that its oil, when properly prepared, contains all the potent elements for rebuilding wasting tissues in the human body. The difficulty has been to conserve the energies of the oil in its refining, and this has only been accomplished by the manufacturers of "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil." All who suffer with lung troubles, and of course all who are threatened with consumption, should take it. In big bottles, 50c and $1.00, at all Drug Stores.

To invigorate both the body and the brain, use the reliable tonic, Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine.

Do not despair of curing your sick headache when you can so easily obtain Carter's Little Liver Pills. They will effect a prompt and permanent cure. Their action is mild and natural.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

Has no equal for the prompt relief and speedy cure of Colds, Coughs, Croup, Hoarseness, Loss of Voice, Preacher's Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis, La Grippe, and other derangements of the throat and lungs. The best-known cough-cure in the world, it is recommended by eminent physicians, and is the favorite preparation with singers, actors, preachers and teachers. It soothes the inflamed membrane, loosens the phlegm, stops coughing, and induces repose.

taken for consumption, in its early stages, checks further progress of the disease, and even in the later stages, it eases the distressing cough and promotes refreshing sleep. It is agreeable to the taste, needs but small doses, and does not interfere with digestion or any of the regular organic functions. As an emergency medicine, every household should be provided with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Having used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, I can confidently recommend it for all the complaints it is claimed to cure. Its sale is increasing yearly with me, and my customers think this preparation has no equal as a cough cure."—S. W. Parent, Queensbury, N.B.

Our instruments have an established reputation for excellence of TONE, TOUCH, WORKMANSHIP, and DURABILITY, and Every Instrument is Fully Warranted for Seven Years.

Chief among our instruments which have received preferences from the best musical artists, stand

THE HEINTZMAN —AND— EVANS PIANOS.

These instruments have been before the Canadian public for a number of years, and the great praise bestowed upon them by musical experts, along with the continued increase of sales year by year, testify to their high excellence.

The aim of the manufacturers of these two favorite Pianos has been to produce the best instruments at a moderate price. They are of solid build, warranted for durability, of handsome appearance and finish; pleasant touch and quick repetition. TONE rich, full, bright and resonant. Beautifully signing and sympathetic in quality. The prices are moderate, and within the reach of the majority of purchasers.

We are exclusive agents in Peterborough for the celebrated

YOUR HANDS!

Next to your feet, the tenderest thing about you is your hands, they're so tender, in fact, at this time of the year, when the mercury is paying flying visits in the neighborhood of zero that they require to be handled with gloves. We're prepared to lend you invaluable assistance in this matter with a stock of hand-coverings that touch the top notch in completeness and quality. These Gloves are handsome and make your weapons of defense look the warmth and comfort they feel and also feel equal to any emergency that may arise. Just here, we rise to remark that we have over 5,000 pairs of Kid and Buck Gloves, which we are selling at about 25 per cent. below usual retail prices. If you need Underwear, we throw it in along with the gloves at 10 per cent. reduction.

ROTHSCHILD'S SUPPORT

IS FELT AT THE MONETARY CONFERENCE BUT LITTLE.

Delegates From the Countries in the Latin Union Favor International Free Coinage—A British Currency Association Gives Its Views.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 5.—The rejection of the Rothschild plan by the committee of the International Monetary Conference does not finally dispose of Rothschild's proposals. The minority of the committee who supported the plan are feeling their way to taking a vote of the conference on the scheme with the amendments offered in the committee that no limitation be made on the price of the proposed annual European purchase of 30,000,000 ounces of silver; that the purchases be over and above the ordinary purchases for token coinage and metal, and that the purchases be employed as money either by coinage or as a metallic basis of notes to be issued. These modifications increase the value of the plan in the eyes of the bi-metallists.

When the conference resumes its session on Tuesday Sir William Houldsworth, one of the British delegates, will bring forward further amendments to Rothschild's proposals, as the committee recommended a discussion of the plan with amendments by the full conference. The proceedings on Tuesday will probably continue on the lines of yesterday's meetings, unless the American delegates decide to ask the Conference to proceed without delay to discuss the question of international bi-metallism.

Want International Free Coinage.

It has transpired that the delegates of the countries belonging to the Latin Union voted against the Rothschild proposals on the ground that they were not able to recommend their governments to increase their stocks of silver under the limited purchase scheme, and because the countries in the Latin Union could not increase their present silver currency without international free coinage being established.

With regard to the plan of Moritz Levy, which includes the withdrawal of all gold coins under the value of 20 francs, Sir C. Freemantle, deputy master of the British mint, declared he could not promise the consent of the British Government to the withdrawal of its half-sovereign pieces.

The British and International Currency Association will send a memorial to Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, asking him to instruct the British delegates to the International Monetary Conference to entertain any reasonable proposals for establishment of an international currency.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The leading financial papers, The London Economist and Statist, disapprove of the Rothschild scheme and recur to their prediction that the conference would not adopt anything practical. An eminent authority writes to The Statist that he advocated the Rothschild plan for the sole reason that a delay in the silver collapse in the United States would enable India and other countries to arrange their financial systems.

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

A PLUTOCRAT'S WEALTH.

It Was Purchased at Too High a Price for the Country.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The Herald editorially says:

It is said of Mr. Gould that within the limits of the family circle he was beyond the reach of criticism. But Mr. Gould was also a public man. He exercised a large influence over the careers of many who had commercial aspirations, and that influence tended to lower the moral tone of business transactions.

The example he set is a dangerous one to follow. The methods he adopted are to be avoided. His financial success, judged by the means by which it was attained, is not to be envied. His great wealth was purchased at too high a price. The respect of the community is the guinea's stamp, and all coin is counterfeit unless thus stamped. Mr. Gould's policy may be easily found. It is hidden under cover of an emphatic negative to the question, "Am I my brother's keeper?"

He played the game of life to win, and he reckoned the possible ruin of thousands as a matter with which he had no concern. In strategy he was a genius, in financial tactics he was without a peer, in utter disregard of consequences he stood alone. To those who fell under the crushing weight of the avalanche which he started he had only the old-time answer, "I am not my brother's keeper."

He has, therefore, left untold millions and an example. The millions will be inherited, but the example will be repudiated. "Go not thou and do likewise" is the lesson of a life.

The World says, editorially: But few very rich men have ever been more cynically indifferent than he to the truth that wealth has obligations. Mr. Gould could have done for New York what George Peabody did for London.

He could have emulated and far surpassed the noble service of Peter Cooper to this city. He could have done vast good in many directions. He has done nothing but to heap up money, often by dishonorable means, and leave it in trust for his children.

It is not a great career. It is not an admirable character. It is not a death that will cause any public sorrow.

Suffering in Nova Scotia.

HALIFAX, Dec. 5.—The almost entire failure of the fisheries along the western coast of Nova Scotia has even thus early in the winter occasioned a great deal of destitution.

When the fish struck in there was no bait and when bait arrived the fish had gone. As the inhabitants are dependent upon the fisheries their condition is most distressing. Unless aid is furnished by the Government great suffering must ensue.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The steamer Prince Frederick Hendrick, which arrived yesterday, reports all quiet at Port au Prince. There was no danger of an outbreak, Hippolyte having everything well in hand. Business was in excellent condition.

Caused 1000 Men To be Idle.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 5.—The South 15th-street mills of the Oliver Iron and Steel Company have closed down in all departments, throwing 1000 men out of work. The suspension of operations was a surprise to the workmen and the only explanation given was an overstocked mill and lack of orders.

"It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

GAVE A FEARFUL SHRIEK

EPILEPSY ATTACKED A DEPUTY IN THE FRENCH CHAMBER.

The Other Deputies Horrified—A Hurried Adjournment—Business of the Panama Committee Cannot Go to the Press—It Will Not Have Magisterial Powers.

PARIS, Dec. 6.—In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday the Panama question again caused great excitement.

Deputy Alfred Letellier demanded that the proceedings of the committee should be taken down stenographically in order that the record might be used for future reference. It was important, he said, that the whole truth should be made known.

M. Brisson replied that he had no objection to such a course, but feared it would be difficult.

At this instant a fearful shriek rang through the chamber and the deputies sprang to their feet and gazed in the direction from which the shriek had come.

Deputy Dubreuil was writhing in the convulsions of epilepsy. He was pawing with his hands and seemed to be foaming at the mouth.

It was a fearful spectacle, and one that terrified the deputies. The sitting was at once suspended, while a score of members ran to succor their unfortunate companion, who was borne, still shrieking, from the chamber.

M. Letellier made a motion in the Chamber of Deputies to-day that the minutes of the Panama Committee be immediately communicated to the press, as it was essential that the truth regarding the Panama Canal Company should not be distorted.

Amid much applause M. Letellier demanded urgency for his motion.

M. Brisson, the president of the committee, opposed the motion on the ground that the official act of the committee's proceedings would give certain evidence of importance that it would not otherwise receive, and newspapers could only reproduce extracts from the evidence.

The motion was rejected by a large majority.

M. Boisserin moved that the committee be empowered to nominate a magistrate to co-operate with it, and asked that the Chamber appoint a sub-committee to-morrow. This proposal, with a demand for urgency, was adopted by a vote of 333 to 182.

The Chamber then adjourned until Thursday.

In the Senate M. Girarault, a member of the Extreme Left, proposed that the Panama Committee be given magisterial powers and demanded that the Canal Company be reimbursed for the sums of money that have been improperly paid out of its treasury.

These proposals were rejected by an almost unanimous vote.

M. Ribot, at present Minister of Foreign Affairs, has informed President Carnot that he has succeeded in forming a Cabinet which is a reproduction of the Loubet Cabinet, except that M. Bourgeois, formerly Minister of Public Instruction and the Arts, will be succeeded by M. Loubet as Minister of Justice and Public Worship. M. Dupuy, deputy from Haute-Loire, will be Minister of Public Instruction, and M. Siegfried will replace M. Roche as Minister of Commerce.

The Protectionist policy will be maintained.

M. Siegfried represents Havre in the Chamber of Deputies and the cotton spinning interests. He is strongly opposed to free trade. His predecessor, M. Roche, advocated a treaty of commerce with Switzerland and was thus to some extent an opponent of the Meline tariff.

WHAT GARDNER SAYS.

Our Cattle to Enter England as Usual When Free From Pleuro-Pneumonia.

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 6.—Mr. Gardner, chairman of the Board of Agriculture, has given a pledge on behalf of the Imperial Government that the restriction recently imposed on Canadian cattle imported into Great Britain and Ireland will be removed as soon as Canada has proved beyond a doubt that the Dominion is free from pleuro-pneumonia.

The High Commissioner has communicated with the Dominion authorities to have the necessary inspection made and the proof of the country's immunity from the disease forwarded to London.

Meanwhile, those interested in the Canadian cattle trade, particularly in Scotland, are keeping up the agitation to have the schedule against Canadian cattle at once removed. They maintain that no cases of pleuro-pneumonia were found to have existed in any imported Canadian cattle.

The opponents in England of the Canadian export trade are not, however, idle. The farming clubs are now meeting and are urging the Board of Agriculture to secure the passage of an act requiring that all foreign stock be slaughtered at the port of landing, whether any contagious disease is reported to exist in the country from which they are exported or not.

The Scotch Breeders' Association, the Smithfield Club and other leading agricultural bodies are sharing in this movement.

The Change in Typesetting.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Typographical Union No. 6 adopted yesterday a scale for typesetting machines. The committee recommended that a time charge should be made instead of by the piece. The suggestion was adopted and the price fixed was:

For morning papers $27 a week of eight hours a day for six days; on evening papers $24 a week of eight hours a day. The scale for hand setters will remain the same, 50 cents per 1000 ems on morning newspapers and 40 cents per 1000 on evening newspapers.

PRESIDENT BUMPTIOUS.

HARRISON HAS AN ATTACK OF AMUSING SPLEEN.

His Annual Message to Congress—Objection to Canada's Power in British Action—The Absurd Idea of Stopping Bonding Privileges.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—President Harrison has delivered his annual message to Congress. That which is interesting to Canadians is as follows:

International Relations.

"During the past year a suggestion was received through the British Minister that the Canadian Government would like to confer as to the possibility of enlarging upon terms of mutual advantage the Commercial Exchanges of Canada and the United States, and a conference was held at Washington, with Mr. Blaine acting for this Government, and the British Minister at the Capital and three members of the Dominion Cabinet acting as commissioners on the part of Great Britain.

The conference developed the fact that the Canadian Government was only prepared to offer to the United States, in exchange for the concessions asked, the admission of natural products. The statement was frankly made that favored rates could not be given to the United States as against the Mother Country.

This admission, which was foreseen, necessarily terminated the conference upon the question. The benefits of an exchange of natural products would be almost wholly with the people of Canada.

Some other topics of interest were considered in the conference, and have resulted in the making of a convention for examining the Alaska boundary and the waters of Passamaquoddy Bay, adjacent to Eastport, Me., in the initiation of an arrangement for the probation of fish in the coterminous and neighboring waters of our northern border.

The controversy as to tolls on the Welland Canal, which was presented to Canada at the last session by special message, having failed of adjustment, I felt constrained to exercise the authority conferred by the act of July 26, 1892, and to proclaim suspension of the free use of St. Mary's Falls Canal to cargoes in transit to Canada.

The Secretary of the Treasury established such tolls as were thought to be equivalent to the exactions unjustly levied upon our commerce in Canadian canals.

If, as we must suppose, the political relations of Canada and the disposition of the Canadian Government are to remain unchanged, a somewhat radical revision of our trade relations should, I think, be made. Our relations must be intimate, and they should be friendly.

Dislikes Canada's Protests.

I regret to say, however, that in many of the controversies, notably those as to the fisheries on the Atlantic, the sealing interests on the Pacific and the canal tolls, our negotiations with Great Britain have continuously been thwarted or retarded by unreasonable and unfriendly objections and protests from Canada. In the matter of the canal tolls, our treaty rights were flagrantly disregarded.

It is hardly too much to say that the Canadian Pacific and other railway lines which parallel our northern boundaries are sustained by commerce, having either its origin or terminus, or both, in the United States. Canadian railroads compete with those of the United States for our traffic and without the restraints of the Interstate Commerce Act. The cars pass almost without detention into and out of our territory. The Canadian Pacific Railway brought into the United States from China and Japan, via British Columbia, during the year ended June 30, 1892, 24,039,589 pounds of freight and it carried from the United States to be shipped to China and Japan, via British Columbia, 24,068,346 pounds of freight. There were also shipped from the United States over this road from eastern ports of the United States to our Pacific ports during the same year 13,912,073 pounds of freight, and there were received over this road at the United States eastern ports, from ports on the Pacific coast, 13,293,315 pounds of freight. Mr. Joseph Nimmo, jr., former chief of the Bureau of Statistics, when before the Senate Committee on relations with Canada, April 26, 1890, said that "the value of goods thus transported between different points in the United States across Canadian territory probably amounts to $100,000,000 a year."

Retaliation Advocated.

There is no disposition on the part of the people or Government of the United States to interfere in the smallest degree with the political relations with Canada. That question is wholly with her own people. It is time for us, however, to consider whether, if the present state of things and trend of things is to continue, an interchange upon lines of land transportation should not be put upon a different basis, and our entire independence of Canadian canals of the St. Lawrence as an outlet to the sea secured by the construction of an American canal around the Falls of Niagara, the opening of ship communication between the great lakes and of our own seaports.

We should withdraw the support which is given to the railroad and steamship lines of Canada by a traffic that properly belongs to us, and no longer furnish the earnings which lighten the otherwise crushing weight of the enormous public subsidies that have been given to them.

Bonding Privileges.

The subject of the power of the Treasury to deal with this matter without further legislation has been under discussion, but circumstances have postponed a conclusion.

It is probable that a consideration of the propriety of a modification or abrogation of that articles of the treaty of Washington relating to the transit of goods in bond is involved in any complete solution of the question. The construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway and the establishment under large subventions from Canada and England of fast steamship service from Vancouver with Japan and China seriously threaten our shipping interests in the Pacific.

This line of English steamers received, as is stated by the Commissioner of Navigation, a direct subsidy of $400,000 annually, or $30,767 per trip for 13 voyages, in addition to some further aid from the admiralty in connection with contracts under which the vessels may be used for naval purposes.

The competing American Pacific mail line under the act of March 3, 1891, receives only $6389 per round trip. Efforts have been made within the past year, as I am informed, to establish under similar conditions a line between Vancouver and some Australian port with a view of seizing there a trade in which we have had a large interest.

The Commissioner of Navigation states that a very large per cent. of our imports from Asia are now brought to us by English steamships and their connecting railways in Canada.

An Unequal Contest.

With a view of promoting this trade especially in tea, Canada has imposed a discriminating duty of 10 per cent. upon tea and coffee brought into the Dominion from the United States.

If this unequal contest between American lines, without subsidy or with diminished subsidies, and the English-Canadian line, to which I have referred, is to continue, I think we should at least see that the facilities for customs entry and transportation across our territory are not such as to make the Canadian route a favored one, and that the discrimination as to duties, to which I have referred, is met by a like discrimination as to the importation of these articles from Canada.

No subject, I think, more nearly touches the pride, the power and the prosperity of our country than the development of our merchant marine upon the sea.

If we could enter into conference with other competitors, and all would agree to withhold Government aid, we could perhaps take our chances with the rest, but our great competitors have established and maintained their lines by Government subsidies until they now have practically excluded us from participation. In my opinion no choice is left to us but to pursue, moderately at least, the same lines.

English Opinions.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—In commenting on President Harrison's message, The Morning Post says:

"A perusal of Mr. Harrison's message suggests rather the dogged courage of a gladiator than the foresight of a statesman. It is singularly characteristic of his community that the retiring President finds it is consistent with his position to indulge in a flourish of impotent menace against Canada."

The Daily News says that much attention need not be paid to President Harrison's reference to Canada.

The Standard says. Not everyone is privileged to vent his spleen in the form of a state paper. Mr. Harrison's message is not meant to be gracious. The warning to Canada is polite compared with the threat once hurled at Chili, but has flavor nevertheless.

There is an unwelcome ambiguity in reference to the Behring Sea matter. But it matters little what he says—Ichabod is written in every sentence.

The Chronicle says: Mr. Harrison's tariff remarks remind us of the school boy maxim, "If you tell a lie, tell a big un and stick to it." It may now be regarded as certain that America will make the Nicaragua Canal and thus prevent France from reviving the Panama scheme.

DR. BRIGGS' TRIAL.

He Is Accused of Denying the Principle That God Cannot Lie.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—In the Briggs trial yesterday Dr. Birch continued his argument. He joined the two charges, 1 and 2, which set forth Dr. Briggs' theory that the church and the reason are sources of divine authority equal with the Bible, and attacked them as contrary to the teachings of the Presbyterian standard that the Bible is the only source of divine authority.

Having attacked the authority of the scriptures there is no escape from the heresy that errors may have existed in the original text of the scriptures, and this forms the basis for a charge of heresy.

He said: "The higher criticism, as represented by the inaugural, uses the same processes as those rebuked by Christ during His early ministry. It makes the Scripture of more effect. Yet the Bible frequently speaks of itself as the Oracles of God. The church is only the trustee and guardian of the Bible.

"If Dr. Briggs alleges that errors exist in the Bible he denies the principle that God cannot lie. Dr. Briggs says that the Bible is inspired of God, therefore he must believe God capable of double dealing and misrepresentation.

"The autocracy of the scriptures is so absolute that we cannot add to nor take from it anything without destroying its unity and completeness. Christianity without a Bible is a lamp without a light and a messenger without a message."

The argument of the prosecution on the latter three charges remains to be presented. Then Dr. Briggs will be called on to answer the accusation.

A HEAVY LOSS.

The Philadelphia Ledger Printing Office Gutted By Fire and Water.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 7.—The Public Ledger building, at the southwest corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets, was badly gutted last evening by fire and water. The damage by fire was confined almost entirely to the composing room, situated on the top floor, but a torrent of water poured down through the building, flooding every floor in the structure. The loss can only be approximated to-night, but will probably be between $250,000 and $300,000.

Cyclone in Texas.

ATLANTA, TEX., Dec. 7.—About 1 o'clock yesterday a disastrous cyclone occurred three miles east of here, sweeping away farm houses and outbuildings and leaving death and general destruction in its path.

The house of Samuel McAdams was destroyed and he and three children were fatally hurt.

One child was found 300 yards away in a dying condition.

Charles Casey's gin house was destroyed with all its contents.

The house of W. Dawson, colored, was demolished and several children fatally injured.

THE NEW MINISTRY.

Hon. J. A. Chapleau Has Been Appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec.

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—The task entrusted to Sir John Thompson by the Governor-General a week ago has been completed, and yesterday Sir John submitted to His Excellency the following list of the new Ministry, the members of which will be sworn in to-morrow:

Sir John Thompson—Premier and Minister of Justice.
Hon. Mackenzie Bowell—Minister of Trade and Commerce.
Hon. G. E. Foster—Minister of Finance.
Sir A. P. Caron—Postmaster General.
Hon. John Costigan—Secretary of State.
Hon. C. H. Tupper—Minister of Marine and Fisheries.
Hon. John Haggart—Minister of Railways and Canals.
Hon. J. A. Ouimet—Minister of Public Works.
Hon. J. C. Patterson — Minister of Militia.
Hon. T. M. Daly—Minister of the Interior.
Hon. A. R. Angers—Minister of Agriculture.
Hon. W. B. Ives—President of the Privy Council.
Hon. John Carling and Hon. Frank Smith—Ministers without portfolio.

The above form the Cabinet.

Mr. J. J. Curran—Solicitor-General.
Mr. N. Clarke Wallace—Controller of Customs.
Mr. J. F. Wood—Controller of Inland Revenue.

The new Government, including the ministers with and without portfolios and the three sub-ministers without portfolios, includes 17 men, distributed thus:

Maritime Provinces: Thompson, Tupper, Foster, Costigan.
Quebec: Caron, Angers, Ouimet, Ives, Curran.
Ontario: Bowell, Haggart, Patterson, Smith, Carling, Wallace, Wood.
Northwest: Daly.

Ministers with portfolios: Maritime Provinces 4, Quebec 4, Ontario 3 (Bowell, Haggart, Patterson), Northwest 1.

Ministers without portfolios: Ontario 2 (Smith, Carling).

As to religion:

Protestants—Carling, Bowell, Foster, Patterson, Tupper, Ives, Daly, Haggart, Wallace, Wood—10.

Catholics—Thompson, Caron, Ouimet, Angers, Costigan, Curran, Smith—7.

The great spending departments, those with patronage, go thus: Quebec—Post-office, Public Works. Ontario—Railways and Canals, Militia, Customs, Inland Revenue. Northwest—Interior.

Out of the 14 seats in the Cabinet no less than 9 are filled by lawyers, and of the 3 minor positions 2 are filled by members of the legal profession. Eleven out of a total of 17 is a pretty good percentage in favor of the law.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell will sit in the Senate, in place of the late Senator Alexander, and Hon. Mr. Angers will represent Lavalliere division in the same house.

Hon. J. A. Chapleau has been appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec.

Accountants' Shortage.

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—It is stated that a demand has been made on the London Guarantee Company, through its Ottawa agent, Mr. Stuart Henderson, for $2256, as the amount of shortage in the accounts of the late accountant and assistant accountant of the House of Commons.

No appointment has yet been made to the accountantship, but it is understood that the assistant accountantship has been filled by the appointment of D. W. Cameron, son of the late Chief Justice Sir Matthew Crooks Cameron, and for several years secretary to the Conservative whips in the House.

"Dug" is very popular with both the members and the press and his appointment will give great satisfaction.

A New Broom.

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—Mr. Collingwood Schreiber has entered upon his duties as Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals. He is credited with the intention of dismissing all the extra clerks in his department and insisting that the work shall be done by the permanent staff.

SOULANGES NOMINATION.

Addresses Given by Hon. J. A. Ouimet and Mr. Laurier.

MONTREAL, Dec. 7.—The nominations for Soulanges took place yesterday at Coteau Landing. Mr. Bain, Conservative, and Dr. Bourbonnais, Liberal, were nominated.

Speeches were made by Hon. J. A. Ouimet, representing the Dominion Government, and Mr. Laurier, the Liberal leader.

Mr. Ouimet declared that the Government would render justice to the minority in the Manitoba school question.

Mr. Laurier did not make any declaration in the Manitoba school question, which he declared would soon have to be discussed in Parliament. He denounced the Government's general policy.

A BELGIAN COLONY

To Settle on Valuable Land in the Neighborhood of Winnipeg.

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—Mr. Ververt, a Belgian, who has been spending some months in traveling about the Canadian Northwest, with a view to investment there, had an interview yesterday with the officers of the Department of the Interior. Mr. Ververt expressed himself as highly pleased with the C.P.R. country, and proposes settling a large number of families of his fellow-countrymen in the neighborhood of Winnipeg, where he himself intends to reside.

Mr. Ververt prefers to buy improved land of the best quality only, and will assist such of his countrymen as need help.

France's Pacific Intentions.

PARIS, Dec. 6.—President Carnot presided at the meeting of the Cabinet which was held this afternoon, and at which was discussed the declaration of policy which the ministry will make on Thursday.

It is understood that it was agreed to allow a discussion with regard to respective powers of the judiciary and legislature immediately after the reading of the ministry's declaration, which, it is expected, will lay special stress on the pacific intention of the cabinet.

Erie Canal Closed.

ALBANY, Dec. 7.—At the Department of the State Superintendent of Public Works it was stated yesterday that the water has been drawn off this end of the Erie Canal, leaving a dozen boats at Schenectady, thus closing navigation for this season.

The amount of fees received for the month of November was as follows: Public School, $10.50; Collegiate Institute, $208.00.

THE FINANCE REPORT.

was presented by Dr. Burnham, chairman, and recommended the payment of the following accounts:

Miss Lendrum, $7.50; J. R. Stratton, $10.43; Wm. Donell, $8.00; J. Kincaid, $12.37; H. Best, $3.05; H. S. MacDonald, $17.80; Peterborough Water Co., $20.31.

The report was adopted.

COMMITTEE ON APPOINTMENTS' REPORT

The report of the Committee on Appointment was presented by Mr. Dumble, chairman, as follows:

The chairman and members of the Board of Education:

GENTLEMEN.—The Committee on Appointments beg leave to report in reference to the several matters to them referred as follows:—

As to the application of Mr. Wm. Smith for an increase of salary your committee recommend that the matter be left over until the whole matter of teachers' salaries be reconsidered.

As to the regulations relating to the janitors' duties your committee beg to report the regulations as amended and submitted herein.

As to the applications for the position of Inspector of the Public School, your committee have received 24 applications and have selected for the position Mr. J. W. Garvin, headmaster of the Woodstock Public School at a salary of $1,300 a year. The committee by a majority vote recommend his appointment.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. W. DUMBLE,
Chairman.

THE MINORITY BRING IN A REPORT.

The minority of said committee beg to report that they have investigated the matter of school inspection and they find that the city of London population 32,000, is the smallest place in Ontario which employs an inspector for his whole time, his salary is $1,100. The city of Guelph pays $500, city of St. Thomas $250, city of Chatham $400, city of Stratford $50. The South Riding of Hasting, City of Belleville towns of Deseronto, Trenton and village of Wallbridge pay for all, $1,005. The entire county of Lincoln, city of St. Catharines, town of Niagara, village of Beamsville, Grimsby, Merriton and Port Dalhousie, for all pay $1,215.

The gentlemen whom the committee have selected, for a salary of $900 supervises the schools at Woodstock, having as many as or more teachers than Peterborough, teaches a department half of each day and for about three months in the fall conducts a Model School, while we offer him $1200 a year simply for inspecting and supervising our public schools.

In view of our conviction that our public school, under the present management have attained an excellence not surpassed in the province, we do not feel justified in recommending so great an expenditure, for inspection. We bear in mind that an excellent headmaster, Mr. Smith, has for years had charge of a very heavy room and has done good work at $900 year and to put over the heads of our masters a gentleman whose duties will be very light, at a salary of $1,200 per year, seems unfair and does not meet with our approval. We regret the invidious task of making a minority report but our duty to the ratepayers compells us to put ourselves so that we will not be blamed for an unnecessary waste of their money.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Signed) D. W. DUMBLE,
JAS. STEVENSON,
J. J. HARTLEY,
W. H. WRIGHTON,
THOS. RUTHERFORD.
DR. BOUCHER.

LIVELY DISCUSSION OVER MINORITY REPORT.

Mr. Dumble moved the adoption of the minority report.

Mr. Hill moved that the majority report be received and adopted.

Mr. Burnham—Has the matter of the minority report been referred to the committee?

Dr. Boucher seconded the adoption of the minority report as he thought they should have their views put on record. He would give all the support he knew how to the new inspector, who had been brought here at the will of the majority, and he wished it to be understood that it was not through factious opposition that he wished the views of the minority put on record.

Mr. Hamilton said this was indeed a most extraordinary proceeding on the part of Mr. Dumble and the others in bringing in a report of this nature. The committee had all unanimously declared in favor of accepting Mr. Garvin's application for the position of inspector.

Mr. Hartley had voted for him and Mr. Stevenson declared himself strongly in favor of the choice. There was no amendment moved to the appointment and no dissent at all. It was a strange state of affairs; a deliberative body after successive meetings had decided in favor of the change of inspectorship and settled upon a man to be appointed, he considered after all this, it was impertinent to bring in such a report. Mr. Dumble was one of those persons who never knew enough to leave things like this alone. All along many of the board had been treated with disrespect and unfairness by him and the speaker personally did not now how to treat a matter snch as this.

Mr. Hamilton then referred to the letters of Mr. Dumble published in the papers replying to Mr. Law's letter and was referring to that paragraph where Mr. Dumble unjustly said that the latters letter was comparing the excellent public school system to shipyards, etc., when

Mr. Wrighton said—Mr. Hamilton, you are out of order.

Mr. Hamilton—I am not; I am speaking to the question.

Mr. Wrighton—You are resorting to personalities and I shall not allow that. It is not speaking to the question.

Mr. Hamilton—I am speaking to the question. I do not intend referring to personalities.

Mr. Wrighton—Go on, then.

Mr. Hamilton, continuing, said it was unfair for Mr. Dumble, as chairman of the Committee on Appointments, to use the prestige of his position in a matter like this to force a minority report upon the Board.

THEY PROTEST AGAINST THE EXPENSE.

Mr. Dumble said he was not quarrelling about the selection of an Inspector. That matter was settled outside. As a committee of six who did not agree with the wish of the majority, they protested, as stated in their report, against the expense of $1200 a year. This was the point at issue. They had no objection to the man, but protesting against the employment of him at $1200 per year. By presenting a minorty report, it showed that the matter was not carried with the approval of the whole board. They

THE BIGGEST DAY IN 7 YEARS!

Saturday, December 3rd was the biggest day MR. J. J. SHEEHY has had in seven years. Why is this? Surely not because there is less competition. Certainly not because inducements are not being held out by others. Most assuredly not because prices of farm products are showing an upward tendency. Then why??

Simply because the purchasing public of the town and surrounding country have read Mr. Sheehy's advertisements, have inwardly digested them and have concluded that cheap sale or no cheap sale Mr. Sheehy is bound not to be undersold.

We want every day in December to be a big day. How are we to accomplish this? Simply by offering to the public better value for the money than can be had elsewhere. Just cast your eye over the following quotations:—

All Wool Flannels, 26 in. wide, - - 17½ Good Linen Towels each - - - 5½
9 lb. Wool Blankets, - - - - - $3.75 Grey Wool Blankets, - - - 31c. a lb.
14 yds. Heavy Grey Canton Flannel, $1.00 25 yards Factory Cotton, - - $1.00

These few quotations will probably give an idea of what we are doing and a glance at our BARGAIN TABLE in the centre of our store will convince the most skeptical that when it comes to general bargains we certainly are very decidedly "in it."

THE INSPECTOR APPOINTED.

had a perfect right to bring in a report of this character.

Mr, Hill stated if the minority did not oppose the appointment of Mr. Garvin it would make the people of the town think very little of him and give the board an aspect of injudiciousness. It was a peculiar position to be in. If they did object to the appointment of Mr. Garvin, why did they not bring in a report recommending Dr. Tilley or some one in his place? There would be some common sense in this, but their present action appeared to simply stultify Mr. Garvin's appointment by the committee.

Dr. Boucher maintained that it was through no reflection on M. Garvin. He spoke highly of that gentleman's attainments and culture. There was not a solitary thing in the minority report derogatory to him.

Mr. Dumble repeated he saw all the applications and was impressed favourably with Mr. Garvin. "Our action," said Mr. Dumble, "is simply a protest against increased expenditure in view of our present circumstances."

Mr. Hill stated that re dismissal of music master no report like this was brought in; if there had been matters would have been different. This was not a good way to have a man who was coming to town to supervise the school, for the board to pass such a resolution as the minority report.

Mr. Law inquired if the report was regular. Mr. Hartley had voted for the appointment, Mr. Stevenson was favorable and the remainder gave consent by silence. They had no right to bring in a report of this nature.

Mr. Ferguson said the minority report was prepared outside the meeting of the committee on appointments, so such report was drawn up there.

A voice, "They must have held a caucus."

Mr. Hartley said he had voted in favor of Mr. Garvin, as he believed him to be a capable inspector, but it was against the expenditure he objected.

The discussion was continued in a spirited manner at greater length by Messrs. Hamilton, Dr. Burnham and others, which owing to the crowded state of the EXAMINER'S columns caused by the accounts of many other outside events it is impossible to report. Matters were terminated and a climax reached, the chairman first putting the minority report which was lost, and declaring the majority report carried.

OTHER MASTERS CROP UP.

On motion three accounts for insurance from Messrs. Cox & Davis, Guardian; Mercantile Fire Insurance Company; and W. H. Cluxton were ordered to be paid.

SERVICE AND EFFICIENCY TO COUNT.

Mr. Hill moved, seconded by Dr. Burnham, that hereafter the salaries of teachers in the public schools of the town be graded according to length of service and efficiency, and that the matter and question of grading the salaries be referred to the Committee on Appointments with instructions to report at the next meeting of the Board in order that the changes may be effected before the beginning of the new year.

Mr. Hill said for a long time the system of promoting teachers in our public schools was antiquarian and pernicious. If a teacher was a good instructor of the 1st form he believed in keeping her there and not elevating her to another position which she might not fulfill nearly so well. In the town of Picton the highest salary was paid to a leading teacher of the first book. The Board expected equally as good work from a junior as well as a senior teacher. He had made it a business to inquire of the teachers and found a majority in favor of the change. The present inspector renders his duties as defined and the concurrence of the board gave him the privilege of moving a teacher from a first class to a third class and vice versa but under this proposed system the grading of teachers had nothing to do with salary,

In answer to a question of Mr. Dumble's, Mr. Hill stated that as each teacher was promoted now they obtained an increase in salary, lady teachers for instance starting at $250 and raising to $325 per year, being moved from say a second form where she was an excellent teacher to a third class form where she was not nearly so good. Under the proposed system each teacher remained in the one form or the form she was best qualified to fill and had her salary increased by experience and efficiency and not by grading.

The motion was carried and referred to Committee on Appointments.

OTHER MOTIONS CARRIED.

On motion the Property Committee were authorized to purchase a supply of winter wood for the coming year—particularly for the South Ward School—and the chairman, Mr. McBain, instructed to pay farmers and others when they brought loads of them—to make out bills at once and pay the vendors.

Moved by Dr. Burnham, seconded by Mr. McKee, that the election of school trustees take place at the time and place as required by statute and the secretary be instructed to publish the necessary notice.—Carried.

WATER LOOKED AFTER.

Moved by Dr. Boucher, second by Mr. Law, that Mr. McBain, chairman of the Property Committee have the water supply at West Ward School properly attended to.—Carried.

A CHANGE IN THE YEAR.

Dr. Burnham moved, seconded by Mr. Hill, that the teacher's year be changed to the 30th of June instead of in October.—Carried.

WATERWORKS AND CLASSIFICATION.

The matter of arranging for the water supply with the waterworks company at a fixed rate was left to the Property Committee.

Mr. Hall moved, seconded by Mr. McKay, that in future no teacher be employed by this board who may have a certificate of a lower grade than a second class professional certificate.—Carried.

On motion the chairman of the property committee was instructed to get four more desks for Mr. McKay's room to increase the accomodation as it was in a crowded state.

Dr. Burnham, moved, seconded by Mr. Ferguson that 100 copies of janitor's duties be printed.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Dumble, seconded by Mr. McBain that the sum of $25, half a year's salary for making out examination papers be paid Dr. Tilley —Carried.

Board then adjourned at 9.30 o'clock.

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT.

The Late Wm. Lehane, Sr., of Emily.

Wm. Lehane, sr., one of the oldest residents of the township of Emily and the oldest justice of the peace in Victoria county, passed away at the advanced age of 86 years. The church of which he was a devout member was crowded. The requiem mass was sung by Revs. Father McEvay, grand nephew of the deceased, Fathers Connelly of Emily, and Collins of Peterborough, acting as deacon and subdeacon. Rev. Father Rudkins, rector of Peterborough cathedral, was master of ceremonies. Father Laurent, V.G., Lindsay, conducted the choir, and Father Coty of Hamilton, preached the funeral sermon. Miss Minnie Corkery of Lindsay, grand neice of deceased, presided at the organ. The funeral cortege was over a mile in length, attesting to the esteem in which he was held by all classes of citizens of every denomination.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage defying the utmost art of man to rival

A wise Creator has provided mean for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

FRANKLIN.

From Our Own Correspondent.

One of the worst fires ever known in this district occurred on the farm of Mr. Jas. Pritchard, some distance north of this village on Sunday night 24th ult, when most of the barns, outbuildings, grain, farm stock and implements were destroyed, It appears the fire originated from a spark from a chimney alighting on a lot of straw which had lately been threshed in the barn yard some one hundred feet away. Mr. Pritchard, his mother and sisters had retired about 8 o'clock and were sound asleep when awakened by neighbours shouting fire about 9 o'clock; but the fire was then too far advanced to save anything as the flames consumed everything in their reach with fearful violence owing to the strong wind which was blowing at the time. The loss is estimated at over $2,000 on which is a small insurance.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Gents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

HALL, INNES & CO.

130, 132, 134 SIMCOE STREET.

FORCED

REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked or renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 8 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, so we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well, if not better, in the future.

JOHN McKEE'S
NEW
PHARMACY PALACE.

It is with great pleasure that I now announce my removal into my splendid new premises, No. 394 George Street, two doors south of my old stand.

The NEW PHARMACY PALACE gives to Peterborough one of the handsomest and most complete drug stores in Canada. But, while we have devoted great attention to the architectural beauty and convenience of our new premises, we have bestowed our best skill and experience in procuring a thoroughly reliable stock of Pure Drugs, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, Druggist Sundries, &c.

In addition to our regular lines we can offer exceptional value and variety in our elegant stock of Fine Imported New Perfumes, Toilet Articles, Brushes, English and Canadian Toilet Soaps, Sponges, and a variety of other similar goods which require your personal inspection to fully appreciate them.

OUR STANDARD PROPRIETARIES ARE:

McKee's Ontario Cough Remedy,
McKee's Celerine Bitters,
McKee's Beef, Iron and Wine,
McKee's Family Aperient Pill,
McKee's Hair Invigorator.

These we can recommend as faithful and conscientious specialties in each case.

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS carefully and skillfully compounded.

FAMILY RECIPES AND HORSE AND CATTLE MEDICINES made up accurately and at reasonable prices.

Prices will continue to be very moderate in all cases.

CONGRATULATIONS.

The following congratulatory lines have been received from Messrs. Parke, Davis & Co.: the well-known American wholesale druggists

DETROIT, Nov. 4th, 1892.

Mr. John McKee:—

SIR,—We have to congratulate you upon your enterprise and progressive spirit, inasmuch as our representative in Canada advises us that your new quarters are conceded to be the finest in Canada.

PARKE, DAVIS & Co.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to take this opportunity of thanking my numerous customers for their liberal patronage during the past fourteen years, and would solicit a continuance of their favours in the future. Your orders will be always appreciated, no matter how small, and you can rest assured that my constant aim will be to give my customers the most reliable goods at the most reasonable prices.

JOHN McKEE,
Druggist and Chemist.

Charlotte Street Y.P.S.C.E.

A largely attended regular meeting of the Charlotte street Y.P.S.C.E., Mr. G. Cluxton, presiding, was held Monday night. Mr. P. Hamilton opened the proceedings with prayer. Mr. Toovey gave a fine reading. Messrs. Squires, Steers and Wesley on acceptable trio. Mr. Chapman, Y. M. C.A. Secretary gave an instructive address from Romans xii chapter and 12th verse. Miss Fawcett gave a select solo and short addresses by Messrs. Morrison and Toovey and Miss Curts. brought to a close a highly successful consecration meeting.

A Decided Mark of Progress.

It is a pleasant thing to succeed, Next to succeeding ourselves it is a pleasure to see or hear of others doing so; and when our young friend Mr. J. J. Sheehy informs us in his change of ad. (which appears in to-day's paper and certainly deserves the perusal of any buyer of dry goods) that on Saturday last he had the biggest day of his seven years experience as a dry goods merchant in Peterborough. We were very pleased to hear it, and are forced to the conclusion that when such was the case, even under the present keen competition, certainly extraordinary inducements were being held out by him.

Wedding Bells.

Yesterday Mr. Thomas Laidlaw Anderson, of Omemee, was married to Miss Mary J. Cromie, Peterborough. The happy event took place at the residence of the bride's mother, 121 Brock street, Rev. Mr. Goldsmith officiating. Miss Aggie Cromie acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by Mr. H. T. Everett. The presents were numerous and costly, among them being a handsome china tea set accompanied by a congratulatory address from the employees of P. Simons & Co., a handsome lamp from her Sunday school class, also accompanied by an address, and a beautiful bouquet from St. Paul's church Christian Endeavour branch, all going to show the high esteem in which the bride was held by her associates. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson take up residence in Omemee.

Ashburnham School Board.

The Board met last night, all the members present. An application from all the teachers asking that their salaries be paid at the beginning of the last week of the was favourably considered. A woman applied personally to be allowed the privilege of not sending her grandson to school as she could not support him. The Board instructed her that she would have to send him to school according to law. The committee as to caretaker's duties reported on a set of rules which were adopted. J. Doupe, caretaker, was allowed $8.33 for extra services. The secretary was instructed to notify the teachers that they must be at the school fifteen minutes before the opening each day.

FORESTERS' SUCCESSFUL CONCERT.

A Large House—A Programme that gave Pleasure—A Success Throughout.

Foresters, of no matter what order, have the inherent enterprise and go in them, to "get there." Another case in point was the highly successful concert of Court St. Peter Catholic Order of Foresters. There was a fine house, and the programme was heard with great pleasure. Misses M. McCabe and M. Butler presented a fine pianoforte duet, Misses D. Dolan, J. Doris and J. Riley a trio on the same instrument, as did Misses M. Morrow, M. Kelly and M. Doherty. Mr. R. J. Hillier gave two comic songs, and was each time rewarded with a recall. Miss Dineen sang "Yellow Roses" so well that she had to give another song. Mr. O'Donoghue also gave a brace of lively humorous songs—received with loud applause and hotly encored. Mr. William Burdick, the harmonica virtuoso, gave two exhibitions of his skill, which were enthusiastically applauded. Prof. Monk gave two brilliant pianoforte solos. both loudly encored. For one encore he varied with exhibitions of his skill on violin and cornet. Mr. E. Quintal's "Marseillaise" was sung with true French vigour. Miss M. McCabe's singing of "For You" earned her a recall, and Miss Lily Jackson sang "A Bird From Over the Sea" with such good effect that she had to respond to a hearty encore. There were two excellent dramatic sketches, the first "Never Send for a Doctor," by Misses L. Clancy and B. Costello, and the farce "The Greatest Plague of Life," presented excellently by Misses F. Holmes, M. Donohue, M. Walsh, L. Simons, J. Frazer, M. McCabe, M. Cahill, M. Lane. A fine tableaux representing Faith, Hope, Charity, Science and Religion, brought the programme up to "God Save the Queen," which ended a delightful evening's enjoyment, a credit to the Foresters' committee who provided it.

Butcher's orchestra opened each part of the programme with capitally rendered selections.

The several accompaniments were well played by Misses M. Butler, K. Hurley, M. Doherty and Mr. Armstrong.

The pianoforte used on the occasion was kindly loaned by Messrs. Jackson & Co.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—There was no police court this morning.

—The market this morning was very small—no change in prices of produce.

—The Port Hope Curling Club organised last night and elected officers for the season.

By Hood's Sarsaparilla—Blood Poisoned by Canker.

Read the following from a grateful mother: "My little boy had Scarlet Fever when 4 years old, and it left him very weak and with blood poisoned with canker. His eyes became so inflamed that his sufferings were intense, and for seven weeks he Could Not Open His Eyes.

I took him twice during that time to the Eye and Ear Infirmary on Charles street, but their remedies failed to do him the faintest shadow of good. I commenced giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla and it soon cured him. I have never doubted that it saved his sight, even if not his very life. You may use this testimonial in any way you choose. MRS. NICHOLL'S LEGACY.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Being out of town yesterday I did not have an opportunity of saying to the people of Peterborough that I do not sympathize with the action of the town council on Monday evening with reference to Mrs. Nicholl's munificent gift for parks.

I am fully conversant with the views of the executors on this matter, and I am quite satisfied that just as soon as the estate will be justified in doing so, parks will be provided.

The grant for parks was entirely at the suggestion of Mr. Hall and the town owes him a debt of gratitude in this connection as it does also for the Nicholls Hospital.

The council will act with prudence by leaving the matter for the present as it is in the hands of the executors until the proper time comes for action. The public will be better served by awaiting results and I have every confidence that Mr. McGill and Mr. Hall will see to it that the parks are supplied as soon as it is possible to make the necessary arrangements.

Yours truly,
J. STEVENSON.

Various Reports From Townships—Officers Elected for the Ensuing Year—Report of Provincial Convention at Guelph—The Meetings Well Attended—Other Jottings and Incidents of the Gathering of Robert Raikes, Disciples.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The sixth annual convention of the County of Peterborough Sabbath School Association opened at three o'clock in the Sunday school room of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. Rev. President Thompson, of Hastings, was in the chair and Rev. A. McWilliams conducted the opening devotional exercises. Messrs. T. W. Robinson and S. R. Armstrong were appointed minute secretaries. The following nominating and business committee was then appointed: Dr. Harrison, (convenor), Messrs. Merrill, Smith, Watts, Succee, Borland, Hopkins and Rev. Messrs. Edwards and Trotter.

Afterward highly satisfactory and encouraging reports were given for Dummer, by Mr. A. Watts; from Smith and Lakefield, by Mr. Jos. Succee; from Otonabee by Mr. R. English; from Asphodel and Belmont by the president; from Monaghan by Rev. A. MacWilliams, who reported that the committee had decided it was not necessary to organize that township. Harvey by Mr. Merrill, 5 schools; Burleigh township by Rev. J. McEwen. On the suggestion of Rev. John McEwen, the Business committee was authorized to nominate a statistical secretary.

On motion Dr. Scott was elected.

Rev. Mr. McEwen moved, seconded by Rev. Mr. Hyde, that the report from the township be referred to the business committee and that the committee be instructed to consider the advisability of tabulating the information they contain and publishing it in connection with the official report of the convention.—Carried.

The hymn, "To the work, to the work, we are servants of God," was then sung. Rev. J. McEwen, secretary, then reported in reference to the proposal to divide the province into districts, which had been referred to the county association by the Provincial executive.

Dr. Harrison said it was proposed to include in this district the counties of Hastings, Peterborough, Durham, Haliburton, Victoria and Northumberland.

Moved by Rev. J. McEwen, that a committee of three be appointed to take the matter of holding the convention in a district at a given time, day after day, and to see if the township conventions could not be held in a certain order either before or after the county convention. The motion was carried and Sheriff Hall, Mr. T. W. Robinson and Rev. Mr. McEwen were appointed on the committee.

Mr. A. Watts read the report of the nominating committee which recommended the the appointment of the following members of the executive:—President, Dr. Harrison, Keene; vice-president, Mrs. Jas. Kendry, Peterborough; secretary-treasurer, Rev. J. McEwan, Lakefield; statistical secretary, Dr. Scott, Peterborough; executive committee, A. Watts, Warsaw; B. F. Doxsee, Hastings; Miss L. Kennedy, Otonabee; J. Succee, Smith; T. W. Robinson, Sheriff Hall, Mrs. J. B. Hunter, Peterborough; H. S. Armstrong, Ashburnham, W. M. Graham, Lakefield; W. H. Merrill, Harvey; D. Anderson, Apsley; W. E. Roxburgh, Norwood; W. Matheson, Belmont; and J. Comstock, Westwood; auditors, W. G. Morrow, and J. H. Roper.

On motion of Sheriff Hall, seconded by Rev. A. MacWilliams, the report was adopted.

The session closed with a hymn and the benediction by the president.

TUESDAY EVENING SERVICE.

There was a large attendance at the convention last evening, the audience comfortably filling St. Andrew's church. Rev. Mr. Goldsmith, after the singing of "The Light of the World is Jesus," led in prayer; especially on behalf of the Sunday School did he invoke divine blessing.

The chairman, Mr. Campbell gave a pointed and stirring address, emphasizing the fact that it should be the first aim of a school to teach the Word of God in a spiritual more than an historical way. The influence of the teacher was great and they should not teach one thing and practice another. It was the aim of the Sabbath School to seek the conversion of children, giving special attention to their early conversion. Two thirds of the Christians were converted before they were 20 years of age. The speaker closed by thanking the people for their support during the past year.

Dr. Harrison, the newly elected president, following thanked the convention for the honor confered upon him. He then dwelt upon the successful work of the past year at some length and said there was great cause for thankfulness to God for all his goodness and kindness. The speaker then called on Rev. Mr. Thompson, the retiring president who gave a highly interesting account of this year's provincial convention which was held at Guelph, and at which 750 delegates were present. One special feature was the mission work which was gaining ground and constantly growing. He spoke of how a model Sunday school should be conducted and the best methods for teachers to control their classes and get them interested

A hymn was sung and Rev. Mr. McEwen, county secretary, gave a very instructive report of county association work.

Rev. Dr. Smith, pastor of Metropolitan Church, Toronto, was warmly welcomed. At the earnest request of the county secretary he came down to address them. The subject which the speaker handled in a forcible and logical manner, was "The Sabbath School, the Harvest Field of the Church's Membership." The doctor compared the Sunday school to a machine shop or a great farm in the respect to its bringing a great harvest. The harvest field, which was the Sabbath school, was the best place to sow seed for the harvest. It was the place, as it were, to catch the fish. The harvest field was suggestive of ripeness and gladness. The church that paid the most attention to the boys would be the strongest and best and most influential. They should endeavour to win the boys for Christ and not teach them in a hysterical manner.

After the singing of a hymn and taking up of the collection, a vote of thanks was moved by Rev. McEwen, seconded by Mr. Campbell, to the Rev. Dr. Smith for his able address.

After a few remarks by Dr. Harrison the meeting closed with benediction pronounced by Dr. Smith.

An invitation is extended to all the choirs in town to take part in the singing with St. Andrew's choir this evening.

The report of the proceedings of this convention is held over until to-morrow. Following is the programme of the convention this evening:

7.30—Devotional Service—Rev. Jas. H. Locke.
8.00—"The Teacher Gathering Ideas"—Geo. Anderson, Esq.
8.25—Praise.
8.30—"The Relation of the Sabbath School to the Coming of Christ's Kingdom"—Hon. S. H. Blake, Toronto.
9.10—Praise and collection.
9.15—The Missionary Work of the Provincial Association in Northwestern Ontario.—Rev. W. G. Hanna, B.A., Uxbridge.
9.25—Doxology.

A SAD, SAD CASE OF SUICIDE.

Mr. John Doherty in a Moment of Mental Aberration Takes his Life.

One of the most shocking cases of suicide that has saddened our citizens, took place this morning between two and three o'clock, when Mr. John Doherty, an old and respected citizen, cut and gashed his throat fearfully with a new dirk knife, apparently purchased for that specific purpose.

This morning about three o'clock Mr. Doherty arose, but that fact did not attract Mrs. Doherty's attention, as owing to being troubled with asthma and insomnia, he rose frequently at nights. On this occasion he acted in a very peculiar manner. He went to a cabinet and took therefrom some money and valuable papers, and giving them to Mrs. Doherty, told her she might need them. He then said he wished to go outside, and went. The length of his absence, conjoined with Mr. Doherty's symptoms of mental derangement, alarmed her and she went in search of him. Entering the back yard she saw her husband emerging from the door of a building, the blood pouring in streams from a wide gash in his throat. She caught him in her arms, and laid him down, and at once despatched her daughter for Rev. Father Rudkins who lives only a short distance away, but when he reached the scene Mr. Doherty was dead. The authorities were at once communicated with, but the coroner, after investigating the circumstances, which pointed so directly to the fact of Mr. Doherty being in unsound mind that he issued the following certificate:

I hereby certify that Rev. Father Rudkins and Mr. Thomas Kelly, have called on me in reference to the suicide of the late John Doherty, and from the information given me, I am of the opinion it is not necessary to hold an inquest, the information received pointing to the probability of temporary insanity being the cause, he recently having been noticed in a despondent condition. Signed

R. W. BELL, M.D.,
Coroner.

All the circumstances go to show that Mr. Doherty was so mentally deranged at the time of committing the deed that he was not morally responsible. He has for a long time been in an exceedingly despondent condition—frequently sitting silently weeping—and when asked why would refer to the death of his son. He moved about the streets in a dejected manner and his friends would often take him for drives to disperse his melancholy. He has had a great deal of affliction, having buried all but two of a large family of children, and only a few days ago the funeral of a relative took place from his house. On this occasion Mr. Doherty remarked to ex-Mayor Stevenson that this was the fourteenth funeral that had taken place from his house, and that his own would be the next. It seems that in his disordered mind his suicide has had a place for some time past. He was buying grain an the market and remarked to a friend that the latter would not see him there next year, and the sharp dirk knife with which the deed was done was evidently bought for the purpose, for none of the inmates of the house had ever seen it before.

The deceased gentleman was well known, especially among the farming community, from his position of market clerk for many years. He has been a resident of the town for about 42 years, to which he came from Limerick, Ireland, where he was born, about 56 years ago. During his years in town he has won the esteem of the community in a marked degree, and was one of our most substantial—as to worldly matters—and best respected citizens. Mr. Doherty was for a time a member of the council for No. 2 Ward, a member of the Separate School Board, and for the past 15 or 16 years treasurer of St. Vincent de Paul Society. His family, which now consists of his widow and a son and daughter, will have the sympathy of the community in an especial degree in the overwhelmingly sudden and supremely sad affliction that has fallen upon them.

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH.

Lecture by Rev. I. M. Stewart in the Sons of England Hall.

Nearly one hundred persons, principally ladies, assembled in the Sons of England hall last night to hear the Rev. Isabella M. Stewart, C.S.D., pastor of the church of Christian Science, Toronto, deliver her lecture. The subject was, "Why the need of establishing another church, and under the name of Christian Science." Mr. Lowe, of Lowe & Sons, Charlotte street, took the chair and briefly introduced the lecturer. Mrs. Stewart is a fresh looking lady not more than thirty-five years of age. She is a pleasing speaker with a clear accent and fine delivery. The lecture was chiefly historical. Taking the Israelitish tribe, and Moses as their leader as the keystone of her lecture, she took her audience through all their well known travels through the wilderness, on to the promised land; made special references to the old prophets and prophecies which she chose to make bear upon her interesting theme; she then traced the Messiah's advent until His coming and dwelt upon his teaching and life as the great example for Christian scientists. "Medicine has had its day," she said, and with it sickness had increased right along, century after century, ever since the days of hypocrites. Christian science, thoroughly understood would save men from sin, sickness and death, and if only five righteous persons were found in Peterborough they could save the whole town, provided they understood the word of God and practised along the plane of Christian science." A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the lecturer for her interesting address. All those who wished to consult with her as to the position of the new church could do so at the residence of Mr. Lowe, Charlotte street.

The Lack Of Snow

Don't disturb our business one whit. Our measure book keeps piling up the orders for Suits and Overcoats just the same as if the snow was mountains high. Our customers, like sensible fellows, are looking ahead. The cold wave is coming and they know it, and they ain't going to wait until both lungs are frozen before they order warm winter clothing.

Take Pete's advice, you fellows that are waiting until it gets as cold as Greenland, and leave your measure on the spot. He can make you a Suit or Overcoat in 10 hours if you like. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

"PRICE!" to suit your purse. Men like bargains as well as women do—almost.

"FIT!" Well, we do love to see the man that's hard to fit come in our store.

"STUFF!" Yes, we've got the stuff in any kind of cloth you like. Always tasty and good. Now, catch on; only 4 weeks to Christmas.

"STYLE!" We are as familiar with the wants of our patrons as you are with your own door yard or the multiplication table.

A FILTER FOR MILK.

Description of an Apparatus Now in Use at Copenhagen.

The department of state publishes a number of documents, forwarded by United States Consul Henry B. Rider, in relation to the milk supply of Copenhagen, which it seems is rigidly guarded against adulteration and infection. Among other precautions, all milk sold in the town is required to be filtered by passing through an apparatus described as follows:

Two enameled-iron tanks, A and B, on different levels, are connected by a pipe opening into the bottom of each, so that milk poured into the upper tank comes up as a kind of spring at the bottom of the lower. In the bottom tank (B) are three layers of gravel (1, 2 and 3)—that in the lowest layer about half the size of a pea, in the middle layer somewhat smaller, and in the third or top layer a little larger than a pin's head. The layers are separated from each other by perforated tin trays resting on galvanized rings H H H, with india-rubber rings G G G, between, to protect the enamel. At E is shown an india-rubber ring to preserve enamel against the iron foot-piece or base F. On the top of the uppermost layer of gravel are six layers of fine cloth, I. The whole is kept in position by a pyramidal frame work which presses down the tin trays. As the milk rises to the top of the tank it passes off (through pipe K K) into a large storage or mixing receptacle, C, and thence into the bottling room, through pipe M, the upright part of which is perforated with a number of holes so as to draw milk from every part of the tank C and so equalize the quality.

There are four of these filters — one small one for cream, one very large one for children's milk, and two large ones for the other milks. Through one of the two large ones the sweet milk is first passed, through the other half-skimmed milk, and then the buttermilk, so that the lower classes may not interfere in any way with the better qualities.

FEEDING LIVE STOCK.

To Secure Early Maturity Animals Must Be Kept Thrifty.

It is evident that with some classes of stock the farmer who feeds for market and realizes a profit must do a good many things. At the start, to be a succesful feeder he must of necessity be a good one. He must feed from the start. To allow an animal to make a slow growth and then when a sufficient development has been reached in this way to feed it for market will add to the cost to such an extent that in many cases no profit will be realized. Stock must be kept thrifty and growing in order to secure early maturity. The stock should as far as possible be ready for market at a certain age—hogs at not over ten months, cattle at not over three years; in a majority of cases two and a half is better. One decided advantage in keeping stock thrifty is that a better advantage can be taken of the market than in any other way. Yet, at the same time, in many cases it is a good plan to feed to a certain season, being ready to sell, however, whenever a really profitable price can be realized.

The food supplied should always be selected to produce the results desired in the best manner possible, changing or varying as may seem necessary or best to secure that end in the shortest time and at the lowest cost.

Each feeder must in a great measure determine the ration that he can most economically supply, as with one some materials may be used that with others would prove too costly. The feeding must be done regularly, liberally and systematically, working to accomplish the end in view in an economical, business-like manner.

But to all of this must be added stock capable, under the treatment outlined, of producing something rather above the average, as it is only by this plan that the largest results are profitable. The farmer that gives his time to take care of and supplies his feed to a class of stock that, when ready to market, will not, with the treatment given, be only of average quality, must be willing at present prices to accept small profits for his trouble.

The careful feeder understands that the value of his time and of his feed is the same, whether they are fed to good, thrifty stock, or scrubs, but even with scrubs much better results are possible if proper care is taken in doing this work.—Prairie Farmer.

Blotches Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—In 1890 my body was covered with blotches and I was at last induced to try Burdock Blood Bitters; by the time I had used 3½ bottles of it I was completely cured, and I cannot speak too highly of it.

MRS. JAMES DESMOND, Halifax N.S.

The Profit in Ashes.

Ashes used as a fertilizer are generally very profitable. They supply potash to stimulate the nerves of the growing plants and are thus a true manure. In contact with clay soil they liberate the phosphate of lime, with manure they hasten decomposition. It does not pay a farmer to produce less on his land than it is capable of producing. A large crop exhausts its fertility more than a small one, but the cost of harvesting the large one is little more than it costs to harvest a small one. Part of the profits from the large crop can be used in restoring the fertility of the land. It is only when there is a profit from crops to restore fertility that failure in farming can be averted. To get immediate returns, potash is necessary in some form, and, if properly used, it will enable the farmer to have a succession of large crops, thereby leaving him profitable returns, part of which can be used in restoring the soil. With small crops and no returns, the end is failure, and ashes help to supply a strong and quick growth.—N. E. Homestead.

Push Growth in Young Stock.

A colt, calf or pig grows more rapidly when very young than at any other period, and the gain in the size can be secured at less cost at the early age. For that reason all young stock should be pushed in growth, not only during fall but through the winter also.

A Change of Food.

Cattle should be put on a partial course of dry food before winter, in order to gradually accustom them to the change from pasture. It is well known that when cows are suddenly removed from the fields to the barn there will be a shrinkage in the milk yield.

Will Kill Consumption.

The Norwegian cod is destined to kill consumption. It has always been known that its oil, when properly prepared, contains all the potent elements for rebuilding wasting tissues in the human body. The difficulty has been to conserve the energies of the oil in its refining, and this has only been accomplished by the manufacturers of "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil." All who suffer with lung troubles, and of course all who are threatened with consumption, should take it. In big bottles, 50c and $1.00, at all Drug Stores.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

SILVER TO FALL.

The Times Predicts It, And Says the Conference Will Be a Failure.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The Times, speaking editorially on the Monetary Conference, says: "It is not going too far to say that the Monetary Conference has already resulted in failure. When it was found that the Americans were not prepared to make the first move the conference kindly accommodated them.

"Mr. De Rothschild's proposals are a mystery, unless he wished to force the Americans to realize and admit that, except there was universal bi-metallism, there was no arrangement which would suit. If they were of this Machiavellian character they have apparently succeeded, for already in America strong objection has arisen to continue the purchase of silver.

"The childish talk indulged in two years ago respecting the ability of America to act in defiance of the elementary principles of economics has been abandoned in the presence of the plain fact that the Gresham law is not dead, and that inferior money still drives out better money if given a chance.

"It is probable there will be a sharp fall in silver when it is recognized that the conference will have been lost."

THE HALF-GUINEA.

It May Be Abolished to Suit the Advocates of Silver.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 6.—When the International Monetary Conference resumes its sittings to-day the first matter requiring settlement will be whether the report of the committee appointed to consider the Rothschild plan shall be further debated or the proposals of the American delegates proceeded with.

Mr. Rothschild, Sir C. Fremantle and Sir William Houldsworth, all of whom are British delegates, desire some expression of opinion regarding Rothschild's plan from the full conference. Bertram Currie, another British delegate, aiming to bring the conference to a speedy close, would accelerate the consideration of the American resolutions as hastening the winding up of the meeting.

Sir C. Fremantle with a view to resumption of the debate on the Rothschild plan has amended his declaration declining to pledge the English Government to withdraw its half sovereign pieces in favor of silver, by adding the words, "Except concurrently with the adoption of the Rothschild's project or some other proposal having the same compensatory value." Sir C. Fremantle, who is Deputy-Master of the British Mint, has never been known to take independent action or personal initiative, and it is therefore taken for granted that he is the mouthpiece of the British Government in announcing assent to the abolition of the half sovereign.

Mr. Dana Horton to-day, in speaking of the Monetary Conference, said:

It would be difficult to over-estimate the educational value of Rothschild's proposals. This conference is only a step in a long series. It is a lesson in the education of the nations of the advantage of co-operation in common interests.

Telegrams from Berlin to-day say that there is talk of the silver question being raised in the Reichstag, before the conference adjourns, with a view to inducing the Government to authorize the German delegates at the conference to go beyond the proposals Germany presented at the Paris conference of 1881.

King Leopold gave an audience to the delegates at the palace to-day in the presence of the Ministers.

The next meeting is expected to be of unusual interest. Congressman James B. McCreary, one of the United States delegates, is expected to make an important statement with reference to the American program and the probable future policy of his Government.

The special committee on proposals adjourned to-day without arriving at any decision on the proposals of C. F. Tietgen, the Danish delegate.

Colonists Ruined.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 6.—Owing to a series of bad crops in Samara large numbers of German colonists have been ruined. Many of them who desire to emigrate find it impossible to procure passports. This fact, however, does not prevent them from leaving the country. They steal across the frontier into Prussia and make their way to the ports, whence they emigrate to America.

Famine in Burmah.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The Times' correspondent at Rangoon, British Burmah, says that there is a severe famine in Khiangmai. The American missionaries are feeding the starving people. The Siamese Government is doing nothing to relieve the distress.

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 25, 1890.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

AUSTRIA'S POOR.

Forty Thousand Have Applied for Shelter for the Winter.

VIENNA, Dec. 6.—The unemployed workingmen at Weshring held a demonstration yesterday.

A Socialist named Romanat declared there were 94,000 persons in Austria who were idle through no fault of their own. Already applications have been made for shelter during the winter by 40,000 persons who have no homes.

The speaker was frequently interrupted with cries of "Down with the rich!" and "We must have work!"

The British Grain Trade.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says:

English and foreign wheats are dull and lower. Barley is 2d. dearer. Oats are steady. Corn is weaker. At to-day's market the English wheat offered was of better quality and prices were firmer.

American and Argentine wheats were 6d. cheaper. Russian and Indian were down 3d.

Flour was quiet; American met with good sale. Foreign oats were firm. Corn was dull pending the arrivals of the new American crop. Barley was depressed.

Expeditions Massacred.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 6.—The Reforme publishes a letter from Boma officially confirming the reports of the massacre of the expeditions under Captains Jacques, Joubert and Bia.

Heavy Salvage.

QUEENSTOWN, Dec. 6.—The owners of the Lake Huron, which rescued the Spree, claim $125,000 salvage, and bond for the amount has been given.

Kossuth Still Lives.

VIENNA, Dec. 6.—The report that Louis Kossuth, the Hungarian patriot, was dying, is untrue.

House in Lindsay Burned.

LINDSAY, Ont., Dec. 6.—About 3 a. m. yesterday a house owned by Mr. Currin of 43 Elizabeth-street, Toronto, was discovered to be on fire, and before the firemen arrived it was too far gone to be saved.

The house was occupied by Mr. William Balance, who lost all his effects that were upstairs. The furniture, etc., downstairs was saved. The firemen did good service in saving adjoining houses.

The Hendrickson Case.

WHITBY, Dec. 6.—Baker and Lingford were committed for trial at Spring Assizes by Magistrates Harper and Bunting here yesterday morning. They were charged with shooting Palmer in the Pickering tragedy. There was a sensation created in court by a statement of the magistrates that they had received threatening letters.

Must Pay For the Crime.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6.—Judge Moise has overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of C. C. Antoine, the Ex-Lieut.-Governor of Louisiana, convicted of obtaining money under false pretences; therefore, he will probably get two years in prison.

Wants Immigration Suspended.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Senator Chandler has prepared for introducing a bill suspending immigration, except from North and South America, for one year after March 1.

A Citizen of Winnipeg Dead.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 6.—John McDonald, a prominent citizen of Winnipeg, brother of Mayor McDonald, died last night.

Grain Elevator Burned.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 6.—Ogilvie's big grain elevator at Virden was destroyed last night with all its contents.

Seven Lunatics Cremated.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Dec. 6.—The lunatics' wing of the poorhouse at Lampis was burned yesterday and seven of the inmates were cremated.

Jay Gould's Funeral.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The remains of Jay Gould will be interred in Woodlawn Cemetery in the family mausoleum at noon to-day.

"When your heart is bad, and your head is bad, and you are bad clean through, what is needed?" asked a Sunday-school teacher of her class. "I know—Ayer's Sarsaparilla," spoke up a little girl, whose mother had recently been restored to health by that medicine.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water on to the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the pack. ages at 50c. and $1

"It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

A GAMBLER CLAIMS HER

IDENTITY OF THE SUICIDE AT SAN DIEGO, CAL.

She Was Not Lizzie Wyllie, for Lizzie Wrote a Letter from Toronto Last Wednesday — It Was a Schoolmate of the Suicide Who Sent Money.

DETROIT, Dec. 7.—The mystery surrounding the identity of the woman who was found dead on the beach at San Diego, Cal., last Tuesday morning with a pistol beside her is becoming deeper than ever. Developments tend to show that she was not Lizzie Wyllie after all.

Mrs. John G. Longfield, whose husband's name was coupled in so distressing a manner with that of the missing Wyllie girl, received a letter from her husband, dated Cleveland, this morning. In it he encloses a letter which he alleges he received from Lizzie Wyllie last Wednesday, dated Toronto, Ont.

The Wyllies formerly lived in Toronto, and as Lizzie has relatives there it is hoped she will soon be located.

Her letter does not show that there was other than a purely friendly feeling existing between the young woman and Longfield.

A despatch from Hamburgh, Ia., apparently clears up the San Diego suicide mystery. It stated that "Mrs. L. Bernard," the suicide, was the wife of a gambler well-known in Hamburgh. He tried to borrow money several weeks ago to bring his wife home from California, where he said she was sick; but his story was not believed.

The Allen referred to in the despatches as having sent Mrs Bernard $25 at her request did so as an act of charity. He had been a schoolmate of Mrs. Bernard in Illinois.

UNDER SENTENCE.

Slavin, the Cornwall Murderer, Says He Worked for Some Time at Lachine.

CORNWALL, Dec. 7.—James Slavin, whose execution is set down for Dec. 16, still maintains the same calm exterior as on the day of his trial and sentence to death. Dean Murray and the Rev. Father Corbett paid the doomed man a visit on Saturday, as did also the Rev. Mr. Hastie, pastor of Knox Church. Slavin conversed very freely with the reverend gentlemen, but they failed to effect his conversion. Slavin says: "There is no use; I am bad enough now without playing the part of a hypocrite; I have studied the different Bibles up, but cannot convince myself that punishment or bliss follows death. I believe when a man leaves this world of grief and tears he has nothing to account for. I do not believe in Heaven or hell. I wrote several contradictions to the Bibles and sent them to the sheriff, who, when he perused them, consigned them to the waste paper basket. Since then I have quit writing."

Slavin says the story about his being a cowboy and desperado is all rot; that previous to the unfortunate affair that caused his being sentenced to death, he was employed on the Ohio coal docks at Duluth, and subsequently worked on a steam shovel at Lachine.

A drop weight, weighing 300 pounds, was cast at Gillie's foundry here last week, but this was thought too small and a larger one is now in the moulds. The hangman, Radcliffe, who will send the unfortunate man into eternity, complained very strongly of the way in which the railway employes on the Intercolonial handled his valise, which contained his paraphernalia, in their eagerness to see the rope at the end of which Buck dangled. They pried open the end of his valise.

WITH BARE KNUCKLES.

A Prize Fight in the Famous Red Barn at Mimico.

TORONTO, Dec. 7.—A score of local dead game sports, with 40 more of their pals from Lambton Mills, Weston and the Humber, joined their Mimico brethren yesterday afternoon in the well-known Red Barn at Mimico, famous for its former cock-fights and mills, and known to all the local sports. They saw a prize-fight of the genuine order.

It took less than an hour and 7 rounds for Ben Young to defeat Mike Ryan.

Ben Young of Oil City, Pa., and Mike Ryan of Lockport, N.Y., had a small stake and an old grudge up. So, with their backers and bottle-holders, they arrived here from Hamilton yesterday afternoon and lost no time in reaching the battle ground beyond the Humber, and proceeded without much ceremony to settle the matter.

The men are middle-weights and tipped the beam at about 150 lbs. They were well matched and made a desperate fight. The Lockport man made a game showing early in the battle. Both men went at it hammer and tongs. In the sixth round it was anyone's fight. But in the seventh Young got in three sledge-hammer blows and wound up by flinging Ryan against the ropes. Mike failed to respond in the allotted time, so Young was awarded the battle.

The fight was according to London Prize Ring rules, except that the men fought with bare knuckles. It was 5.15 p.m. when the pugilists entered the temporary ring and at 6 o'clock Young had knocked his man out.

An Incipient Fight in India.

CALCUTTA, Dec. 6.—A band of Chilcot tribesmen attacked a Cashmere guard yesterday. The tribesmen were repulsed, with a loss of 50 killed.

It is supposed the Chilcois were instigated to attack the British agent by Sher Afzul Khan, the usurping ruler of Chitral.

FROM THE BASTION.

How a Forger Is Enjoying Himself While Awaiting Extradition.

TORONTO, Dec. 7.—Charles L. Davidson, who was arrested at Juarez, Mexico, just across the Rio Grande from El Paso, Texas, for obtaining $10,000 from the Bank of Hamilton at Hamilton, Ont., by discounting forged orders, witnessed a novel sight on Sunday from the window of the bastion in which he is confined while awaiting the order for his extradition. It was the beginning of the annual fete and bull fighting was the chief attraction. The ring adjoins the prison.

Davidson and 2000 people saw five bulls tortured, two horses killed and another wounded. The first bull turned in refused to fight. The second was not as big as the first, but had plenty of fight. He sent the toreadors behind the blinds in a hurry, and brought first blood by hooking one of the men in the hand. The three other bulls brought in made good fights.

There were several narrow escapes and two fighters were caught, but not seriously hurt. These incidents set the Mexicans to yelling frantically.

Two horses were killed under one picador and a third was severely hooked. The horses were blindfolded and wholly dependent upon the science of their rider for protection from the mad rushes of the bulls. But the fellow handled the pics clumsily and utterly failed to keep off the bull, whose sharp horns would penetrate a horse's side, and horse and rider would be thrown to the ground. The picador was rescued while the infuriated bull was goring the horse.

The last bull was killed by the picador at the first thrust of his sword, which entered between the shoulder-blades and cut the brute's heart in two.

Long Distance Trolley.

HAMILTON, Dec. 7.—R. R. Waddell will apply at the next session of Parliament for a charter to run a trolley line from here to Schaw station on the C.P.R. He proposes to run it over the Hamilton and Dundas line from here to Dundas and then out to Schaw. Mr. Waddell expects by that time the storage system will be in working order.

According to Mr. Waddell's ideas this is the only feasible line out of the city to the north and northwestward.

SCROFULA 12 YEARS

Always Sore. Burned Like Fire. Ashamed to be Seen. Got Worse Under Four Doctors. Cured by Outicura.

For about ten or twelve years I have been troubled with scrofula. My head was always sore, my face was dry and scaly, and burned like fire most of the time. My body had big red spots on it, and I did not know what to do. I went to four different doctors and they helped me at first. In the fall I got worse again; then I tried other remedies, but they did me no good. I was ashamed to go into public. I was a sight to look at. Every one would say, "What is the matter, why don't you take something?" Even at my daily labor I had to wear a sort of cap to keep the dirt from getting into the sores. After I would wash, I would be covered with big red pimples all over my neck and face. Some two or three people advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I did try them, and am glad I have done so. Glad to say I am a well man, and in the best of health since. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too highly. I enclose my portrait.

THE WOODEN WEDDING SALE

Here announced which has been in progress for the week, will be extended for another week, ending Dec. 17th because of the failure to get the advertisment of it in the WEEKLY EXAMINER of last week, and the very just complaint from out of town buyers that they have had not a fair chance. As our prices for this sale are much below the jobbing prices, many merchants are taking advantage to stock up, but we have enough for all.

WOODEN WEDDING SALE!

For this sale, to commence Saturday Dec. 3rd. and end Saturday night Dec. 10th., on Wooden Ware we make the following prices.

Eddy's best Tubs, 3 sizes, 49c., 59c. and 69c; regular prices 75c., $1.00 and $1.25. Washboards 10c. for a good sized board, 14c. for improved Globe Washboard.

Best Clothes Wringer made $2.79, regular price $5.

The best lot of Splint Clothes Baskets we ever had, strong, and well strapped, 22c., regular price 40c. Strong Market Baskets, 3 sizes 4c., 5c. and 7c. The best lot of covered Splint Baskets we ever owned, 6 sizes, 6c., 8c., 11c., 14c., 17c. and 19c., regular prices 15c. to 45c.

Beautiful Red Cradles for Dolls, 29c., 39c. and 49c. worth 50c., 75c. and 85c.

The neatest Red Chairs you have seen 21c., regular price 40c.

We venture to say if you want to give a Sleigh for a present, you will be suited both as to price and quality.

We have never had so well made and well painted Sleighs, before and for this sale no profit asked.

That Empress Sewing Machine, no better machine made, only $17; regular price $45, thousands have been sold for that and have given the grandest satisfaction.

Rolling Pins, of the best finished revolving handles, 6c.; regular price 15c.

Long Wooden Spoons, the finest made you have seen 4c.

Butter Moulds, from 1 oz. to 2 lbs. price for this sale 7c. up to 25c. for the 2 lbs; worth 50c.

Doll Carriages, $1; regular price $1.75.

Wagons, steel wheels the best make, $1.00; large size, $1.50; worth $2.50 elsewhere.

Chopping Butter Bowls, the state made, Sugarmaple and Birch from 5c. each up, not half usual price.

Hat Racks and Coat Racks, Children's Blocks and Pails.

Beautiful Curtain Poles, with brass ends and rings, 21c. each; regular price 45c.

Butter Ladles 8c.

Potato Mashers 5c.

Sham Holders 23c. up.

Clothes Pins for this sale 1c. per doz.

You will all wish it was your Wooden Wedding, but many of you had yours. $3 would not buy as much then as one will now here.

Bread Boards and Knives, 39c. for the pair, for beautiful goods; regular price 75c. Bread Boards, alone from 23 to 32c.

Now comes the most unique present and much wanted about the time of Wooden Weddings, or should be. It is the Baby Walker, sold usually for $3.50. Our price now $1.44. Where this is used no more bow legged children, and it is a great comfort and relief. Secure one.

Many other things in the Wooden Ware, but we have only space for this.

1 box of 1000 Tooth Picks, 4c. Will be glad to see you at this sale.

An arrival of a large stock of Rockingham ware, from the best manufacturers of these goods on this continent if not in the world, enables us to offer you Tea-pots from 9c. each up to largest size made, at about half regular prices.

All kinds Bake Dishes, Pie Plates, Pictures, &c., &c. at similiar prices. This is the purest rising ware in the world.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL COUNTERFEIT

Is the one which is so NEARLY like the real thing as to be often mistaken for it. The business of turning out Ready-Made Clothing is carried on upon lines, in some cases, so near those of the honest manufacturer, that its products look and sell nearly as well, and deceive many good people into believivg that it is just as durable as the article honestly made up.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

Appearances are very often disappointing, and scarcely ever more frequently than in the matter of Clothing. It is satisfactory, therefore, to know that you have a safe investment—always. We mean that you can never be deceived by it—that it is never misrepresented—and that the goods that bear our name and stamp, carry with them our own guarantee.

If people would look a little deeper than what appears on the mere surface, they would soon see the difference between good and counterfeit Clothing. The one is constantly putting something solid into its structuae, which will stand the wear and tear, while the other is full of dressing and shoddy, which cannot stand even the light of the sun.

Besides we sell DIRECT to our customers at CLOSE WHOLESALE PRICES, thus saving them a straight TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

NO WONDER PEOPLE LOOK SURPRISED

as they pass our store and see good garments worked at such low prices. That line of $6.50 Suits and $6.50 Overcoats, for instance, are surprisers, and are being picked up more quickly than expected. We are honestly selling twice as many as anticipated, but we have stock enough to meet all demands, if you come before New Years.

The demand for Boys' Overcoats and Suits has also increased this week, and we are quite prepared for any rush. Prices $1.50 to $5.75.

A FREE SLEIGH RIDE.

We still continue to give away a dandy Hand Sleigh with every Boys' Suit or Overcoat.

See our Men's Melton Overcoats, in five shades, at $6.50, $8.00 and $11.06.

PREPARATION SALE.

NOW that the November leaf is torn from the Calendar, we must get in shape for the great gift festival.

Christmas goods come rolling in and demand that room shall be made for them. Everybody foretells a brilliant holiday season at the GOLDEN LION. It is budding time now. In a few days everything will be in full bloom.

Meanwhile, here is just a foretaste of the good things in preparation for our patrons. December has started in right good earnest, and we must have every inch of room we can spare for the holiday trade. Some lines MUST, therefore, be MARKED DOWN and sold out at a sacrifice.

Ladies' Mantles marked down.
Misses' Mantles marked down.
Children's Mantles marked down.
Our Millinery is marked down.

Besides, as you enter the store, we have a "Bargain Table" on which is spread out—

Plushes marked down.
Silk Velvets marked down.
Brocaded Silks marked down.
Feather Boas marked down.
Fancy Coloured Silks marked down.

This will also be a good time to buy Dresses for 'Xmas gifts; also Suits of Clothes and Overcoats, or the cloth to make them up at home, as we are going out of the Tailoring business.

We gladly accept the responsibility of serving your interests better than anybody else knows how.

Professor Saunders Resigned as Director of the World's Fair Hon. John Carling May Succeed Him—A Commission Engrossed in the French Language

OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—The formal swearing in of the new ministers took place yesterday. All the ministers were present with the exception of Hon. Frank Smith and Hon. C. H. Tupper, who is now on his way home from England, and is not expected to reach here before Monday or Tuesday next.

His Excellency came to his office in the eastern block shortly before half-past 3, and about the same time all the ministers, old and new, assembled in the ante-room of the council chamber and, headed by Sir John Thompson, proceeded to the Governor-General's office, where Messrs. Curran, Clarke Wallace and J. F. Wood took the oath of office as Solicitor-General, Comptroller of Customs and Comptroller of Inland Revenue respectively. Such of the old ministers as have new portfolios assigned to them also took the oath of office in their new positions.

Hon. J. C. Patterson, late Secretary of State, who was attended by Mr. Catellier, Under-Secretary of State, who had with him a large tin box containing the Great Seal, personally surrendered the seal of office, which was as formally handed to Hon. John Costigan, the new Secretary of State, who recommits to the safe keeping of Mr. Catellier, by whom it was solemnly carried back to the Department of State and safely locked up again.

That part of the ceremony being over His Excellency proceeded to the Council Chamber, where Hon. A. R. Angers and Mr. W. B. Ives were sworn in as Privy Councillors, and afterwards took the oaths of office as Minister of Agriculture and President of the Privy Council. Hon. J. A. Chapleau was then sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, after which His Excellency withdrew and the new council proceeded to hold its first meeting, the greater part of the business transacted being routine.

A Commission in French.

The commission of Lieutenant-Governor Chapleau, which was signed by His Excellency and attested by Sir John Thompson, as Attorney-General of Canada, is quite a work of art in its way, being a beautiful specimen of penmanship. It is the work of Mr. Drouin of the Department of State and has the distinction of being the first commission to a Lieutenant-Governor engrossed in the French language. Indeed it is only the third commission in that language issued from the Department of State since Confederation, the first being to Mr. Gobeil, Deputy Minister of Public Works, and the second to Mr. Roy, secretary of the Department of Public Works.

It is said that Hon. Mr. Ouimet wished to have his commission as Minister of Public Works also in French, but was a little too late, as it had been engrossed and registered in English before he spoke about it.

Returning Officers.

The returning officers are: Brockville, David Mansell; West York, Donald Mackenzie; Montreal Centre, James P. Clarke.

Slavin Must Hang.

It is understood that the petition for clemency in the case of Slavin, now under sentence to be hanged on the 16th instant for the murder of Constable Davey in Cornwall, has been under consideration and His Excellency has decided that the law must be allowed to take its course.

The Writs Issued.

No time has been lost in the issue of the writs in Montreal Centre, Sherbrooke, West York and Brockville. Nominations will take place on the 21st and polling, if any, a week later, but it is not thought likely that either Messrs. Curran, Ives, Wallace or Wood will be opposed.

Prof. Saunders Resigned.

Professor Saunders has handed in his resignation as director of the World's Fair, the state of his health not permitting him to continue the work. In this connection it is rumored that Hon. John Carling will be appointed Honorary Commissioner, retaining his seat in Parliament, as done by Hon. Adam Brown in the case of the Jamaica Exhibition.

Exhibitions of Art.

The Executive Commissioner to the Chicago World's Fair has been informed by the secretary of the Royal Canadian Academy that the exhibition from which selections will be made for the Canadian art exhibition at Chicago will open in Montreal on Feb. 29. The academy has appointed Messrs. Robert Harris and Mr. Brymner of Montreal and Mr. Homer Watson of Doon, Ont., the Selecting Committee.

Preparations are also being made for an exhibition in Toronto under the auspices of the Ontario Society of Artists, but the date has not yet been fixed.

BY A CRAZED ADMIRER.

A CANADIAN WOMAN MURDERED AT SEATTLE.

He Then Killed Himself—She Was Mrs. Mary S. Storey From Brampton, Ont. He Was Charles Rogers Moulton—Her Husband Was Cruel and Left Her.

WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 8.—A despatch from Seattle, Washington, says: "A sensational tragedy occurred at a late hour last night. Charles Rogers Moulton, aged 32, shot and instantly killed Mrs. Mary S. Storey, about the same age, and the leader of the musical circles, and then put a bullet through his own brain. He had long pleaded a hopeless suit for her hand and frequently threatened to kill her if she did not yield.

Mrs. Storey's two children were asleep in an adjoining room when the tragedy occurred. She had just returned from the opera and had gone to her room, when he followed her, and being again rejected shot her and then killed himself.

Married at Brampton.

Mrs. Storey was married at Brampton, Ont., where her father, Rev. Canon Johnson, was stationed many years. Her husband traveled for a Guelph house, and a few years after their marriage they went to Montreal to live, where family jars were frequent.

After a time she left Storey and returned to her father's home at Brampton with her three children. Later she went to Ottawa, where she had a large class in music, but her husband making his appearance there she went to Seattle.

The murdered woman had a large number of acquaintances throughout Canada, being especially well known in musical circles. She had two brothers and two sisters, the two former being employed as manager and assistant manager of Memphis Cotton Seed Oil Works.

One of her sisters, Nellie, is the wife of Walter Morphy, a prominent lawyer at Brampton, Ont., and the other, Emma, is the wife of Thomas Uscher, formerly receiving teller of the Bank of Hamilton at Hamilton.

Mrs. Storey's father gave up preaching a few months ago on account of age and is now boarding at the Crawford House in Windsor.

The Storeys were married 14 years ago, and the youngest child, a girl now 9 years of age, is living with the grandfather in Windsor.

Storey, who is now believed to be in San Francisco, is the eldest son of a wealthy land owner in England, but for his cruel treatment of his wife was severely reprimanded by his father several times and finally disinherited, his portion of the estate being held in trust for his three children.

GEORGE GOULD'S WEALTH.

Because He Is a Worker His Father Bequeathed Him $5,000,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The following is an abstract of the will and codicils of the late Jay Gould.

The original will is dated Dec. 24, 1885, during the life of his wife, Helen D. Gould. It made various provisions for her benefit, which failed of effect by reason of her death before the death of her husband. After, and in consequence of her death, Mr. Gould on the 16th day of February, 1889, executed the first codicil of his will, making such changes as became necessary by the death of his wife. A second and a third codicil to his will were executed on Nov. 21, 1892.

Taking the will and codicils together the following is a summary of the provisions thereof:

First, there is given to his sister, Mrs. Northrop and her daughters, the three lots of ground in Camden, N.J., on which his sister lives. There is also a specific bequest to Mrs. Northrop of $25,000 and the further sum of $2000 annually.

To his sisters Mrs. Anna G. Hough and Mrs. Elizabeth Palen, and to his brother, Abraham Gould, is given $25,000 each and also the further sum of $2000 annually during their lives.

To his daughter, Helen M. Gould, he gives the house in which he lived, No. 579 Fifth-avenue, and all the contents.

To his son, Edwin, he gives the house, No. 1 East 47th-street, with contents.

To his daughter Helen he also gives, until his youngest child shall arrive at age, use of his residence at Irvington and also the sum of $6000 per month, stating that this was done in the expectation that his minor children, Anna and Frank J., as well as his son Howard, will, during period above provided, for be making their home with his daughter Helen.

To his grandson, Jay Gould, son of George J. Gould, he gives $500,000, to be held in trust by George J. Gould, with authority to apply the same to support and education of the said grandson, and to pay one-quarter of the same to him at the age of 25, one-quarter at the age of 30 and the remaining one-half at 35, with power to pay the same at earlier periods in the discretion of his father.

To his son George J. Gould he makes a bequest in the following words:

My beloved son, George J. Gould, having developed a remarkable business ability and having for 12 years devoted himself entirely to my business, and during the past five years taken entire charge of all my difficult interests, I hereby fix the value of his services at $5,000,000, payable as follows:

Five hundred thousand dollars in cash, less the amount advanced by me for the purchase of a house for him in Fifth-avenue, New York City; $500,000 in Missouri Pacific 6 per cent. mortgage bonds, $500,000 in St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Railway consolidated 5 per cent. bonds, $500,000 in Missouri Pacific Railway trust 5 per cent. bonds, 10,000 shares of Manhattan Railway stock, 10,000 shares of Western Union stock and 10,000 shares of Missouri Pacific stock, all to be taken and treated as worth par.

He appoints as executors and trustees of his will his sons George J. Gould, Edwin Gould and Howard Gould and his daughter Helen M. Gould. No bonds to be required of the executors and trustees.

George J. Gould and Helen M. Gould are appointed guardians of Anna M. Gould and Frank J. Gould during their minority.

All the rest of his estate is devised and bequeathed to said executors and trustees in trust, first, to divide the same into six equal parts or shares, and to hold and invest one of such shares for each of his said children.

There is a provision that if any of his children shall marry without consent of the majority of the executors and trustees then the share allotted to such child shall be reduced one-half.

HE WAS HEARTBROKEN.

He Blew Out His Brains—The Girl From Oxley, Ont.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 8.—George A. Prout, a young man living with his parents at 118 Eighteenth-street, committed suicide in a sensational manner last night. About 6 o'clock he came down stairs, broke open his father's safe, procured a revolver, with which he blew out his brains. The following note was left in explanation:

"Don't blame Carrie. She will explain all. Ask Fred to pick out the pall-bearers from the club. Give my love to all. I'll be better off. GEORGE."

The Carrie referred to is Miss Carrie Wright, employed in the Sun Fire Insurance office. Her parents live at Oxley, Ont., 40 miles from Windsor, where her father is a wealthy farmer, and she is a cousin of Etta Wright, the sweetheart of Fred H. Kelly, murdered in Caldwell's drug store.

Miss Wright's explanation of the tragedy is that she refused to marry Prout because she was engaged to a young man in Kingsville.

A BAD OLD SALT.

He Evidently Looks Upon Murder As His Business.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 8.—Capt. Samuel Smith, the murderer of George Neal, the 16-year-old boy of Coronado Islands, on Friday last, has made a full confession of the crime.

He says he brained the boy with a hatchet, afterwards casting him into the sea. The discharge of the rifle he ascribes to an accident, but admits that Neal was not dead when thrown overboard, but cried out for help.

In rehearsing his part of the tragedy Smith displayed no feeling. He says he intended to destroy Silberry also, but when he got away with Neal he thought he could get along with the other boy.

The only reason he assigns for the crime is that the boys had set the small boat adrift.

HE DID NOT ELOPE.

With Miss Wyllie of Toronto, and Has Written Her To Say So.

DETROIT, Dec. 8.—In the affair of the woman who suicided recently at San Diego, Cal., and who was at first believed to be Miss Wyllie of Toronto, who had eloped, a Cleveland Leader reporter interviewed yesterday John G. Longfield, supposed to have eloped with Miss Wyllie. He said:

"I have been in Cleveland since I left Detroit. Miss Wyllie was in Detroit when I left and I did not hear from her until two weeks ago. She was then in Toronto.

"I have received two letters from her. To-day I got a letter from my wife and also newspapers from Detroit, stating that I had eloped with Miss Wyllie. I have written Miss Wyllie a letter, directed to the general postoffice in Toronto, asking her to write to her relatives.

"So you see I did not elope with Miss Wyllie and she did not commit suicide in California."

TOW BARN DESTROYED.

The Preston Fire Brigade Prevented a Greater Loss.

BERLIN, Ont., Dec. 8.—About 6.30 last night the sky was illuminated in the direction of Doon and word was received shortly after that Perine's mills were on fire.

A number of our citizens thereupon hired rigs and drove to the scene of the fire. Rumor that the mills were on fire was incorrect, as only one of the large barns called tow barns in which tow was kept was on fire and was burning fiercely, and as the building was of frame and its contents very inflammable it was soon reduced to ashes, notwithstanding that the Preston firemen, who had been telephoned for, did all in their power to save it.

By the efficient work of the Preston fire fighters the flames were prevented from spreading to the neighboring buildings.

The loss on the building and contents is very large, being estimated at $15,000. The loss is pretty well covered by insurance.

THE MAFIA AGAIN.

One of the Assassins Reveals Some Important News.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 8.—William C. Sawers, a French creole under arrest here for burglary, confessed yesterday that he had a hand in the murder of Chief of Police Hennessy in New Orleans, which was followed by the lynching of a number of Italians, and led to diplomatic difficulties with Italy.

Sawers said he roomed with four members of the secret society in New Orleans. He was present at the meetings when plans of revenge were made against the chief of police. He heard their oaths and knew their secrets. He went with the murderers on the night of the murder, and was with them when under cover they fired the fatal shot.

GULPED A SHAWL PIN.

Prompt Action by a Toronto Doctor Saves the Life of a Child.

TORONTO, Dec. 8.—About 8 o'clock last night a 10-year-old child of Mr. Schools of No. 1426 Bancroft-street, Philadelphia, swallowed a shawl pin about three inches long and having a wax head. The head of the pin descended into the upper part of the trachea, producing intense irritation, and in the attempt to cough it up the pin became imbedded in the soft membrane of the pharynx, the head resting in the windpipe.

The parents became almost frenzied at the frantic and convulsive efforts of the child to remove the obstacle, the rapid swelling of the tissues and the apparent strangulation of their little one. Dr. William Kennedy of 1337 South Sixteenth-street, a graduate of Toronto (Ont.) School of Medicine, Victoria University, was called in, and by his boldness in action and dexterity saved the child. The doctor snapped the pin in two, taking up the lower half with the head on, and then withdrew the part in the pharynx, to the immediate relief of the child and joy of the parents.

FOUND IN THE BAY.

Sam Durnan's Body Yesterday Recovered at the Island.

TORONTO, Dec. 8.—Four weeks ago on a stormy night Sam Durnan left the city for his Island home in a small rowboat. Next morning his skiff was found on the western sandbar; but notwithstanding a thorough search no further trace of Durnan could be found. His friends, with a few exceptions, gave him up for dead. Yesterday their fears were confirmed by the finding of the missing man's body.

As the ferry steamer Clark Brothers was nearing Hanlan's Point on her first trip yesterday morning, Captain Mullins saw a body floating in Block-house Bay. Esplanade Constable Williams was notified and in the afternoon he went over and recovered the body, which proved to be that of the unfortunate Durnan.

"BRITISH FAIR PLAY."

An anonymous correspondent under the shelter of the shibboleth of the Red Parlour patriots—"British fair play," "loyalty" etc., pretends to protest against the article in the EXAMINER advocating the reconstruction of our fire system, which he asserts is an attempt to prejudice the members of the fire brigade in the matter of the charge to be investigated on Friday. The article in question was not "inspired" by anybody or anything except the conviction on our part that our system would be improved and the public interest subserved by the adoption of the suggested changes. "British Fair Play" shows an excessive zeal in promoting his municipal election canvass by maliciously charging the EXAMINER with a base action, and, by a strained construction of our words, bringing an accusation against the firemen which no person but a "fair play" advocate could invent. "British Fair Play" may think to gain popularity with the firemen, or others by pretending to advocate their claims, but did he not as a member of the council vote for an inquest into the cause of the Hunter street fire, whose only object so far as many can see, was to discover evidence which the Crown could not help but use, in the investigation on Friday? Isn't that very like prejudicing the public mind against the accused firemen? "British Fair Play" has shot his bolt and it has fallen far short of the mark. The EXAMINER has only the most friendly feelings for the firemen, as will be seen by its columns, which always give them credit for the excellent work they are accustomed to do. We advocated a change in our fire system, but that did involve a charge of arson, any more than a politician's advocacy of the reform of the Senate would involve the murdering of the members to accomplish it. British fair play—the genuine article—never sneaks; nor skulks beyond a pseudonym, to make unwarranted insinuations. It meets a foe face to face. Isn't that so, Captain?

A. O. F. CONCERT.

A Very Pleasant Entertainment.

Though there was not a very large attendance at the concert of Court Stanley, A.O.F. in the Opera House last night, yet those present highly enjoyed the pleasant programme presented by the versatile Sims Richards family. Sims Richards himself was down for three songs which he sang with his old time vigour. His four daughters contributed the remainder of the programme singing with the father in fine glees, and furnishing banjo quartettes, banjo and mandolin duets, archery drill, sword drill etc., all of which they performed in a very pleasing manner winning much applause and being frequently recalled. Miss Evangeline Richards seems to be the star of the family. She sang a vocal solo in a very pleasing manner and also played with fine effect and in good style a violin solo, for which she had to respond to an encore. The string quartettes of the four daughters of the family were well performed. Between the first and second parts of the programme Mr. J. R. Stratton, who performed the duties of chairman, in a few pleasant words introduced Bro. McWatt, H.C.R., who gave a short address in reference to the rise, aims and objects of the order, which originated in England at a very early date. In its present form the A.O.F. Order dated from 1833. It now spread all over the British colonies, embracing an immense membership. Membership in the order brought sick and funeral benefits, and an insurance of from $250 to $2,000 at death. He then went on to point out the exceedingly large amount of money paid out for the benefit of members, the enormous sum of 600 millions having been paid out during the past twenty-five years. These payments had kept poor houses from being established, and it was impossible to define what benefits the A. O. F. conferred on society. In closing W. Bro. MacWatt referred approvingly to the to the legislation taking beneficiary societies under Government control, and thus protecting the public against "fake" societies. Bro. Williams, permanent secretary, also made a few remarks in reference to the ladies' branch and the juvenile branch of the order.

The addresses were brief, pointed, and full of information, and the brethren may congratulate themselves on the success of their annual entertainment.

A Canal for Muskoka.

TORONTO, Dec. 8.—At the new Legislative buildings yesterday the first deputation entered the halls and waited on Hon. C. F. Fraser, Minister of Public Works. The gentlemen were from Huntsville, Muskoka, and their names were Dr. J. W. Hart, A. J. Watson, Thomas Goldie, E. W. Clearwater, H. S. May and R. W. Godolphin. They told Mr. Fraser that they wanted a three-quarter mile long canal built between the Lake of Bays and Peninsular Lake. The canal would cost but $40,000, would save portaging boats, and would obviate the necessity of floating timber and pulp logs 27 miles by a most circuitous route. The deputation assured the Minister that the Province would be repaid for the construction of the canal by the increased dues paid by lumbermen on damaged pulpwood and timber, which it would pay to take through the canal, while the expense of rafting them around the headlands would kill any profit which might accrue. The Minister, of course, promised to consider the representations of the deputation.

THE BIGGEST DAY IN 7 YEARS!

Saturday, December 3rd was the biggest day MR. J. J. SHEEHY has had in seven years. Why is this? Surely not because there is less competition. Certainly not because inducements are not being held out by others. Most assuredly not because prices of farm products are showing an upward tendency. Then why??

Simply because the purchasing public of the town and surrounding country have read Mr. Sheehy's advertisements, have inwardly digested them and have concluded that cheap sale or no cheap sale Mr. Sheehy is bound not to be undersold.

We want every day in December to be a big day. How are we to accomplish this? Simply by offering to the public better value for the money than can be had elsewhere. Just cast your eye over the following quotations:—

A LIBERAL POLICY.
The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.
The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always gives rise to dissatisfaction and dispute, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

ROTHSCHILD HAS WITHDRAWN THE PLAN HE PROPOSED.

Suspension of Silver Coinage in the United States Might Stop Coinage in India—Perils of the Situation—Products of Silver Mines in America.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 7.—The Monetary Conference resumed its sitting yesterday and continued its discussion of the report of the committee which examined into Rothschild's proposals.

After a speech by Sir C. Rivers-Wilson, a member of the British delegation, Mr. Rothschild announced that he withdrew his scheme from further consideration of the conference.

Sir C. Rivers-Wilson said his views were entirely shared by Sir C. Fremantle, Deputy Master of the British Mint. He said: "We believe that all the governments who have sent delegates here recognize the presence of a great danger, otherwise our presence here is not justified. A note of warning has reached us from America, and to say the least it is doubtful whether the American Government can continue indefinitely the gigantic efforts which it has fruitlessly made so many years to maintain and raise the price of silver. We need not enquire whether the policy which governed the currency legislation of the great Republic was wise in conception, but it cannot be denied that it has not realized expectations and is greatly the cause of our present position.

Perils of the Situation.

"In any case the suspension of American silver purchases has become a practical question of the day, and if it occurred might lead to the suspension of coinage in India. Naturally our instructions require us, before concluding that matters must be left as they are, to examine with the greatest care any plan submitted for the purpose of extending the monetary use of silver. We have thus far studied only the Rothschild and Levi plans and are willing to admit that the adoption of either or both would not be incompatible with our principle.

"Any other plan may, however, be formulated and approved by the conference, and if it does not conflict with the principles we have laid down it will receive serious consideration from the British Government."

James B. McCreary of the American delegation proceeded to point out the difficulties and perils of the existing situation. He said that whatever was the cause the fact remained that a remedy was imperatively needed. He appreciated the attention which Mr. de Rothschild had given to the important business of the conference, but he could not support the Rothschild plan.

"I cannot admit," he said, "that it is just the proper remedy for America to continue to purchase 54,000,000 ounces of silver annually at a price not to exceed 100 cents on the dollar on condition that the European powers make yearly purchases to the amount of £5,000,000 for five years at a price not to exceed 43 pence per ounce, and that if silver should rise above that price purchase be immediately suspended. I cannot see why we in America should be required to pay 100 cents on the dollar, if necessary, while the European powers pay only 73 cents on the dollar. It seems an unequal distribution that we should be expected to purchase twice as much silver as Europe.

Restore Silver to a Parity.

"The object of the conference should be not to fix a price which would keep silver below par, but to enlarge the use and restore it to a parity with value it had with gold prior to 1873, when it was first outlawed."

Mr. McCreary then referred to complaints of the British Chamber of Commerce, quoted the recent declarations of Archbishop Walsh and Mr. A. J. Balfour, and contended that the situation demanded a broader recognition and a better remedy than that suggested by Mr. de Rothschild. The American delegates, he said, were ready to co-operate with the other delegates in a candid and earnest effort to maintain the monetary functions of both metals.

Referring to the silver bullion law he said that the law was not entirely satisfactory to either party, and in support of his statement he quoted from the platforms adopted by the Minneapolis and Chicago conventions. For himself he believed that the Silver Act of 1890 would be repealed, if not at the present session of Congress certainly at the next. He believed that the product of the silver mines had reached its maximum in America and perhaps in the whole world.

The supply of gold had increased proportionately more than silver. During the last 44 years silver had fluctuated less than gold had, compared with the price of commodities. The owners and holders of money bonds and mortgages were directly interested in reducing the volume of money, because that increased the purchasing power of their money or its equivalent. But the interests of the farmer, laborer and producer demanded a constantly increasing volume of money, because the rate of such increase regulated the price of property and the wages of laborers. In concluding Mr. McCreary said:

"I believe the best aim of the conference to be the general remonetization of silver and the unrestricted coinage of gold and silver into money of debt-paying power, with a permanent international ratio of 15½ or 16 to 1, and I prefer the latter. This, in my opinion, is a system that would give unity and stability to the value of money and would furnish the best remedy for the existing evils from which all civilized nations are suffering."

Mr. de Rothschild followed Mr. McCreary. He said that as America would not support his proposals he considered that it would be most in accordance with the respect due the conference to withdraw them.

The conference adjourned until Thursday.

Cured Sick Headache.

Mrs. D. A. Campbell, North Segrum, Ont., writes:—"I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly. My daughter was a terrible sufferer with sick headache for twelve months, and no medical aid could relieve her, but, by the use of two boxes of your Pills, she is completely cured." From all dealers or by mail at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50. Beware of imitations. Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Do not despair of curing your sick headache when you can so easily obtain Carter's Little Liver Pills. They will effect a prompt and permanent cure. Their action is mild and natural.

Blotches Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—In 1890 my body was covered with blotches and I was at last induced to try Burdock Blood Bitter: by the time I had used 3½ bottles of it I was completely cured, and I cannot speak too highly of it.

MRS. JAMES DESMOND, Halifax N.S.

For any case of nervousness, sleeplessness, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia, try Carter's Little Nerve Pills. Relief is sure. The only nerve medicine for the price in market.

A MINISTER'S WIFE INTERESTED.

Mother, you often feel anxious about your child's condition. This is especially the case when your boy or girl has caught cold, and a troublesome cough, sore throat or sore chest gives the little one pain. When such troubles appear look after them quickly, do not lose an hour in waiting for help from outsiders A dose or two of Harvard Bronchial Syrup will give instant relief; and regular doses administered for a day or two will remove every threatened danger. The children love Harvard Bronchial Syrup; it is pleasant and agreeable to the taste, and does not contain a particle of poisonous matter.

The following testimony from the wife of Rev. C. R. Flanders, B.A., pastor of the Sherbrooke Street Methodist Church, Montreal, is important and worthy of note by all mothers. Mrs. Flanders says: "I can cordially recommend Harvard Bronchial Syrup as an excellent cough remedy, because so pleasant to take; it is especially suitable for children. We have used it very successfully."

LAKEFIELD.

Dr. D. Frazer is out after a three weeks' illness.

Mrs. John Holmes, Burleigh, had her leg broken by the kick of a cow last week.

Mr. R. C. Strickland is expected home shortly with recovered health.

The hope is freely expressed here that the charges against the Peterborough fire brigade will be proved innocent.

Dr. Butler's Golden Pills have earned a great reputation wherever employed. As a nerve tonic and blood builder they are unrivalled. They increase the appetite and promote a healthy performance of all the functions of the body. A thoroughly scientific preparation, they never fail to effect a cure if directions are faithfully carried out. Nothing harmful in their composition. The most delicate system will be benefitted. Ask for Dr. Butler's Golden Pills and take no others.

Important Announcement to the Public!

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS SALE.

Hall, Innes & Co.

Having decided to retire from the Dry Goods Business in Peterborough announce that they will on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23rd, commence a

GENUINE MAMMOTH CLEARING SALE for CASH

Covering Every Department of their Extensive Business.

HALL, INNES & CO.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Gents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

HALL, INNES & CO.

FORCED
REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked or renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 8 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, so we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well, if not better, in the future.

A Summer on a Labrador Salmon River

Friday at 8 p m is the time. The Assembly Hall of the Collegiate Institute is the place. The lecturer is Mr. Max Dennistoun. While the great "land boom" predicted for Labrador some time ago by the Toronto Grip, has not yet arrived as we go to press, nevertheless the country has many interests for the traveller. It is a land for the spectator if not for the speculator. And to us in Peterborough, Labrador is a terra incognita completely. Lastly the lecturer speaks from his own experience. Don't be alarmed by the word "salmon" in the title—all the fish stories are most satisfactorily certified.

The Late Mr. O. C. Rowse.

The public will learn with deep regret that the illness from which Mr. O. C. Rowse has suffered for some past terminated in his death this morning at one o'clock at his residence on Charlotte street. The deceased gentlemen has been for some seven or eight years a resident of the town, where her conducted a successful dry goods business until about three months since, when the increasing gravity of his ailment compelled his retirement. He has been particularly identified with the Charlotte street Methodist church, of which he was a worthy, consistent and active member, being foremost in every work that would promote her interests. He was for years the Superintendent of the Sunday School, and in this capacity did his work with an earnestness, zeal and intelligence which will long be remembered. He was also a member of the Trustee Board, a church steward and held many minor church offices. In fact wherever there was an opening for Christian energy, Mr. Rowse was there to fill it. Deceased was comparatively a young man—34 years of age. Funeral to-morrow from the family residence, corner of Charlotte and Rubidge streets, to the Grand Trunk station at 11:45 o'clock. The remains will be interred at Oshawa.

A CHRISTMAS BOX FOR THE POOR.

A Liberal Portion of Mrs. Nicholls' Estate Devoted to Charity by the Executors of her Will.

As is generally known the conditions of the will of the late Mrs. Nicholls leaves considerable discretionary power with the executors in the matter of devoting a residue of the estate to what worthy objects seem deserving of the benefits of this fund. Acting in accordance with this power the executors, Messrs. Richard Hall and C. McGill, have for some time past it is understood, been considering means of carrying out their intention in this matter. Accordingly they have set aside as presently payable, the sum of about $1,500 to be distributed among the various churches, benevolent institutions, and benevolent societies for the sole purpose of relieving the poor dependent as indicated in the schedule given below This considerable amount is about equivalent to two-thirds of the amount expended by the town for charity during the current year, and will be of material assistance to the churches and associations in carrying out their benevolent aims at the beginning of winter, when claims upon charity funds are apt to be exacting. The executors deserve credit for their thoughtfulness in coming to the assistance of the cause of charity at a time when that assistance is most needed:—

St. Paul's Presbyterian church	$100 00

Lansdowne Lodge Sons of England	50 00
Sons of Canada	50 00
A.O.U.W.	50 00

As is well known the conditions of Mrs. Nicholls will prevents the application of any portion of her estate for Roman Catholic purposes. In order, however, that no invidious disinctions might be made in the distribution of the present charity fund, the executors have personally contributed each $50 to be given to the St. Vincent de Paul Society and included in the above schedule for distribution for the purposes of charity.

Treasurers of any or all the above organizations, by calling on Mr. McGill at the Ontario Bank, can procure the cheques for the amount appropriated for their society or organization.

TRIPLE-LINKED BRETHREN

Entertain Their Hosts of Friends at a Hospitable Anniversary Entertainment.

Last evening the members of Otonabee Lodge No. 13, I.O.O.F., held their tenth anniversary of the resuscitation of Otonabee Lodge, and a fine success it was, too. The spacious and richly furnished lodge rooms were filled to overflowing with a cultured gathering who manifested the most kindly appreciation of the whole proceedings throughout. Bro. R. M. Roy, P.G., was chairman, and introduced a programme of well appreciated and recognized merit. The first number was an excellent opening rendition by Prof. Butcher's orchestra. Mr. John Crane in "Goodwin's Sands" was a splendid vocalist and deservedly applauded. Miss Howden proved herself a skilful player in her pianoforte selection. Miss Annie Fawcett sang "Dreaming" in a well trained voice, and Mr. W. J. Drope appeared for his share of honors in "Our Last Waltz" which was well received. Messrs. J. Crane and W. F. Nelson sang a duet entitled "Excelsior," their voices blending harmoniously and with admirable effect. A selection by the orchestra and refreshments were the next events on the programme. The latter well appreciated "number" was furnished by Bro. T. Hooper in his customary fine style. Mr. Chairman Roy opened the second part with an exhibition of the Chinese Magic Rings, which pleased all. Miss Harris was a favourite singer in "She Did not Know What to Say," while a quartette, "Friendship, Love and Song," was a fitting climax to the meritorious programme presented, and was rendered by Messrs. Drope and Crane, Mrs. Stapleton and Miss Fawcett.

The young people then repaired to the assembly hall, where Prof. Butcher's orchestra poured forth its inspiriting strains while nimble feet with fairly-like tread worshipped the devoted goddess Terpsichore until early morn.

A HIGH FLYER.

And There Are Sad People in Hamilton and Dundas Who Mourn For Their Lost Money.

HAMILTON, Dec. 8.—A few weeks ago C Willis McAllister arrived in the city and opened a legal and collecting agency in sumptuous apartments in King-street east. He employed a couple of clerks and received his clients in a handsomely appointed office, floored with pile carpet, the walls covered with maroon paper, electric lights in artistic globes hung promiscuously about and some of the finest furniture decorating the foreground.

His business consisted principally of getting $10 subscriptions to his agency from people here and in Dundas. He got quite a number. A week ago he went away to Quebec, he said. Yesterday his creditors got impatient and cleaned out all the furniture.

Information to the Public

It is with great pleasure that I inform the public that Membray's kidney and liver cure has given me great help after using only one bottle and can recommend it highly.

T. COLLINS Otonabee.

When the kidneys are clogged, good health is an impossibility; but when working properly the reverse is the case. That dull back-ache is the kidney's cry for relief. If Dodd's Kidney Pills are used the result will be marvellous. We emphatically state that we have never known a case of kidney disease that a persistent use of Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure.

THE ACCUSATION WITHDRAWN

BY THE CROWN AGAINST THE FOUR ACCUSED FIREMEN.

No Evidence at the Inquest to Support the Case—Not One Title of Guilt Attaches to the Accused Parties—The Fire no Doubt of Incendiary Origin, but who Set it?—A Great Array of Witnesses Examined.

In compliance with the resolution passed by the town council at its last meeting that an inquest be held to inquire into the causes of the recent fires which the town has suffered from and some of which were undoubtedly of incendiary origin, Dr. R. W. Bell, coroner held an inquest in the council chamber yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. There was a packed attendance of citizens and much interest taken in the proceedings throughout. The following jurymen which were empannelled by Chief Rousel were duly sworn in and elected Mr. J. D. Collins as foreman:—J. D. Collins, R. B. McKee, James Stevenson, W. G. Ferguson, G. J. Gough, R. H. Fortye, B. Shortley, D. Mason, R. Fair, D. J. Lundy, John Fanning, John Nugent, T. Brady, Alex. Elliott, J. W. Crosby, Fred Foote, H. Thompson.

Mr. E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, appeared on behalf of the town, while Mr. W. A. Stratton looked after the interest of the firemen interested.

On the order of the coroner the inquest was adjourned until the jury viewed the scene of the fire on Hunter street.

The coroner stated they were called together to investigate a serious matter. There had been several bad fires of late and if they were caused by incendiarism, the guilty parties should be sought out and punished. They were endeavouring to investigate the Hunter street fire to find out the cause of it and those parties who set fire to it and if found guilty they would hand them over to the proper tribunal. The coroner then read the requisition which had been handed him by the town clerk on behalf of the Mayor and Council, asking for an investigation into the Hunter street fire. On the strength of this requisition Dr. Bell said he was obliged to hold an inquest. He felt sure that all members on the jury were as deeply interested in the matter as the town authorities were and would give their best efforts and attention to thoroughly ferreting out the matter.

Mr. Edwards asked that all witnesses be excluded from the court room.

Mr. Stratton said that probably the coroner officially did not know that four members of the fire brigade were accused of the matter into the cause of which the inquiry had been started. It was a court of record and he asked for the privilege of cross-examination.

The corner stated that he thought, under the charge, although this requisition did not name the parties there could be no objection to the accused being present and represented by counsel. He intended this to be a full and free inquiry.

Mr. Edwards said witnesses were excluded from the court room. If Mr. Stratton had any witnesses he thought they should be excluded. He asked that Detective Shirley and Officer Stewart, who knew all about the matter, should remain, as he knew nothing at all of the case except through them.

Mr. Stratton submitted that they should not be allowed to remain until after their evidence was taken. One should be excluded while the evidence of the other was being given.

Mr. Edwards stated it would be inconvenient that he should be excluded from the assistance of these witnesses since he knew nothing of the case.

Dr. Bell said he did not call the witnesses submitted by Mr. Stratton, as there was no defence. It would be impossible to exclude witnesses from the room and conduct the proceedings.

Mr. Stratton said Mr. Edwards should have considered that before he asked that the witnesses be excluded from the court room. It was a matter of law that if witnesses were excluded it meant all witnesses in the prosecution and in the police court hearing also.

Mr. Edwards said Mr. Stratton was simply barking the inquiry by asking that these two witnesses be excluded and hampering the inquiry.

Mr. Bell said the detectives were simply prosecuting the cases and Mr. Edwards was simply assisting them on behalf of the town. They were the real prosecutors, and it would be impossible under these circumstances to go on with the inquiry. The coroner has power to exclude whom he saw fit, but he wanted to see a free inquiry. He ruled that it was necessary to have the detective present, and that all other witnesses should be excluded from the room until their evidence was given.

THE EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES.

John Halpin was the first witness called. Sworn and said: "My father is the owner of the house in question, but I have charge of it. It is a rough-cast house, one and a half stories high, situated on the south side of Hunter street, between Mr. LePlante's building on the west and the Carew house on the east. It was separate from the other buildings about 16 inches on either side. The building was an old one, and worth $1,700 for land and building. It was occupied nearly all the time, and by Mrs. Buller last, who gave up possession about a month ago. It rented for six dollars per month. Mrs. Buller, the late tenant, lives first house east now, and this house was occupied at time of fire. I held the key. No one had access to the place on Sunday, 20th of November, the windows being fastened. I know of fire taking place on Monday morning, Nov. 21st. I went to the place. There was a rap at my door and some one shouted fire. Live near by, and was in bed at the time. I came to the place and saw a fire in it just before the firemen arrived. The place was locked up. I did not go in. Don't know whether back door was locked or not. The firemen got in the house first. The alarm was not sounded when I was awakened, but after I got to the house. The fire was playing pretty well at the time. Made no effort to get in the house to extinguish the fire. The firemen went in at the front, Chief Rutherford being in charge. It was under the front stairway. I have examined the place since and there appears to have been two distinct fires, or it might have burnt through the partition. The fire was extinguished after an hour's work. The alarm sounded about one o'clock and I remained until the fire was put out. I did not go in the house at all, and I thought the fire was all over, I did not go in to see what damage had been done, as there was three or four inches of water on the floor. The fire was also upstairs. The most damage appeared to be done downstairs the first time. The firemen went away and I went home and to bed. Archie Moore and the other firemen were three. Some had torches. I am not sure whether Moore had one or not when brigade came back after a second alarm. I got up again and saw fire myself. It was blazing up some. The second fire was towards the back. I stood around and the firemen came in about ten minutes. The doors after first fire were not closed. I did not enter house at second fire which was blazing in the back with no fire in front part where fire occurred before. I saw nobody there to assist before firemen came. The fire blazed up into second story. The firemen put out the flames in about half an hour. I did not use the expression "Let her burn boys." I swear this positively that I did not use this expression or any one like it to any of the firemen. There was an insurance of $700. I had no idea of what building alone is worth. I went home after second fire and stayed up till morning. I did not lock up the house after fire.

THE WITNESS IS CROSS EXAMINED.

Cross examined by Mr. Stratton witness said the key of the house was in the blacksmith shop. I made no effort to put out fire otherwise than going up stairs. I was not in house from Nov. 6th to 21st. Know nothing of the fastening of doors or windows between these dates. I could not swear that the windows were fastened down. I saw hose waggon go away after first fire. I did not notice who was on it. The fire appeared to be all out then. I was around to the back at second fire. The second stairs might have been scorched by the first fire for all I know.

To Mr. Edwards—There had been no fire in building before. I do not know how the fire became kindled, other than set on fire. I don't know how it came to get on fire the second time, but might have started up from the first fire. Did not see fire set to any part of the building by anyone, and did not see what use the firemen were making of their torches.

THE CHIEF OF THE BRIGADE TESTIFIES.

Thos. Rutherford, chief of the fire brigade, was the next witness called. Sworn and said: I have been chief of the fire brigade for 12 years. My duties are to attend fires, look after appliances and see that they are kept in order. I have nothing to do commanding the men except at fires, as they are a volunteer department. There is a secretary and treasurer of the brigade to take charge of moneys. All of the men get $50 a year each. There are two employed by the town, Messrs. Murphy and Lawrence, and Engineer English, who got more than this amount. Four men, Geo. Kincaid, W. Metheral, A. Moore and E. Hutchinson, besides these three sleep in the fire hall These are paid nothing extra, and they stay there for the benefit of the department. They are not bound to stay there only by their own free will. This regulation was made by themselves offering to do so. I don't suppose anyone has actual supervision over them. They are left there with the supposition that they know how to behave themselves and are to be there when required. Money received from people whose properties are burned or injured during the year are in the hands of the treasurer. This money has not been voted for any purpose this year, but in the past if a member was sick or hurt he was helped. The money used for biscuits and cheese after a hard fought fire was got out of the fines. All the moneys being given this year are in the treasury. Of the money in past years, which was not much, I don't know what we did with it. The band was given some and at the end of the year the brigade sometimes had a supper or entertainment. No money was distributed among the members. There have been a number of fires during past fall, some of them looking as if of incendiary origin, but they might be by accident. Probably there might be two or three fires during past year of incendiary origin, viz., house, corner McDonnel and Water streets, unoccupied, fire occuring in October; another on corner of Perry and Aylmer streets, set on fire twice. The fire now being investigated might have been caused by an incendiary or by accident. My impression is that the fire caughs from inside but it might possibly be from outside on roof near chimney. At the Rathburn Co's. fire I was not here, but the opinion of the assistant chief is that it started outside of the building. I don't think any one set Rathbun building on fire with intent to burn but possibly by accident. I could not form an opinion of Mr. Lundy's fire. The building was all in a blaze when I arrived. There was a strong wind blowing and a spark might fly for considerable distance. My reason for this is because the roof was all burnt and the floor remained intact. It should be investigated as to how it caught on fire. The fire in the Commercial House I know nothing of, as I was out of town. Was at Hunter street fire about seven minutes after alarm rang. The waggon was there and one stream on. Assistant Chief Craig was on duty. The fire was burning under the front stairway and was was burning up to the second story and reached the roof, and was moving in a southeasterly direction under the roof. The alarm was sounded at 12.00 m. I was not inside building all the time the fire was being extinguished. I thought the fire was all put out when we left, we having taken our usual pains. I saw Assistant Chief Craig and Fireman Moore with torches. I saw Moore searching the house for pails, axes, etc., and I was standing in front of the house. I think Fireman Jones was with him. We were the only three there. So far as I know Moore, Jones and others did nothing but search for articles. Moore was there under my instructions to search the building and was in back part, front part and all over. At times he would be out of my sight. He was probably about five minutes in the investigation I was looking myself, all over to see if the fire was all out, and could find none whatever. I think Kincaid, W. Metheral, Hutchinson and Moore were all present. After the waggon went back to the hall Craig, Jones and I stood looking at the building for about 5 or 6 minutes when we went over to Mr. Carew's, who invited us in to dry ourselves by the furnace, we being all wet. We sat there probably about three quarters of an hour when the second alarm rang, and at once went to the fire. The second fire had evidently started where the first fire had left off—at the back stairs near a cupboard. From appearances at present it looks as if the second fire had started up at foot of back stairs and up partition. My theory of fire if it did so start, is that it began from a coal dropping down and setting fire at foot of partition at back stairs. To my knowledge the fire did not appear to be set. After the second time as we were about leaving we were called back as the fire having started unexpectedly in another place. I don't think I said to Moore I thought you fellows put all that fire out, and don't recollect anything of the kind. When packing up the second time I said Archie what were you doing there, you were the last man man in." Moore replied, "Oh what were you fellows doing, you were the first men in." I state on oath that he did not say to me in joke or in earnest that he lit the fire again with his torch. I did not say to anyone I was satisfied as to who had done the job. I did not say either that "Craig knew all about it." I did not tell anyone that "Moore had set fire to it and I knew it," and used no such expressions. If a man was hanging around he might if he was looking for it, think that I knew who set fire, otherwise all the firemen took it as a joke as such sayings are frequent. Since the arrest of the men I have been assisting in their defence, for I believe them innocent, I have been taking no part in getting affidavits from the men.

THE FIRES WERE APPARENTLY ALL ACCIDENTAL

Cross-examined by Mr. Stratton witness said: There was a third fire the same evening. It was the general opinion that the fire started again. I don't think the second fire was of incendiary origin. I think it took fire from the first. It was three quarters of an hour before the second fire occurred. My idea is that a coal fell down from the roof near where the second fire started. It is not true that the money donated us by outsiders was spent in suppers, liquors, etc. Not one dollar goes to the personal advantage of any of the members who sleep in the hall. The secretary has every dollar of these funds now. I never had serious complaint from any that those in the hall misconducted themselves, except from Constable Stewart as to their singing. I did not look as to the fastening of doors, which were opened when I arrived at the fire on Hunter street.

To Mr. Edwards—There has been no drinking and carousing in the fire hall during past 15 years. I have had no complaints. There was liquor once or twice. I believe the men had some bottled ale in their room then. I have heard statements that women were up there, but the men denied it strongly. I can prove that no women have been there. There is a dollar fine for anyone bringing liquor in the fire hall. This is one of our bylaws. Moore made no statement to me re origin of the fire other than what I have stated. It was not my suggestion that Messrs. Stewart and Shirley should absent themselves from the court room. I only asked the reason they were allowed in.

THE INSURANCE COMPANIES STANDPOINT.

Mr. A. L. Davis' testimony was next taken. He stated—I am an insurance agent. The loss on Mr. Halpin's property was $307. This was the amount paid by Lancashire Company. The amount of policy was $700. I received a letter from Lancashire Co. asking if the town authorities would co-operate with the Underwriters Association in giving a reward towards ferreting out the cause of the fire and I communicated with Mr. Kendry. I was not aware that the Underwriters Association had taken any action in it. I am aware that there have been several fires of late of apparent incendiary origin.

NO FIREMEN AT HER PLACE.

Mrs. Lizzie Buller, said—I live on Hunter street, and occupied the house in question previously. My niece Miss Bradshaw and Miss Dickson, a servant girl, live with me. We were all at my house on the night of the fire. No firemen were in the house. I think I saw Mr. Metheral at the door that night but he was not inside. I spoke to Metheral that evening asking him what would I do if the place caught fire as I had no insurance. No firemen were in my house between the two fires. I know nothing of the cause of the fire. I had no conversation with any men about the first fire.

NO MEN INSIDE THE HOUSE.

Miss Florence Bradshaw—I know Metheral, Hutchinson, Kincaid and Turner. I don't know the hour that Metheral came to the house that night. He was not in the house at all. I went down stairs to see where the fire was and only spoke to Mr. Kincaid, and he said: "Dont be alarmed, there is no danger." I saw Mr. Metheral with the hose, but none of the firemen were in the house at all that night. I heard nothing of the cause of the fire. Metheral, Hutchinson and Kincaid have never been inside of Mrs. Buller's house, or any of the firemen, in fact.

Miss Jennie Dickson said she boarded at Mrs. Buller's; didn't know Hutchinson, Kincaid and Jones. No men were at Mrs. Buller's that night. She corroborated the evidence of the previous witnesses in regard to no firemen being there that evening.

THE ASSISTANT CHIEF SPEAKS.

John Craig was then sworn and said—I am captain of the fire brigade and am second in command, being subordinate to the chief. My duty as captain is simply in reference to fires. I have no supervision of the men except at fires. Was at the fire in question, arriving about the same time as the firemen. Witness described the place, and manner of fire and putting out the same similarly to Chief Rutherford. Capt. Craig described the third fire, which he believed started from the second, and second fire he believed started from the first, all confirming the testimony given by Chief Rutherford in all particulars. Moore was in the house looking for lost axes and buckets. I did not send him to the back. I heard statement made in a joking way that "Moore had set fire to the building." I made it in a joking way myself. I said to him in fun "that he must have set fire to it with his torch." He said that "I and Rutherford must set fire to it as we were there first." There has been no trouble among the brigade. I know nothing about cutting the horses tail. I saw the knife but did not know whose it was. I don't know that drinking ever goes on in the rooms more than there ought to be. I was not at the fire hall the night the fire occurred. I know nothing of the men's private characters. I never heard of any woman being up in their rooms.

Cross examined by Mr. Stratton—I considered the third fire not caused by any incendiary origin. I think the second fire not of incendiary origin. I have no reason to suspect that first fire was incendiary only from the location and what has been said.

An adjournment was then made until 7:45 o'clock for supper when the inquest resumed session. There was a large gathering of citizens who filled the outside benches to overflowing. The first witness called was Constable Chas. McGinty who deposed—Rang the fire bell on the night of the alarm in question. I heard a cry of fire about 12 o'clock before this, but did not hear it repeated. Nightwatchman Gordon shouted fire down the street, about 12 o'clock. Constable Stewart sounded second alarm. I went up to the house the first time. I don't know who opened the house. The fireman were there before me.

THE DISCOVERER OF THE FIRE.

James Gordon, nightwatchman, sworn said: I discovered the fire in question on night of Nov. 21st. Was the first one who saw it. I heard a shout of fire about 1.10, when I was coming down Water street. I went to Hunter street but saw nothing. Afterwards when on my rounds I saw the flames. It was then about 1.25. I looked in the windows of the house, and the blaze appeared to be in the front part. I went to the hall and told the firemen where to go. Did not go back to the fire. I met Constable Stewart at Dolan's corner and noticed the fire breaking out again. At 2.40 o'clock fire seemed to be more in front than first fire and in second.

Cross-examined by Mr. Stratton—When I reached fire hall the men were coming down stairs. It did not appear as if the firemen were waiting for the fire. I did not observe whether there was any fire under staircase or not.

Jas. English, engineer of Fire Department, was next called—I sleep in fire hall. I can't tell as I do not sleep with the men whether they all were in on the night in question. I do not know of any lager on this or any other occasion being brought into the hall. I know nothing of women going up to the rooms. Metheral I believe was in charge of the first branch at first fire. When men came in from first fire all the men who sleep in the hall I think went up to bed. I was not there at first part of second fire, I was obeying my duties and came with the hook and ladder waggon, consequently could not tell where second fire originated. I saw Kincaid, Hutchison, Metherall and Moore in the fire hall after the waggon returned from first fire. They came back with it and went out with the waggon on the second fire. I saw nothing to show that second fire was an incendiary fire. When I arrived the men were throwing water on the floor instead of directing the stream at the roof. I remarked to Constable Stewart that it looked as if they intended to the building burn up, but this might have only been for a minute for some reason that they were throwing streams on the floor. At the first fire the men came down so quickly I was surprised, and it looked as if they were dressed when the alarm sounded.

To Mr. Stratton—I heard the big bell a few seconds before the alarm in the hall sounded. I was in bed when the big bell was sounded and I was dressing when the gong sounded. The men dressed quickly and might have been down in a minute. I would not like to swear positively which bell I heard first. I had no other ground to think they were not putting out the fire than a short observation. The firemen might have been throwing water on the floor while a fireman was ascending the stairs.

To Mr. Edwards—I believe the statement made to Constable Stewart to be true just for the moment until I saw the second line of hose playing upon the house from the rear.

ANOTHER FIREMAN GIVES TESTIMONY.

Wm. Adamson—Reached fire shortly after the boys got there. I and Jos. Metheral and A. Moore were in the building with torches examining it; I saw no spark of fire left; saw nothing suspicious on the part of Moore. In looking in the closet he held his torch to to the wood, and charred it. He did it for a joke. It was not long enough to set fire. We came away together. The closet was wet on the inside I heard Moore say nothing about it afterwards. I don't think the second fire broke near where Moore put his torch. Did not hear Mr. Halpin shout "let her burn boys." Did not tell Constable Stewart I heard Halpin say these words but told him that I heard this expression used, but not definitely.

THE KEEPER OF THE STABLES.

J. Murphy, caretaker of stables said—I have had some little difficulty with firemen but know no reason for it. I was in sitting room on Sunday, Nov. 20th. I saw no liquor in hall that evening. The men were down stairs ahead of me at first alarm. Saw Moore shortly before seven o'clock. He said he was going to church: did not see him again until fire bell rang. Kincaid, Hutchison and Metherall were in the parlour between 8 and 9 o'clock. They went upstairs to the bedrooms and that was the last I saw of them until the first alarm. When we returned to hall I mentioned going to bed, when Wm. Green said in a joke, we had better not go to bed as we might be called out again. The horses were put to stable. Green said nothing about Moore. I heard when the firemen were coming out of the building some one say in reference to the second fire, that he had set it on fire with a torch. Moore said he would bet the treats all around that it was joke. The boys appeared to be saying this in a jocular way. I have stated to other people that Moore was accused by Chief Rutherford with having set fire to the place with a torch. I have seen liquor in the rooms, and saw it taken there. I saw none on this particular night.

To Mr. Stratton—I have seen men ahead of me downstairs before. Kincaid told me he was not going out that night. Think Mr. Green's remarks were made in a bantering tone of voice. I did not think Rutherford accused Moore of the fire seriously. The proprietor of the Commercial House gave the boys the ale on the night of the fire there.

To Mr. Edwards "Mr. Metheral asked me if I would go over to Mr. Stratton's office. We talked about the evidence there. I did not tell Constable Stewart that I knew who set fire to Halpin's place the second time. I told him they all accused Moore of doing it. I mentioned it to Mr. Stewart as a joke. I told Jas. English I was told one night to be ready for a fire but there was none. I was not told on the night in question that there would be a call for a fire.

To Mr. Stratton—"Remember meeting Mr. Kincaid and Chief Rousel that night and telling them there would be an alarm. It was on the evening we got the run out to the Bank of Commerce. The information that the inspector might be along was from an outsider.

[We can find space for no more of the evidence to-day, but it is not of a character to throw any more light on the subject of the cause of the fire.]

THE CROWN'S CASE COLLAPSES.

This afternoon Chief Rutherford gave some information as to the causes of various fires.

After some discussion Mr. Crown Attorney Wood said that he would allow the prosecution against the four accused to drop and the case would not be proceeded with to-morrow. He did not think there was one tittle of evidence against the firemen according to the evidence brought forward in this investigation. The jury then retired after a short address from the coroner, and agreed upon the following verdict:

COMPLETE EXONERATION.

The jury returned a verdict to the effect that the Hunter street fire was of incendiary origin, set by persons unknown, and they completely exonerate the four accused persons of any complicity with this matter.

The four members of the fire brigade are to be congratulated upon the fact that an exhaustive investigation, has failed to adduce one tittle of evidence to connect them in the remotest manner with the accusation of having caused the hunter street or any other fires. From the very first the public who knew all the accused felt sure that the charge would amount to nothing, and all will rejoice that the County Crown Attorney has fully exonerated the accused as well as the whole brigade.

The Lack Of Snow

Don't disturb our business one whit. Our measure book keeps piling up the orders for Suits and Overcoats just the same as if the snow was mountains high. Our customers, like sensible fellows, are looking ahead. The cold wave is coming and they know it, and they ain't going to wait until both lungs are frozen before they order warm winter clothing.

Take Pete's advice, you fellows that are waiting until it gets as cold as Greenland, and leave your measure on the spot. He can make you a Suit or Overcoat in 10 hours if you like. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

"PRICE!" to suit your purse. Men like bargains as well as women do—almost.

"FIT!" Well, we do love to see the man that's hard to fit come in our store.

POLLUTION OF WELLS.

A WORD ABOUT THE WATER SUPPLY OF COUNTRY HOMES.

Scientific Experiments of Great Importance in Health Keeping—Distance at Which Wells May be Contaminated—Three Views Which Make the Subject Plain.

The cholera epidemic in Europe and its threatened invasion of America have drawn particular attention to the water supply of cities and country towns. The appalling devastation of Hamburg is known to be largely due to the pollution of that city's water by cholera germs, introduced in the first place perhaps from one infected person, but quickly multiplied into unnumbered millions of these death-dealing microbes. The rapid multiplication of cholera microbes is not, however, unlike the microbes that cause many other diseases, so that contamination of one's water supply is not something that is of interest and a cause for apprehension at the present time merely, but is a vital matter every day in the year, even though cholera be within the confines of its natural home in Asia—its natural home being there because there is the filth, the absence of almost any attempt at sanitation and the presence of constitutions that fall an easy prey to disease. It is a subject that is not given sufficient attention, because the every-day danger of such contamination is not properly appreciated.

A scientific experiment of great interest and importance has been made in Europe to demonstrate from what distance impurities can be carried by percolation through the soil from a distant point upon its surface to a well from which a family supply of water is obtained. A salt of lithium, which can readily be detected in water, was sown upon a plot of ground 450 feet from a well—a matter of 27 rods. The water from the well was daily examined, and on the 18th day the unmistakable presence of lithium was apparent in the water. Now 27 rods is a long distance from a well as one counts distances about his house, and yet in less than three weeks a substance from the surface of the ground had been washed into the soil and had been carried along the sloping, natural drain pipes, if one may so speak of them, that exist in the soil, and had thus found its way into the water of the well.

There is an impression prevalent in some quarters that even though impurities may exist upon the surface of the earth about one's premises, that all drainage from them soaks directly down into the soil, and is therefore rendered harmless. The experiment just mentioned shows how utterly untenable is this idea, and ought to set those into earnest thought whose wells, springs or other sources of water supply are within a possible area of pollution. To understand how such pollution as has been mentioned is possible, a knowledge of the geological structure of soils from the surface down to great depths is of importance. The soil of the earth, it is to be remembered, has been formed by the disintegration of rock formations, which most commonly existed in the form of layers, laid down either in a horizontal or an inclined position. It is also to be remembered that these layers differed greatly in character, which causes the layers of soil formed from them to differ also greatly in character. A layer of sandstone may have overlain a layer of shell, so that as a result of disintegration we get a layer of sandy soil underlain by a subsoil of clay. Many of these layers are light and porous and allow water and solid matter in solution to pass readily down through them. When, however, this water, laden perhaps with impurities, reaches a layer more or less impervious it is either held there if the impervious layer forms somewhat of a basin, or spreads out in all directions if the layer is horizontal, or flows along its surface in one direction if the impervious layer is at all inclined—as it is quite sure to be, as level formations are comparatively rare.

The sketches accompanying this show some of the conditions that are found on many farms, a sectional view through the soil being given to show the different ways in which these layers of soil may be found. Only investigation by cutting deeply through the soil will show the exact nature of the formations underlying the region about one's house, but there are some surface indications that give considerable light on the condition of things below the top of the ground. Sloping ground very commonly indicates a bending down of the layers or strata of which the soil is composed, as shown in one of the illustrations, where the drainage from the stable could by no possible means get to the well, while any drainage from the house would naturally be drawn off towards the barn. In the illustration showing buildings on level ground, there are few, if any, surface indications of what may be the dangerous condition of the soil that is shown below the surface. There all the drainage that soaks into the ground about the barn and house will naturally settle in the direction of the well, provided one of the strata is somewhat impervious to water.

such a situation must be apparent, especially in the light of the results obtained in the lithium experiment. A depression between two elevations of ground indicates a basin-like formation of the strata, which, if an impervious stratum is present, may carry the drainage of the basin into any well that may be situated in it, as indicated in another of the diagrams.

A consideration of all these things shows that unless intelligent care is exercised either in the location of wells, or in the removal of any possible source of contamination, the water supply may very readily become a source of disease, and so constitute a perpetual menace to the health of a family.—Webb Donnell, in Country Gentleman.

Science in Cooking Beef.

If the correspondent who asks how she can have her roast beef brown on the outside and rare and juicy within will put her beef into a very hot oven at first, keeping temperature as high as three hundred and fifty degrees or more for half an hour, then reducing the heat to about two hundred and fifty degrees for the remainder of the time of cooking, she will attain the desired result. Of course, the meat must be basted as often as every fifteen minutes.

The great heat at first hardens as well as browns the surface of the piece of meat. This keeps in the juices. But if the high temperature be continued, the hardening process goes beyond the surface and the result will be a hard, dry and stringy piece of meat.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Will Kill Consumption.

The Norwegian cod is destined to kill consumption. It has always been known that its oil, when properly prepared, contains all the potent elements for rebuilding wasting tissues in the human body. The difficulty has been to conserve the energies of the oil in its refining, and this has only been accomplished by the manufacturers of "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil." All who suffer with lung troubles, and of course all who are threatened with consumption, should take it. In big bottles, 50c and $1.00, at all Drug Stores.

To invigorate both the body and the brain, use the reliable tonic, Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

The best-known cough-cure in the world, it is recommended by eminent physicians, and is the favorite preparation with singers, actors, preachers and teachers. It soothes the inflamed membrane, loosens the phlegm, stops coughing, and induces repose.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

taken for consumption, in its early stages, checks further progress of the disease, and even in the later stages, it eases the distressing cough and promotes refreshing sleep. It is agreeable to the taste, needs but small doses, and does not interfere with digestion or any of the regular organic functions. As an emergency medicine, every household should be provided with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Having used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, I can confidently recommend it for all the complaints it is claimed to cure, Its sale is increasing yearly with me, and my customers think this preparation has no equal as a cough cure."—S. W. Parent, Queensbury, N.B.

CROP OF ROOTS.

Satisfactory Yield at the Central Experimental Farm.

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—The root crop at the Central Experimental Farm this year has been highly satisfactory, the total quantity taken off 18 acres being 248 tons. Of this 126 tons were carrots, which ran as high as 25 and 27 tons to the acre. Yellow globe and red mangolds also did well, running from 20 to 26 tons to the acre, while one part of the field, about 40 feet square, on which a manure heap had stood, yielded at the rate of 40 tons to the acre, showing the value of manuring this vegetable.

Sugar beets also did very well, averaging from 15 to 23½ tons to the acre.

[illegible]

HAMILTON, Dec. 7.— Yesterday when Norton Roe, 135 Rebecca-street, and another man were at work on a building in Grant-avenue the scaffold broke and they got a bad fall. Roe fell into an excavation for a sewer and the other man landed on top of a man who was working in the sewer.

Roe had his left leg broken above the ankle and was injured internally. He was taken to the hospital in the ambulance. The other man was not seriously hurt.

Served the Purpose.

PARIS, Dec. 7.—The Journal des Débats whose financial editor was a member of the committee appointed by the International Monetary Conference to consider the Rothschild proposals, declares that the scheme was only a slight modification of the project advanced 10 years ago by Prof. Levi, a German.

The paper adds that the proposals would not have received any attention if they had not been presented by Mr. Rothschild.

Continuing, The Journal says that though the committee rejected the Rothschild proposal it served the useful purpose of eliciting distinct declarations that it is useless to rely upon any legislative check to the production of silver in the United States and Mexico, and that if the conference proves futile the United States Government will cease its purchases of silver and India will adopt a new standard.

The paper concludes by declaring that the mysterious tactics of the American delegates delay definite proposals.

Talmage on Scotch Character.

There is something about the Scotch character, whether I met it in New York, or London, or Perth, that thrills me through and through. Perhaps it may be because I have such a strong tide of Scotch blood in my own arteries. Next to my own beloved country give me Scotland for residence and grave. The people are in such downright earnest. There is such a roar in their mirth, like a tempest in "The Trossacks."

Take a Glasgow audience, and a speaker must have his feet well planted on the platform, or he will be overmasted by the sympathy of the populace. They are not ashamed to cry, with their broad palms wiping away the tears, and they make no attempt at suppression of glee. They do not simper, or snicker, or chuckle. Throw a joke into a Scotchman's ear and it rolls down to the center of his diaphragm and then spreads out both ways, toward the foot and brow, until the emotion becomes volcanic, and from the longest hair on the crown of the head to the tip end of the nail on the big toe there is paroxysm of cachination. No half and half about the Scotch character. What he hates, he hates; what he likes, he likes. And he lets you know it right away. He goes in for Lord Salisbury or William E. Gladstone, and is altogether Tory or Liberal. His politics decided, his religion decided; get him right and he is magnificently right; get him wrong, and he is awfully wrong. A Scotchman seldom changes. By the time he has fairly landed on his feet in this world he has made up his mind, and he keeps it made up. If he dislikes a fiddle in church you cannot smuggle it in under the name of a bass viol. And I like this persistence. Life is so short that a man can't afford to change his mind

News About Town.

It is the current report about town that Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs is making some remarkable cures with people who are troubled with Coughs, Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Any druggist will give you a trial bottle free of cost. It is guaranteed to relieve and cure. The large bottles are 50c and $1.

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

"It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

MONETARY CONFERENCE.

Very Unexpected Things Are Happening at the Meeting.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 8.—E. Benjamin Andrew of the American delegation and J. M. Boissevain of the Netherlands will speak in favor of the American plan when it is discussed to-day.

In an interview to-day Signor Simonelli said: "It is still impossible to predict the upshot of the conference. You see what unexpected things are happening at our meetings."

President Levi has received a communication from Mr. Allan, member of the Institute of Civil Engineers, who has had much experience in India, suggesting that the silver producing countries agree each to impose a fiscal duty on all silver exported, except on their own silver coins, the duty being on a sliding scale equal to the difference in value of the market price of silver and the international minimum value, less a fixed percentage on coinage, no silver thus exported being under the standard minimum value but to be free to command exchange in its favor.

The proposal, it is expected, will be discussed by the committee, but it is doubtful if it will be seriously entertained in view of the fact that Mexico and other silver-producing countries have clearly explained that they cannot agree to any reductions of the silver industry.

May Serve to Amuse.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The Times, in commenting on yesterday's proceedings of the International Monetary Conference, says: "Sir William Houldsworth's plan is the drollest yet proposed, and may serve to amuse certain delegates with the notion that they are making valuable contributions to economic science. Mr. McCreary's speech is chiefly remarkable for the frank admission that the United States will take the earliest opportunity to repeal the Sherman Act, or, in other words, abandon the experiment which Europe had been invited to undertake."

Under fears of a suspension by the American Government of the Sherman Act and some sudden change in the Indian policy, future business in the silver market here has virtually ceased. The Financial News thinks the United States will return to the Bland Act.

THE PANAMA AFFAIR.

It Is Probable That the Body of Baron de Reinach Will Be Exhumed.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—The Panama Canal Committee yesterday reaffirmed its resolution declaring the necessity of an autopsy on the body of Baron de Reinach. It is expected that the Government will to-day announce its intention to have an autopsy performed.

The members of the Panama Canal Investigating Committee, before adjournment to-day, expressed a desire to confer with the Government immediately after the ministerial declarations to learn the Government's intentions before any public discussions is had.

If any interpellation is proposed that is likely to frustrate the conference, M. Brisson will move to suspend the sitting of the chamber.

M. Porquery De Boisserin intends to ask the Government to apply the laws dealing with corruption to the Panama prosecution. If the Government should consent the trial would be transferred to the Criminal Court.

THE FRENCH MINISTRY.

It Should Have the Power to Bring Peace to the Chamber.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The Paris correspondent of The Times says: The new Ministry is a better result than could have been expected from the muddle. The joining of the Premiership with the foreign portfolio is not a happy idea, for the Foreign Office ought to be as stable as possible and not placed at the mercy of a fidgety chamber.

The removal of M. Bourgeois from the ministry of public worship must be a concession to the Pope's new republican attitude. It is impossible to imagine that the Cabinet has accepted power without a firm decision to keep the Panama Canal Committee within constitutional rights.

It is probable that the ministerial statement will forestall Boisserin's bill and show clearly that the committee's powers will be made compatible with respect for regular legal processes.

Their policy must be one to strip Boisserin's bill of its odious revolutionary marks.

The Chamber, which has been quite mad during the past ten days, may be expected to pull itself together at the sight of the old familiar ministers, otherwise public opinion will be instantly in arms.

An Erring Minister.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The Rev. Mr. Kempthorn has been remanded at Shrewsbury charged with two attempts to assault his cook, a girl of 18, named Edwards. The girl alleges that she saved herself only by desperate struggles on each occasion. She informed Mrs. Kempthorn.

Germany's Immigration Bill.

BERLIN, Dec. 8.—It is reported that the American Government is greatly disturbed over the German Immigration Bill, which comes in the Reichstag to-day, because it excludes the agents of all foreign steamship companies from Germany. The bill is regarded as so crude and absurd that it is not likely to pass.

HAVE BEECHAM'S PILLS, ready in the household.

SUING THE SCHOOL BOARD.

A King-street Merchant's Novel Suit For Damages.

TORONTO, Dec. 8.—Freddie Gee, whose father keeps a enamel store in King-street east, was not allowed to attend the Sackville-street school because he had a skin disease. He was sent home by the teacher and was examined by the Health officer and advised to remain away from school awhile. This he did for some time and after the holidays went back with a certificate from a city doctor, but was refused admittance unless he produced a certificate from the city Health Officer. His father claims that his business has been affected by the report that his son had a contagious disease, and wants damages from the School board.

A motion was made to the master yesterday to strike out part of the statement of claims on which judgment was reserved.

THE WOODEN WEDDING SALE

Here announced which has been in progress for the week, will be extended for another week, ending Dec. 17th because of the failure to get the advertisment of it in the WEEKLY EXAMINER of last week, and the very just complaint from out of town buyers that they have had not a fair chance. As our prices for this sale are much below the jobbing prices, many merchants are taking advantage to stock up, but we have enough for all.

WOODEN WEDDING SALE!

For this sale, to commence Saturday Dec. 3rd. and end Saturday night Dec. 10th., on Wooden Ware we make the following prices.

Eddy's best Tubs, 3 sizes, 49c., 59c. and 69c; regular prices 75c., $1.00 and $1.25. Washboards 10c. for a good sized board, 14c. for improved Globe Washboard.

Best Clothes Wringer made $2.79, regular price $5.

The best lot of Splint Clothes Baskets we ever had, strong, and well strapped, 22c., regular price 40c. Strong Market Baskets, 3 sizes 4c., 5c. and 7c. The best lot of covered Splint Baskets we ever owned, 6 sizes, 6c., 8c., 11c., 14c., 17c. and 19c., regular prices 15c. to 45c.

Beautiful Red Cradles for Dolls, 29c., 39c. and 49c. worth 50c., .75c. and 85c.

The neatest Red Chairs you have seen 21c., regular price 40c.

We venture to say if you want to give a Sleigh for a present, you will be suited both as to price and quality.

We have never had so well made and well painted Sleighs, before and for this sale no profit asked.

That Empress Sewing Machine, no better machine made, only $17; regular price $45, thousands have been sold for that and have given the grandest satisfaction.

Rolling Pins, of the best finished revolving handles, 6c.; regular price 15c.

Long Wooden Spoons, the finest made you have seen 4c.

Butter Moulds, from 1 oz. to 2 lbs. price for this sale 7c. up to 25c. for the 2 lbs; worth 50c.

Doll Carriages, $1; regular price $1.75.

Wagons, steel wheels the best make, $1.00; large size, $1.50; worth $2.50 elsewhere.

Chopping Butter Bowls, the state made, Sugarmaple and Birch from 5c. each up, not half usual price.

Hat Racks and Coat Racks, Children's Blocks and Pails.

Beautiful Curtain Poles, with brass ends and rings, 21c. each; regular price 45c.

Butter Ladles 8c.

Potato Mashers 5c.

Sham Holders 23c. up.

Clothes Pins for this sale 1c. per doz.

You will all wish it was your Wooden Wedding, but many of you had yours. $3 would not buy as much then as one will now here.

Bread Boards and Knives, 39c. for the pair, for beautiful goods; regular price 75c. Bread Boards, alone from 23 to 32c.

Now comes the most unique present and much wanted about the time of Wooden Weddings, or should be. It is the Baby Walker, sold usually for $3.50. Our price now $1.44. Where this is used no more bow legged children, and it is a great comfort and relief. Secure one.

Many other things in the Wooden Ware, but we have only space for this.

1 box of 1000 Tooth Picks, 4c. Will be glad to see you at this sale.

An arrival of a large stock of Rockingham ware, from the best manufacturers of these goods on this continent if not in the world, enables us to offer you Tea-pots from 9c. each up to largest size made, at about half regular prices.

All kinds Bake Dishes, Pie Plates, Pictures, &c., &c. at similiar prices. This is the purest rising ware in the world.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL COUNTERFEIT

Is the one which is so NEARLY like the real thing as to be often mistaken for it. The business of turning out Ready-Made Clothing is carried on upon lines, in some cases, so near those of the honest manufacturer, that its products look and sell nearly as well, and deceive many good people into believing that it is just as durable as the article honestly made up.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

Appearances are very often disappointing, and scarcely ever more frequently than in the matter of Clothing. It is satisfactory, therefore, to know that you have a safe investment—always. We mean that you can never be deceived by it—that it is never misrepresented—and that the goods that bear our name and stamp, carry with them our own guarantee.

If people would look a little deeper than what appears on the mere surface, they would soon see the difference between good and counterfeit Clothing. The one is constantly putting something solid into its structure, which will stand the wear and tear, while the other is full of dressing and shoddy, which cannot stand even the light of the sun.

Besides we sell DIRECT to our customers at close WHOLESALE PRICES, thus saving them a straight TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

NO WONDER PEOPLE LOOK SURPRISED

as they pass our store and see good garments marked at such low prices. That line of $6.50 Suits and $6.50 Overcoats, for instance, are surprisers, and are being picked up more quickly than expected. We are honestly selling twice as many as anticipated, but we have stock enough to meet all demands, if you come before New Years.

The demand for Boys' Overcoats and Suits has also increased this week, and we are quite prepared for any rush. Prices $1.50 to $5.75.

A FREE SLEIGH RIDE.

We still continue to give away a dandy Hand Sleigh with every Boys' Suit or Overcoat.

See our Men's Melton Overcoats, in five shades, at $6.50, $8.00 and $11.00.

PREPARATION SALE.

NOW that the November leaf is torn from the Calendar, we must get in shape for the great gift festival.

Christmas goods come rolling in and demand that room shall be made for them. Everybody foretells a brilliant holiday season at the GOLDEN LION. It is budding time now. In a few days everything will be in full bloom.

Meanwhile, here is just a foretaste of the good things in preparation for our patrons. December has started in right good earnest, and we must have every inch of room we can spare for the holiday trade. Some lines MUST, therefore, be MARKED DOWN and sold out at a sacrifice.

GODDARD DEFEATS MAHER.

He Fought Furiously and Knocked Maher Out in the Third Round.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—The Goddard-Maher fight at Coney Island was one of the fiercest of battles. It lasted only three rounds and the Irishman failed to respond, when the match was given to the unbeaten Australian.

Considering the importance, or rather the booming of the boom, there was never a fight in this country that created less betting than that last night at the Coney Island Athletic Club between Joe Goddard, the unbeaten and alleged champion of the Barrier, a locality in Australia, and Peter Maher, the so-called Irish champion.

Goddard's reputation rested on his success in defeating a dozen local men, in securing a draw with Peter Jackson in eight rounds, and in whipping Joe Choynski twice in four rounds each time.

Maher's standing was made in stopping two poor fighters in one night at Madison-square Garden. He afterwards met Bob Fitzsimmons in New Orleans and showed himself to be a thorough quitter, as the fighters say. The impression got abroad that there was a job. Hence the want of a feeling of security among the bettors. The feeling prevailed that Billy Madden wanted to make Goddard a champion, and knowing that he could not do so without a victory of some kind had picked out Maher, a man who was supposed to have no heart to be the first victim of a heavy man who is known to have bulldog courage and who can hit a hard blow. Such bets as were put out before to-night varied from even money to 5 to 4.

Goddard Was the Favorite.

Goddard was always the favorite.

It was 9.40 when Joe Goddard, wearing around his trunks the colors that the Columbia A.C. of New York had presented him, appeared in the ring. Jim Gibbons of Passaic, N.J.; Billy Madden, Alexander Greggains of San Francisco, and Lou Morris of the Columbia A.C. were after him. There was hardly a ripple of hand-clapping when he came before the crowd.

When Maher came on a great cheer went up. Maher's handlers were Jack McVey of Philadelphia, Corbett's former coworker; "Buffalo" Costello, Greggains' recent opponent; Jimmy Carroll of Brooklyn, and Jimmy McGrath of Dublin. Maher wore his usual green trunks.

The weights of the men were given out officially as: Maher 175, Goddard 187. Maher probably weighed 180 and Goddard 195.

Maher won the toss for choice of gloves, and there was another noise that showed what a favorite Maher was with the mass of spectators. Johnny Eckhardt was the official referee and Bob Stoll, N.Y.A.C., held the watch.

Only Required Three Rounds.

FIRST ROUND—It was lightning work from the very start. The men went hammer and tongs, slash and crash, with Maher a scienced man and Goddard only a bulldog, all for the head. A few body blows were struck, the two or three being given by Goddard. Maher went down to his knees once, but got up again and tried again, but it was no good. Goddard landed on him with his right and left, missing many times, but getting there often enough.

SECOND ROUND—There was more punishing and smashing. Maher got in a couple of beauties on Goddard's face, staggering the Australian each time. Goddard looked a bit groggy after a couple of rights on the cheek, but he clung to his man and smashed the Irishman on the ribs three times before he let go. Then Maher fell to his knees again. At this time the men who knew Maher to be a quitter said he would never get up again. Peter stayed down for 4 seconds, his head shaking like a leaf. Up he jumped, however, and out at Goddard again. He got in a soaker on Goddard's breast and Goddard fell back to the ropes. Maher ran after him, but swung his right wildly. Instead of touching the Barrier man on the jaw he went away beyond his ear. Goddard dashed at Maher and gave him a fierce blow on the breast. Maher fell back under its effect and the bell sounded before Goddard could land again. It had been a tremendous round. Both men had worked apparently for a knockout blow, Goddard in his unclean, heavy and strong style, Maher in form that showed little of the neatness that he had displayed before and was known for in New York for weeks after his arrival from Ireland.

THIRD ROUND—Both came up looking dazed from the furious fighting of the previous round. Neither showed the least science, but rained blow after blow on each other as fast and hard as possible. Goddard went at Maher like a wild beast, and fairly beat his man down by brute strength. The Irishlad stood up gamely under the shower of blows, but at last was laid low by a straight right on the jaw and fell face downward on the floor. The excitement was intense, the crowd being fairly crazed with excitement. The round lasted just 50 seconds.

Mills Burned.

WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 9.—Fire at Jefferson's burned a six-set satinet mill to the ground, with a loss of $110,000. A seven-set cassimere plant is badly damaged by smoke and water.

The storehouse and picker room are destroyed and a two-tenement residence burned to the ground. The total loss is $200,000; insurance $180,000.

Colliery on Fire.

NEW GLASGOW, N.S., Dec. 9.—A tunnel connecting the main workings with a disused pit of the Drummond colliery is on fire. No lives were lost, and the men are at work as usual. Steps are being taken to put out the fire.

WALKED INTO THE DON

A SAD SUICIDE OF AN INSANE WOMAN.

The Tragic Death of P. C. Dodds' Mother—A Former Queen's Hotel Waiter Found Dead in Bed in a York-street Lodging House.

TORONTO, Dec. 9.—Elizabeth Dodds, aged 58, was found drowned in the Don, near Morse's soap works, at 4.35 yesterday afternoon. City Inspector Johnston was going down the east bank of the Don when he saw the body of a woman floating near where he was standing. He summoned the patrol wagon from No. 4 and the body was removed to the Morgue, where it was recognized.

The deceased was the mother of P.C. Richard Dodd of 101 River-street and of ex-P.C. Robert Dodd. She had been deranged for years and had been an inmate of the Insane Asylum. Lately her condition so improved that her son Richard brought her to live with him. She left his house at 10.45 yesterday morning, but it was thought she had gone to visit one of her children, there being five daughters and four other sons residing in the city. The rumor of a woman found drowned aroused the apprehensions of the family, and investigation proved that the worst was true. The body was afterwards removed to the residence of her son Richard. The interment will take place in the Presbyterian churchyard at Mono, Ont., Saturday afternoon.

TAKING A PEEP.

The New Ministers Visit Their Departments for a Brief Time.

OTTAWA, Dec. 9.—Although yesterday was a statutory holiday and consequently very few civil servants were at work, still the new ministers visited their several departments and had brief interviews with such of their officers as were on duty.

Hon. Mr. Angers was early at the Department of Agriculture, where he found Hon. Mr. Carling packing up.

Hon. Mr. Ives spent part of the day in his office and Messrs. Woods and Wallace "looked in" at the Departments of Inland Revenue and Customs.

Mr. Curran had an interview with Sir John Thompson and spent a short time in the Department of Justice. The four last named gentlemen have left for their constituencies to look after their re-elections.

Although the date for the meeting of Parliament is not fixed yet the first arrival for the session took place yesterday, the "early bird" being Senator John Ferguson, who is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell left for Belleville yesterday and will probably not return until Monday. To-night he will attend the dedication of a new Orange lodge at Cooper in North Hastings.

Before Hon. J. A. Chapleau left his office in the Customs Department he recommended to the council that cigars, wines, spirits, malt liquors, etc., and silverware, when imported by the various permanent military schools for officers' messes in Canada, be duty free, the same privilege being extended now to the Imperial troops.

Sir Adolphe Caron will entertain his colleagues at dinner on Monday evening.

The annual kick is being made against civil servants who offer themselves for election as aldermen and school trustees, and it is said, as it is said almost every year, that orders will be given restraining civil servants from offering themselves for municipal honors. At present there are three aldermen, three public and seven separate school trustees who are employed in the civil service.

Thomas Paquin, ex-Deputy Postmaster of Hull, will be up for trial for the third time on Saturday at the Aylmer Assizes on a charge of stealing money from registered letters. When Paquin was arrested he made a confession of his thefts and when arraigned before the recorder of Hull he first pleaded guilty, but afterwards changed his plea. Paquin escaped to San Francisco, where he was arrested and extradited. He has been twice tried at Aylmer, the jury failing to agree each time. It is now said that on Saturday a motion will be made to change the venue to Montreal.

LIZZIE WILLIE.

Her Mother Says She Had Nothing But Kindness at Home.

DETROIT, Dec. 9.—At last the Willie family are thoroughly convinced that the woman who lies dead in San Diego is no kin of theirs. The latest telegram from San Diego informs them the suicide had two handkerchiefs on her person marked "L. Anderson."

An examination of the ears of the deceased showed that they had never been pierced.

"That settles it," said May Willie, "Lizzie's ears were pierced, and she often wore earrings. The handkerchiefs being marked that way are pretty good evidence that the dead woman's name was her own."

"What a dreadful thing it would have been if we had ordered that woman's body shipped here for burial and she was not my Lizzie!" said Mrs. Willie. "If Lizzie is alive and well I don't see how she can be so cruel as to treat us so when she had nothing but kindness at home."

An Unlucky Teamster.

HAMILTON, Dec. 9.—Thomas Freeborn, a teamster living at No. 53 Clark-avenue, has evidently struck a wave of hard luck. A few days ago he was fined in the Police Court for striking a small boy, and on Monday, while driving home from the Beach, his wagon upset and he was thrown out. His collar bone was fractured and he had to be carried home.

On the same day his horse lost about six inches of its tongue, and as Dame Rumor had it that the tongue was cut by some fiend in human shape Detective McKenzie was detailed to investigate the affair. The information he has secured so far, however, points to the probability of the animal having hurt itself in its attempt to bite somebody, as it is known to be vicious.

At any rate Freeborn denies all knowledge of how the tongue was cut, but thinks that it might have been done by the bit.

Local Option at Norwich.

NORWICH, Dec. 9.—At the request of the Rev. Mr. Kettlewell and others, the matter of submitting local option came before the Town Council last evening. It was decided to submit it to a vote of the ratepayers on Jan. 2.

Austrian Army Increase.

VIENNA, Dec. 9.—The Army Gazette announces an addition of 3600 men to the peace standard of the army. This indicates that the Emperor is disposed to follow the policy of the German Emperor.

THE DRIVERS LOST WITS

BECAUSE THEY SAW A WOMAN KILLED ON THE RAIL.

Passengers Made a Mad Rush When They Saw the Danger—A Locomotive Crashed Into Them—A Horrible Scene—Shrieks and Groans.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—At 11.30 o'clock a.m. yesterday the Roundbrook express, running to Jersey City, struck and killed Miss Gilroy of Elizabeth in front of Grasonville Station, on the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

The train stopped immediately on the opposite track. Outward bound came another express on the Central road.

The engineer saw the killing of the woman and stopped his train.

Just behind him on the same track followed a third express, also outward bound. The third train was close behind the second.

When the engineer of the second train stopped it was done so suddenly that the engineer of the third express could not avert a collision. He applied the air brakes, but they did not prevent his running into the train ahead.

The passengers in the rear car of the second train saw the third train running them down and a panic ensued.

A Mad Rush.

A mad rush was made for the forward doors of the car. A few succeeded in getting off before the crash came. The remainder of the passengers were in the forward part of the last car when the locomotive of the incoming train crashed into them.

There was a deafening crash that could be heard for blocks away, followed by smashing of timbers, the cracking of glass and the shrieks and groans of frightened and wounded people.

The engine of the third express plowed into the car ahead half its length. Then the force of the collision spent itself. The engineer and fireman were not hurt beyond a few bruises. The injured in the car were as follows:

Orlando Demorest, New York, badly hurt internally.

J. E. Toxendell, Somerville, N.J., scalp wound and toes crushed.

George Lawson, Elizabeth, scalp wound and toes frightfully crushed.

D. C. Chetwood, New York, arm and nose injured.

James Ross, Ronndbrook, N.J., knee-cap injured; G. J. Miller, Plainfield, N.J., severely bruised; E. E. Runyon, Plainfield, hip injured; W. H. Parker, Redbank, head and nose injured; Louis Beltner, New York, side injured; S. M. Hershfried, New York, head injured.

MRS. BORDEN'S COURAGE.

It Enables Her to Bear Up Under the Awful Charges Against Her.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Dec. 9.—Speculations concerning all phases of the Borden case have taken on an increased activity, and it is more generally talked of than the city election.

Regarding the place of trial it is held that on the ground of economy, hotel and court conveniences and the accommodation of a majority of all interested in the case Fall River has the strongest claim to have the trial conducted here.

To say that the sentiment of this community would be prejudicial to an impartial trial is nonsense.

The defence has already intimated that it prefers that the trial should be held here, and quote the constitution to show that it should take place as soon as possible and as near the place of commission as convenient.

The dress, which is alleged to have been burned, is believed by the defendant's friends to have become through newspaper reports of more than warrantable importance in establishing the guilt of the prisoner. The evidence given before the grand jury, they say, was necessarily tinged with a governmental flavor.

It must be remembered, however, that the defence has not yet been submitted, nor were their many strong points brought out to the best advantage. Furthermore, much of the testimony given by government witnesses can be contradicted by witnesses yet to be called.

It is said that Mr. John V. Morse intends soon to leave for his home in Maine, where neglected business interests demand his attention. He goes with the full consent of his bondsmen and will be within call whenever his presence here is desired.

Miss Emma Borden has been confined to her bed since Friday. She went to Taunton at noon on that day before she was informed of the action of the grand jury, and the shock and disappointment unnerved her.

Miss Lizzie Borden, though trying to bear up under the awful charges that confront her, is also much distressed, though she brings will power into play.

MRS. MAYBRICK IS SICK.

She Swears She Was Innocent of Moral Intent by Deed and Act.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—Mrs. Maybrick is critically ill in Woking prison. On Tuesday the governor of the prison summoned the Baroness de Rognes, Mrs. Maybrick's mother, at Rouen, and she arrived yesterday and proceeded at once to the prison.

It was thought Mrs. Maybrick was dying, and the sacrament was administered to her. She made the last confession of a dying prisoner, which in case of death is legally attested and given to the prisoner's next of kin. Mrs. Maybrick swears she was innocent of moral intent by deed and act against the life of James Maybrick.

The Baroness de Rognes was only allowed to see her daughter for a short time. Mrs. Maybrick had several hemorrhages of the lungs which left her so weak that if they occur again she will surely die.

She has been suffering from these hemorrhages for six weeks. She has petitioned Herbert Asquith, the Home Secretary, to release her from prison before her disease becomes incurable.

Home Secretary Asquith states that the condition of Mrs. Maybrick is receiving serious consideration at the Home Office.

The Kaiser's Philanthropy.

BERLIN, Dec. 9.—The Kaiser has designed a warship, of which a model has been constructed. In this several innovations are made in naval architecture.

To insure the health of officers and men the sleeping apartments are above deck, but in case of battle they can be removed in a few minutes.

Astonished Both Parties.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—The unanimity and fervid enthusiasm displayed at the Agricultural Conference which met in St. James Hall here yesterday in favor of protection and bi-metallism have alike astonished the Conservatives and Liberals.

THE FIRE INQUEST CONCLUDED

IT PROVES A FRUITLESS INVESTIGATION

Except as to Completely Exonerating the Accused Firemen—Completion of the Report of Testimony Given—The Text of the Jury's Verdict.

Ernest Lawrence, fire teamster—Was at fire hall on 30th. Was not sent for liquor that night. No liquor was there at all, and saw no drinking at all that night. None of men were dressed and ready for fire when fire bell rang. Kingaid and Hutchinson were in bed when I retired at 11 o'clock. He heard the name of Moore mentioned that night as having set fire to the building. They were laughing and joking about it.

To Mr. Stratton—When I came back to hall, Metheral, Moore and Hutchinson were there at 11 o'clock. I am sure none of them were out of bed up to time of fire alarm. I was in bed when Moore came at 11 o'clock. He went to bed and did not get up until fire alarm. I was first down stairs, Moore next and the others in order. After first fire all four accused returned to the fire hall. I saw them go up to bed and we were undressing when the second alarm rang. We did not expect this alarm.

To Mr. Edwards—None of the firemen gave me liquor. No one has been speaking to me about my evidence.

HE MADE THE STATEMENT IN JEST.

Wm. Green corroborated Mr. Lawrence's statement about the liquor. Was at the fire. Did not see Moore apply torch to wood work. I noticed steam between partition in building and called captain's attention to it, and he said it was all right. This was the reason I told Murphy that we might be called out again that night. I did not tell Murphy or anybody else that I saw Moore put torch under stairway and touch fire to it. Heard some one say Moore had lit the fire with his torch when returning from fire, but do not know who said it. Never heard the matter mentioned again among the firemen.

To Mr. Stratton—I will not say others were wrong if they stated remarks regarding Moore took place after second fire also.

Robert Hull, said: Moore was in my blacksmith shop, when Campbell, who was working there, said to him in a joke, "How much money, Moore, did you make out of last night's fire?" I did not state to any one that Campbell had charged Moore with setting fire to the place.

The investigation adjourned till Thursday at 9.30.

THURSDAY MORNING'S INQUEST.

The inquest was resumed at ten o'clock Thursday morning. The first witness called was Ernest Lawrence. He wished to correct a wrong statement make in his evidence given Wednesday. He said:—I was talking to Town Clerk Cobb and said if all the boys in the hall wanted to make me drunk I would not unless I wanted to, I did not mention anything about going for beer to Mr. Cobb. Jas. Byers told of Archie Moore being in Hull's blacksmith shop when he said to him: "How much do you get for setting fire to all those places?" It was spoken with reference to no fire particularly. Moore said nothing. I only mentioned it in fun, and said nothing about money. Moore was always joking with me.

CONSTABLE STEWART'S EVIDENCE GIVEN.

Jos. Stewart, police constable, said:—I was in police station when first alarm was given. I heard a call of fire around the building, and went out but saw or heard nothing. I went back again and in about 20 or 25 minutes the alarm was given. I ran and alarmed Mr. English in his bed room. I ran around into the hall as quickly as I could. Moore was there and had pulled the lever. He was dressed. Metheral and somebody else was there also. The waggon went right out. I lost no time and I don't think these men would have time to dress. English stated to me that he merely put on his pants, but did not dress and when he went in the hall these men were there. Murphy appeared in time to lock one of the collars. I did not go to fire. After they had returned I walked past, however, and men seemed to be talking and joking. I went to the corner of George and Hunter streets and noticed a smoke arising from fire. Met Gordon and walked down to see, and saw building burning on the inside. We rang bell again. The firemen went to fire directly without any indication from us as to where it was. At second fire I looked in the door and English said to me that it looked as "if the men were going to let it go" as the men were throwing water upon the floor. I came away soon. I heard statements from several about the occurrence of this fire. I keep my ears open to hear what I could about it. First statement I heard was from Murphy who said the origin looked bad. Murphy said he knew who started second fire; it was Archie Moore. He said he heard it at the hall after returning. He told me to ask Wm. Green. When I asked who started this I thought that he tried to keep it quiet. Murphy said he heard Moore had set it on fire in a closet with his torch. All this was said in earnest. I had another conversation with him. He said he had been thinking over matters since and thought the fire was caused by the fact that the firemen thought he would be out that night. He said however "I happened to be there." I took this to be serious. I also spoke to Fireman Adamson. He told me he heard a voice in the crowd "let her go boys," but did not know who said it. Witness heard in an indirect manner that the firemen had been at Mrs. Buller's. He had reported one disturbance in fire hall to the Fire, Water and Light Committee. He thought he had done his duty.

Cross-examined by Mr. Stratton—Mr. Shirley, and I who was working under him, were working together. I was not under the instructions of the Chief. A member of the town council asked me to investigate the matter. I consider I had sufficient evidence although I did not lay the warrant against Moore, and had no substantial proof against the other three. I swear I was in the fire hall before Mr. Gordon and did not see him strike the gong. I thought it was suspicious that the boys were down ahead of me. I know nothing of the time it takes the men to come down stairs. Did not know telephone had rung notifying firemen of second fire. It looked to me as if they were going to let the building burn. I did not see any stream to the back. "Let her go" may be a common expression to use to man at the hydrant. I and the firemen have had some trouble and some threats. I reported Murphy's conversation in the stables to Mr. Shirley but not to the chief.

To Mr. Edwards—I was told to work under Mr. Shirley by my instructor and not the chief.

Mr. Joseph Yelland, secretary of the fire brigade said he kept record of all fires and accounts of money. The money not spent for refreshments and wood is divided at the end of the year up among the men. All the moneys received this year are in the hands of the treasurer—about $60. Witness confirmed evidence already given regarding the joke of Moore setting fire to the building.

To Mr. Stratton—No liquor was purchased with the funds within last five or six years, except when Orillia firemen were here. I don't expect any division of profit at the end of this year as there are a number of accounts and officials to pay.

THE DETECTIVE ADDS NOTHING NEW.

Alfred Shurley, detective, Toronto, sworn, said—The manner I became connected with the case is this. Early in November acts in fire hall were reported to our officers and I was sent here to investigate. While here the fires occurred, and I was asked to inquire into the cause. I asked the assistance of Officer Stewart in the case. When I had received the evidence from all sources I could, I laid the matter before Mr. Edwards who handed it over to County Crown Attorney Wood and witness thought there was evidence enough against Moore to convict, but in swearing out a warrant against the other three was guided by the Crown Attorney who no doubt thought there was sufficient evidence to make them accessories to the act.

To Mr. Stratton—I have had no other evidence than that which has been directly submitted by witnesses. I heard a rumor that the firemen had some kind of firing apparatus to commit their work and thought there might be some truth in it. I also heard reports of their being at Mrs. Buller's house on night in question.

To Mr. Edwards—The information brought to me has not coincided with the evidence given by witnesses in their statements which have been made contrary to the way I believe they would have been made and which I suppose would materially add to the case. I took the matter in reference to the report of setting fire to the building with a torch as a reality not a joke.

To Mr. Stratton—I was instructed by Mr. Woods to swear out a warrant. A councillor told me to do so if the County Crown Attorney deemed it advisable.

This ended all the list of witnesses put in Mr. Edwards' hands.

Some of the jurymen favoured an adjournment for a few days as more material evidence might develop which would throw light on the cause of the fire, which was as yet far from being supplied.

Mr. Stretton said all the evidence from start to finish had been directed against the four accused and he submitted they were really on trial at this inquest. He asked that the jury now find a verdict as the evidence was all in. If they adjourned a week at the police court to-morrow the case against the accused would be enlarged a week and the defendants have to renew their bonds. He asked that a verdict be found and remove this grave charge hanging over the firemen, of which, according to the evidence submitted there was not a breath of suspicion.

The coroner said that this, a court of enquiry, had nothing to do with the police court hearing of the case to-morrow and would have no influence on it. This inquest was to enquire merely into the cause of the fire and had no bearing on the other. No imputation would rest upon them for a moment after an adjournment in view of the evidence produced. The evidence pointed to a fire of incendiary origin and not to these four firemen whose names had accidentally come up in the case. It would be no harm to adjourn a week, it remained entirely with the jury. A motion to adjourn until Monday week was defeated and it was decided to adjourn until two o'clock in the afternoon.

THE BIGGEST DAY IN 7 YEARS!

Saturday, December 3rd was the biggest day MR. J. J. SHEEHY has had in seven years. Why is this? Surely not because there is less competition. Certainly not because inducements are not being held out by others. Most assuredly not because prices of farm products are showing an upward tendency. Then why??

Simply because the purchasing public of the town and surrounding country have read Mr. Sheehy's advertisements, have inwardly digested them and have concluded that cheap sale or no cheap sale Mr. Sheehy is bound not to be undersold.

We want every day in December to be a big day. How are we to accomplish this? Simply by offering to the public better value for the money than can be had elsewhere. Just cast your eye over the following quotations:—

These few quotations will probably give an idea of what we are doing and a glance at our BARGAIN TABLE in the centre of our store will convince the most skeptical that when it comes to general bargains we certainly are very decidedly "in it."

ROBERT RAIKES' DISCIPLES

HOLD A MOST SUCCESSFUL COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Reports of the Committees Conference Work — Thoughtful, Practical Papers Read — Next Convention at Keene The Delegates Inspired with Greater Zeal and Increased Knowledge of Effective Sunday School Work.

The convention resumed work in the Sunday school of St. Andrew's church on Wednesday morning. Rev. W. G. Hanna, B.A., Uxbridge occupied the chair. The attendance of delegates was large. The opening devotional exercises were led by Mr. J. E. Trotter, of the Murray street Baptist church. After prayer, reading of the Scriptures, Rev. John McEwen presented the Financial statement and Institute Work. The Financial statement was then handed over to the auditor. The speaker pointed out that monies should be sent to each township treasurer, not to the county treasurer. The report was adopted. Excellent and thoughtful five minute speeches on "How I prepare my Sunday School lesson," were delivered by Miss Mercer, Mrs. (Dr.) Harrison, Messrs. R. Payne and A. C. McCallum. Many very important suggestions were presented and valuable pointers gained from the reading of these practical papers.

The next address was on "How I prepare a Sunday school lesson" by Rev. John McEwen, honorary secretary of the Provincial Sunday School Association. The speaker used a blackboard in the illustration of his splendid address and emphasized two points which he took in preparing a lesson, viz. Study plan and teaching plan. He explained the different workings of these plans.

Rev. A. MacWilliams followed in a short and appreciative address on the same lines and highly commended Mr. McEwan's ideas on these points generally. A hymn was then sung after which a telegram, received by the secretary was read. It was from the Brantford Sunday School Association and congratulated the Peterborough Sunday School Workers on their organization.

The place of the next annual convenwas next fixed. Rev. Mr. Brown asked that the convention hold its next meeting at Havelock. The matter, however, was left with the business committee to decide.

A Question Drawer was then opened in the charge of Rev. J. McEwen, after which a hymn was sung and the morning session was brought to a close by prayer from Rev. W. M. Bartlett.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

After devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Mr. Goldsmith, Miss L. Kennedy read an exhaustive and comprehensive paper on "Primary Work," which was followed by four other papers on the same subject, read by Miss Sherin, of Lakefield, also Miss Fanny Dixon of St. Paul's church. In her paper she pointed that it was advisable for a teacher to be at the class ten minutes before opening. She thought children should be given something to do to make them interested to give their own earnings as collection, and good order should be preserved. Mrs. Dr. Harrison and Mr. W. F. Nelson also read fine papers on the same line. Mr. Nelson spoke admirably on work among young boys along the Christian Endeavour line.

Mr. Geo. Anderson, of Toronto, then read a paper, "Mistakes in Teaching." He said mere talking was not teaching, and all teachers should have their work and lessons thoroughly prepared. For a teacher to do all the talking himself, and the class to do the listening, was not teaching a lesson in the true sense of the word. The knowlege of the scholars was not tested. It was a mistake not to have a plan of lessons, and the connecting circumstances with the previous lesson. Attention in class was dwelt upon, and blackboard illustrations recommended to throw more light upon the subject, and engage and deepen the attention and thoughts of the class.

A short interesting conference followed, being taken part in by Rev. Messrs. McKeown, MacWilliams and others.

After the singing of another hymn, Rev. Jas. MacFarlane of Stirling, gave an address on "Three Human Personalities in Teaching a Lesson." The speaker said the lesson should be studied at home by the pupil; the pastor had this part to do as well as the teacher himself. A conference ensued in which Rev. Mr. Thompson and Mr. D. W. Dumble took part. Copies of Provincial Committee's report held at Guelph in October was presented by Rev. Mr. McEwen to all the schools desiring the same.

The Special Committee, Sheriff Hall, chairman, reported, recommending and approving of the proposition of the Provincial Executive to divide the province into districts.

The Business Committee reported recommending institutes to be held at Keene and Lakefield, and that Rev. Mr. Hide and Merrill visit Burleigh and Chandos.

Keene was also appointed the place of the next annual convention.

The Special Committee reported recommending that that township conventions in the county be held in rotation so as not to clash with one another. This report will be submitted to the township convention for their approval.

The Finance Committee reported recommending that the moneys paid from township to county conventions be paid the same as last year.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Evening Session.

The meeting opened at 7.30 o'clock, Dr. Harrison, president, occupying the chair. The church was well filled. After the singing of a hymn, and prayer by Rev. Mr. Bartlett, of Lakefield, a Bible reading and prayers by Rev. Messrs. Campbell and McFarlane followed.

Mr. Geo. Anderson, of Toronto gave a splendid address on "The Teacher Gathering Ideas." After a few introductory remarks he opened the subject by saying teachers are beginning to realize they have only been playing. There was some talk of the Provincial Convention being held at Peterborough next year. He recommended a good many useful ideas, giving a few good illustrations of how the teachers should follow their leader, the Lord Jesus Christ. Great caution should be used how to prepare and teach the lesson. He recommended object lessons. Teachers should use great caution as to their example, children would imitate. Home training has more influence than Sunday school training. Best way to interest boys and girls is to study the lesson and make it interesting. The speaker gave a good many illustrations how easily children are influenced, showing how necessary it is to set a proper example and illustrating the steamboat, how much faster it will go with the stream than against it; it was better to go slow in the proper direction. We have discouragements in the Sabbath school work. Mr. Anderson gave an example of one who had got too old to go to school. Speaking also of great encouragements we have in Sunday school work, he thought there was no work in which there is so much encouragement, giving inspiring thoughts to the teachers. Mr. Anderson spoke of their last reward in Heaven.

A hymn, "Where are the Reapers?" was then sung, after which the chairman reported that Mr. Blake had not arrived on the train, and the time was taken up by short conference addresses. Mr. McEwen in opening the conference said he had known Hon. S. H. Blake for the past twenty years and he never knew him to disappoint before. The subject was "Some of the Essential Qualifications for Sunday School Work." Mr. McEwen's talk was short and powerful, throwing out some very helpful hints. Mr. Campbell then spoke for a few minutes, giving reasons why teachers should know their Bible thoroughly. Mr. McEwen then gave a short talk on qualifications necessary for teaching, bearing on the same points as Mr. Campbell. Rev. Mr. McWilliams gave the teachers great encouragement. He felt it his duty as he thought that some of the teachers present would feel unqualified to teach.

A hymn was then sung and the collection taken up.

Rev. Mr. MacWilliams spoke in reference to bringing the convention here next year. A standing vote was then taken on it and carried unanimously.

Rev. Mr. Hanna, Uxbridge, was then called on to give an account of missionary work in Canada. He delivered a half hour address. During the past two years the Province of Ontario has been blessed. He gave an account of the districts which are now covered and of the work which has been done the past year. He impressed on the people the necessity of help and said the people has very little conception of the work there is to be done, and how it is appreciated by the natives. Mr. Hanna's address was very interesting. He brought out a good many points which will be helpful in arousing the people of the great necessity of giving the missionary work a strong support.

Rev. Mr. McEwen expressed his thanks to Mr. Hanna for his able address and making a few remarks on the work.

Moved by Mr. McEwen, seconded by Mr. Trotter that a vote of thanks be given to Mr. Hanna—Carried.

Mr. McEwen moved that the next county convention be held at Keene. —Carried Moved by Mr. Campbell, seconded by Mr. Watt, that a vote of thanks be given to the people for the way they have entertained the delegates.

The convention which was the most successful and beneficial yet held in its history was then closed by all fervently singing the Doxology, and with the benediction pronounced by Rev. W. G. Hanna.

THE WOODEN WEDDING SALE

Here announced which has been in progress for the week, will be extended for another week, ending Dec. 17th because of the failure to get the advertisment of it in the WEEKLY EXAMINER of last week, and the very just complaint from out of town buyers that they have had not a fair chance. As our prices for this sale are much below the jobbing prices, many merchants are taking advantage to stock up, but we have enough for all.

WOODEN WEDDING SALE!

For this sale, to commence Saturday Dec. 3rd. and end Saturday night Dec. 10th., on Wooden Ware we make the following prices.

Eddy's best Tubs, 3 sizes, 49c., 59c. and 69c; regular prices 75c., $1.00 and $1.25. Washboards 10c. for a good sized board, 14c. for improved Globe Washboard.

Best Clothes Wringer made $2.79, regular price $5.

The best lot of Splint Clothes Baskets we ever had, strong, and well strapped, 22c., regular price 40c. Strong Market Baskets, 3 sizes 4c., 5c. and 7c. The best lot of covered Splint Baskets we ever owned, 6 sizes, 6c., 8c., 11c., 14c., 17c. and 19c., regular prices 15c. to 45c.

Beautiful Red Cradles for Dolls, 29c., 39c. and 49c. worth 50c., 75c. and 85c.

The neatest Red Chairs you have seen 21c., regular price 40c.

We venture to say if you want to give a Sleigh for a present, you will be suited both as to price and quality.

We have never had so well made and well painted Sleighs, before and for this sale no profit asked.

That Empress Sewing Machine, no better machine made, only $17; regular price $45, thousands have been sold for that and have given the grandest satisfaction.

Rolling Pins, of the best finished revolving handles, 6c.; regular price 15c.

Long Wooden Spoons, the finest made you have seen 4c.

Butter Moulds, from 1 oz. to 2 lbs. price for this sale 7c. up to 25c. for the 2 lbs.; worth 50c.

Doll Carriages, $1; regular price $1.75.

Wagons, steel wheels the best make, $1.00; large size, $1.50; worth $2.50 elsewhere.

Chopping Butter Bowls, the state made, Sugarmaple and Birch from 5c. each up, not half usual price.

Hat Racks and Coat Racks, Children's Blocks and Pails.

Beautiful Curtain Poles, with brass ends and rings, 21c. each; regular price 45c.

Butter Ladles 8c.

Potato Mashers 5c.

Sham Holders 23c. up.

Clothes Pins for this sale 1c. per doz.

You will all wish it was your Wooden Wedding, but many of you had yours. $3 would not buy as much then as one will now here.

Bread Boards and Knives, 39c. for the pair, for beautiful goods; regular price 75c. Bread Boards, alone from 23 to 32c.

Now comes the most unique present and much wanted about the time of Wooden Weddings, or should be. It is the Baby Walker, sold usually for $3.50. Our price now $1.44. Where this is used no more bow legged children, and it is a great comfort and relief. Secure one.

Many other things in the Wooden Ware, but we have only space for this.

1 box of 1000 Tooth Picks, 4c. Will be glad to see you at this sale.

An arrival of a large stock of Rockingham ware, from the best manufacturers of these goods on this continent if not in the world, enables us to offer you Tea-pots from 9c. each up to largest size made, at about half regular prices.

All kinds Bake Dishes, Pie Plates, Pictures, &c., &c. at similiar prices. This is the purest rising ware in the world.

Important Announcement to the Public!

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS SALE.

Hall, Innes & Co.

Having decided to retire from the Dry Goods Business in Peterborough announce that they will on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23rd, commence a

GENUINE MAMMOTH CLEARING SALE for CASH

Covering Every Department of their Extensive Business.

HALL, INNES & CO.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Gents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

HALL, INNES & CO.

130, 132, 134 SIMCOE STREET.

FORCED

REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked for renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 8 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, so we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well, if not better, in the future.

Everything was Neat and Clean.

After the inquest yesterday Mayor Kendry, several of the town councillors and members of the jury went on a tour of inspection through all the bedrooms, halls, etc., of the building. They found everything neat, clean and tidy, and warmly congratulated the members of the fire brigade on the order and cleanliness of their quarters. The reason the gentlemen went through the building was to ascertain if there was any truth in a report which has become far too common that the bedrooms and rooms were in a very dirty condition. The councillors and jurors are happy to say the reverse is quite true.

ANNUAL TEA AND SALE

Held by the Ladies of St. Luke's Church —A Pronounced Success.

Inclement weather and slippery roads occasioned many a gloomy foreboding in the minds of the indefatigable lady workers of St. Luke's that disappointment awaited them in the result of the sale of work yesterday evening. But fortunately the members of St. Luke's are of sterner mould than the pampered and luxurious denizens of the cities; fortunately also the record of the Ladies' Aid was too good to suffer many to miss the excellent tea, which like Christmas, only comes once a year. Consequently after five o'clock the carriages of the country members mingled with the pedestrians from the village, to form an unbroken procession along Stewart street, and soon the comfortable school house was the scene of sociability and mirth, with an undercurrent of steady hard business on the part of the ladies who served tables and the ladies who kept store. On the platform others with the aid of the piano discoursed sweet music, but it is not derogatory to their skill to say that the buzz of many voices, with the laughter of the children discoursing sweet things amongst themselves, made an even cheerful harmony.

There were two work tables. That presided over by the senior branch of the society was severely utilitarian. All the articles were cheap and good. The younger ladies charmed the eye with a display of fancy work, and at both tables a charming business was done. These were flanked on the right by a candy table and on the left Santa Claus in propria persona, distributed to a delighted company of children all sorts of presents from his inexhaustible bag.

At last the turkeys and cakes were consumed, the candy box empty, Santa Claus exhausted with his labours, though still cheerful, the work tables were spoiled, the pockets of the visitors depleted, the cups and saucers washed and carefully stowed away, the guests departed, the Rector and a fidus achates counted the money, smiling snugly? the while, and finally our worthy sexton, Mr. Ball, was left solitary, like Caius Marcus sitting amid the ruins of Carthage, to sadly meditate upon the arduous labours that awaited him on the morrow, in the reduction of the present chaos to its pristine order.

"THE PARTIES LEAVE THE COURT.

Retaining the Respect and Good Will which the Town has Ever Held them in," are Words Spoken by Police Magistrate Dumble.

At the police court this morning the four firemen accused in connection with the Hunter street fire, were formally arraigned.

County Crown Attorney Wood was present and stated to the court that after the inquest held by the coroner he felt sure that no one thought the firemen were implicated in the affair in the slightest degree, and there being no evidence to support the case he unconditionally withdrew the charge. The magistrate in discharging the accused said:

The statement of the County Attorney that he does not intend to offer any evidence in the charges of arson is to me and to the community a great relief. The parties charged have been brought up in our midst and their record does not warrant the suspicion that they would be guilty of so heinous an act. The ifjudicious use of joking words seems to have been the only foundation on which the charges were laid. I am glad that in these cases there has been such a searching enquiry as will leave no undercurrent of suspicion and the parties leave the court retaining that respect and good will which the town has ever held them in. I have much pleasure in discharging you, said the magistrate in conclusion, as the firemen left the court room amidst applause.

Ball Family Jubilee Singers.

One of the features of the Ball Family Jubilee Singers' concert will be the beautiful stereopticon views of Uncle Tom's Cabin, with verbal explanations and plantation melodies to illustrate the familiar scene of Mrs. Stowe's wonderful story. The melodies of the sunny South are sweet and beyond expression. Every entertainment they give is a charming one. In the Charlotte street Metohdist church Monday and Tuesday evenings, December 12th and 13th. Tickets 25 cents.

The piles of Men's and Boys' Suits and Overcoats stacked up at the Montreal Clothing House are so high that a short man cannot see over them. We will continue to pull them downward. Scatter these great values during this week. Its like finding money to buy your clothing at 390 George street. dw

ETHEL ARMSTRONG CONCERT.

A Brilliant Entertainment Throughout

A comparatively small house, very largely the result of three concerts in the opera house in succession—assembled last night, but those present enjoyed a rich musical treat in the programme of unusual merit presented by the Ethel Armstrong Concert Company, under the direction of Mr. O. Telgmann. The programme opened by the latter with the violin overture to Telgmann and Cameron's opera, "Leo, the Royal Cadet," which was splendidly performed, as to technique, expression and taste. He also contributed in excellent style, a fantasia by Liszt, and a Chopin Mazurka. The star of the company however was Ethel Armstrong, the wonderful juvenile violiniste. She appeared in three numbers and all her selections were heartily encored, and she gave abundant evidence of the possession of musical talent and executive ability. Her first essay was Leonard's "Souvenir de Haydn," brilliant and difficult variations on the well known "Austrian Hymn." She overcame the technical difficulties of this number with charming ease—her double stopping, harmonics and octave stopping being given with surprising facility. Among her other selections were Sarasatis Gipsy dances, Weiniawski's Polish Dance, and Ernst's "Carnival de Venice," and in these showed the same wonderful technique and reposeful style that stamp her for her years a veritable violin prodigy. In her duet, De Seve's "Angel's Lullaby" with her teacher, Mr. Oscar Telgmann, she displayed exquisite taste. All her numbers were heard with delight and very warmly encored. The other members of the company were also very pleasing. Miss Alida V. Jackson's dramatic selections showed her to be an elocutionist of high order and great emotional capabilities, and the vocalist of the company Miss Rose McCartney, was exceedingly pleasing in her soprano selections which were honoured by enthusiastic encores. Her voice and style are reminiscent of Maggie Barr. Her singing of Tours' "New Kingdom," with violin obligato was very beautiful and earned her well deserved applause. Altogether the company is an excellent one and gives a delightful concert. The effective accompaniments were supplied with excellent taste by Mr. Telgmann.

The company was brought here by Mr. T. Dunn, who has on several occasions been instrumental in bringing high class musical organizations to the town. His efforts to delight the music loving public and enlarge the range of popular appreciation of high class music have been put forth at considerable personal inconvenience, and it is to be regretted that his praiseworthy efforts in this direction have not always been recognized as fully as could be desired.

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my

Liver and Kidneys

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it before I had finished the first bottle I felt that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

A Great Money Losing Sale

At the Clothing Store Under the Opera House, No. 342.

The entire stock of Winter Overcoats, Suits, Gent's Furnishings, Hats, Caps and Furs, in the store formerly known as the "Grand Union Clothing Hall,' must be sold out at whatever prices it will bring.

The peremptory orders leaves only 60 days to clear everything out. The proprietor says:— "Forget profits, forget cost, forget everything—but sell the goods."

This is no bluff, but absolute facts. The slaughter will, therefore, go on to the finish—until the whole business is wiped out of existence.

Better come quickly if you want any of these dead-sure bargains.

DR. SPEARS AND HIS TAX BILLS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—In Tuesday's issue Mr. Dennistoun is reported as saying "Dr. Spears evidently had got into some legal tangle and wanted the council to take him out of it." With all due deference to Mr. D. after my experience in the Court of Revision I cannot bow submissively to his opinions; however I may respect his inherited and social position quite certain, more than lovers and madmen "can give to airy nothings a local habitation and a name." I have always endeavoured to live according to the spirit, and where not obtainable striven for the letter of the law.

In order that my fellow-taxpayers may have the basis for his assertions, please oblige me by inserting as soon as convenient in your DAILY and WEEKLY EXAMINER this and my communication of the 3rd inst to the council literally, or as the learned would say, verbatim. I was anxious to attend to this yesterday, but my avocation would not permit.

Yours truly,
HUGH SPEARS,
337 George street.

December 8th, 1892.

The following is Dr. Spears' letter referred to above:

To the Mayor and Council, Peterborough:

GENTLEMEN,—Lot 22 Homewood Avenue being erroneously and excessively assessed to me before I either became an owner or resident of this municipality His Honor the County Judge reduced and changed the assessment to the proper owners who have assumed entire responsibility for said taxes. Yet on 11th inst., I received a combined tax bill for 337 George street and said lot 22. Having vainly endeavoured to obtain a tax bill for 337 George street, I thus bring the affair for your deliberation and correction, trusting I will not again be put to the trouble and expense of invoking higher aid in resisting at least official errors.

All of which is respectfully submitted to your Honourable Body.

HUGH SPEARS.

Stomach Ache.

We all know what it is; we acquired a perfect knowledge of the "Pet" in our youth, after a raid on things we were expressly forbidden to touch. Our mother gave us PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER then, and, strange to say, no other remedy has been discovered to this day to equal it. Old popular price, 25c. for Big Now Bottle.

Study economy by having your suit and overcoat cleaned or dyed and repaired at Parker's Steam Dye Works, Charlotte street.

THE INQUEST CONCLUDED.

The inquest was resumed again at two o'clock.

Chief Rutherford swore the following statement as to his opinion of incendiary fires:—"All incendiary fires were started for a purpose and nearly all that have occured could blamed on the insurance companies and corporation. No reason for incendiary fires unless there was an advantage to be gained. The majority of the fires of late in town had been old ouildings and insured beyond their propor value. He did not mean to say, however, that people insured their buildings to burn. The insurance companies should have better valuators and not insure old buildings for double their value, but keep them down nearly insurance value.

To a juryman—None of the firemen could have any possible object or advantage to be gained in starting a fire.

To another juryman—The building in question was insured for its full value. I think the first fire of the building was of incendiary origin, judging from the particular part of the building in which it was first started.

The coroner then asked if there was any one present who could add any further light to the subject than that already given and no one responding Mr. Edwards said he was conducting the case for the town and had submitted all the evidence in his possession. He said the jury might adjourn if they deemed it advisable for a week or more and meet again when further evidence might crop up which would shed light on the matter. Very often when an inquest like this was started people began talking about the case and gradually information was gleaned bit by bit from totally unexpected sources. So far as the testimony in this inquiry was concerned there had not been one jot of evidence to convict.

Mr. Wood, County Crown Attorney, said that there was an inclination on the part of the public mind in this inquiry to cast a reflection against Police Constable Stewart. It was not he who had the direction of the affair and it was through no malice whatever that he caused the arrests.

Mr. Edwards again stated he thought time should be given to consider the origin of the fire as they had not arrived at that yet. The municipality was called upon to investigate the fire and there was in fact no evidence against any one in the matter much less against the members of the town's efficient fire brigade. He had no idea that the public who were intrusted with duty would prove false to it. It was the duty of the council to have the matter investigated and it was conducted by the council without any animus. It was the duty to find out the cause of the trouble which had been apparent of late and the matter should be left open in order that people might further throw light upon it. There was no case against any one in the matter.

Mr. Wood said he would allow the prosecution to drop. As far as the evidence was concerned nothing had been adduced to bring anything against the four members whose names were connected with the accusation. The Crown therefore on the ground of this inquiry withdrew the case.

The coroner stated that no one was charged in the requisition sent to him and if the jury still thought an enlargment of the investigation would be better they could adjourn until a later date. They were here to protect the community, ferret out the matter and put an end to the affair if possible. He did not see any harm would come by an adjournment. It would not effect the firemen any further as far as they were concerned for they had already been honourably exonerated.

A motion to adjourn until Monday week next was lost, and the jury after a few minutes consultation returned the following verdict:

THE VERDICT OF THE JURY.

"That after hearing all the evidence produced we believe that the said fire was an incendiary act of some person or persons unknown. With reference to the charges against certain members of the Fire Brigade mentioned in the requisition requiring the inquest, according to the evidence produced, we fully exonerate the said members from all blame in the matter.

[Signed] J. D. COLLINS,
Foreman,

and all the other jurors.

CONSTABLE STEWART AND THE FIRE INVESTIGATION.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—Permit me the use of your paper to make the following explanation. As a result of the recent enquiry into a supposed incendiary fire on Hunter street an attempt has been made to injure my standing as a constable on the force by a misstatement of the facts as to my conduct in connection therewith.

Some persons would have it appear that the arrests were made at my instigation. The fact is I was asked by Councillor Meldrum, who informed me that he had full authority from the Council to act in the matter, and divulge information which I had received from parties to a detective who had been employed by the town through Mr. Meldrum. I never had the conduct of the case, neither did the detective divulge to me at any time the information which he was supposed to have obtained during his stay here.

The informations were laid by the detective after a consultation with the Crown Attorney, and I was informed by the detective that he had a good case. The only direct information I received was against Moore. I was opposed to the arrest of George Kincaid, Wilton Metheral and Ernest Hutchinson, I went to the Crown Attorney before their arrest and protested against it; as I had no say in the matter, I was over-ruled.

Yesterday in presence of Mr. W. A. Stratton, solicitor for the parties accused and the Town Clerk, the Crown Attorney exonerated me from any blame whatever in connection with the arrest of the three gentlemen whom I have named, and admitted that I had protested against it to him. The detective was the responsible party for the case as presented. I simply did all in my power in the interests of the town to get information and was directed to acquaint the detective of it.

My record as a police officer I am not ashamed of and am willing that my conduct in this matter should be investigated, and stand prepared to meet any charged that may be laid against me. I am ready to resign at any time if the public have not every confidence in me.

Faithfully yours,
JOSEPH STEWART.

OBITUARY.

The Late John McDonald, of Lakefield.

The EXAMINER notes with deep regret the death of Mr. John McDonald, of Lakefield, which took place on Tuesday, Dec. 6th. The deceased gentlemen who was 70 years of age, was a native of Perthshire, Scotland. He came to this country in 1832, and resided successively in Monaghan, Dummer, Vernlam and Lakefield. He was for half a century a consistent and exemplary member of the Baptist church, having been baptized in Chemong Lake by the late Rev. John Gilmour in the year 1843. In every relation of life he was eminently worthy of the very high general esteem in which he was held. He leaves behind him a wife and several children and a brother, Mr. Duncan McDonald, of Peterborough, The remains were laid at rest in the Little Lake Cemetery on Thursday.

STOP IT; THERE'S DANGER AHEAD.

Do not allow that cough to become firmly seated on your chest and lungs; if you do it means death. The careless and indifferent in society are those who suffer most. A slight cough and hoarseness with many demands no attention; lost time adds to suffering and danger.

One large twenty-five cent bottle of Harvard Bronchial Syrup will banish many slight attacks of coughs, sore throat and hoarseness. When this wonderful remedy is called into use all dangers are removed. No other remedy known to the medical profession produces such magical effects; no other cough medicine commands such praise and approbation. Medical men prescribe it freely for young and old, and all marvel at it wonderful action. Keep a bottle in your room at all seasons so that you may be prepared for dangers.

THE RYDER ROAD.

A Buckeye Lesson, Trite, But Always Timely and Important.

In Portage County, Ohio, is a long, beautiful street known as the Ryder road. It is the pride of the county. No weeds nor rubbish are allowed in its neat borders, shaded by handsome maples; no untidy farms blot its vicinity, but farms broad and goodly to the sight, bearing luxuriant crops, spread out on either side through its whole length. All this has been accomplished by persistent and united energy of the neighboring farmers. Good roads and tidy farms, wherever found, are sure evidence of thrift and intelligence. If the women folks should allow rubbish to accumulate in the corners of the rooms they deservedly gain the name of slovenly housekeepers: so, too, should the farmer be dubbed slovenly who permits weeds along his fences and roadsides. Moreover, he neglects the golden rule, for weeds are travelers, having many ways to reach neighbors' premises. It is the nature of weeds, when undisturbed, to multiply their species amazingly. A single plant of moth mullein bore in one season 91 seed pods; the seeds from three of these pods, carefully counted, numbered 990. If only half the seeds from this plant had grown, how much labor would have been required to destroy one year's increase; while that of successive years would be beyond compute. Even now it is not too late to begin warfare against weeds. If immediately after rain or wilting frost the stalks are cleared up and burned from roadsides, fence lines and gardens, millions of seeds may be destroyed; then if the ground is turned over with the plow to the winter frosts most of the roots will be killed. A thorough harrowing in spring and another in midsummer would put an end to roots that may have withstood the winter and also to seedling weeds. This severe treatment is for perennials of long standing or that sucker. Annuals and some perennials may be killed out in time and by persistent close cutting, as plants cannot flourish without leaves and are soon exhausted by being forced to send out new foliage. Bear in mind that a good work begun is more than half done. Do not wait till bushes and briers add difficulties to the work of extermination, and do not depend upon example alone to make your neighbors see the error of their ways. Start a farmers' club and make war against weeds a condition of membership. Thus you may gain co-operation and greatly lessen the danger of unwelcome tenants from your neighbors' surplus.—Mrs. J. M. Milligan, in New York Tribune.

Three-Horse Whiffletree.

I send you a draft of the best three-horse whiffletree I have ever seen. It works like a charm. It is not heavier than an ordinary two-horse whiffletree. There is no patent on it, and any ordinary blacksmith can construct one. The hooks

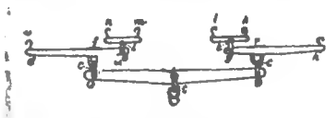

Fig. 1—Three-Horse Whiffletree.—C C C, clevises; L L, links; distance a to b, 4 ft. 7 in.; d to e or g to h, 30 in.; r to h, 20 in.; r to g, 10 in. Small iron whiffletrees, n m and l k, 10 in. long. Tugs attached at o and j must be longer than the others by one hole.

on the end of the small whiffletree are a part of the metal composing the whiffletree. Arrange the clevis on the plow so that the off horse can walk in the furrow, and not cut too much into the land. The other two horses can walk on the land not yet plowed.—Jackson Graves.

This appears to be a good form for a set of three-horse whiffletrees, the same thing being figured in vol. vi of Rural Affairs, page 269, for 1873, which figure we give for showing the mode for attaching the horses. Our correspondent's accurate description shows the mode of construction in detail. It has been used for many years in some localities.—The Cultivator.

Cured Sick Headache.

Mrs. D. A. Campbell, North Segrum, Ont., writes:—"I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly. My daughter was a terrible sufferer with sick headache for twelve months, and no medical aid could relieve her, but, by the use of two boxes of your Pills, she is completely cured." From all dealers or by mail at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50. Beware of imitations. Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Blotches Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—In 1890 my body was covered with blotches and I was at last induced to try Burdock Blood Bitter; by the time I had used 3½ bottles of it I was completely cured, and I cannot speak too highly of it.

MRS. JAMES DESMOND, Halifax N.S

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

Dairy Suggestions.

If a cow leaks her milk, get rid of her.

Never change a cow's food suddenly. Do it by degrees.

If a cow is not what she ought to be, success in the dairy is impossible.

Some cows are very hard to milk. They are a nuisance. Get rid of them.

A cow that is not a profitable milk producer is a burden on the pocketbook.

Will you warm the water for the cows this coming winter? It will pay you to do so.

A good cow ought to have a capacious body, with plenty of room for the work of the organs.

A cow that is thin skinned and whose skin does not move easily over the ribs, is not a good cow to select.

If farmers would be more careful about selecting cows that are profitable producers, they would often have more money.—Farmers' Voice.

Foul Foot in a Cow.

Cows and horses are subject to a disease of the feet similar to scratches in horses. Diseased granulations, similar in appearance to the heart of a cauliflower, break out and excrete a thin acrid matter. The treatment should be to dress the diseased part with caustics, such as powdered sulphate of copper (blue vitriol) or sulphate of zinc (white vitriol), rubbed up smoothly with clean, sweet lard, and give the animal repeated doses of one ounce hyposulphate of soda as an alternative. The soda should be given every other day for a week or ten days.—Farmers' Voice.

An Excellent Egg Ration.

Food rich in nitrogenous elements will always induce hens to lay if they are in good condition. It is important that the hens be kept in exercise, as it promotes the appetite and better fits them to lay. An excellent food for this purpose is equal parts of bran, ground oats and corn, and to each quart of the mixture add a gill of linseed meal. Scald it and feed to twenty hens. Give a pound of meat to twenty hens twice a week. Feed twice a day.

Will Kill Consumption.

The Norwegian cod is destined to kill consumption. It has always been known that its oil, when properly prepared, contains all the potent elements for rebuilding wasting tissues in the human body. The difficulty has been to conserve the energies of the oil in its refining, and this has only been accomplished by the manufacturers of "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil." All who suffer with lung troubles, and of course all who are threatened with consumption, should take it. In big bottles, 50c and $1.00, at all Drug Stores.

To invigorate both the body and the brain, use the reliable tonic, Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine.

Do not despair of curing your sick headache when you can so easily obtain Carter's Little Liver Pills. They will effect a prompt and permanent cure. Their action is mild and natural.

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral
Has no equal for the prompt relief and speedy cure of Colds, Coughs, Croup, Hoarseness, Loss of Voice, Preacher's Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis, La Grippe, and other derangements of the throat and lungs. The best-known cough-cure in the world, it is recommended by eminent physicians, and is the favorite preparation with singers, actors, preachers and teachers. It soothes the inflamed membrane, loosens the phlegm, stops coughing, and induces repose.

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral
taken for consumption, in its early stages, checks further progress of the disease, and even in the later stages, it eases the distressing cough and promotes refreshing sleep. It is agreeable to the taste, needs but small doses, and does not interfere with digestion or any of the regular organic functions. As an emergency medicine, every household should be provided with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Having used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, I can confidently recommend it for all the complaints it is claimed to cure. Its sale is increasing yearly with me, and my customers think this preparation has no equal as a cough cure."—S. W. Parent, Queensbury, N.B.

Canadian Cattle.

The imports of cattle from Canada last year, ending December, 1891, into Great Britain, were 108,289, and the value was $6,622,202. The oxen, bulls and cows averaged $61.40 each at the landing ports. Freight, including landing charges, cost about $28 per head. If the farmers of Canada cannot make a profit in fattening steers and selling them at $33.40 on the average each, they have only one alternative. They cannot lift that market, it is a market of 507,407 cattle, imported at a value of $61,673,639. If they have not made a profit selling at $33, they can do so now by reducing the cost.

We have an advantage in selling cattle to the English market, in that our cattle can go alive to all the inland towns of Great Britain, and that is worth from $2.50 to $5 a head to us, above all other competitors who are barred from doing that. We can send at an increased profit by improving the quality of the animals. We do not want these great, long, thin, tall animals that some men want to breed all the while. In the English market you will get about 20 per cent. more per pound for the low set, compact animals. The possible profit might be greater if we would export dressed beef instead of live cattle, in many cases. I have been mildly abused and opposed for recommending the establishment of large slaughter houses in Canada. But you do not send to England live animals, without having them reach Liverpool bruised and jaded, fevered in condition and lighter in weight, while dressed beef in cold storage compartment does not deteriorate. At present, the retail butchers in England are opposed to any change that will prevent them from realizing the larger profit which they make from sales of meat from fresh killed animals. We will be able to overcome that hostility, and after a time put our beef and mutton on the English market in the most economical way. We should seek to develop the trade in fattened beef, and not in lean steers. I will read you an extract: "When we ship over to Great Britain store cattle, we ship cattle that should have been fed in our own stables, and that should have produced for ourselves the profit which the Englishman produces for himself by buying the animal and feeding it in Great Britain." That is from the address of your President last year.—Prof. Robertson.

Plowhandle Puddings.

If you expect the land to feed you, the land must be well fed first.

To make the winter dairy profitable, you must begin by filling a good big silo.

It is poor farming to sell the best hay and leave your own stock only the refuse.

Full value can be had from the feeding crops only by feeding them under cover.

It is a hard matter to lose money growing clover, because it has so many good uses.

There is no profit in owning a single acre of land more than you can thoroughly cultivate.

Surplus earnings cannot be invested in anything that will pay much better than a good barn.

You cannot afford to buy all your home supplies, no matter how big crops you grow to sell.

Choice fruit is never had from trees that are permitted to bear more than they can properly nourish.

Hogs cannot be fed off too soon after cold weather comes, if you mean to get the maximum profit.

No farmer can afford to buy manure until he has first made use of every pound produced at home.

How can you expect to know whether it pays to feed stock, unless you know the cost of the feed they eat?

If you really want the creamery started, take some interest in it yourself, instead of waiting for your neighbors to do all the work.

You cannot afford to get the impression that you know all about farming; and you cannot afford to farm at all, unless you do know a good deal about it.

A Mohammedan Evasion.

According to one of the tenets of the Mohammedan religion, it is a sin to make a picture of any living thing.

A gentleman who visited a mosque in Algiers found that the tiles with which the building is decorated, which were very old and beautiful, are adorned with flights of birds. He expressed much surprise at this, and asked if the command against such representation were a modern edict.

"Oh, no," answered the pious Algerian to whom he addressed the question. "These are not pictures of living birds."

"But they are painted as if flying across the tiles," the other said in some astonishment.

"Yes," the Musselman replied; "but do you not see that about the neck of each there is a fine black line? That is to show that the artist painted only dead birds, and the command of the Koran is not violated."—Youth's Companion.

News About Town.

It is the current report about town that Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs is making some remarkable cures with people who are troubled with Coughs, Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Any druggist will give you a trial bottle free of cost. It is guaranteed to relieve and cure. The large bottles are 50c and $1.

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 15, 1892.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

FARMERS' CONFERENCE.

BRITISH AGRICULTURISTS DISCUSS THE DEPRESSION.

Bi-Metallism Favored—A Union of Landlords and Tenants Agreed Upon—A Return to Protection Means a Return to Barbarity.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—At the agricultural conference Mr. Chaplin declared that foreign competition was not the only cause for the fall in prices of agricultural products. The continuous rise in the value of gold was quite as serious a cause. The immediate remedy for that would be a return to bi-metallism, in regard to which he said the statement on the subject recently made by Archbishop Walsh of Dublin was the most convincing ever published. Mr. Chaplin said he earnestly hoped the conference would adopt the principle of bi-metallism.

The Earl of Winchelsea and Nottingham suggested the formation of a union of landlords and tenants. He offered to give £2000 to assist in the formation of such a union.

William Saunders, a Radical member of Parliament, attempted to denounce protection, but was hooted down. He then attempted to offer an amendment to Mr. Chaplin's resolution, declaring that the fall in prices of agricultural products was the natural result of improved methods of production, but the conference would have none of the amendment, and refused to allow it to be put to a vote.

Francis Smith, a member of the London County Council, made a short address in which he remarked that a return to protection meant a return to barbarity. This statement was greeted with hoots and yells.

Mr. Nethersole, a farmer delegate, proposed a resolution affirming that the unfair competition of untaxed foreign imports with home produce was an injustice that called for immediate removal and that all competing imports ought to pay a duty not less than the rates and taxes levied on home produce. Mr. Nethersole's resolution was adopted by a large majority.

Unrestricted Coinage.

Mr. Robert Lacy Everett, Liberal member of Parliament for the Woodbridge division of Suffolk, moved a resolution declaring that, in the opinion of the conference, the continuous fall in prices which is so injurious to agricultural interests is largely due to appreciation of gold and the fall in exchange between gold and silver-using countries, and that the best and most effective remedy would be secured by an agreement on a broad international basis to reopen the mints of leading nations to unrestricted coinage of silver and gold. The resolution urged that the British Government be earnestly requested to co-operate with other governments represented at the Monetary Conference now sitting in Brussels to secure such an international agreement. The conference adopted the suggestion made by the Earl of Winchelsea in regard to the formation of a union of landlords and tenants.

Mr. Fowler, a Kentish farmer, moved as an amendment to Mr. Everett's motion that the conference had no faith in any changes in the law regarding the currency as a remedy for agricultural distress.

Mr. Chaplin closed the debate by declaring that the owners of gold did not approve the motion because the more gold appreciated the better it was for them. Gold, he added, had appreciated in value since silver was kicked out in 1873, throwing a greater demand on gold. It was a curious coincidence that since 1872 the world had been experiencing a prolonged and serious depression in every industry, for which no other reason could be assigned. The resolutions were then carried, there being few dissenters.

The Daily Telegraph, in commenting on President Harrison's message, refers to the program of the British agricultural conference in connection with the President's remarks on agriculture. It says: "Nothing could be more misleading than Mr. Harrison's remarks. The only thing that saves America from a vast, terrible social catastrophe is the extent and cheapness of her outlying lands and her superb system of railroads. With regard to the troubles of English tenant farmers, however, nothing could be a wilder or worse step than retaliation on the McKinleyites by excluding American corn and beef."

"When your heart is bad, and your head is bad, and you are bad clean through, what is needed?" asked a Sunday-school teacher of her class. "I know—Ayer's Sarsaparilla," spoke up a little girl, whose mother had recently been restored to health by that medicine.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, the modern successful cure for coughs, colds, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis sore throat and all pulmonary complaints, is made from the best pectoral herbs and barks by the most skilful and scientific methods, and cannot fail to give prompt relief.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water on to the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c. and $1

"It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

What is Dadruff?

A disease of the scalp that causes falling of the hair, fading of the hair, in fact, death of the hair. It irritates the scalp and causes scales and eczematic eruptions—produces baldness. Bear in mind that Anti-Dandruff removes Dandruff with three applications—stops falling and restores fading hair to its original color. Sold by druggists at 75 cents per bottle.

Victoria Carbolic Salve is a great aid to internal medicine in the treatment of scrofulous sores, ulcers and abscesses of all kinds.

HERE IT IS AGAIN.

This Time It Was Two Canadians Who Blew Out the Gas.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—A party of five Scandinavian travelers from Canada, who looked like well-to-do farmers, put up at the Home Made Hotel, No. 284 Greenwich-street, Monday night, and on Tuesday afternoon two of them, Henry Burg and Peter Land, were found dead in one bed in a small inside room on the third floor, suffocated by the gas, which was pouring from the open but unlighted burner. The men arrived at the hotel before supper time on Monday, and after registering from Canada went away, returning late at night somewhat the worse for liquor.

Their comrades, whose names appear on the register as C. Sussikin, Charles Anderson and A. E. Anderson, slept in other rooms and came downstairs at about 8 o'clock in the morning and went out, but returned at 1 o'clock for a few minutes, when they took their leave of H. Buckley, the proprietor. They did not enquire for their friends. Only one of the three was able to speak English.

A chambermaid knocked repeatedly in the afternoon at the door occupied by Burg and Land, but receiving no answer, reported the matter to the office and the door was broken open. Dr. Stevenson of the Chambers-street Hospital was called in, and he said that the men had been dead for several hours.

The dead men are about 35 years old and bore a strong facial resemblance to each other. They were large, well developed and fair. Both were dressed in exactly similar garments, even to the underclothing. Their clothes were new and of fairly good quality and had been purchased in various stores in St. Paul and Minneapolis. They had $4.68 between them, and railroad receipts which showed that they had come to the city by the West Shore road and that their baggage was to be delivered at the Inman pier, and an entry in a notebook showed that they had paid $114 for "tickets," and the supposition is that they had secured passage on the steamship City of New York for Liverpool. Another entry was the address, "No. 115 Fourteenth-avenue, Minneapolis."

RESTORED TO LIFE.

A Woman Saved by Transfusion of Chemical Blood.

GLENS FALLS, N.Y., Dec 9.—A remarkable surgical operation was recently performed in the little village of Lyon Mountain. It was a case of the transfusion of chemical blood into the person of Mrs. Louise Christian by Drs. W. C. Thompson and J. H. O'Neil.

Mrs. Christian had been ill for a long time, and was apparently about to breathe her last, when the physicians decided to try transfusion of a solution whose temperature and chemical constituents were exactly identical with human blood, less the organic part.

The two physicians, after exposing the radial artery under cocaine, pierced it with a hypodermic needle, to which was attached an improvised apparatus capable of forcing the chemical blood directly into the blood current of the patient's artery. The result of the first injection was a decided improvement. The pulse lowered from 164 to 115 beats per minute in a very short time.

The patient is apparently on the road to complete recovery. It is claimed that this is the first time in the United States that transfusion has been directly injected into an artery.

GOLD IN NOVA SCOTIA.

A Big Discovery that Passes Anything Yet Disclosed There.

TRURO, Dec. 9.—Great excitement prevails here just now in consequence of a big discovery of gold at the Caribou mines, worked by the Truro Gold Mining Company, about 30 miles from here. The present discovery passes anything yet discovered in Nova Scotia, and is expected to turn out the biggest and richest gold mine yet opened in Canada. The first crushing was 28 tons, and yielded over 103 ounces of gold. At a greater depth the next lot showed a most encouraging increase, the yield being 272 ounces from 22 tons of quarts, which shows a value by the official mint return of $5091, the total expense of mining and milling not exceeding $700. Ore worth over $1000 per ton is coming out and more is being uncovered. This is not a pocket or nugget mine, as the strike gradually increases in richness and thickness and shows every indication of continuing to great depths. Many other leads are known by their croppings to intersect the mining areas, but their richness is yet undetermined, being totally undeveloped.

Inquest on Trickey's Death.

HAMILTON, Dec. 9.—In the inquest upon the death of Henry G. Trickey, the reporter who was famous as the writer of a sensational account of the Lizzie Borden case, the jury brought in a verdict of accidental death by being run over by the wheels of a train which deceased was trying to board, expressing the opinion that no blame could be attached to anyone.

Slashed Himself With a Razor.

KINGSTON, Dec. 9.—William Pugh, sexton of St. George's Cathedral, while labor-under temporary insanity, slashed his left arm above the elbow with a razor. He lost much blood and now lies at the hospital in a precarious condition.

TELEGRAPHIC OPERATORS

There Are 183 Out of a Possible 200 Men Out.

OMAHA, Dec 9.—With the exception of four operators every telegrapher employed by the Rock Island Railroad in Nebraska went out this morning at 10 30 in response to the order of Chief Ramsay. A large number of new operators have been sent out to take the place of the strikers, but the new men are not yet at work.

All Except Two on Strike.

TOPEKA, Ka., Dec. 9.—All the Rock Island operators here, except two who are not members of the Brotherhood, struck at noon yesterday in obedience to the order for a general strike.

General Superintendent Dunlap said: "I don't know how many men are out. Traffic has not been interfered with in the least. We were expecting a strike and were prepared for it." One of the strikers said: "We are out and will stay out until ordered back. There are 183 out of a possible 200 men out."

The Telegraphers' Query.

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—The great point of interest in the telegraphers' strike is whether they will succeed in obtaining the active co-operation of other organizations of the train men. Notwithstanding the claim of the company that it has lost only 40 men, it was yesterday endeavoring to obtain 200 operators.

Chief Ramsay declared to-night that if the road employed non-union men it would force a strike upon other branches of the road, as the men would not consent to work with non-union operators.

Where They Did Not Strike.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Dec. 9.—A. P. Ward, Superintendent of Telegraph for the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern road, said last night that not an operator on the entire system has struck in response to the order sent out by Grand Chief Ramsay of the Telegraphers this morning, and he is confident none of them will.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL COUNTERFEIT

Is the one which is so NEARLY like the real thing as to be often mistaken for it. The business of turning out Ready-Made Clothing is carried on upon lines, in some cases, so near those of the honest manufacturer, that its products look and sell nearly as well, and deceive many good people into believing that it is just as durable as the article honestly made up.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

Appearances are very often disappointing, and scarcely ever more frequently than in the matter of Clothing. It is satisfactory, therefore, to know that you have a safe investment—always. We mean that you can never be deceived by it—that it is never misrepresented—and that the goods that bear our name and stamp, carry with them our own guarantee.

If people would look a little deeper than what appears on the mere surface, they would soon see the difference between good and counterfeit Clothing. The one is constantly putting something solid into its structure, which will stand the wear and tear, while the other is full of dressing and shoddy, which cannot stand even the light of the sun.

Besides we sell DIRECT to our customers at close WHOLESALE PRICES, thus saving them a straight TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

NO WONDER PEOPLE LOOK SURPRISED

as they pass our store and see good garments marked at such low prices. That line of $6.50 Suits and $6.50 Overcoats, for instance, are surprisers, and are being picked up more quickly than expected. We are honestly selling twice as many as anticipated, but we have stock enough to meet all demands, if you come before New Years.

The demand for Boys' Overcoats and Suits has also increased this week, and we are quite prepared for any rush. Prices $1.50 to $5.75.

CONSERVATIVE CAUCUS.

A PROTECTIONIST PLATFORM WILL BE DEMANDED.

Greatest Political Phenomenon of the Day—Home Rule Bill Again Amended—Lady Blandford is Made a Duchess by the Queen.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The annual Conservative caucus, known as the Union of Constitutional Association, will open on Monday at Sheffield.

Over 1000 delegates are expected to be present. The party managers, who resisted the clamor of the rank and file for a protectionist platform, have been obliged to give way.

The feeling displayed at the Agricultural Conference, and now pervading the party, compelled the central executive to accept resolutions protectionist in spirit, though veiled in form. One of the resolutions that will be submitted to the caucus declares that free trade is against the best interests of the working classes of Great Britain.

Another pronounces it necessary to regulate foreign imports by countervailing duties, a euphemism for protection that deceives nobody.

The rapidity with which protectionist ideas have become resurgent is the greatest political phenomenon of the day.

Will Favor Bi-Metallism.

Mr. Arthur J. Balfour will address the delegates on Tuesday. He will probably tone down the protection tendencies, but will renew and accentuate the declarations in favor of bi-metallism, which promises to be among the leading tricks of the Conservative game.

The Home Rule Bill.

An amended draft of the Home Rule bill was sent to the Cabinet ministers to-day. The bill now in the hands of the ministers is the latest form of the measure, but it cannot be pronounced a finality. The financial clauses of the bill still remain undecided. The whole bill is subjected to revision.

The Queen's Social Rule.

It is reported that the Queen authorizes Lady Blandford, the first wife of the late Duke of Marlborough, to assume the title of Duchess of Marlborough.

This action on the part of the Queen could not nullify the right of the Duke's second wife to the title of Duchess, but it would stamp the Queen's opinion of the position of the first wife.

Astor to Write a Novel.

Mr. William Waldorf Astor is a frequent visitor at the British Museum. It is understood that he is gleaning material for a historic novel.

Reed's Idea of Home Rule.

Sir Edwin Reed publishes a long letter displaying that there is a revolt on the part of many Liberals.

He declares to all whom it may concern that he and other commoners will not be a party to any Home Rule scheme giving Ireland control of anything more than purely local and domestic affairs.

He will not assist any separation or arbitration to release prisoners, while on questions like the restoration of evicted tenants he will vote independently, as he thinks just and right to all.

The Times is jubilant over Sir Edwin Reed's letter and says it will be a painful subject of speculation to the Liberal leaders how many will follow Sir Edwin.

COTTON OPERATORS,

Forty Thousand Mill Hands in a Pitiable Condition.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—A month has elapsed since the beginning of the great cotton strike or lock-out, and it appears to be no nearer a settlement than it was at the beginning.

The only satisfactory feature of the dispute is the perfect order maintained throughout the spinning districts. The members of the Amalgamated Association of Spinners are in regular receipt of their weekly strike pay and there is little suffering among these, but there is another side to the subject which is not so bright.

It is estimated that 40,000 mill hands who belong to no union have been rendered idle through this dispute. With no treasury to draw upon, their condition is pitiable. Thousands of men are now reduced almost to starvation.

Application was made yesterday to a magistrate at Oldham for 300 warrants against operatives who were in arrears for borough rates. The magistrate refused to grant them, and told the bailiff who made the application to apply when the strike was ended.

Probably No Massacre.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 10.—The Congo Company has sent strong reinforcements from Stanley Pool to Katanga. The latest news concerning the Jacques expedition was dated Aug. 27. Capt. Jacques and his company were then safe and well at Umpala. It is considered therefore that the rumors of the massacre are untrue.

Ignited from Concussion.

PARIS, Dec. 10.—The Temps says that a special experimental commission at Toulon has decided against the use of petroleum as fuel in torpedo vessels. Eight out of ten cans of petroleum ignited from concussion after 12 shots had been fired at the protecting armor.

Stock Brokers' Frauds.

HAMBURG, Dec. 10.—A sensation has been caused here by the suspension of Carcow & Bartles, stock brokers. Carcow has absconded and Bartles has surrendered.

The frauds committed by the firm extend over a long period, and aggregate 7,500,000 marks.

EMIN PASHA AND PARTY

REPORTED KILLED ON THE MARCH THROUGH AFRICA.

He Was Blind and Helpless—Mutiny, Starvation and Smallpox Decimated His Followers—His Expedition Failed Through Many Misfortunes.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The Post says that a report has been received in London from an Egyptian, formerly with Emin, to the effect that Emin and all his party were killed by Manyemas in the march on the Ituri River.

Capt. Lugard's last report from Stuhlmas represented Emin as blind and helpless, while the expedition had failed through many misfortunes.

Mutiny and starvation decimated the ranks, and smallpox was contracted.

With an escort of Manyemas he and 19 of his followers traveled back to the coast.

WANT QUICK FACTS.

The Panama Canal Affair Remains a Lively Issue.

PARIS, Dec. 10.—It is reported the Government is ready to communicate to the Panama Committee the documents relating to the Panama Canal Company on condition that the members of the committee preserve such secrecy as will prevent the disclosures from interfering with the course of justice.

Three members of the Panama Committee, who were sent to examine the books of the firm of Kohn & Reinach, reported today that they had found that during the first six months of 1888 Arton, the alleged go-between, had on several occasions drawn on the account of Baron Reinach for 1,000,000 francs.

M. Ribot, the Prime Minister, was present at the session of the committee today. He promised to act in concert with it and to assist in throwing full light upon the whole Panama affair. M. Bourgeois, Minister of Justice, was also present.

M. Beaupaire, the public prosecutor who opposed the Government's action in regard to the Panama Canal Company, has resigned his office.

His successor will be nominated by the president of the Court of Cassation.

The Panama Canal Committee to-day examined Deputy Vian, who is manager of the Dynamite Company. He testified that after the death of M. Barbe, who was charged with having received bribes, Baron Reinach sued his heirs for 320,000 francs, which he declared M. Barbe owed him.

M. Vian said, however, that he did not believe that the money was in any way connected with Panama Canal affairs.

Dr. Brouardel and the medical representative of the police, accompanied by Dr. Bertillion, have gone to Beauvais to perform an autopsy on the body of Baron Reinach.

GREAT CATTLE LOSS.

No Rain for More Than Two Years in Part of New Mexico.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 10.—A prominent cattleman from northwestern New Mexico, just arrived here, tells of fearful suffering among the cattle of the drought-stricken districts.

He says that for more than two years the heavens have refused to yield rain, and as a result the water courses are dried up and the irrigating ditches are useless.

"At a low estimate," said he, "75,000 to 100,000 head of cattle have died from starvation and lack of water.

"Railroads are shipping cattle out of the region by train loads, but thousands of these cattle will die as they are too weak to withstand the winter. Some cattle companies estimate their loss as high as 60 per cent., and the average will run 35 to 40 per cent.

"The sheep are in almost as bad a condition as the cattle. Heaviest losses are reported in Colfax and adjoining counties."

A Cronin Suspect Dead.

JOLIET, Dec. 10.—Martin J. Burke, one of the men sent to Joliet Prison for complicity in the famous murder of Dr. Cronin of Chicago, died at the penitentiary in this city last evening of quick consumption.

When the news of his coming death was first made public last month every known means was resorted to to secure a confession from him which would lift the blood-stained curtain from the Cronin mystery and reveal the inner working of the deadly conspiracy in all the hideous details.

Burke always maintained, however, that his sentence was an unjust one and that it did not lie in his power to place the crime on those who should be burdened with it.

Of those sent to Joliet for complicity in the Cronin murder only one now remains—Dan Coughlin, the ex-detective of Chicago.

He is hale and hearty and is working hard every day. He was visibly affected when informed of Burke's death following so soon upon that of O'Sullivan's, the partner in the crime, but made no comment.

Bradstreet's Report.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Throughout the Province of Ontario trade has been almost featureless. Cottons have advanced, due to higher-priced cotton, and metals are more active.

Unfavorable weather has checked trade in the Province of Quebec. Collections are slow. The movement of cereals is only local in character.

Halifax, Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton report bank clearings for the week aggregating $25,053,000, a gain of nearly 20 per cent. over last week, and of 14 per cent. over the like week a year ago.

There were 31 business failures in the Dominion reported this week, against 35 last week, 45 in the week a year ago and 40 two years ago.

The Effects of Liquor.

UXBRIDGE, Dec. 10.—William Dunn, a farmer residing near here, was arrested yesterday and appeared before Mayor Hamilton in the evening on a charge of aggravated assault preferred by his wife.

The evidence of Mrs. Dunn and the two children showed that Dunn came home drunk the previous evening, knocked his wife down, kicked her, and then threatened to brain the whole family if they did not leave the house, thereby forcing them to flee in a half-clothed condition to a neighbor's house.

The prisoner admitted that he only threatened to brain them. He was committed to stand his trial at Whitby.

A Bomb Exploded.

VIENNA, Dec. 10.—The Tageblatt says that a large bomb exploded near the dwellings of the workmen in the great iron works of Krapp's nephew at Bernadorf. Much damage was caused to property.

The Guinness Trust.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The Goldsmiths' Company has devoted £2500 to the Guinness Trust for the building of industrial dwellings.

INCREASED REVENUE.

The Expenditure Decreasing Even More Rapidly.

OTTAWA, Dec. 10.—The statement of revenue and expenditure, which will appear in to-days Canada Gazette, will show that while the revenue continues to increase, the expenditure is decreasing even more rapidly, so that the surplus for the first five months of the fiscal year is nearly $4,000,000, and the public debt shows a decrease of two millions and a half since the close of the last fiscal year.

To-morrow's Canada Gazette will contain the formal notices of the appointment of Hon. Mr. Chapleau to the Lieutenant-Governorship of Quebec, of Hon. Mr. Angers and Mr. Ives as members of the Privy Council and of the different ministers sworn in on Wednesday.

Mr. Nicholas Flood Davin's appointment as Queen's Counsel will be gazetted to-morrow. It is dated Oct. 27.

Judge Burbidge of the Exchequer Court publishes the rules to be followed in any proceedings before that court to impeach any patent issued under the Patent Act.

The Hamilton Provident and Loan Society gives notice that it will apply to Parliament for amendments to its charter, giving it power to increase its capital to three millions, to do business in any of the provinces of the Dominion, and to issue stock in Great Britain.

The Manufacturers' Life and Accident Insurance Company gives notice of application to Parliament for an amendment to its charter so as to allow it to do a general guarantee business.

Contracts for the erection of public buildings at Lunenburg, N.S., and Chatham, N.B., have been let by the Public Works Department to the Oxford Furniture Company and Joseph Treen respectively, their tenders being the lowest. The buildings will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000 each.

Hon. John Carling had an personal farewell to the clerks in the Department of Agriculture to-day, and Hon. Mr. Angers was introduced and took possession of his office. Mr. Carling will continue to reside in Ottawa; and will for the present at least occupy an office in the House of Commons.

The town is full of members of Parliament to day, Sam Hughes, Bob White, Josiah Wood, Roy McLellan, Dwyer and others being here.

All the departments have received instructions to hurry up their estimates, the consideration of which will be commenced in council next week. It is probable that Parliament will be called for the dispatch of business on Jan. 19, but the exact date is not yet fixed.

A MINER'S SUICIDE.

He Was a Millionaire and Well Known in Toronto.

TORONTO, Dec. 10.—A despatch was received from Boston, Mass., last evening, announcing that R. R. Paulison, a Canadian millionaire, shot himself at the Hotel Thorndike. Enquiry in the city last evening identified the deceased with R. R. Paulison, a mining prospector, largely interested in the Port Arthur district. Mr. Archibald Blue of the Ontario Bureau of Mines stated that for the past three or four years a man named R. R. Paulison had been prospecting in the unsurveyed district east of Port Arthur. He had originally come from Detroit, and some two years ago had secured lands on the Mattawan River, which he afterwards disposed of to Fogler Bros. of Kingston. He had been continuously applying for grants of various lands in the unsurveyed districts.

"He was not a wealthy man," said Mr. Blue, "but it was often said of him that if he could realize on his property he would be a millionaire. He was an indefatigable prospector.

"About three weeks ago I heard of his having gone to Boston to interest capitalists in his mining schemes."

Mr. Aubrey White of the Crown Lands Department gave the same account of Paulison and said that for the last few months he believed that he had been living in his mining schemes.

The probabilities are that Paulison became discouraged at his failure to make a fortune and ended his life with a pistol bullet.

THE FAIR SEX WIN.

Sir Oliver Mowat Cast the Vote That Made Women Lawyers.

TORONTO, Dec. 10.—The doors of the Law Society of Ontario have been opened to women, and these gentle creatures may now enter on the study of law in accordance with the Act of the last session of the Legislature, which empowers the Benchers to allow women to enter upon the study of and to qualify themselves for the profession of a solicitor.

The meeting of convocation was called for 10.30 a.m., but as many of the members were engaged in the courts it was postponed till 12.30. At that hour 24 benchers filed into the board room, one was called to the chair and the other 23 proceeded to discuss the resolution to reconsider the vote of last term, excluding women from the society. When the vote was taken and counted the result was 12 for the admission of women and 11 against.

The matter was referred to a committee to draft a code of rules, and it will again come before convocation when the report of this committee is ready.

It is understood that Attorney-General Mowat was present and cast a vote in favor of the ladies.

WAS IT MURDER?

The Ontario Government Asked to Investigate Mrs. Rowe's Death.

TORONTO, Dec. 10.—The Attorney-General's department has been asked to investigate into the circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Rowe, who was burned to death in a fire in C. B. Taylor's grocery store at Trenton last week. The fire was of incendiary origin, and it is believed that the authorities are in possession of important evidence which is likely to lead to the conviction of the guilty parties. Some startling facts are likely to be made public in the near future.

CASE OF EXTRADITION.

This Time It Is a Mitchell Bank That Is the Sufferer.

TORONTO, Dec. 10.—The Attorney-General's Department has another extradition case on its hands, George Vickers, formerly a music teacher in Mitchell, having been arrested at Hillsdale, Michigan, yesterday on a charge of discounting forged notes to the amount of $1400 with a Mitchell banker.

Vickers will fight extradition and says he will commit suicide rather than come back to Canada.

A SUGGESTION TO TOWN HOLIDAY BUYERS.

It is now only a fortnight till Christmas, and in this short interval will be concentrated the bulk of the holiday buying. In the interests of the merchants of the town we should like to get on the good-natured side of our townspeople—the ladies especially. We feel that we are expressing the earnest desire of our merchants when we urge upon the ladies and townspeople generally, to make an effort to select four days of the week other than the regular market days—Wednesday and Saturday— in which to do their shopping and buying. On these days there is a rush from the country and merchants have their hands full in attending to country customers. Of course it is impossible for all town's people to avoid making their purchases —especially—on Saturday; but it seems with a little forethought the bulk of our citizens could make it convenient to do their buying on other days of the week. We are sure that our merchants would appreciate this kindness on the part of their town patrons. Of course a customer is welcome any day, but it is obviously an act of kindness to merchants to save them the trouble of serving two customers at once especially on a desperately busy day like Wednesday or Saturday, when one might just as well have been served the day before. It is to be hoped that this suggestion will be entertained in conformity with the spirit of peace and good-will that comes with the calendar at the close of the year.

TERRIFIC CONFLAGRATION.

Profits Perish in the Flames—Competition Goes up in Smoke and the People Reap the Reward.

Gough Bros. have applied the torch of reduction to the crucible of profits and the cheap prices that now prevail in every department of their immense business wipes out profits, and takes the people in on the ground floor. A five-ply bonanza for Christmas buyers. What a tremendous give-away of goods all along the line. Wonderful, marvellous! Mighty bargains in overcoats—from $3.90, and by an easy, sliding scale up to $6.90. Look! See! Behold! Gaze! Stare! Gloat over this — all 9-dollar, 10-dollar and 11-dollar overcoat crushed down to $8. Following suit, all suits of the same prices reduced to $8.50. Boys' suits from $1.25 to $2.50; men's suits from $2.75 to $6.90. Now, farmers and townsmen, thrust in your sickle and reap a harvest of gain that you never saw the like of before. All along the line the wall of profits shattered by the battering ram of reduction tumbles flat, walk in and help yourself to boots and shoes at practically your own prices. At Gough Bros'. great Christmas sale you get more goods, you get better goods and for less money than in any other place in this broad Dominion. If you don't want to repent in sackcloth and ashes don't neglect to visit the great holiday reduction sale of Gough Bros., the Wonderful Cheap Men.

Will Kill Consumption.

The Norwegian cod is destined to kill consumption. It has always been known that its oil, when properly prepared, contains all the potent elements for rebuilding wasting tissues in the human body. The difficulty has been to conserve the energies of the oil in its refining, and this has only been accomplished by the manufacturers of "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil." All who suffer with lung troubles, and of course all who are threatened with consumption, should take it. In big bottles, 50c and $1.00, at all Drug Stores.

To invigorate both the body and the brain, use the reliable tonic, Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine.

THE PRIZE PUMPKINS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I do not intend occupying much of your valuable space in reference to the "pumpkin"-head letter of Mr. Collins in your issue of Saturday. Low-minded people invariably resort to bluster and abuse instead of argument, and the verbose secretary will need to display considerably more bluster to satisfy the public that he is not an injury to any institution that he may happen to be connected with. All that I stated in my letter I am prepared to prove and principally by the directors of the exhibition which to the genial public is sufficient proof of the reliability of my statement. All with whom I have spoken from the north, south, east and west, who have made a comparison of the exhibits in Mr. Grafton's store, give their united testimony that my pumpkins are the best. Mr. Collins had not pointed out one unfair proposal I have made towards a settlement of this matter, nor does he ever attempt to prove that my exhibit is not the best, except calling to mind the Lakefield exhibition. Now, Mr. Editor, I am prepared to prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that my special prize pumpkins exhibited at Peterborough were never exhibited at Lakefield, and Mr. Collins' other statements can be weighed accordingly. I will close with the old adage—Give the calf rope and the usual result is sure to follow.

Yours truly,
A. FAIRBAIRN.

TRUTH AND WORTH SUPPORTED BY AN EFFICIENT EMPLOYEE!

Scores of Others in the Queen's Service Can Speak!

STRONG WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT!

Canadians Will be Benefited!

Men in every department of the Queen's service in Canada have been heard from in a way that is calculated to inspire confidence and great hope.

Thousands in our country now stand in need of honest and truthful assurances, because of failures in the past. Those who have met with failures are the suffering, broken-down and diseased, and these are found in every city, town and village of our Dominion. For months and years the sick ones have vainly endeavoured to find an agent of cure. They have been misled by fair promises, and have sunk deeper than ever before in the slough of despondency. The disappointed, despondent and despairing unfortunately placed their faith in remedies that could not cure; they have spent their means and strength on agents that have proved worthless and of no avail.

The light of science has brought new hope to the suffering, it has given to them a power and agency that has worked wonders wherever used. This power, remedy and blessing comes to our people in the form of Paine's Compound, a preparation that is always victorious and triumphant when other remedies fail.

This Paine's Celery Compound makes no false representations. It guarantees to cure, and this assertion is borne out by thousands of the best testimonials ever published. It takes up the sad and despondent after all other means have failed, and restores them to health. What more can be desired?

The following brief letter from Mr. E. H. Dunnett, of the Hamilton Post Office, will interest every reader of the EXAMINER:

Mr. Dunnet says: "After having used your Paine's Celery Compound in my family with beneficial results, it gives me much pleasure in recommending it to the public as the best of all patent medicines. I would especially recommend the Compound for constipation and kidney diseases, having derived lasting benefit from its use. I trust you may have the same success in the future as in the past."

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THE BIGGEST DAY IN 7 YEARS!

Saturday, December 3rd was the biggest day MR. J. J. SHEEHY has had in seven years. Why is this? Surely not because there is less competition. Certainly not because inducements are not being held out by others. Most assuredly not because prices of farm products are showing an upward tendency. Then why??

Simply because the purchasing public of the town and surrounding country have read Mr. Sheehy's advertisements, have inwardly digested them and have concluded that cheap sale or no cheap sale Mr. Sheehy is bound not to be undersold.

We want every day in December to be a big day. How are we to accomplish this? Simply by offering to the public better value for the money than can be had elsewhere. Just cast your eye over the following quotations:—

All Wool Flannels, 26 in. wide, - -	17½	Good Linen Towels each - - -	5½
9 lb. Wool Blankets, - - - - -	$3.75	Grey Wool Blankets, - - -	31c. a lb.
14 yds. Heavy Grey Canton Flannel,	$1.00	25 yards Factory Cotton, - -	$1.00

These few quotations will probably give an idea of what we are doing and a glance at our BARGAIN TABLE in the centre of our store will convince the most skeptical that when it comes to general bargains we certainly are very decidedly "in it."

A WALDEMAR MIRACLE.

A C. P. R. MAN RELATES HIS WONDERFUL ESCAPE.

Helpless With Rheumatism and Sciatica—Relief Comes After Doctors had Failed—The Story Corroborated by Reliable Witnesses.

Grand Valley Star.

There are few people in this vicinity who do not know Mr. Thos. Moss, of Waldemar. He has been for years the trustworthy section foreman of the C. P. R. in the division in which he resides and the exemplary life he always led has given him a respectable status in the community. He is a gentleman who is thoroughly reliable, and when "Tom" Moss tells you anything you can depend upon it every time. This by way of prelude to an interesting story the Star has to tell. For some time past a great deal of novel and interesting literature has appeared in the columns of the press throughout the country, giving the particulars of cures bordering on the miraculous, in various parts of the country. Those who have read these narratives must have put them down either as clever and daring romances, or come to the conclusion that truth is indeed stranger than fiction. The Star must confess that it did not pay much attention to the reported miraculous cures until about a month ago when it was told that a cure quite as notable as many of those published had been wrought within a few miles of Grand Valley. The fact is that great cures, or accidents, or tragedies, when they occur hundreds of miles away—no matter how exciting or how startling—do not usually arouse more than a passing interest where the actors or the central figures are entirely unknown. But let something occur in ones own neighborhood analogous to that report from a distance, and with what different feelings is the news received. We had read of miracles wrought at Trenton, London, Hamilton and other places, through the use of Dr. Williams' famous Pink Pills for Pale People. But we were not acquainted with the parties restored to health; we were in the enjoyment of good health ourselves, and the memory of the great things done in other sections passed from our mind. When we were told, however, that we had only to drive down to the pretty village of Waldemar to get the full particulars of a miracle as striking as many that had been reported in the newspapers, we were once interested. We were further told that Mr. Thos. Moss was the man who owed his restoration to health to the use of Dr. Williams' famed Pink Pills. Remembering that Mr. Moss had been laid up with rheumatism at intervals for years, and there was a time last spring and summer when his familiar face was entirely missing from the railroad, the Star determined to see him and get a confirmation of the story afloat as to the cure by the use of Pink Pills. On seeing Mr. Moss and getting the facts from him, we found that his story was even more surprising than the one that had been going the local rounds. Mr. Moss had not only been troubled with rheumatism, but with sciatica of a painful type, and had also been afflicted with bronchitis, which he had come to regard as chronic.

THE PATIENT'S STORY.

"What you have heard is quite true," said Mr. Moss in reply to our query. "I have used Dr. Williams Pink Pills with wonderful results. For years I had been a sufferer from rheumatism and sciatica and had come to look upon both as chronic. Last spring I met with further trouble, when I had the misfortune to be afflicted with a severe attack of sciatica. I became so bad that I was laid up, and for some weeks was unable even to move. Many of the men on the line can tell you of the condition I was in. There was an accident on the road and I had to be carried to a handcar that I might be brought to the scene of the occurrence in order that a proper report might be made to the railway authorities. I believe I would still have been helpless in my house, or perhaps with the silent majority, if a friend had not told me of the great merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and urged me to try them. All other remedies had failed, physicians were entirely unable to cure me, and I had given them up in despair. You can imagine the very despondent condition I was in when Mr. Rainey, of Grand Valley mentioned Pink Pills to me. I had little hope that they would benefit me, but drowning men clutch at straws, and that was my frame of mind when I purchased the first supply of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had not used the Pink Pills long when I began to find relief and this naturally made me hopeful, and I persevered in their use until the cure was complete. The change wrought in me by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is as delightful as it is marvellous, and for the first time in years I find myself free from pain. I was weak, helpless and hopeless—doctors and other remedies had done me no good, but Pink Pills have restored me to health and strength. The sciatica disappeared, the rheumatism went with it, but stranger still, I am cured of the bronchitis I had come to regard as incurable. I say stranger still, because I notice that in the list of ailments for which Dr. Williams' claims his remedy beneficial, bronchitis is not mentioned, and this forces me to the conclusion that Pink Pills have even more marvelous properties than they have been credited with. My case seems almost incredible but there are so many here who are witnesses of my cure that even the most sceptical must be convinced, and I firmly believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure any trouble with which man is afflicted. This may seem to be enthusiasm, but I have a right to be enthusiastic after what they have done for me, and I strongly urge those afflicted with sickness of any kind to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—the greatest of modern medicines."

Mr. Moss' narrative was certainly of absorbing interest, particularly as the reporter knew he was not a man who would exaggerate facts.

The story of the case was corroborated by many neighbours, among them Mr. Wm. Lomas, who had assisted in carrying Mr. Moss to the hand-car when taken to the scene of the accident above mentioned and also Mr. Buchanan, the popular C. P. R. agent. The reporter returned to Grand Valley fully satisfied as to the great curative properties of Dr. Williams' wonderful discovery.

The Star interviewed the druggists of Grand Valley, and had the same answer from all, Pink Pills are the best selling and most popular remedy in their stores and the sales are constantly increasing. Mr. Erskine, of Dr. Hopkins' drug store, and Mr. Stuckey, of Mr. Keith's establishment, told the Star they were amazed at the great and growing demand for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If the remedy is as popular in other parts as it is in and around Grand Valley great indeed must be the good accomplished by this famous cure.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not a patent medicine in the sense in which that term is usually understood, but a scientific preparation. They contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions and the tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration; all diseases depending upon vitiated humours in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities, and and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature.

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N.Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark on the wrapper, at 50 cts. a box or six boxes for $2.50. Bear in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk or by the dozen or hundred and any dealer who offers substitutes is trying to defraud you and should be avoided. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold make a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

LAKEFIELD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The Eagle Mount quarry, which it was expected would be worked all winter, has been shut down and the men paid off. The quarry on the island, worked by Mr. Fraser, is in full operation, and will be run all winter, if practicable. They are said to be taking out a splendid class of paving blocks.

Work is going on both day and night in the Dummer mine, several miners having lately arrived there, and indications are improving the deeper down they go. The formation is said to be a peculiar one, beds of tough clay being found between the layers of rock.

When the members of Berresford L.O.L. No. 122, met on Monday night, they did so in a hall that has few if any equals in any country village or town. The roof has been reshingled and a good woodshed built, the ante-room seated and made comfortable, the woodwork of the hall newly painted and the walls papered. A handsome carpet has been laid on the main floor, while the platforms are also covered with a brighter carpet which contrasts well with the other furnishings. Upholstered settees in ash, the material also of the officers' desks, pedestals and chairs, handsome blinds and curtains, add to the comfort and appearance of the place, while the electric light sheds its radiance over the whole. The following officers were elected for the coming year:—

Cured Sick Headache.

Mrs. D. A. Campbell, North Segrum Ont., writes:—"I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly. My daughter was a terrible sufferer with sick headache for twelve months, and no medical aid could relieve her, but, by the use of two boxes of your Pills, she is completely cured." From all dealers or by mail at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50. Beware of imitations. Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

A FACT which even political economists are apt to forget is that a manufacturer's rate of profit is not the only essential element to success: the aggregate profit at the end of the year is of far greater importance, and this in most cases is greater out of a low rate of profit than out of a high rate, because of the increased business, which the lower price gives rise to. It was on this principle that Messrs. Tuckett & Son acted in introducing their now famous "Myrtle Navy" tobacco, and to this principle they have ever since adhered. This is one of the reasons why people of Canada are smoking the best tobacco which can be produced, at a cheaper price than any other people can buy a similar article.

Ayer's Pills

Are better known and more generally used than any other cathartic. Sugar-coated, purely vegetable, and free from mercury or any other injurious drug, this is the ideal family medicine. Though prompt and energetic in their action, the use of the pills is attended with only the best results. Their effect is to strengthen and regulate the organic functions, being especially beneficial in the various derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels.

Ayer's Pills

are recommended by all the leading physicians, and druggists, as the most prompt and effective remedy for biliousness, nausea, costiveness, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, jaundice, drowsiness, pain in the side, and sick headache; also, to relieve colds, fevers, neuralgia, and rheumatism. They are taken with great benefit in chills and the diseases peculiar to the South. For travelers, whether by land or sea, are the best, and should never be omitted in the outfit. To preserve their medicinal integrity in all climates, they are put up in bottles as well as boxes.

Ayer's Pills

"I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and always found them to be a mild and excellent purgative, having a good effect on the liver. It is the best pill used."—Frank Spillman, Sulphur, Ky.

Important Announcement to the Public!

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS SALE.

Hall, Innes & Co.

Having decided to retire from the Dry Goods Business in Peterborough announce that they will on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23rd, commence a

GENUINE MAMMOTH CLEARING SALE for CASH

Covering Every Department of their Extensive Business.

HALL, INNES & CO.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Gents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

HALL, INNES & CO.

FORCED

REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked or renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 3 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, so we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well, if not better, in the future.

TO-NIGHT! TO-NIGHT!

Peterborough Enterprise.

The Winnipeg Free Press of the 28th ult, contains the following among its real estate notes:

Mr. O'Shaughnessy, real estate broker, reports having sold Mr. T. Bradburn, of Peterborough, Ont., city and county property, amounting to $8,300, for Mr. W. F. Lynn. Mr. Bradburn is a regular visitor to Winnipeg, and every time he comes he leaves a proof of his faith in the future of this country. This is his third extensive purchase through Mr. O'Shaughnessy within the last two years. During his last visit he paid over two thousand dollars in taxes on his city property. He left for home via Chicago last Sunday.

Such an item as the above serves to show to outsiders the kind of enterprising men our prosperous town contains, and yet it evinces the estimation in which the town is held as a place of residence by our capitalists, when, although they seek wider fields for investment, they still continue their residence in Peterborough. It might be mentioned that Mr. Bradburn's possessions in the Northwest, outside of Winnipeg, are very extensive, consisting of farm lands and town and city lots in various parts of the West. It is understood that Mr. Bradburn has at present under consideration the purchase of another large Winnipeg property.

The Cause of Rheumatism.

An acid which exists in sour milk and cider, called lactic acid, is believed by physicians to be the cause of rheumatism. Accumulating in the blood, it attacks the fibrous tissues in the joints, and causes agonizing pains. What is needed is a remedy to neutralize the acid, and to so invigorate the kidneys and liver that all waste will be carried off. Hood's Sarsaparilla is heartily recommended by many whom it has cured of rheumatism. It possesses just the desired qualities, and so thoroughly purifies the blood as to prevent occurrence of rheumatic attacks. We suggest a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla by all who suffer from rheumatism.

Miss Lund has shared the work where she was located in Japan with Miss Munro of Peterborough.

The Grain Market To-day.

The grain market market is fairly active at present. There is, however, not much wheat coming in now. Spring wheat, 61c. (standard); fall, 65c. (standard); oats, 26c. to 27c.; rye, 45c. to 48c; peas, 50c. to 56c.; barley, 35c. to 40c.; buckwheat, 35c. The supply of oats and barley is large, but the receipts of buckwheat are small. Hay is still selling from $7.30 to $8.30 per ton.

In Ashburnham Also.

The famous Ball Jnbille Singers will appear in the Mark street Methodist church on Wednesday and Thursday nights of next week. Don't fail to hear this distinguished band of musicians. They sing solos, duets, trios and glees with a melody that is sweet and truly wonderful. Be sure you make a note of the date and if you are a lover of music, don't allow this opportunity pass without hearing the Ball Singers.

A Musical Treat in Store.

Arrangements have just been completed with Mr. Grenville P. Kleiser, the acknowledged peer of elocutionists in Canada, to give one of his celebrated recitals here on the 13th of January. Mr. Kleiser has just returned from an extended tour through British Columbia and the Pacific slope, and received ovations at every place he has appeared. He will be assisted by Miss Minnie Gould, one of the most talented of Canada's soprano vocalists, besides leading local talent, and the gentlemen who have undertaken to provide the people of Peterborough with this really high class entertainment will no doubt be sustained in their venture.

St. Paul's W. F. M. S.

Mrs. Layyah Barakat, a Syrian lady, will deliver addresses in St. Paul's church, Peterborough, on Thursday and Friday evenings, Dec. 15th and 16th, under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, the subject for the first evening being "Her Life and Conversion," and for the second evening "The three Orient Covenants." Mrs. Barakat comes to us highly spoken of. She is a fluent and pleasant speaker and treats her subject in a manner to invest the theme of foreign missions with a new and lively interest. The meetings will be open to both ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. Barakat has spoken in the principal churches of New York City—Dr. John Hall's and Dr. W. W. Taylor's; also Dr. Kittridge's, of Chicago. Wherever she has spoken immense audiences have greeted her, and her addresses have been of a great benefit to the Foreign Missions of the church.

MR. MELDRUM AND THE INVESTIGATION

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I notice that attempts are being made in certain quarters to place me in a false position in reference to recent events in connection with the Fire Brigade. As a member of the Fire, Water and Light Committee I am prepared to take the full responsibility of my action in that capacity, and the other members of the committee must be prepared to take theirs as well. Now that the investigation is over it is only fair to the ratepayers to be informed of the position I took in the matter in question. It was common talk that some members of the fire brigade knew more than was told respecting the undoubted incendiary fires that had occurred with such alarming frequency, fires which in some cases from the nature of their surroundings, threatened to have most serious consequences beyond the range of the building in which they were set. Public alarm was felt, the insurance companies demanded action on the part of the authorities to endeavor to discover the origin of these fires, and it was also felt to be desirable to discover, if possible, the origin and extent of the animus that was evidently working in the fire brigade, as shown in the mutilation of one of the fire hall horses, and other evidences of friction that existed. Under these circumstances the Fire, Water and Light Committee took the subject into consideration, and the result was that it was referred to myself as chairman and to Mayor Kendry. In consequence a detective was brought here and set to work, and there my connection with the case ceased as far as any action was concerned. It may be held by the other members of the committee that they knew nothing of the course of the action that was being taken but they knew that determined efforts were being made to unravel a mystery in connection with the fires in question, of which every member conceded the necessity, and it was not necessary that the nature of the line of action taken by the mayor and myself in the relation to the matter should be announced by placards posted in public. No one is better pleased than I am that these four young men an exonerated in connection with this charge; had they been found guilty I should have been equally pleased to see them properly punished. No one of ordinary intelligence and knowledge of the circumstances can doubt that the majority, at least, of recent fires have been incendiary, and it was the duty of the council, and especially my duty as chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, to take the necessary steps to protect the public interests, and neither myself nor the council can complain that we were charged by the public with acting too slowly and postponing unwisely to walk in the clear path of duty that lay before us in this connection. So far as I am personally concerned, I have no feeling against the fire brigade, and they are at perfect liberty to resign, as I notice they have done, but that resignation can have no influence upon me as chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, in the discharge of my duty towards the public, which will continue to be exercised as in the past, without regard to personal feeling. In the letter of resignation of the fire brigade an accusation is directed personally against myself of instigating the "unenrolled for espionage and surveillance on the part of a town officer." This I deny with the utmost emphasis. There is not a word of truth in it; but if, in the discharge of my duty to the public I had seen the necessity of watching the fire brigade I would have done so without hesitation. No civic organization can expect to hold themselves above criticism.

There has been no committee of Fire, Water and Light, that has done more for the personal comfort and convenience of the firemen in the discharge of their duty than the committee of the present year. Their rooms and quarters have been placed in a palatial condition in comparison with their former state. To meet the wishes of the firemen the department was reorganized and placed under their entire control. So far as I myself am concerned I have had no words or friction with a single fireman, or to my knowledge, with the department, but my actions have not, I think, met with the friendly recognition on the part of the chief which I feel they deserved. I have even been severely censured by the council for my practical friendliness to the fire brigade and I know of no other reason for their present attitude towards me than the pressure of some outside hostile influence.

Yours very truly,
W. H. MELDRUM.

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

JUVENILES TO THE FRONT.

They Hold a Pleasant and Satisfactory Tea and Entertainment in the Foresters' Hall.

The second annual tea and entertainment given under the auspices of Court Young Peterborough, No. 5, Canadian Order of Foresters, was given in the Forester's Hall on Simcoe street last night. A choice tea was partaken of in the early part of the evening. The spread which was made by Bro. T. Hooper, was a creditable one. About 8.30 o'clock the mental proceedings began. The chair was occupied by Bro. Walter Hooper, C.R., Court Peterborough, No. 29, who introduced an interesting programme, which was divided into two parts, including a few moments of intermission. The pianoforte duets of Misses Brown and Stevens were well rendered. Mr. Wm. Burdick's selections on the harmonica were skillfully played, the performer responding to a recall. Mr. Peter McArthur favoured with a good song, while the flute solos of Mr. Wm. Dundas were admirably rendered. Mr. Daniel Gordon sang two songs during the evening with fine effect. Mr. Eddie Hickey appeared in a month organ solo and answered an encore. In one of these pieces he was accompanied by Mr. Alfred Reynolds on "the bones." Mrs. Bowman contributed a vocal solo, as also did Miss Bowman on two occasions, both loudly applauded. Mr. Alfred Gaskins recited in fine style, and Mr. Wm. Bowman delighted the audience with two solos. Mr. Alfred Reynolds provided the merriment of the night. He was booked for a stump speech, which he gave in character. "The White-Headed Negro." Replying to an encore he gave a "dumb speech," which was very amusing. Messrs. W. Bowman, J. Connors and A. Reynolds were a clever trio in their juggling and contortion exhibitions and yielded to a hearty encore. Mr. John Armstrong played a suitable instrumental solo. The National Anthem was then sung, then the older heads retired and the younger element spent an enjoyable few hours in the dance, the hall being nicely decorated for the occasion. Mr. A. Moore was master of ceremonies, and the mellifluous music was rendered by Messrs. W. Metheral, pianist, E. Sherwood, violinist, and W. Boyle, cornet.

THE KING OF THE FINNY TRIBE

Are the Magnificent Specimens of Salmon to be Found in the River and Along the Coast of Labrador—Instructive Lecture by Mr. R. M. Dennistoun.

The second series in the lecture course given under the auspices of the Collegiate Institute Literary Society took place on Friday evening. The attendance was not as large as it might have been or ought to be for it is to be regretted that the citizens generally, do not patronize these fine lectures more generously. They can not know what they are missing, otherwise they would be present in large numbers. The friends of Peterborough's excellent Collegiate Institute should decidedly show their appreciation of its splendid work and high standing in some decided manner. One way of doing this is by availing themselves of the pleasure and profit of the full course of lectures given by its enterprising literary society.

Mr. Police Magistrate Dumble was chairman and remarked that it was his duty as magistrate to keep order. He was pleased the students had inaugurated these series of lectures. He had a great fondness for exercises of this character, it made the bright and confident in their efforts before the public and was the climax of culture in connection with the Institute. Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, the lecturer, was an old Collegiate boy—one among the many of which the Institute might claim with honour to itself. He had no doubt the speaker would handle his subject "A Summer on a Salmon River in Labrador," in his customary able manner. The first number on the programme was a solo, "Committed to the Deep" by Mr. Drope, sung in good taste and deservedly applauded. Miss Eva Craig followed in a well given recitation, "The King's Three Daughters"

LABRADOR AND ITS SALMON FISHERIES.

Mr. Dennistoun read his lecture but it was extremely well read and the interest of his hearers throughout its hour's delivery never flagged. Much unknown information and unrevealed knowledge with respect to Labrador was disclosed and with the limited space at our disposal it would be quite impossible to give anything like a comprehensive report. The speaker in the course of his elegantly phrased address took his hearers in the little steamer Otter to the triangular peninsula of Labrador. He paid a tribute to the Hudson Bay Company, who, the speaker asserted, were to be credited to a large extent with the friendly relations that existed between the North-West Indians and the Government. The physical features of the country, its inhabitants and its resources, were dealt with in eloquent language. Mr. Dennistoun related many amusing incidents connected with his trip and the various experiences and sights he had met with. A Hudson Bay Company's fort was a very interesting relic where supplies of every description are kept in store to satisfy the wants of the people. These forts were quiet, orderly and monotonous, going though the same routine of bartering with the Indians for scores of years. At Esquimaux Point several hundred fishermen eked out a precarious existence in cod and mackerel fishing in the summer and seal and porpoise in the winter. The whole northeastern and western coast of this country is fringed with lovely islands. Arrived at the Harbour of Natatiquam, the end of the journey by water was reached, when the party enjoyed a feast of fresh codfish. There was here an enterprising Jersey firm which sent a number of Channel Islanders to catch and cure Canadian cod before the winter time. Mr. Dennistoun related many humourous incidents of the features and characteristics of the people and many highly interesting circumstances of personal salmon fishing up the Natatisquam River. Men line these rivers at the mouth to keep off poachers. At the mouth of the river are the nets of the fishermen who obtain a license from the Dominion Government to catch salmon by these means. These salmon, far superior to the salmon of British Columbia, cannot be sent fresh to market, owing to the want of transport, but are sold in Quebec where this staple article of food is the sustenance of the poorer classes in the winter season. At considerable length in a fine word picture he described the experiences, tactics, and machinations of salmon fishing, the treachery and cunning of the salmon to catch which, requires art and science, patience and toil, and instancing the effort of an hour and a half to capture a salmon weighing 22 pounds, but no one could tell the delight after having made it a prey. The speaker recounted adventures and specified many of the habits, instincts and modes of existence of that king of fishes—the salmon. The different curious phases of development which the salmon went through, were also pleasantly delineated. A frightful to the salmon was the powerful seals, which were difficult to shoot and when beached were peculiar looking animals. The seals of Labrador were known as the hair seals, to distinguish them from the fur seals, which do not exist in the North Atlantic. These seals were valued for their oil and skins, which were converted into leather. The young seals were born and developed on the great ice floes which made their way southwards in the month of February. From 8,000 to 10,000 Newfoundlanders were engaged annually in this pursuit. As many as 42,000 have been brought in by a single steamer, worth about $105,000. The number of seals taken along the Labrador coast was from 350 to 500,000. The Indians were described as being peaceful and thoroughly civilized. They are all good Catholics, and have an affectionate reverence and regard for their priests, who certainly possess a wonderful influence over them. These faithful men devoted their lives to the bettering of the Indian bands. They acted not only as spiritual and temporal leaders but did active police duty in the suppression of crime where ever they could discover it. The Indians were decently married and Sunday and holy days reverently recognized. A government cruiser patrols the coast in the fishing season to prevent American fishermen from poaching and also doing police duty along the coast. The commander was a stipending magistrate and every offender received a fair British trial. Continuing the lecturer said: "Our fishing season was a most fortunate one, as it was our signal luck to kill 308 salmon with our two rods in 26 days. I had the exceptional privilege of landing 23 fish in one day, a feat which kept me working hard and wading in cold water for about ten hours." The beauty of the scenery, and falls of the Labrador rivers were next depicted. Some of these falls were truly magnificent and of stupendous wafer magnitude. In conclusion the speaker said: "To those of you who are disciples of Izak Walton I have to say that you will never know the acme of pleasure to be derived from fishing until you have landed a salmon; but let me add if your opportunities have been limited one season as mine have been that you will be dissatisfied for ever afterwards.

A vote of thanks moved by Mr. Inspector Brown, and seconded by Mr. Sheriff Hall, to Mr. Dennistoun for his racy, captivating narrative of Labrador and its salmon, which was unanimously carried. The proceedings closed with an excellent glee from the glee club, Miss Annie Hall taking the solo part in a fine manner.

IT HAS A GREAT RECORD.

The past summer was a most remarkable one for Lactated Food. Thousands of mothers in Canada have made trial of it for their weak and sickly babes, and are now thoroughly convinced that no other food on the market can compare with it.

Lactated Food has made sick babies well, and has saved many who were near the point of death. Our doctors in Canada have seen marvellous results when the food was used, and have lost no opportunity to recommend it to mothers.

Thankful mothers have sent in valuable testimony; and we declare that Lactated Food is a precious boon in every home where there is an infant.

Every weary and tired mother, whose little one is cross, restless, peevish and weakly, should give this scientific food an immediate trial.

Lactated Food is as far removed from the ordinary prepared foods which some use, as heaven is from earth. It is noted for great purity of composition; it possesses none of the irritating elements found in other foods, which inflame the stomach and bowels. In a word, Lactated Food is the healthiest, best and cheapest food in the world; it is the mother's best friend, and baby's great benefactor.

THEY TENDER THEIR RESIGNATION.

Chief Rutherford is Handed The Fire Brigade's Resignation Yesterday.

The following letter was handed Mr. Thos. Rutherford, Chief of the Fire Brigade, yesterday afternoon. It fully explains itself:—

To Thos. Rutherford, Chief of the Fire Department:

DEAR SIR,—Recent events, which are well known to you, have led us to the conclusion that we can no longer serve the town as members of the fire brigade, and we therefore place our resignation in your hands.

The majority of us have been members of the brigade since its formation twelve years ago, and we have all served for a considerable length of time. We have always, we are glad to say, received encouragement from the Council and the citizens, and have highly appreciated the many ways in which the citizens have been kind enough to recognize our efforts to protect property in the town from fires. But recent events have shown that our services, which, whether sufficiently efficient or not, were the best we knew how to give, have not protected us from uncalled for espionage and surveillance on the part of a town officer, and that a member of the Town Council, who, from his official position, we might have expected different treatment, has instigated, as we believe, and encouraged this espionage which gave rise to rumours, idle and without foundation, that for a time subjected us to suspicion and annoyance. These rumors have happily been cleared up and the reputation of the brigade entirely exonerated from the imputations that were made against it, but we do not desire to leave ourselves in a position to be so treated again.

We therefore place our resignation in your hands and ask you to lay it before the proper authorities so that we may be relieved from duty at the end of the present year. In doing so we are pleased to say that our relations with you during the past twelve years have been of the pleasantest kind, and while we regret the severance of these relations, we believe that you will recognize that we could take no other course under the present circumstances.

J. H. YELLAND, Sec. F. B.
J. D. CRAIG, Capt. F. B.

—The local branch of the E.B.A. did not elect officers Thursday night but postponed the election for a week—Thursday night next.

—Many dressed hogs were offered on the market this morning, selling $6.75 and $7.00 per cwt. Hogs, live weight, brought $5.25 and $5.50 per cwt.

—The police have in their possession a small terrier dog possessed of collar and padlock. The owner of the canine will apply at the station for their lost property.

—The "Rob Roy" Opera Company arrived in town this morning from Port Hope and registered at the Grand Central. They appear at the Opera House this evening.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. Dennis Donovan, who died on Thursday last, took place this morning from her late residence on McDonel street and was largely attended.

—Messrs. J. J. Turner & Son this morning received an order from Oshawa for two large awnings, and the firm also filled to-day two large orders for Bowmanville and Oshawa.

—Mr. John Kincaid shipped another carload of apples to Montreal on Wednesday. Mr. Kincaid is still buying up large quantities of all grades of apples from the surrounding farmers.

—The monthly session of the Division Court was held yesterday before His Honor Judge Weller. There was a very small docket. One jury case was on the list entered. This will be tried next week.

—Several of the young bachelors of Peterborough entertained their friends at a select social assembly on Simcoe street, Thursday evening. Prof. Butcher's orchestra was present and a delightful time spent by all.

—In answer to "Vulcan's" inquiry, Mr. J. Batten desires the EXAMINER to state that he put on 104 horse shoes and resetting them all in one day. He was assisted only by his son and 35 of the shoes were new ones.

—Mr. Ball, of the Ball family of Jubilee Singers will take part in the service at the Charlotte street church on Sunday and the family will sing several selections. There will be a silver collection. Mr. Ball, sr., will also sing at the evening service.

—The revival services in George street Methodist church are still going on. The past week has been the best week of the series, many young people and others have started on the Christian life this week. These services will go on next week.

—The next address in the lecture series given under the auspices of the Collegiate Institute Literary Society will be given on January 6th by the Rev. Herbert Symonds, M.A., Rector of St. Luke's Church. The subject will be "Ancient Civilizations and Modern Civilizations." The proceeds of these interesting and edifying series of lectures will be devoted to the purchase of a pianoforte by the society.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The boys' meeting last evening was attended by twenty-four boys. Brief addresses were given by Mr. A. L. Greves, Mr. Walter Wesley and Secretary Chapman. The topic, "Cain and Abel," was the first of a series on the boys of the Bible. "Jacob and Esau" will be the subject next Friday evening.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will meet next Tuesday at 4 p.m. to consider preparations for the coming New Year's Day receptions.

Mr. H. E. Armstrong will be the speaker at the young men's meeting this evening, and Mr. J. C. Turnbull will address the gospel meeting to-morrow evening at 3.30. All are cordially welcome.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Information to the Public

It is with great pleasure that I inform the public that Membray's kidney and liver cure has given me great help after using only one bottle and can recommend it highly.

Alarm Clocks!

There are a great many small Alarm Clocks which have been running for a few years and are now out of order, which the owners are allowing to remain idle, because they think it will cost too much to repair them. If you bring them to us you will find that we will make them run as well as they ever did, at a very small charge. We have already changed hundreds of them from being merely rubbish into good timepieces. If you want to buy a new one, we will sell you an Alarm Clock at a lower price than any one else in the trade. We sell only the very best make and warrant every one.

NEW YORK (SPECIAL).

DRESS and usage at weddings shall be the subject of this article. One marriage toilet may be seen in the initial sketch, and another next below. In these cases, the brides chose to depart from conventional usage, and garb themselves like girls arrayed modestly and becomingly for an evening party. The fabrics were white satin, and the embellishments were in the same color. In the first example, the sprays on the waist and skirt were embroidered by hand in the finest conceivable manner, making an exceedingly costly toilet, as well as a beautiful one. The shaping of the gown itself was severely plain and simple. This young bride wore no veil, or orange blossoms, or anything else to denote that she was at her own wedding. That was her fancy. The bride of the second picture put on a veil, and a wreath of orange blossoms. The illustration shows the dress only, with its widely puffed sleeves, its high bodice, and its trailing skirt embroidered in silk and edged with lace. To a prospective bride, who writes to ask what she shall wear at the altar, in order not to be "the usual sort of thing," I can only reply that nine-tenths of the bridal dresses are still made of white satin or silk. Of course, I mean what are called full dress weddings. But there is a growing independence as to marriage robes, and any girl may indulge her own taste—if it be good—in choosing the gown.

In further illustration of the wedding topic, I have made three sketches from photographs of actual brides. They have all married within a month. So far as they are fashion plates, they show three styles of hair dressing and of corsage. But let us consider them ethically. In grandma's time girls used to marry too young. Glance at the pictures here given, and you will form some idea of how the standard of brides has been raised in latter years. No one of these ladies is less than twenty-one. They range between that and twenty-eight. The faces are bright, serious and self-controlled. Not the faces of children and unformed girls, but those of women fit to be companions of the men whom they have married. Eyes and lips in each case speak earnestness and gentle strength. Only one of the faces could be called conventionally "pretty," and even that one, the first, wears so sweetly grave a look, and so steady a light shines from the eyes that it only adds to the effect already produced by the others, and one whispers to himself, 'Men are not marrying merely pretty faces and beautiful figures; they are marrying women, and soul and intellect." Here and there a close study of one or another of the faces leads to the criticism that there is lacking a certain confiding softness of outlines. But it is a good thought that this comes only from a certain lack of heart development, and that this lack is to be supplied. These women with straightforward, earnest eyes and quiet lips are going to meet the duties of wifehood as it should best and most wisely be met, and those duties, the new life, the new surrounding of care and tenderness and the dear weight of new responsibilities will light the look of love and womanhood in their eyes, and set its softness about their lips. The man who takes such a woman into his heart has the developing of a well-rounded woman at his hand. The years will bring these only a larger womanhood, not a narrowed one. The pretty girl, the pampered girl, the already selfish woman, the untrained child are going out of fashion. The pictures I have chosen are only a few of many. The beauty of soul is being acknowledged. We may hope for better times, better men, better homes; and when that is said all is said. By the way, only one of these women wears earrings. The others have delicately modelled ears, a sure sign of innate refinement. They have all well-marked eyebrows, a sure sign of well-balanced mental power. They have all well-marked lashes, and that is a sure sign of the poetry and imaginative capabilities that go to make up the lovely women. They all show those minor points of delicate beauty by virtue of which a woman is truly lovely. By the way, I am willing to wager that they all have smooth, clear skin. The sort of skin that a woman with a well-balanced mind and the good digestion that usually attends such a mind, has. And I will wager, too, that their hands are as full of character, as beautifully unbeautiful as are their faces.

If you would follow the conventional and never changing French form of wedding costume, let the material be what it may, but your gown must be high-neck and long sleeved, really high and long, not filled. You will thus carry out the old time notion of being a veiled virgin in all ways, and don't depend upon transparent tulle veiling. Here and in England the bride wears a dress as low as her neck permits, and, as the French woman never would, she wears jewels. "The bride wore a magnificent pendant of diamonds, the gift of the groom, and a tiara from her father." How often we see such a line in the description of swell weddings. In the form of marching in and the arrangement of the party, much latitude is allowed the taste and even fancy of the bride. The fancy is governed by the fundamental idea of the bride as a veiled and modest virgin brought to her husband, is most likely to evolve a really tasteful and impressing wedding. That which has as its chief purpose the "starring," as it were, of the bride is pretty close to vulgarity. The attendants are, as the bride decides, brides-maids or pages. If the bride has a sister or a very dear friend she is maid of honor, and bears to the bride the relation that the best man does to the groom. Often all but the sister or friend are dispensed with on the bride's side, who has then merely the maid of honor. Ushers, who are supposed to equal in number the bridesmaids and balance the party, are essential, whether there are any maids or not. They see to seating the people, if it is a church wedding, and to disposing the guests at a house wedding. Only after all this is done does the bridal party appear, and then the ushers are free to take their party in the bridal march or to take their places as has been arranged.

Whether or no there is a maid of honor, there must be a best man. He is supposed to be on hand, and to know everything the groom forgets, and as the groom probably forgets everything you see how important the best man is. He is almost more important than the groom. In fact, I know of one swell wedding where the best man, standing of course close to the elbow of the groom during the ceremony, made half the responses owing to the groom's voice going back on him. It is the best man who knows where the ring is, the best man who takes care of it and nudges the groom when it is time to use it, and it is the best man who knows which is the bride, and keeps the groom from distractedly marrying one of the maids or the mother. The maid of honor, or the first bridesmaid, performs the same offices for the bride, who is never in the flabby and scared condition the groom is in. From the church the bride and groom go in a carriage to the house of the bride. There is held a brief reception, or, if it is a morning wedding, the usual breakfast. Arrangements are usually made so that there is a train to catch, or they all pretend there is, and the bride slips away as soon as she can to don her travelling gown. For a morning wedding the groom has worn a suit in which he can travel, unless he has been very French and done as the Frenchmen do for the 11 o'clock weddings, worn a full-dress suit. In that case, his best man drags him off to an apartment provided, and sees that he does not get his travelling coat on wrong side out. Then the two pretend to "slip away," and of course they are discovered and that is the time for rice and all that. As to a wedding journey, that is as they please. The English custom is to "borrow" for a week or so the country house or hunting lodge of a friend, some place only a few hours out of town. It is nothing short of vulgar and uncivilized to start a woman off on a long trip on cars or boat after all the excitement and weariness of a formal wedding ceremony. Some people have a craze for starting for Europe. Good gracious! Of course reasonable people expect to lose their illusions in time, but why take the risk of—throwing them up at once. And I should think the miseries attendant on a sea voyage would effectually do it.

It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story of its merit. Hood's Sarsaparilla CURES.

THE AMERICAN TARIFF.

BI-METALLISM WOULD LEAD TO ITS DECREASE.

An American at the Monetary Conference Talks Plainly—Uncle Sam Wants to Multiply His Trade With the Whole World.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 9.—In the Monetary Conference yesterday Prof. Andrews, an American delegate, who is president of Brown University, was invited as a Democrat and personal friend of President-elect Cleveland to inform the conference as to the probable attitude of the coming Washington Government towards silver.

Prof. Andrews said he hoped the idea that America was bent only upon increasing her national wealth and that she was merely acting as the servile creature of mine owners would forever be dismissed as being equally as absurd as the idea that American interest was mainly due to the distress a flicting the American monetary system. Continuing, Prof. Andrews said: "We have not and are not at present likely to have a dollar in silver beyond our needs in the United States. We have no idea of soliciting any favors from the peoples of Europe.

Uncle Sam's Trade Object.

"What we desire is as much to Europe's interest as to ours. We wish to multiply our trade with the world, to do a vaster business with China, Japan and Central and South America, and at the same time with Europe. This will never be successfully accomplished so long as two great groups of nations continue to drift apart.

"The evils of fluctuating exchange, which beset England in her commerce with India, we also experience in our trading with our nearest neighbors, but we are determined not to accomplish a desirable end at the terrible cost of opening a similar chasm between ourselves and the nations of Europe.

"We will part company with Asia and South America rather than with you. We will not forever continue alone the task of sustaining the price of silver. If Europe is not enough interested in the matter to co-operate with us we will soon decrease our annual purchase of silver and begin to provide by recruiting our currency by issues of paper.

"The next Congress is nearly certain to open procedure in that direction. We will not give up our gold. The time-honored monetary policy of the United States will never be changed with Mr. Cleveland's consent."

One Way to Lower the U.S. Tariff.

Referring to the tariff Prof. Andrews said it was obvious there was no surer way to lower the American tariff than for Europe and the United States to agree upon a policy favorable to silver as money. That alone would abate the incessant conflict for gold and leave the United States free to effect a generous reduction in the customs tariff.

In conclusion, Prof. Andrews said he thought some of the plans proposed to the conference were feasible, and if the delegates continued their deliberations with a due sense of their responsibility the conference would not fail to devise a measure of relief.

The best authorities state that when the conference adjourns next week it will be until the spring.

INSTANT ARREST.

Of Members of the Council of the Panama Canal Company Ordered.

PARIS, Dec. 9.—The declaration of the new ministry was read in Chambers yesterday. It recalled the events that caused the recent political crisis and affirmed the intention of the Cabinet to aid the Chamber of Deputies by every means in its power to throw light upon the Panama Canal affair. Nevertheless, it continued, the Cabinet must affirm the principle of separation of the executive, legislative and judicial powers.

The Government had decided not to exceed the limits prescribed by the law. The chamber is requested to devote its attention to reforms in taxation.

The Chamber, by a vote of 306 to 104, adopted a resolution declaring confidence in the Government.

The Libre Parole says Bourgeois, Minister of Justice, has ordered the immediate arrest of the members of the council of the Panama Canal Co. who are charged with breach of trust.

The members of the company under indictment are Ferdinand de Lesseps, chairman of the Board of Directors; Charles de Lesseps, vice-chairman, and M. Fontanes and Baron Cottu, directors.

The Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 432 to 89 adopted a motion declaring urgency for the consideration of M. Ramel's motion authorizing holders of Panama Canal bonds to form a syndicate to prosecute the persons who misappropriated the company's funds.

Rev. Sylvanus Lane,

Of the Cincinnati M. E. Conference, makes a good point when he says: "We have for years used Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family of five, and find it fully equal to all that is claimed for it. Some people are greatly prejuiced against patent medicines, but how the patent can hurt a medicine and not a machine is a mystery of mysteries to me."

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

INTENSE SUFFERING!

Mr. William Buchanan, 24 years engineer in the Cunard Steamship Company's service, 8 St. John's Road, Kirkdale, Liverpool, Eng., writes: "I suffered two years of agony from an affection in the head which six physicians pronounced incurable.

They were divided in opinion as to whether it was acute neuralgia of the head or rheumatic affection of the brain, but all agreed that I could never recover. In my paroxysms of pain it needed two and sometimes three men to hold me down in bed. When at death's door, was applied to my head. It acted like magic. It saved my life. I am well and hearty, and have had no return of the trouble."

ST. JACOBS OIL

"ALL RIGHT! ST. JACOBS OIL DID IT."

A PRIZE PUZZLE.

NO PRIZES FOR STUPID PEOPLE.

(In the above Sketch Six Faces are to be Found.)

The proprietors of THE LADIES HOME MONTHLY will give a first-class Upright Piano, of the very best make (valued at $350) to the person who can first find the six faces. A reward of a Safety Bicycle (valued at $125), for the second correct answer. A fine Oak Bedroom Set (valued at $60) for the third correct answer. A Solid Gold Watch for each of the next two correct answers. A Ten Dollar Gold Piece for the next three correct answers.

Every contestant is to cut out the Rebus, and make a cross with a lead pencil on the six faces and send same to us with ten three cent postage stamps (or 30 cents in silver) for three months subscription to The Ladies Home Monthly, which is the best ladies publication in Canada.

We will give to the last ten correct answers received each a handsome Banquet Lamp, and a valuable prize will also be given to every person who is able to answer the Rebus correctly until fifty prizes have been awarded.

The envelope which contains correct answer bearing first postmark will receive first reward, and the remainder in order as received. Every prize in this competition will be faithfully awarded. Our 'bona-fide' offers are made by reliable publishers.

Be sure and answer to-day and enclose 30 cents, and you may receive a valuable prize for your trouble. Address (H) Ladies Home Monthly, 192 King St., West, Toronto, Canada.

CANADIAN EMIGRANTS.

Must Be of a Kind to Work on the Lands of the Dominion.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—Great interest is being taken throughout the United Kingdom in the proceedings of the Farmers' Conference, particularly in the claim so persistently made that protection is the only thing that can relieve the farming classes from their present unsatisfactory position.

The Times, The Standard, The Chronicle and The News tell the farmers in unmistakable language that protection is absolutely impossible in England.

It is noted that in the proposal for the levying of high duties submitted to the conference no suggestion to exempt colonial produce from the proposed duties was made.

The crisis in the farming industry is causing a great increase in the number of enquiries being received from people of the farming class who are thinking of emigrating. Special efforts are being made throughout the country to divert as much of this promised emigration as possible in the direction of Canada, and the agents of the Dominion say that the prospects have not been so good since 1882, in which year 100,000 people left the United Kingdom for Canada and carried with them effects valued at $3,000,000.

Sir Charles Tupper has promised to submit to the Ottawa Government any practical scheme for the emigration of farm workers and servants who have drifted from the country into the cities. But Canada only encourages emigrants able and willing to work on the lands of Canada.

The Lord Mayor of London is being urged to form a special emigration committee to relieve distress in London.

Hon. J. S. Hall, Provincial Treasurer of Quebec, denies the stories in circulation to the effect that the province intends to borrow money in the London market or anywhere else. As a matter of fact, Mr. Hall explains that, despite the crisis produced by the announcement of Premier DeBoucherville's intention to resign, he apprehends no serious trouble for the Government, as he believes that Mr. Taillon will be able to keep the administration in good working order.

Geologist Dead.

NEW HAVEN, Ct., Dec. 9.—Prof. John Strong Newberry, the eminent geologist, is dead.

Two of the newest shapes in sailor hats are represented in the following cuts. No. I is a fancy woven straw of old rose and black tints. The crown is a trifle higher than of old. It is trimmed with a band of ribbon. At the side is a full bow of loops of narrow black and old rose ribbon. No. 2 is a white sailor, with a very straight brim and a very stiff crown. It is trimmed in the front and at the sides with loops of pale green ribbon, held in place by black quills studded with jets.

To remove these troublesome insects (ants) from cupboard or flower bed saturate a large or small sponge in weak sirup, and place it in their haunts; they will soon permeate the pores of the sponge, when it should be raised quickly and dipped into hot water. It is better to prepare the sponge for the cupboard in the evening, but prepare it for the flower bed in the morning. It will require a little time and patience to be entirely rid of them.

"When your heart is bad, and your head is bad, and you are bad clean through, what is needed?" asked a Sunday-school teacher of her class. "I know—Ayer's Sarsaparilla," spoke up a little girl, whose mother had recently been restored to health by that medicine.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water on to the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c. and $1

"It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

GERMANY'S SMALL ARMS.

A Member of the Reichstag Sentenced for Libelling a Manufacturer—He Will Not Be Imprisoned.

BERLIN, Dec. 10.—The public prosecutor contends that the case of libel against the prisoner, Ahlwardt, had been proved. There was no justification whatever in the charges made by Ahlwardt that Loewe manufactured defective rifles and sold them to the Government.

The public prosecutor closed by demanding that the court sentence Ahlwardt to 13 months' imprisonment.

Ahlwardt spoke in his own defence. He maintained that he had furnished confirmation of all his statements, and had only failed to substantiate his conclusions. He admitted that he originally wrote his pamphlet for anti-Semitic purposes, but afterwards urged the public authorities to inquire into the matter. He did not aim to shaken the confidence of the soldiers in the weapons, but he sought to induce the War Office to remove useless rifles.

Rector Ahlwardt has been sentenced to five months' imprisonment.

The Hamburger-Correspondent says: There is a strong feeling in military quarters that no further orders for rifles should be given to private firms. All rifles should be manufactured by the Government.

It is also reported that owing to irregularities proved to have occurred in Loewe's factory a number of superior officers believe that their rifles should be returned and replaced by State-made weapons.

A motion to exempt Rector Ahlwardt from arrest, on the ground that he is a member of the Reichstag, has found the necessary support, and it will be introduced in the Reichstag immediately after Ahlwardt's election is formally announced in the Reichstag.

In passing sentence on Ahlwardt the judge declared that the charge that the rifles were illegally stamped proved to be unfounded. The military test of Loewe's guns had given brilliant results. Ahlwardt's numerous libels upon private persons and upon Gunmaker Kirch were punishable by law. If such men as Ahlwardt existed by hundreds nobody could safely venture upon the streets.

Nothing could justify the plea that he had acted for the public interest.

The London Post's Berlin correspondent says: The public prosecutor, referring to the stolen documents on which Ahlwardt based his charges that the Loewe rifles needed repairs after manœuvres, said that it had been shown that the soldiers themselves had tampered with the rifles.

The inference is that the anti-Semitical agitation spread to the Landwehr. There was a sensation in court.

The lightness of the sentence excited surprise.

DEAD WALL NEWS.

The Intense Anxiety with Which the French Government Is Watched.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The Paris correspondent of The Times says: Soon after 6 o'clock last evening a cluster of people was observed reading on a poster on the walls of the Ministry of Marine building the declaration which had been read tremblingly only two hours before by Premier Ribot.

The speed with which the poster was gotten out indicates the intense anxiety with which the Government is watched, and which it is quite powerless to withstand.

It is what I have throughout called a conspiracy, not only against the Republic, but against the State, couched in terms of high-minded patriotism. M. Ribot's statement places recent incidents in their proper perspective, recalling the all but frenzied or bewitched deputies to a proper sense of their responsibilities and obligations.

Had yesterday's attempt failed to bring quietude, President Carnot himself would have been insulted and his official existence would have been menaced. Happily time and cleverness, working on the same side, discovered how to avert the thunderbolt.

From the ambassadors, representatives of two parties to the Dreibund watched Premier Ribot's literally trembling fingers as they fumbled the leaves of his statement, and all listened with breathless expectancy.

At the conclusion of the Premier's speech the whole Left and Centre gave a ringing shout of approval, and word went round the galleries, "He has a majority."

The London Chronicle's Paris correspondent says: "There is no sign of any coolness on the part of his colleagues in the Chamber toward M. Proust. The chief sufferer seems to be Joseph Reinach, who has lost all chance of being appointed to the next vacant embassy."

Albert Grevy will probably be disbarred, while M. Renault will escape this fate.

The general effect on public opinion is now at its worst. The names of 50 senators and deputies who accepted Panama bribes are now freely mentioned. It is useless to deny that the existence of a popular pretender at the present moment would imply imminent danger of upsetting the republic.

This, however, is out of the question, national apathy being dominant.

No better preparation for the hair has ever been invented than Ayer's Hair Vigor. It restores the original color to faded and gray hair, and imparts that natural gloss and freshness, everyone so much admires. Its reputation is world-wide.

Mrs. Maybrick's Illness.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The Baroness de Roques, mother of Mrs. Maybrick, says her daughter is still alive but [illegible] to take food, and a doctor is [illegible] and night. The baroness added: "I have no hope for her life myself, but I want her release so that she may die free and away from here with me to care for her in her last hours."

The Home Office to-day refuses to give any information regarding Mrs. Maybrick's case. Mr Foster, the Acting Secretary of State, has instructed the American Legation here to interfere on behalf of Mrs. Maybrick with Lord Rosebery, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. Lord Rosebery recently declined to interfere.

ANOTHER CANARD.

Van Horne Does Not Intend to Make Boston His Steamer Terminus.

MONTREAL, Dec. 10.—A Boston paper stated that Van Horne, in an address to the Merchants' Association there, said he intended to make Boston, instead of Halifax, a terminal point for the coming line of C.P.R. trans-Atlantic steamers.

Van Horne positively denies that he made such a statement.

A Master Move.

MANCHESTER, Dec. 10.—At a meeting of the representatives of the Masters' Cotton Federation and the Northeast Lancashire Manufacturers' Association a resolution was adopted in favor of the members of the Lancashire associations running their mills only three days in the week.

If the resolution is generally enforced it will have serious consequences for the strikers in South Lancashire, who depend largely upon the weekly levies from the northern operatives, who will be unable to continue this support if the short time is enforced.

An Heiress Out $30.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The Herald says: Miss Emma Van Norden, the eldest daughter of Mr. Warner Van Norden, president of the Bank of North America, who is well known in society, has joined the Salvation Army and is a full-fledged uniformed soldier.

Coffee Crop in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 10.—Statistics show the coffee crop this year in all the coffee growing districts will amount to $8,000,000. Agricultural exports will be larger than ever during the coming year, thus ending the country's trouble occasioned by the decline in silver.

SCROFULA 12 YEARS

Always Sore. Burned Like Fire. Ashamed to be Seen. Got Worse Under Four Doctors. Cured by Cuticura.

For about ten or twelve years I have been troubled with scrofula. My head was always sore, my face was dry and scaly, and burned like fire most of the time. My body had big red spots on it, and I did not know what to do. I went to four different doctors and they helped me at first. In the fall I got worse again; then I tried other remedies, but they did me no good. I was ashamed to go into public. I was a sight to look at. Every one would say, "What is the matter, why don't you take something?" Even at my daily labor I had to wear a sort of cap to keep the dirt from getting into the sores. After I would wash, I would be covered with big red pimples all over my neck and face. Some two or three people advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I did try them, and am glad I have done so. Glad to say I am a well man, and in the best of health since. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too highly. I enclose my portrait.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL COUNTERFEIT

Is the one which is so NEARLY like the real thing as to be often mistaken for it. The business of turning out Ready-Made Clothing is carried on upon lines, in some cases, so near those of the honest manufacturer, that its products look and sell nearly as well, and deceive many good people into believing that it is just as durable as the article honestly made up.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

Appearances are very often disappointing, and scarcely ever more frequently than in the matter of Clothing. It is satisfactory, therefore, to know that you have a safe investment—always. We mean that you can never be deceived by it—that it is never misrepresented—and that the goods that bear our name and stamp, carry with them our own guarantee.

IN GRAFTON'S CLOTHING

If people would look a little deeper than what appears on the mere surface, they would soon see the difference between good and counterfeit Clothing. The one is constantly putting something solid into its structure, which will stand the wear and tear, while the other is full of dressing and shoddy, which cannot stand even the light of the sun.

Besides we sell DIRECT to our customers at close WHOLESALE PRICES, thus saving them a straight TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

NO WONDER PEOPLE LOOK SURPRISED

as they pass our store and see good garments marked at such low prices. That line of $6.50 Suits and $6.50 Overcoats, for instance, are surprisers, and are being picked up more quickly than expected. We are honestly selling twice as many as anticipated, but we have stock enough to meet all demands, if you come before New Years.

The demand for Boys' Overcoats and Suits has also increased this week, and we are quite prepared for any rush. Prices $1.50 to $5.75.

GETTING UP A RECORD.

CANADIAN NICKEL APPRECIATED IN THE U. S. AND ENGLAND.

The Secretary of the American Navy Sounds the Praise of the Metal in No Uncertain Tones—He Says in His Annual Report It Has Made His Vessels the Best in the World.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The Secretary of the Navy in his annual report pays particular attention to the Harveyized nickel-steel compound, the tests of which have, he says, never been equalled or even approached before by any armor plate, American or foreign.

It has demonstrated that the United States in the reconstruction of its new navy, which 10 years ago had no existence, even on paper, is enabled to place upon each and all of its armored vessels a material the like of which the world up to the present time has not seen, and that while vast sums have been spent in plating the sides of foreign men-of-war with an inferior metal this country will employ for the purpose an armor which is not only far more efficient, but which represents unquestionably, having reference to the dimensions of plates thus far tested, the highest development of modern science.

A Test in England.

Following the example of the United States the English Government four weeks ago held a trial of the American armor, and it is clear from the highly successful results of the trial that the United States instead of being last in the race in the construction of vessels of war or of borrowing its best ideas from abroad, has set an example in this respect which other maritime powers will speedily follow.

The Secretary refers to the appropriation of $1,000,000 made by Congress for the purchase of nickel matte and shows what has been done with it.

The first purchase was a quantity valued at $50,000 from the Canadian Copper Company, and, after making further experiments, the Department came to a decision, the correctness of which subsequent developments have fully confirmed, to employ this material in the manufacture of armor.

A contract was entered into June 15, 1891, between the Canadian Copper Company and the United States, represented by the Secretary of the Navy, for the purchase of 4000 tons of nickel and copper matte.

The Secretary then gives the figures paid out by his department to the Canadian Copper Company, on purchase account, $321,381.86, and the total cost, including freight, refining, etc., $395,039.

POISONED BY STRIKERS.

It is Said That Scores of Non-Union Men at Homestead Are Victims.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 12.—A Sunday paper published a startling story of a conspiracy to poison by wholesale the non-union men at the Carnegie steel plant in Homestead.

The developments made, it is said, implicate members of the Advisory Committee, members of the amalgamated associations and officers of some of the labor organizations sympathizing with the locked-out men at Homestead.

As a result of this conspiracy it is alleged that several persons have lost their lives, while scores of others are still suffering at their homes and in hospitals from the effects of poisonous drugs administered to them with criminal intent.

To-day nine or more persons identified with the strike are under arrest, ostensibly on less serious charges, but really for the purpose of averting suspicion until all those who are claimed to be in the hellish conspiracy have been secured.

At Homestead the story was pronounced ridiculous.

A. E. Beck, counsel for the Carnegie Steel Company, was seen to-night and confirmed the story of the poisoning. He gave as information that at least six deaths had resulted from poisoning. A Homestead druggist and physician are implicated. The powder was given to a dog and it died in a few minutes. Coroner McDowell has not yet been notified.

The poison was administered in food cooked for the Carnegie men.

BEHRING SEA AFFAIR.

Canadian Investigators Reported at Work in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—A secret sealing commission has been here gathering evidence to be used for the Canadian and English side of the Behring Sea controversy. The commission consisted of Messrs. Sherwood and McPherson, who were appointed by the Premier of Canada.

They have collected evidence from a large number of men engaged in seal poaching, as well as in legitimate sealing. They left yesterday.

AN EDUCATED CONVICT.

An Escaped Forger Recognized in an Opium Smuggler.

TORONTO, Dec. 12.—W. T. McPherson of Toronto, arrested at Detroit charged with smuggling opium from Canada, has been recognized as W. B. McCauley, an escaped convict from Stoney Mountain, Manitoba, Penitentiary.

"McCauley is the man's right name, although he has had a dozen aliases. He is a man of good education and excellent ability, and could not fail to have done well if he had adopted honesty as his policy. He is about 60 years old. His wife is an excellent woman, the daughter of a clergyman. He was sentenced to the Manitoba Prison for ten years on conviction of forgery, and had served about two years when he escaped a year ago last October. He was at work in the office, being regarded as a trusty man, and simply walked off."

FOR UNREQUITED LOVE.

A YOUNG WOMAN LEAVES THE WORLD OF SORROW.

Teenie Hende son Was Wooed and Won by a Young Methodist Minister—He Married Another Lady—Teenie Became Despondent.

HAMILTON, Dec. 12.—The circumstances connected with the death of Teenie Henderson, whose body was found lying on the cold sands of Willow Cove, on the north side of Hamilton Bay, this morning, would furnish all the elements for a sombre romance.

At daylight Saturday searchers found the body of the unfortunate young woman lying on the bay shore. She had died of exposure.

Teenie Henderson lived with her mother and uncle in an ancient-looking old frame dwelling on the bluff overlooking the bay near the Roman Catholic cemetery.

She was a fine-looking young woman, a teacher in the Sunday school, and a member of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor in connection with the neighboring church.

According to the story told a reporter by her uncle, Alexander Henderson, this morning, Teenie was wooed and won by a young Methodist minister who had charge of the church she attended. A little over a year ago she announced her engagement to her friends and her wedding dress was got ready. But something came between them at the last moment, and the girl became despondent and melancholy.

She Became More Despondent.

Meanwhile the young preacher had come to Hamilton to take charge of a prominent congregation and had married here. Miss Henderson became more despondent and gradually her brain seemed to become affected.

A fright she sustained last June, when a couple of drunken city roughs tried to break into the house on a Sunday afternoon, still further aggravated her mental trouble, and soon after she took to her bed and has remained there almost altogether since that time, only getting up at intervals. Physically she was quite well, but her mental trouble seemed to be of a peculiar kind.

Yesterday she was in her room as usual. Mr. Henderson and his sister, who are the only other inmates of the house, were up late. Teenie was in her room then.

They went out to the barn for some purpose, and returning five minutes later found the girl gone. Taking a lantern old Henderson searched in every direction, calling his niece, but could find no traces of her. They searched most of the night, and as soon as it was daylight went out again.

Just in the gray winter dawn they found the body. It was lying in the tangled mass of weeds and drifted flotsam washed up by the waves in the pretty cove just east of Willow Point.

There was nothing on the body but a night-dress, and the deceased lay on her side, the feet only being in the water. It is nearly a quarter of a mile from the house to the bay shore, and she had evidently come down along a rough path in a ravine, for her face and arms were scratched and her feet cut by stones and pierced by thorns.

Would Have Been an Heiress.

"If Teenie had lived," said Mr. Henderson, "she would have fallen heir to a fortune of about $20,000 when her aunt, Mrs. Foulds, who lives on the beach, dies. Her aunt left all her property to her in her will." He admitted that the clergyman had never visited at the house a great deal.

The father of the deceased is said to be living in this city and his name is McAllister, but the girl and her mother had lived with Alexander Henderson since she was born. The Hendersons formerly lived here also.

The clergyman to whom the girl's uncle said she was engaged was shocked at the news of Miss Henderson's death, but smiled when he was told of the reported relation between her and him. "The report is absurdly false," he said.

"I always thought there was something wrong with the poor girl, mentally. She was not actually demented, but was eccentric, and what the neighbors called 'soft.' I am afraid she used to be laughed at a good deal by her acquaintances. Recently Miss Henderson ceased to use my name, and had been telling her friends that she was engaged to Dr. ——" (mentioning a well-known Hamilton physician).

IT REQUIRED NERVE.

A Man of 80 Forced to Act as Undertaker and Sexton for His Son.

EGANVILLE, Ont., Dec. 12.—A sad death occurred in the township of Sherwood, a young man named Reckza, the only support of an aged father, frequented a house in the settlement that diphtheria was in and after returning home complained of symptoms of that dreaded disease, took to his bed and seven days afterwards died, not having secured medical attendance. No one could be found to make a coffin, and his poor old father, aged 80 years, by means of old boards in a rough state made a box and placed his poor boy in it and with his daughter drove a distance of 12 miles to the graveyard in the Polish settlement.

A USEFUL CAREER.

Ended When Success Was Established Beyond a Doubt.

GUELPH, Ont., Dec. 12.—J. B. Armstrong, president of the J. B. Armstrong Manufacturing Company and the Guelph CarriageGoods Company, died this morning after a few days' illness, aged 55.

Deceased was a large and well-known manufacturer for the past 25 years. A few years ago he thought he could compete successfully with the manufacturers of the United States, and he erected a large spring and carriage goods factory at Flint, Mich. The success of that establishment proved he was correct in his calculations.

The Dreibund Still Warm.

ROME, Dec. 10.—Signor Brin, Minister of Foreign Affairs, during a discussion of the budget estimates in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, replied to the statement that had been made to the effect that the Dreibund was becoming cooler. He declared the assertions were bitterly untrue.

Italy, in improving her relations with all the powers, was in complete accord with the powers of the Dreibund, and every evidence of improved relation with any power was regarded as a sign of success of their common policy, which was now beginning to bear fruit.

Italy's success in diminishing distrust abroad was not due to any change in Italy's policy, but to an improvement of the general situation.

A TENDERFOOT'S TRIALS.

SUSPICION OF ATTEMPT AT SLOW POISONING.

Led to Buy a Chicken Farm in Virginia, Kept Drunk and Defrauded Out of $12,000—Brought Out By an Alleged Firm of Montreal Swindlers.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 12.—Last week John F. Swineburne, a young Englishman, left Richmond for New York, and after spending a day or two there with distant relatives sailed for his old home. During his stay in America he got rid of $12,000, which his mother sent him while in this country.

C. E. Richardson, a druggist of Chester, Va., accompanied the young man to New York, and at his suggestion Swineburne, while in that city, made a sworn statement in the presence of the druggist and three members of the New York Young Men's Christian Association as to his experiences while in America.

He said he first went to Montreal in response to an advertisement in English newspapers of a firm there, offering to teach young Englishmen the American mode of farming. They sent him to Covington, Va., where he was met by a man who said he was from Richmond. This stranger told him there was money to be made in poultry raising, and suggested that he stock a farm at Centralia, near Richmond, with chickens. He went with his newly-found instructor to that place and about 100 fowls were bought to start with.

What happened afterward, Swineburne said, was a mystery to him, as he was kept drunk all the time. He remembered that there were three men on the farm, and they made him write to his mother several times for money. But he never saw the money when it came. Finally the whisky given him tasted bitter. He was made to drink it and grew weaker and weaker, until Mr. Richardson took him away from Centralia and brought him to Richmond for treatment.

It was weeks before the effects of constant intoxication were off, and his mind became clear, and then he decided to return to his mother.

Mr. Richardson gave the correspondent the facts so far as known to him.

While in New York Swineburne gave Richardson a power of attorney, and the druggist says he will probe the matter to the bottom. He said the facts in his possession showed that Swineburne's mother sent him $12,000 while he was at Centralia, and that the young man saw none of it. Richardson also said that he had evidence to show that efforts were made to dispose of the young man by slow poison.

After being put under the treatment of a Richmond physician it was two months before Swineburne's stomach would retain any food. The men who were with the Englishman at Centralia have left there and Richardson says they are in this city, but he has not at present evidence to convict them if they were arrested.

BANK CLERK ARRESTED.

Charged With Stealing $8700 from the Standard Bank.

TORONTO, Dec. 12.—Angus Pennefather, until recently ledgerkeeper in the Chatham branch of the Standard Bank, was arrested in that town last night on a charge of having stolen $8700 of the funds of the bank.

About three months since Teller Brown of the Chatham branch, son of Mr. James Brown of 74 Melbourne-avenue, Toronto, and a former mathematical master of Upper Canada College, discovered on entering the bank that the cash box was missing from the vault. It was subsequently found in the bank office, minus its contents.

Teller Brown's story was that he had placed the money in the cash box at the conclusion of the day's business, that he had not locked the box owing to the fact that the contents were so bulky that he could not close the lid. He could not remember, however, whether he had locked the cash box in the vault or not.

Ledger-Keeper Pennefather, who was in receipt of the princely salary of $400 per year, was charged with being the perpetrator of the robbery, the detectives claiming that Pennefather observed Teller Brown carelessly place his cash box on the counter behind him at the close of banking hours, that he took advantage of the temporary absence of the teller from his "den" to enter his department and place the box under the ledge, trusting to luck that he would think no more about it, and that he then left the bank. That two hours later he entered the bank on the representation that he had no cash and wished to fill out a blank check, but actually for the reason that he wished to see if his scheme had worked; that a visit revealed the cash box in the place he left it, Brown having apparently forgotten all about it; that a couple of hours later he visited the bank, carried off the money and still has it in his possession.

Pennefather was dismissed by the bank authorities, not because they charged him with the robbery, but because he married without the consent of the officials.

Pennefather denied his guilt, and the authorities took no steps to arrest him. Mr. James Brown, the father of the teller, paid the bank $4000 in cash, and the Security Company made good the balance of the loss. Teller Brown was transferred to Parkdale. Accountant Gordon was also transferred to Toronto, and other changes were made in the bank.

A few days ago General Manager Brodie of the Standard Bank in this city received an anonymous letter concerning the robbery, and as the result of this the long-delayed apprehension of Pennefather was decided upon. He will have a hearing before the Magistrate at Chatham to-day.

Pennefather is well known in this city. He was for some time a member of the Northwest Mounted Police and was subsequently with the Federal Bank. For two years he had been with the Standard.

Telegraphers' Strike.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Chief Ramsay of the Order of Railway Telegraphers declared yesterday that the Rock Island operators' strike was on in full force, despite General Manager St. John's denials and counter statements. "The Rock Island side tracks are already blocked with freight trains, and the freight business of the road is at a standstill," he said.

The Penalty is Severe.

WINDSOR, Dec. 10.—Charles Little, jr., of Sandwich East was arrested yesterday charged with seducing Ida Springsteen. The girl charges Little with accomplishing her ruin under the promise of marriage.

Little's father is one of the best known men in North Essex.

The prisoner was released on $2000 bail, his father and himself being the sureties.

Two Fires in Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Dec. 10.—A frame storage building in Wellington-street north, property of the Hamilton Vinegar Works, was burned this morning along with the contents, which included about 50 barrels of sugar. Loss covered by insurance.

The Orange Hall in King-street was gutted by fire last night.

SPRINGVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

This vicinity is already noted for its numerous enterprising farmers and fancy stock men each one honestly vieing with each other for the lead in their respective businesses. I have already had the pleasure of inspecting and noting for some of the old established stockmen, but I have now the pleasure of adding another to the numerous list of fancy stock breeders in the person of Mr. Andrew Hogg who resides on a large farm consisting of three hundred acres west of Springville, which might be described as rather mountainous, the house standing on the highest promontory in the land, in fact high enough to have allowed one of the ancient Termagants of being perceived and heard on the northern borders of Egypt. Mr. Hogg is an Irishman, born forty years ago, the twelfth of July last in the county Tyrone, Ireland. He emigrated to this country, when twelve years old, with his parents. After following various pursuits in life he finally married and settled in Manvers on a farm; subsequently he came to the front and leased a farm within six miles of the birthplace of Mr. Bonner, the renowned horseman of America, for a term of years which consisted of very high and low land, the flats being rich alluvial soil. Mr. Hogg is just in his prime, somewhat strongly built with a broad intellectual head and the stamp of enterprise on every feature and possesses the frank genial disposition that characterizes all true breed men of his (Mr. Hogg's) race. Mr. Hogg is one of the successful farmers and attributes his success to his inherent knowledge of stock and always keeps his farm well stocked with a full supply of pigs, sheep, cattle and horses. Of the latter he has now near a score and they are only to be seen to be admired. The first of his numerous animals is a beautiful dark brown stallion, "Little Harry" was foaled in the summer of 1888, and is without doubt one of the finest horses in Central Ontario, possessing a fine, clean flat limb, with a well set neck, and a fine head, with a docile disposition. This excellent road stallion has had very little training, but promises to be very fast, showing a clean, even style when trotting, and has done his mile in less than three minutes. Such noted horsemen as Mr. Edward F. Sutton, Mr. S. Staples, Mr. Jno. Irwin and others, have already seized the opportunity of using this noted animal, but this cannot be wondered at when the pedigree of Little Harry is looked over, having such noted blood in his veins as Kendell, a stallion with a record of 2:25; he by Mambrino Chief, one of the most noted sires in the trotting world; dam by Henry Clay, record 2:28. The dam died young and promised to be very fast. He (Little Harry)) is a full brother in blood to the greatest trotting stallion in all Great Britain—Blutcher, having been held at a service fee of 15 guineas or $75 and owned by D. Biddle, of Black Hall, Paisley, Scotland. Blutcher is the sire of Mr. Daly's horse, Blackstone, which trotted a few weeks ago in Toronto, making the fastest time of the season on the Woodbine track. Mr. Hogg has evidently a first class horse in Little Harry, and with his superior knowledge of horse-training, we may expect a record below 2:10.

Mr. Hogg has a two-year old stallion (Aron), which is a picture to gaze upon. He stands nearly 15 hands high, and weighed on Mr. Tully's scales, Springville, 1,150 lbs., a remarkable weight for a blood two year old. He is a bright mahogany bay with fine clean limbs; bred by Little Harry; dam a running mare; sire by Lexington, one of the most noted sires in his day. This colt is just being broken at present. Mr. Hogg says he promises to be very fast.

Another bright bay three-year-old gelding stands 16¼ hands high, weighs 1,250 lbs.; sired by Strideaway, a record of 2.24¼; he by Princeps, the sire of Trinket, record 2.14¼. This noted horse has twenty-three others in the 2.30 class and six in the 2.20 list, which is a remarkable showing for any horse; dam by Betty Clay he by Howard Clay. No record, but showed pieces in 2.35.

Mr. Hogg has a number of well bred brood mares sired by such noted horses as General Stanton, Aberdeen, Forest, Mambrino, and others, of great racing records. Space will not permit justice being done in giving a fair pen picture of the premises and this well selected blood stock. Suffice it to say that the farmers of this district entertain a most liberal feeling towards Mr. Hogg for his enterprise, and hope that he and his estimable family may at no distant date realize their fondest hope of being in possession of some of the most valuable horses in North America.

LOCAL LEGAL.

The following cases of local importance were heard at the Chancery Division (divisional court), on Friday last before Mr. Chancellor Boyd and Justice Meredith:

Carton v. Bradburn.—Watson, Q.C., for the defendant, appealed from the judgment of Falconbridge, J., at the trial at Peterborough, in so far as it prevented the defendant from setting off his extra costs incurred by reason of the action having been brought in the High Court, against the damages and costs recovered by the plaintiff. The trial judge allowed the plaintiff costs on the County Court scale, and directed that the defendant should not have any set-off of his extra costs. Counsel for the defendant contended that there was no "good cause" under rule 1,172 for depriving the defendant of his set-off, and consequently that under McNair v. Boyd, 14 P. R., 132, the judge had no power to prevent the costs following the event. E. B. Edwards (Peterborough), for the plaintiff, opposed the motion. Reserved.

Finlay v. Pope.—A. P. Poussette, Q.C., for the defendant, moved to set aside the verdict and judgment for the plaintiff in an action for seduction tried before Falconbridge J., and a jury at Peterborough and to dismiss the action for a new trial on grounds of law and evidence and on the ground of surprise. The plaintiff's daughter swore to the alleged seduction having taken place at a different date from that alleged by her in other proceedings taken by her. W. R. Riddell and E. B. Stone (Peterborough), for the plaintiff, opposed the motion. Order made for a new trial on payment by the defendant within a month of the costs of this motion and of all costs or proceedings rendered useless by reason of a new trial.

O'Leary v. O'Grady.—A. P. Poussette, Q.C., for the plaintiff, moved to set aside the verdict and judgment for the defendant in an action tried beore Falconbridge J. and a jury and for a new trial. Geo. Edmison (Peterborough), for the defendant, appeared to oppose the motion, but was not called on. Motion dismissed with costs, the court expressing the opinion that the udfortunate accident had been brought about by the act of the deceased himself.

COUNTY COURT DOCKET.

List of Cases Entered for Trial at the County Court and General Sittings of the Peace Which Open Here To-morrow.

The County Court and general sittings of the peace will be held at Peterborough to-morrow afternoon at 10 o'clock, before His Honor Judge Weller. The civil docket is a small one, numbering only five cases.

THE CIVIL DOCKET.

Alford vs. Clarke—This is an action entered by Robt. Alford of Douro township, against George Clarke, a retired farmer residing in Peterborough to recover the sum of $200 damages for breach of contract in lease and demolition of the plaintiff's buildings. W. H. Moore for plaintiff, John Burnham for defendant.

Revill vs. Tallman—In this action J. O. Revill lumber merchant of Lindsay, brings suit against Henry Tallman of the same place to recover the claim of $181.50, amount of promissory note made by Willmott & McIntosh to the order of the plaintiff, who acted therein as agent for the defendant and endorsed and discounted by the plaintiff for the defendant at his request to his use and which said note was paid at maturity by the plaintiff upon default of payment by makers. G. R. Anderson, Lindsay, for plaintiff; R. J. McLaughlin, Lindsay, for defendant.

Kidd vs. McDonald—In this action Daniel Kidd brings action against Chas. McDonald to recover the amount of promissory note of $187.36 with interest at eight per cent. made on 11th day of October 1890, and falling due 14th January, 1891. Hall & Hayes for plaintiff; E. A. Peck, for defendant.

Varty vs. McMillian—In this case Henry Varty, of Belmont township, brings action against Francis McMillan, of Asphodel, to recover the sum of $200 damages for wrongfully converting the plaintiffs chattels to his own use, and depriving the plaintiff of goods, etc. E. B. Stone, for plaintiff; G. A. Payne, Campbellford, for defendent.

Hayes vs. Connors.—This is an action brought by James Hayes, Peterborough, against Martin and Thos. Connors of the same place to recover the sum of $200 for assault and battery. C. W. Sawers, for plaintiff; W. H. Moore, for defendants.

THE CRIMINAL LIST.

The criminal docket is a small one. Mr. R. E. Wood will conduct the Crown business. The only cases to come up are: Jas. Dickson of Keene, on the charge of threatening to do violence with a loaded and cocked shot gun to his wife and members of his family on Nov. 21st last. Dickson, it will be remembered, was arrested by High Constable Cochrane, and received his preliminary trial before County Police Magistrate Edmison, who committed him to stand his trial. Wm. Taylor, sent up on the charge of keeping a house of ill fame, and May McPherson, Georgina Earle, and Rose Elliott, charged with being inmates of the same, will also be dealt with. An appeal has been entered against the conviction made by Police Magistrate in the case of David Doig, tried for committing an assault upon Mrs. Kelly.

The case of Geo. Spencerley, who was committed for trial by Police Magistrate Dumbto last week on the charge of perjury, will also be tried.

THE BIGGEST DAY IN 7 YEARS!

Saturday, December 3rd was the biggest day MR. J. J. SHEEHY has had in seven years. Why is this? Surely not because there is less competition. Certainly not because inducements are not being held out by others. Most assuredly not because prices of farm products are showing an upward tendency. Then why??

Simply because the purchasing public of the town and surrounding country have read Mr. Sheehy's advertisements, have inwardly digested them and have concluded that cheap sale or no cheap sale Mr. Sheehy is bound not to be undersold.

We want every day in December to be a big day. How are we to accomplish this? Simply by offering to the public better value for the money than can be had elsewhere. Just cast your eye over the following quotations:—

All Wool Flannels, 26 in. wide, - -	17½	Good Linen Towels each - - -	5½
9 lb. Wool Blankets, - - - - -	$3.75	Grey Wool Blankets, - - -	31c. a lb.
14 yds. Heavy Grey Canton Flannel,	$1.00	25 yards Factory Cotton, - -	$1.00

These few quotations will probably give an idea of what we are doing and a glance at our BARGAIN TABLE in the centre of our store will convince the most skeptical that when it comes to general bargains we certainly are very decidedly "in it."

MODEL SCHOOL CONCERT.

The annual closing concert of the Model school took place on Wednesday evening last, and was largely attended. The programme was of the best. Rev. Wm. Buchanan, pastor of the Methodist church, occupied the chair and delivered a brief address. The Kindergarten song given by the pupils of the public school was simply fine. Miss B. Scott and Miss L. Miller delighted the audience with a vocal duet. The club-swinging by Miss Maggie and Master Frank Cox of Peterborough, was excellent. Misses Roxburgh and Pettigrew and Messrs. Finlay and Callander in a quartette fairly captivated the audience and had to reply to an encore. An instrumental duet by Misses Irwin and Miller was well rendered. A dialogue by the following, Messrs. Cragg and Rutherford and Misses Pakenham and Waddell was fairly well rendered. Miss Lillie Scott, who is becoming renowned as a reader, delighted the audience with one of her selections. A duet by Miss Roxburgh and C. N. Callender was well received. Miss Galvin and Miss Tudhope delighted the audience with their excellent club swinging. The Orchestra gave a number of selections in their usual excellent style.

This year the honor of reading the valedictory fell upon Miss M. Pakenham. Below is given the address in full:—

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

It is with strangely mingled feelings and varied emotions that we gather to-night at this, our final meeting. A few short days, nay, even hours, many of us go from this pleasant village, it may be to return no more. Before departing, however, it is my duty as well as my privilege to say to you on behalf of the Model students, a brief farewell, and as we are told that "Fare you well" refers to the prosperity of the coming journey rather than to the sadness of present regrets, my words shall be to you of that field into which so many of us now present are soon to enter—the broad field of teaching.

Standing as we do to-night at the entrance to a new life, upon the great bridge that joins the theoretical and the practical, would it not be well for us to look around and about us—back at the finished course behind us with all its pleasant associations, its faded ambitions—forward into the vast unknown with its strange mysteries, its awful responsibilities. What have we gained from the past? Here we have been for the last three months, struggling and striving on, grasping, we hope, some of the great secrets of our profession, learning some of the mysteries of child nature, and gathering, we trust, some facts of knowledge about that curiously complex thing—the human being. But the future, can we look upon it unflinchingly? Have we calmly face its responsibilities, its far-reaching responsibilities without a thought of our own unfitness? Have we that sympathy, rich, powerful, all-pervading human sympathy which should and must envelope the relations of our coming lives? sympathy with those around above and beneath us; that sympathy which is the only bond of union between pupil and teacher; which alone can give a pleasant things to what itself is the most worrying and wearisome of work—teaching, and that sympathy whose absence implies certain failure and whose presence speaks almost invariably for success.

Have we patience—calm, steadfast, abiding patience—a steadfastness that never wavers, that never sleeps? A calm, even dignity that, while it brings respect to the wearer, bears no taint of self consciousness or arrogance?

And above all have we faith—a faith in ourselves, in our work, in our methods? Beyond all these have we faith in knowledge, in human nature, in the great laws that govern our relations with one another and with the world. A sure and certain trust that all things work well "with them that believe" that somehow good will finally triumph over evil.

True it is that the broad, firm permanent faith should not lead us to overlook the difficulties before us, to belittle our coming struggle, to despise our responsibilities. Be it far from us to imagine that the keeping of school, the correcting of children, the drawing of salary, is the all in all of our work. Greater, nobler, farther reaching than these results should be our aim. Ours it is to deal with budding intelligence, develop growing tendencies, arouse dormant thought, excite benevolent emotions, nay, to set in motion all those complex chords of mind, body, and soul, which once vibrating will vibrate for ever to the weal or woe of an everlasting being. Ours it is to shape, in no small degree, the destinies of many mortals, ay them, to no slight extent, for this world's struggles and arm them, however weakly, for the next world's victories. And this is no light task; none of us shall reach perfection in it. Hopeless perhaps in our striving, but dare we refuse the task, is there no reward for even each slight measure of success? Aye, and the richest? To help on one staggering mortal towards the goal of life, to give to one soul broader, richer views of human existence, nay, to stir up one noble thought, arouse one kindly emotion, here surely is a reward.

Not uselessly have we lived, and not regretted die we die, if, behind us, we can leave the memory of a kindly deed or a kindly word springing from a kindly heart.

And now my task is almost done. On behalf of the Model class I bid you all a long good bye. To the principal and assistants of the Model School I say farewell with loyal gratitude. Yours has been the task to bear with our ignorance and conceit and to bear with patience. On your shoulders has been the burden of our training, and now that the race is run, the goal reached, we thankfully remember your untiring efforts, and from our hearts bid you farewell. To you, ladies and gentlemen of Norwood, our kind friends and ever-ready entertainers, we say good bye with deep regret, the more as we feel that the parting will be one of long duration. To you, fellow-students, we say it is with heartfelt regret, even sorrow, that we regard this separation. Our friendships, sympathies, interests and work have for weeks held us together. Like tiny boats we have side by side sailed on the same placid ocean, but now the wind of self-interest and self-growth will drive us asunder, and therefore I say to you in the last and truest sense of the word—Farewell.

After the concert the students marched over in a body to the residence of the Principal, C. M. Callander. Their purpose was to present him with an address and a handsome oil painting. Mr. Callander replied in some well-chosen words. We are sure that the people of Norwood will wish the Model class of '92 success in their new fields of labour.

Important Announcement to the Public!

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS SALE.

Hall, Innes & Co.

Having decided to retire from the Dry Goods Business in Peterborough announce that they will on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23rd, commence a

GENUINE MAMMOTH CLEARING SALE for CASH

Covering Every Department of their Extensive Business.

HALL, INNES & CO.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Gents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

HALL, INNES & CO.

130, 132, 134 SIMCOE STREET.

FORCED

REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked for renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 8 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, so we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well, if not better, in the future.

LOCAL NEWS.

Pollard's Home Made Bread.

Real, genuine, home-made bread, buns and pastry can always be had at Mrs. Pollard's, 456 George street, a few doors north of the old post office block.

TO LET THE 1st OF JANUARY.

A Good Business Stand—at present occupied by Mr. Jno. Garvey. Now open to lease for a term of years. Apply to James Dolan, at T. Dolan's & Co's corner store. A good man can do a big business.

To the Ladies—On the Quiet.

Ladies! if you want to present your father, husband, lover or son with a nice warm fur cap, cheaper than you can buy it at any fur store, drop into the Montreal clothing store, 390 George street and make your selection before they are gone. It can be packed up and laid away for you on the quiet until Xmas. dw

An Ornate Silver Cup.

The championship cup donated by the staff of the Collegiate Institute to the champion prize winner at the annual athletic games of the Institute held last fall, is on exhibition in the window of Mr. Alex. Gibson, jr. The trophy is a handsome one and of a richly ornamental design, valued at $25. The costly gift is tenable for only one year. Mr. Harry Orde had the glory of winning it for 1892. Inscribed on the bowl of the treasure are the words, Winner, Harry Orde, 1892; and P.C.I. 1892 staff cup.

To-Night! To-Night! To-Night!

The Ball Family in the Charlotte street Methodist church in their splendid entertainment of sweet weird music.

Those who went to hear them in the Charlotte street church yesterday, will be sure to be there to-night. The church was packed.

Everybody was more than charmed with the beauty, sweetness and pathos of the splendid music splendidly sung.

To-night the entertainment will consist of a first class programme of music presented by the eight members of this talented family.

To-night and to-morrow night in the Charlotte street Methodist church. Admission 25 cents.

At the Opera House.

Wilton & Murdock's Company appeared at the opera house on Saturday night last in Sir Walter Scott's great masterpiece, "Rob Roy." The house which welcomed the production was very small. In fact the company all through their Canadian tour have not been meeting success. The play is weak and vague in plot, but there was some excellent acting, and the catchy Scotch songs and airs tickled the ears of the "sons of the heather" who happened to be present. Among the principal characters of the cast, Mr. Wilson Rennie in the title role was a typical "Rob Roy." Mr. Mortimer Murdock in the role Bailie Nicholls Jarvis, was the only member of the troupe who spoke the natural brogue, not at times quite perfect, but still pleasing. Miss Juliet Durand in the impersonation of Helen McGregor, speaks too strong a French accent to be considered a "bonnie lassie of the heather." Some of the costumes worn were gorgeous, the native plaid and kilt being conspicuous.

A Baby Created a Sensation.

About eight o'clock on Saturday evening Constable McGinty received a call from the police station to settle a matter of disturbance on George street. A mother had gone into a George street dry goods store to do some "shopping" and left her baby outside in a carriage in charge of only a small three year old boy. As time wore on and the mother did not return the baby began to cry lustily and soon an immense crowd gathered around the child which was making a most pitiful wail, and completely blockaded the passage on that side. Constable McGinty took the little boy and the baby to the police station. Twenty minutes later the mother appeared at the station and claimed her children. She told the officer in charge that she was purchasing a new piece of millinery and in viewing Turnbull's dainty collection of hats and bonnets, time had sped on in unconscious flight, faster than the mother ever dreamed of, she thinking she was not more than a few minutes absent, whereas in reality it was about 40 minutes.

and find the best place to buy furniture cheap and you'll have no trouble in deciding that H. Newton's, 432 George street, is the spot. All kinds of second hand furniture kept on hand.

Fancy Trimmed Baskets.

For photographs, paper-racks, hairpin holders, letter racks, etc. Commenced work in great variety for Christmas. Fancy ribbons in new shades, suitable for fancy work. Miss JENKINS, 428 George street.

To-Night's Events.

The Ball Family of Jubilee Singers at the Charlotte street Methodist church.

Election of officers in Peterborough Lodge, Sons of England,

Dean's Presentation Party at the opera house, giving a varied performance.

A Window of Ties.

A very attractive window of Ties, made-up and four-in-hand styles, is that of the Montreal Clothing House, 390 George street. These are imported ties — not bankrupt stock — and are in colours, patterns and material to suit every taste. The prices are marked at 10, 15, 20 and 25 cents, and are extraordinary value at that.

Pull Them Down!

The piles of Men's and Boys' Suits and Overcoats stacked up at the Montreal Clothing House are so high that a short man cannot see over them. We will continue to pull them downward. Scatter these great values during this week. Its like finding money to buy your clothing at 390 George street. dw

Y. W. C. A.

During the past week we have had much to encourage us and be thankful for. The meetings have been well attended. At our Gospel meeting Saturday evening one stood up for prayer, another expressed the same desire privately, and nine new members have been added to our membership during the past week.

To-Night!

Dean's Presentation Party will open to-night a six night stand in the opera house. The programme consists of ten superb specialties, comprising ventriloquism, character songs and impersonations, black art, shadowgraphs, wire walking, juggling and laughable farces, also McEvoy's Mirror of Ireland, a collection of historic and picturesque scenes of the Emerald Isle. One hundred costly and handsome presents will be given away nightly. 1d

Death of a Former Citizen.

Word reached town this morning of the death of Mr. Stanfield at Toronto, father-in-law of Mr. George W. Doxsee, formerly of Peterborough but now of Toronto. Deceased gentleman was well known here, having a year or two ago been an employee of the Peterborough Bridge Works, and his many friends will regret to hear of his death. He leaves a family of several grown-up children.

Mark Street Church, Ashburnham.

The Ball Family of Jubilee Singers, who so delighted crowded audiences in the Charlotte street Methodist church yesterday by their sweet selections, will appear at the Methodist chruch, Ashburnham, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. They will give a refined musical entertainment, beginning each evening at 8 o'clock. Be sure to hear them sing some of their Southern melodies. Admission, 25c. 1d

Christian Scientists Organize.

A branch of the Christian Science church has been organized in Peterborough with the following officers: President, Mrs. C. B. Lowe; secretary, Mr. W. Brundrette; treasurer, Mrs. Payne. Committees were also elected and the membership of the new organization is already about fifty. Rev. Isabella Stewart, pastor of Church of Christian Science, Toronto, who recently lectured in Peterborough, will speak here again in the near future, as soon as the local brethren engage a suitable place for worship,

St. Paul's W. F. M.S.

Mrs. Layyah Barakat, a Syrian lady, will deliver addresses in St. Paul's church, Peterborough, on Thursday and Friday evenings, Dec. 15th and 16th, under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, the subject for the first evening being "Her Life and Conversion," and for the second evening "The three Orient Covenants." Mrs. Barakat comes to us highly spoken of. She is a fluent and pleasant speaker and treats her subject in a manner to invest the theme of foreign missions with a new and lively interest. The meetings will be open to both ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. Barakat has spoken in the principal churches of New York City—Dr. John Hall's and Dr. W. W. Taylor's; also Dr. Kittridge's, of Chicago. Wherever she has spoken immense audiences have greeted her, and her addresses have been of a great benefit to the Foreign Missions of the church. Silver collection.

Jubilee L.O.L. No. 178.

The sixth annual meeting of the above lodge was held in their hall on Tuesday evening Dec. 6th. Five years ago this lodge started with only seven members and now they have a membership of sixtv. This shows that the old Orange institution is rapidly gaining in numbers and importance in our midst. The present members hope soon to have at least one hundred on their roll. It is the second best lodge in the county and the appearance of the members rival the famous Nassau men. The following are the officers for 1893:—

Bro. Ed. Mahood	W.M
" John Darling	D.M
" W. Graham	Chaplain
" G. A. Read	R.S
" Jos. Elliott	F.S
" Jos. Archer	Treasurer
" W. J. Taylor	D. of C
" James Marshall	Lecturer
" Robert Bell	1st Com.
" Daniel Mahood	2nd "
" Andrew Young	3rd "
" Wm. Ball	4th "
" F. Middleton	5th "
" Samuel Stinson, Robt. Bell	Auditors

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

—Mr. Chas. Brown, of Toronto, purchased a magnificent team of matched bays at the Cavanagh House on Saturday, one of the animals being 4 years old and the other 5. The figure paid was $375. The horses were purchased from Mr. Matchett of Cavan township. They were bred from Mr. Sam Staple's fine horse, "Lord Sudley."

THE QUESTION OF FIRE PROTECTION.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I heartily agree with the position of Mr. Meldrum as set forth in his letter in your issue of Saturday. He took the course which the peculiar circumstances demanded, and I think he is worthy of praise instead of blame for his discharge of an unpleasant duty.

I think also the other members of the committee as well as the Mayor, have an equal share of responsibility in the matter. It seems to me that nothing in the action he took can justify the Fire Brigade in resigning, whatever other justification they may have had. It also seems to me that the resignation of the Brigade solves one difficulty that existed in the composition of the Fire Brigade that affected its efficiency in an adverse manner. With the Mayor, as he is ex-officio, at the head of the Fire Brigade, with his brother-in-law in the position of chief, and his brother-in-law in turn, in the position of captain, it is unreasonable to expect that the best state of discipline and efficiency would exist. Blood is thicker than water, and it would be more than human for the parties concerned not to take advantage of their relationship, in following out their personal inclinations in the face of the strict demands of duty. Where family influence is added to the tendency of the age it is possible that a state of affairs might exist inimical to the public interest.

Now the Town Council are in a position to organize our fire system on a basis more in keeping with the demands of the town, with its population and importance. A paid Brigade selected from the available material would be far more satisfactory than the conditions that have existed for some past, and the council that will manfully grapple with the question will earn the gratitude of the best element of the citizens of the town.

Yours truly,
CITIZEN.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL'S SOCIETY.

Two Important Resolutions Adopted.

At the regular meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Society held yesterday, the following resolution was carried: That this conference begs to gratefully acknowledge the recept of a gift of the sum of $100, from Messrs. Chas. McGill and Richard Hall, executors of the will of the late Mrs. Nicholls, and that the thanks of the Society are due and are hereby tendered to each of these gentlemen for their generous donation towards the funds of the society, and that the secretary be instructed to forward to them a copy of this resolution.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

At the regular meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Society on Sunday the following resolution was passed:

That by the death of the late Mr. Jno. Doherty, the conference has lost a valued and esteemed official, The members respectfully tender to Mrs. Doherty and her family, heartfelt sympathyy in their bereavement of a faithful and affectionate husband and father. The conference desires to testify and place on record its appreciation of the sterling qualities and long and faithful services of its late treasurer. That the secretary be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to Mrs. Doherty and that this meeting do now adjourn as a token of respect to the memory of a deceased brother.

BIRTH.

PHELAN.—On Sunday, Dec. 11th, the wife of Mr. H. Phelan, 335 Rubidge street, of a daughter (still born.)

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon of Piqua, O., says the Physicians are Astonished, and look at her like one

Raised from the Dead

Long and Terrible Illness from Blood Poisoning

Completely Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Piqua, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an autopsy 5 years ago, and soon terrible ulcers broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out. She weighed but 78 lbs., and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved; could soon get out of bed and walk. She says: "I became perfectly cured by and am now a well woman. I weigh 128 lbs., eat well and do the work for a large family. My case seems a wonderful recovery and physicians look at me in astonishment, as almost like one raised from the dead."

HOOD'S PILLS should be in every family medicine chest. Once used, always preferred.

To Enjoy Life

and rise up fresh from sleep, with a clear head and keen appetite, free from pains or aches, even "sciatica" I would advise all to try St. Leon Water. I never found its equal also, I have sold it for years, and it gives the GREATEST satisfaction all round. Cures where other medicines failed.

THE LATEST PETERBOROUGH SENSATION!

A Great Money Losing Sale

At the Clothing Store Under the Opera House, No. 342.

The entire stock of Winter Overcoats, Suits, Gent's Furnishings, Hats, Caps and Furs, in the store formerly known as the "Grand Union Clothing Hall," must be sold out at whatever prices it will bring.

The peremptory orders leaves only 60 days to clear everything out. The proprietor says:—"Forget profits, forget cost, forget everything—but sell the goods."

This is no bluff, but absolute facts. The slaughter will, therefore, go on to the finish—until the whole business is wiped out of existence.

Better come quickly if you want any of these dead-sure bargains.

FRAZERVILLE CHEESE FACTORY.

Successful and Enjoyable Annual Entertainment.

The annual entertainment of Frazerville cheese factory to signalize the close of the season's operations was held in the factory building on Friday night and was a most gratifying success in every respect. There was a very large attendance of the patrons and their friends, who heartily enjoyed the excellent oyster supper which preceded the intellectual feast. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., was voted to the chair and in a neat little address referred in complimentary terms to the successful outcome of the season's operations, and the quality of the article produced. Mr. Stevenson, M.P., gave a short address upon the general features of farming, and the success of Peterborough farmers as shown by their large bank accounts.

Prof. James, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, gave one of the clearest, most practical and comprehensive addresses on farming and dairying, perhaps, heard in this county. He pointed out the destructive results of continual cropping with grain, involving the selling of crops off the farm and robbing it of its fertility. He showed how dairying and stock raising, while being absolutely profitable, kept up the fertility of the soil. Farmers were advised to keep only good stock—that is cows that give milk enough to pay for their feed. The poor milker should no more be kept than a lazy, shiftless farm servant who did not earn his board. Prof. James' address was admirable and highly appreciated. He is to be regarded as another evidence of the care taken by the Ontario Government in the selection of officials specially fitted to subserve the interests of the farmers. Prof. James, our Deputy Minister of Agriculture, is the right man for the position.

During the evening a choice musical programme was presented. The Ontario Bank quartette sang several selections in fine style. Mr. Nelson sang a very acceptable solo, and Mrs. John Lightfoot's vocal solo was worthy of the hearty encore it received. Mr. Parker gave excellent readings and Mr. Harold Eastwood's recitation was cleverly given.

A Comfort Sometimes.

When health is far gone in Consumption, then sometime only ease and comfort can be secured from the use of Scott's Emulsion. What is much better is to take this medicine in time to save your health.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Mr. A. Millar, of Detroit, is visiting friends in town for a few weeks.

The revival services in the George street church will be continued during all the present week.

In St. Paul's church last evening the choir rendered "Praise ye the Father" in a delightful style.

Rev. Mr. Zimmerman conducted the Christian Alliance services yesterday. Large attendances were present.

St. Andrew's church Sunday school will hold its annual Xmas entertainment between Christmas and New Years.

Messrs. A. Millar, J. Steers, W. Wesley, and W. Squires sang a splendid quartette at the Y. M.C.A. meeting last night.

A business meeting of the congregation of the South Ward Mission of St. John's church will be held on Tuesday evening next.

Mrs. Seward, Mrs. Hamilton and Miss Cole sang an admirable trio "Nearer My God to Thee," in George street church last evening.

Mr. J. C. Turnbull addressed the Sunday evening Y.M.C.A. meeting from Romans, 3th chapter, 1st verse. There was a large attendance.

The annual Christmas tree entertainment of St. Luke's church will be held on Dec. 29th. A fine programme is being prepared for the festive occasion.

The Girls' Guild of St. John's church will hold an entertainment in the Sunday school rooms on Thursday evening, to which all the young people of the congregation are invited.

Arrangements are being made in the Baptist church for special Christmas services in which both the Sunday schools of the Park and Murray street churches will take part.

Miss Hannah Lund, who has been associated in missionary work with Miss Munro of Peterborough for the last few years, will speak in the George street church to-morrow night.

Mr. H. S. Armstrong addressed the Y.M.C.A. meeting on Saturday night. Mr. E. Elcome gave the Sunday evening address at the Auburn mission. The attendance at these meetings was good.

The annual distribution of 'Xmas gifts to the worthy poor of St. John's parish will take place as usual this year. Donations to this cause may be left at the Sunday school rooms on Monday next, Dec. 19th.

Bishop Hawkins, the celebrated coloured preacher, will officiate in George street Methodist church next Sunday and will on Monday night deliver one of his characteristic lectures. Bishop Hawkins lectured in Peterborough some months ago.

Miss Denzil, of the Conservatory of Music, Toronto, has been appointed precentor of St. Andrew's church choir by the Board of Managers in the place recently filled by Mr. A. E. Tilley. Miss Denzil entered upon her new duties yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Goldsmith in St. Paul's church last evening preached a masterly sermon to young men, paying a graceful tribute to the important work being carried on by the Young Men's Christian Association, basing his remarks on Gen. 4th chapter and 9th verse.

A quartette composed of Messrs. Drope and Kingscote and Masters Maitland Boswell and Chas. Seymour, sang a beautiful quartette, "Lovely Appear," by Guonod in St. John's church last evening. Master Boswell took the soprano and Master Seymour the alto solo parts in melodious voices.

Rev. T. H. Carey, of Essex Centre, who happened to be passing through Peterborough, preached in the Murray street Baptist church yesterday morning. His sermon was on the subject of Prayer, which he dealt with in an impressive manner. In the evening Mr. Carey preached at the Park street mission church to a large congregation.

Rev. Mr. Symonds, rector of St. Luke's church, will preach an anniversary sermon at Millbrook, on Friday evening. By a strange coincidence, the anniversary of the church is also the 72nd birthday of the venerable rector, Archdeacon Allen. The usual Friday evening service at St. Luke's, will, in consequence, be held on Thursday evening of this week.

The well known Ball Jubilee Singers were present at both the morning and evening services in the Charlotte street Methodist church yesterday. Their melodious selections pleased and delighted all. The family, which consists of a father, mother, three sons and a daughter, are all talented musicians. They carry their own organ, Mrs. Ball playing all the accompaniments. In the morning they sang "Steal Away" with fine effect. A duet, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," by Mr. Davis and Miss Fawcett, was rendered with fine finish. Rev. Mr. Ball, the eldest son of the family, preached in the morning from the words found in St. John, 15th chapter and 13th verse: "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." His discourse was plain and practical, the preacher being a clear and fluent speaker. In the evening the Ball family rendered two anthems, one of which, "Charming Bells," was particularly fine. The church was filled to the very doors at both services. This talented band of musicians will sing in concert at the Charlotte street church to-night and to-morrow night.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Richard Potbick, proprietor of the British Hotel, Port Hope, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Neilly, Toronto, is in town visiting her sister, at the Grand Central hotel, for a few days.

Mrs. E. Halpin, of Montreal, who has been visiting relatives in town the past month, has returned to the commercial metropolis.

Mr. Geo. Henry, foreman of the Brass department of the Edison Works has resigned his position and will leave for Montreal.

The Centreville correspondent to the Millbrook Reporter says: Mr. J. J. Fair spent a few days in Peterborough this week visiting friends.

Mr. J. F. Magratt, superintendent of the Edison Works, has returned from a three weeks visit to Clifton Springs much improved in health.

Mr. Bruce Brown, of the Dundas Edge Tool Works, and brother of Mr. C. C. Brown, is spending a short vacation in town on a visit to relatives.

Mr. Robert Pegnam, Mr. W. C. McCrea, of Keene, and Mr. W. Bingham, of Oakwood, have entered the Peterborough Business College for full courses.

Mr. Chas. Tucker, of Wm. Johnston & Co., (Ltd) hardware dealers, who has been spending a few weeks in Peterborough left for Montreal last night.

Mr. Wm. Cardwell, proprietor of the Cardwell House, is able to be out again after having been laid up for some time, the result of a runaway accident some days ago in which he was badly shaken up.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Dec. 12th.

At the police court this morning one firm of merchants were fined $5 for an infraction of the early-closing by-law. A retail liquor merchant was fined fifty dollars and costs for selling liquor in less quantities than permitted by law. One hotel keeper was fined fifty dollars and costs for selling liquor to an inebriate after having been notified prohibiting the sale. Another hotel keeper was fined $20 and costs for having a light in his bar room on Sunday evening. Another case of larceny was held over until four o'clock this afternoon.

Remember the auction sale of the late A. Rutherford's real estate. For particulars see posters. Sale on the 14th December at the Morgan House.

When the kidneys are clogged, good health is an impossibility; but when working properly the reverse is the case. That dull back-ache is the kidney's cry for relief. If Dodd's Kidney Pills are used the result will be marvellous. We emphatically state that we have never known a case of kidney decease that a persistent use of Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure.

TELFORDIAN TEMPERATURE TOPICS.

The month now gone brings us into the last of our series. Its out-going brings the final of the year. In looking over the ups and downs of November we find it exceedingly high in downfall, although not of extreme temperature. The month, as a rule, was fine, coming in with the thermometer indicating 43 degrees and at 1 p.m. 55 degrees, which was never exceeded. But again on the 23rd it went down to 12 degrees and at 1 p.m. only 23, which was the coldest day, leaving the mean temperature of the month at 33 degreer. Rain fell on 11 days and the different snows on 11 days with their equivalent of water, the two making the depth of 5 inches, which is high for November. The ploughing was first stopped on the morning of the 5th, but ploughed again some time on to the 22nd, when they were stopped for the season. We had the first sleighing on the 10th, although nothing of any consequence. We had twice halo and once solar. We had thunder on the 17th and 18th, but the rain was not much. We had once fog and once a thick hanging white frost, but no auroral lights, a rare thing at this time of the year. The following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month:—South-east 4 days, east 3 days, south-west 7 days, north-west 6 days, west 1 day north 2 days, south 1 day, and north-east 6 days.

Alarm Clocks!

There are a great many small Alarm Clocks which have been running for a few years and are now out of order, which the owners are allowing to remain idle, because they think it will cost too much to repair them. If you bring them to us you will find that we will make them run as well as they ever did, at a very small charge. We have already changed hundreds of them from being merely rubbish into good timepieces. If you want to buy a new one, we will sell you an Alarm Clock at a lower price than any one else in the trade. We sell only the very best make and warrant every one.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Self-help is the best kind. It develops us and eases the community, which is thus left free to aid those who cannot help themselves.

A Mistake.—Instructor in Latin—Miss B., of what was Ceres the goddess? Miss B.—She was the goddess of marriage. Instructor—Oh, no; of agriculture. Miss B. (looking perplexed)—Why, I am sure my book says she was the goddess of husbandry.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Duke of Norfolk will have something to look after in the two thousand pilgrims who are to follow him to Rome. The wealthy Catholics of London are going to pay the expenses of the poor people, who will see the Continent and all the mysteries of the Holy City in comfort.

El Espartero, the toreador who was carried from the arena in Madrid to all appearances a dead man, from a wound in the chest by the horns of a bull, is reported nearly all right again, and hopes to be able to go on with his performances again next week. The espada takes this kind of thing as a tonic.

A clerical critic comments upon dull sermons, and does not hesitate to assert that prosing in the pulpit is nothing but the public expression of dozing in the study. If the preacher is drowsy in the latter, what wonder that the congregation are drowsy when he comes to stand in the former?

The heir to the kingdom of Italy, Prince Victor Emmanuel, etc., of Naples, reached the age of twenty-three a few weeks ago. He is a young man of studious temperament, who would probably be happier in private station than on the throne. He would like, it is said, to marry the pretty Princess Clementine of Belgium if the Pope would give his consent.

Miss Ella Knowles, the Attorney-General-elect of Montana, is thus described: "She has all a woman's keen sensibilities and tender sympathies, and all the roughness of western life with which she has come in contact has not impaired these qualities. In appearance she is more like a demure young matron than a stern Portia. She is of medium height, neither thin nor stout, and has a face which, while strong and firm, is also pretty."

George Washington was commander-in-chief of the army at the age of 43; Cromwell entered on his remarkable career at 40; Napoleon conquered Italy before he was 30; Gladstone was a member of Parliament at 23; Macaulay began his literary career at 20; Columbus started on his voyage of discovery at 36; Frederick the Great began his thirty-years' war at the age of 30, and Blackstone finished his commentaries before he was 35.

Rear Admiral Stephenson, the new commander of the British squadron in the Pacific, has been in her Majesty's navy for forty years and saw active service in the Crimea, in China and during the Indian mutiny. It was Capt. Stephenson, as he then was, who was in command of the Heron gunboat on the Canadian lakes during the Fenian disturbances, and he had charge of her Majesty's ship Discovery in the Arctic expedition of 1875-76. Rear Admiral Stephenson was formerly a naval aide-de-camp to the Queen, and he has been an equerry to the Prince of Wales since 1878.

TWO AT HOME.

One of the figures in the sketch herewith wears a dress of woollen material, with a wavy stripe of moss green silk, trimmed with a shaded green fringe; yoke and cuffs of Russian galons, and black silk ribbon. The young girl is clad in a dress of otter-colored cloth trimmed with rows of jet, collar band, etc., of Russian galons in shades of otter and gold. She is belted at the waist.

Of all the belts I ever see, this seems the smartest belt to me. To leave poetry, this is the belt, and it will make an Empire gown out of a Mother Hubbard. One of the pretty Mother Hubbards, you know, that haven't a yoke, but that fall from the neck-band. This belt is a neck-band. Down the front from the neck-band runs a piece twice as wide. Just at the beginning of the breast line this belt divides in two, one part of it going to the right, the other going to the left. The two parts go around the body and meet in the back, making, you see, the required short-waisted effect. The neck band fastens in the back, too. So you go into a sort of harness, and you can see it will make a whole dress out of any princess gown that falls straight and full from the neck. A little ingenuity, and you get a low neck, if you want it. That is it. Just a little ingenuity and a belt or something like that, and you can do most anything these days.

FLORETTE.

The great value of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh is vouched for by thousands of people whom it has cured.

A Sensible Man would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merits of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c. and $1. dw

TEA TABLE TALK.

Colonel Robert Ingersoll is an enthusiastic collector of bric-a-brac.

"She's a very upright young lady." "Yes, but she's bent on matrimony."

"A sneeze ain't got much business enterprise," said Tommy; "every one's got to stutter in the nose a minute 'fore it goes off."

There is a colored prisoner working in the Alabama mines who can speak in twelve languages.

Edison, the electrician, is satisfied with cracked wheat and cream for lunch and dines as plainly as if he was still a poor operator who had to count every quarter he expended.

Judge (to woman arrested for shoplifting)—When did you begin this thing? Woman (weeping)—I began by picking my husband's pockets at night while he was asleep. Then the descent was easy.

The difference between the State and the church is this: The State says, "You must"; the church says, "You ought." The one means restraint, the other constraint. That stands for compulsion; this for conscience.

Too Rough.—Maud—When you said yes, did he draw you gently to him, kiss you passionately, and then did you hide your blushing face on his breast. Angelina—Not much. He had on one of those Scotch tweed suits.—Clothier and Furnisher.

A GUIDE TO MATRIMONY.

The right kind of candy; the right kind of nerve;
A carriage kept handy; good dinners to serve;
A theater party; the jeweler's gold;
A mien blithe and hearty—a trifle too bold;
The right kind of chaffing; the right kind of sense;
The joke that sets laughing; the ardor intense;
With these little trifles any man can Win love—if he's really the right kind of man.

Feeble and capricious appetites are best regulated by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They do not debilitate, by excessive stimulation; but cause the stomach, liver, and bowels to perform their functions properly. As an after-dinner pill, they are unequaled.

A Great Surprise

is in store for all who use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, the great guaranteed remedy. Would you believe that it is sold on its merits and that any druggist is authorized by the proprietor of this wonderful remedy to give you a sample bottle free. It never fails to cure acute or chronic coughs. All druggists sell Kemp's Balsam. Large bottles 50 cents and $1. aw

To get relief from Indigestion, biliousness, constipation or torpid liver without disturbing the stomach or purging the bowels, take a few doses of Carter's Little Liver Pills, they will please you.

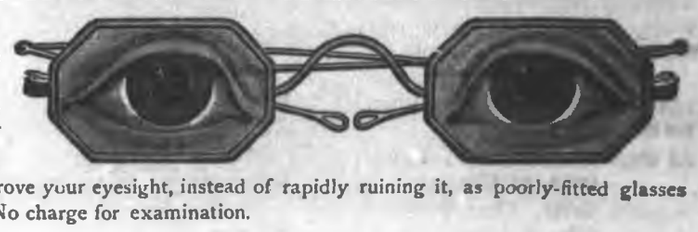
OPTICAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR LATEST SPECIALTY, AND ONE THAT IS GIVING THE GREATEST SATISFACTION.



THE value of Spectacles and Eyeglasses depends on the skill of the Optician. We are skilled. In addition to my long practical experience, I have taken a course of special instruction in optics at the Chicago Opthalmic College, and learned the latest and best methods of ascertaining the different defects of the eyes and their proper correction, so that I can fit you properly with glasses that will strengthen and improve your eyesight, instead of rapidly ruining it, as poorly-fitted glasses always do. Bring your whole family and have their eyes examined. No charge for examination.

We keep on hand a full and complete stock of the BEST Optical Goods that are manufactured, including pure White Axis Cut Brazillian Pebbles, which we are prepared to furnish in the newest and best styles of Frames for Spectacles and Eye Glasses, in gold, silver, nickel, aluminum and steel. Telescopes, Opera and Field Glasses, Reading and Magnifying Glasses, Microscopes, Thermometers, Lorgnettes, &c. Spectacle and Eye Glass Cases of all kinds, including the latest styles of Chatelain Cases, which are now the most fashionable Gold, Gold Plated, Silver and Silk Eye Glass Guards.

A LIBERAL POLICY.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always gives rise to dissatisfaction and dispute, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

LIVE STOCK NOTES.

Use dry straw for bedding.

Small hogs make the best meat.

The eye of the owner fattens the stock.

Oil meal with bran makes a capital ration.

A thrifty hog should never squeal for his food.

A few hogs are necessary to eat up the waste.

A little turpentine in the feed is good for worms in hogs.

Select the largest, most growthy and best sows for breeders.

The most essential items with hogs are good health and thrift.

It is always an item to feed growing pigs for bone and muscle.

One or more good brood sows is a positive necessity on every farm.

Too much fat with growing pigs will check the growth of bone and muscle.

Hogs kept by neat, systematic farmers are generally the freest from disease.

When skim milk is fed to the pigs a little bran and oil meal stirred in will greatly improve it.

Keep the bedding and remove the bedding material sufficiently often to keep it from becoming foul.

Brood sows thrive better with plenty of range during the day and a warm place to sleep in at night.

The start that a pig gets in the first three months of its life has much to do with its thrift and future profit.

Sheep Shearings.

Especially when on dry feed sheep need a good supply of water.

To keep sheep healthy they require a frequent change of food.

Care should be taken to clean out the mangers of feed racks regularly.

Never allow sheep to be frightened or run by a dog or in any be disturbed.

A sheep kept thrifty will shear a heavier and better fleece than one poorly kept.

In commencing to feed grain to sheep, feed a small quantity at first and gradually increase.

The farmer that is too careless to give sheep good care will do better with some other class of stock.

The days are for feeding and the nights are for repose, and with no stock is this more the case than with sheep.

Sheep of different ages and conditions should be sorted into different lots and the weaker ones have a little better feed.

With comfortable surroundings, which implies dry, warm shelter and regular feeding, a small amount of grain be made to count.

Wide sliding doors are best for the sheep sheds as it lessens the risks of slamming on them or of their injuring themselves by crowding in.

Bee Notes.

There is more nutriment in one pound of honey than in five pounds of pork.

There is very little honey upon the market this year, either in comb or extracted.

A large capital is not necessary to be successful with bee-keeping; one should have a love for bees and a good location where there is plenty of honey-producing plants in the vicinity.

A writer in the Bee-Keeper's Guide says that he thinks his bees need salt as much as the horses, hogs or cattle, and he keeps a supply of water that has been slightly salted near them, and they prefer it to fresh water.

A writer in Bee-Keeper's Review says if bees are wintered in the cellar they should be put there about Nov. 10 to 20, and the cellar should be dry, well ventilated, pure and sweet, and should be kept at a temperture of forty-five degrees. If wintered on their summer stands they should be in chaff-packed hives, with good roof that will exclude snow or rain.

Poultry Pickings.

A crop of clean large fowls of uniform size will bring the best prices.

Pekin ducks can be raised with only sufficient water for them to drink.

Feed the poultry the fruit and vegetable parings, especially during the winter.

The best profit from eggs is in the winter, and good treatment must be given to secure them.

Keeping fowls until they are too old is one cause of poultry failing to return a good profit.

When the house is made warm care should be taken to see that it is well ventilated daily.—Live Stock Indicator.

People who have tried it, say that there is no better medicine for dyspepsia than Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It may not give one the stomach of an ostrich, but it so strengthens the alimentary organs that digestion of ordinary food becomes easy and natural.

For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

MONETARY CONFERENCE

INDIA CURRENCY COMMITTEE MEET AGAIN.

The British Delegates Will Return to England Next Week—They Appear to Treat the Conference Now With Indifference.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 10.—It is expected that Senator Jones will wind up the debate on international bi-metallism on Tuesday with an important declaration. The concluding sitting on Thursday will be devoted to an endeavor to crystallize the results of the conference.

The special committee will meet again to-morrow to further consider the various plans.

Regret has been expressed in the last few days that the de Rothschild proposals have been completely withdrawn, as it is generally felt that they would have formed the basis of a temporary compromise if an understanding with regard to the chief objection of the Americans, the price at which silver should be purchased, could be arrived at.

A scheme on similar lines might yet be adopted. In that event the conference will be adjourned till May, to enable the delegates to submit the scheme to their respective governments.

It is rumored to-day several delegates have received revised instructions inspiring a hope that a modus vivendi may yet be discovered.

Mr. Beernaert, the Belgian Prime Minister, has issued an emphatic denial of a statement widely circulated in England and Germany that he had declared in the lobby of the chamber that the conference was practically a failure.

INDIA'S SILVER.

The Baron Hirschell Currency Committee Has Resumed Its Meetings.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—Letters from the British delegates to the Brussels conference announce their return to England next week.

They will not oppose whatever request the American delegates may make in regard to a prolonged adjournment.

The representative of the Associated Press has authority from a high source to state that the official delegates, Sir C. Rivers-Wilson and Sir C. Fremantle, Deputy Master of the British Mint, do not expect the conference to be resumed after adjournment, and that Mr. Bertram Currie will decline to return to Brussels.

In the meantime the Baron Hirschell India Currency Committee, which adjourned without date until the Brussels Conference should have ended, has resumed its sittings and is taking evidence of experts.

Questioned by the India Currency Association as to whether it would take measures to protect the currency in the event of failure of the Brussels conference, the Indian Government to-day replied, declining to give assurance on the subject.

The reply further states that the Government cannot recommend the Secretary of India to stop the sale of council bills below the rates now current.

Pending decision by the Herschell Committee the India Currency Association thought to steady the position by getting the Indian Government to promise not to sell council bills below fixed rate. The Government, however, prefers to retain complete freedom of action.

A German's Interpellation.

BERLIN, Dec. 10.—In the Reichstag yesterday Herr Mirbach, a Conservative, who was supported by many members of his party, introduced an interpellation demanding to know whether the Federal Government approved of the German delegates to the Brussels conference not supporting the almost unanimous efforts of the other delegates to combat the depreciation of silver.

Brutal Brigands.

ATHENS, Dec. 10.—A horrible outrage was recently perpetrated by the brigands in the north of Greece, who are becoming daily more turbulent. The victim was a garde champetre, or county policeman, whom the brigands suspected of reporting their movements to the authorities.

He was stripped and transfixed with a steel skewer and then deliberately roasted to death over a slow fire "like a lamb," as the Greek papers report it. His burnt body was afterwards exposed on the high road, with a paper on his breast to the effect that "Such shall be the fate of all those who betray the movements of the brigands."

Delays are Dangerous.

At this season the effects of catarrh and cold in the head are most seriously felt, and endanger life and health if not promptly treated. For this purpose there is no remedy equals Nasal Balm. Prompt in giving relief and never fails to cure. Sold by all dealers. 50c. a bottle, by mail, post paid. Address G. T. Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

Made With Skill.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, the mordern successful cure for coughs, colds, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis sore throat and all pulmonary complaints, is made from the best pectoral herbs and barks by the most skilful and scientific methods, and cannot fail to give prompt relief.

Palpitation of the heart, nervousness, tremblings, nervous headache, cold hands and feet, pain in the back, and other forms of weakness are relieved by Carter's Iron Pills, made especially for the blood, nerves and complexion.

"It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

What is Dadruff?

A disease of the scalp that causes falling of the hair, fading of the hair, in fact, death of the hair. It irritates the scalp and causes scales and eczematic eruptions—produces baldness. Bear in mind that Anti-Dandruff removes Dandruff with three applications—stops falling and restores fading hair to its original color. Sold by druggists at 75 cents per bottle.

SICK Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK HEADACHE, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

ACHE they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not stop here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head

ACHE is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold everywhere, or sent by mail.

FOREIGN MONEY MARKET.

Ministerial Crisis and Silver Conference Have an Effect.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—A gradual weakening of discount rates was apparent last week. The final quotations were three months 2, short 1. Silver became a trifle steadier after a relapse in the middle of the week.

There is now apparent a general conviction that the Brussels conference will close without arriving at any practical arrangement. The India Council's refusal on Tuesday to accept low tenders for bills, especially when it became known that only a quarter of the amount offered was applied for, greatly contributed to depress silver, and this depression in turn adversely affected all silver securities and depressed stock exchange business generally.

American railway securities, after advancing until the middle of the week, relaxed on the silver collapse, but the movements were light.

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS.

A Steamship Split in Two and the Crew Supposed to Be Lost.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The British steamship Dibberg, Captain Davies, was wrecked off Long Sand, near Harwich, last night.

Her rocket signals were responded to by a Harwich lifeboat. When the lifesavers reached the scene of the wreck they found the vessel split in two and partly embedded in the sand. They were unable to board her until high tide at daybreak, when they found a seaman drowned below deck.

The other members of the crew were missing and are supposed to have perished, as fragments of boats were found hanging to the davits.

It is reported that a schooner was wrecked on the sands in the vicinity of the wreck of the Dibberg, and that her crew is missing.

GET A MOVE, GROVER!

The World Expects You to Yank the U.S. into Better Shape.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—Commenting on the Memphis and St. Louis conventions, The Chronicle says: Such is the program of the growing industrial element. There is nothing revolutionary in it, and excepting the demand for free silver there is no quackery in it. It is the sober and righteous demand of a Republic in name to be converted into a Republic in fact, but neither of the great parties can respond to these claims. It looks as if America was gradually drifting into a condition parallel to that existing at the time the Free Soil party was formed, and as if all the brightest and most promising in American life was about to slowly form a party of real reform. Cleveland has a great opportunity. Will he embrace it?

MRS. MAYBRICK'S CASE.

The Female Prisoner's Illness Due To Her Own Carelessness.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The Evening Standard says it has the best authority for stating that Mrs. Maybrick is recovering from the effects of the hemorrhages with which she was recently attacked. The paper adds that her illness was due to her own carelessness.

The Baroness De Rongues, Mrs. Maybrick's mother, telegraphs from Woking, that her daughter passed a bad night and is suffering from great weakness.

Rentes are Higher.

PARIS, Dec. 12.—The new Cabinet is generally approved by the moderate section of the public. Although many assert that the Ministers must fall before long, a more general opinion is that M. Ribot will retain his post until the elections in June. Thus rentes come out of the crisis higher and with good tone. Spanish securities, as an effect of the change of the Ministry in Spain, closed on the Bourse yesterday 1½ higher.

Greeting the Crown Prince.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—A large party assembled at Windsor Castle to greet Crown Prince Ferdinand of Roumania, who arrived there Saturday on a visit to his fiancee, Princess Marie, daughter of the Duke of Edinburgh. In the party were the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh, the Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise. Thursday the Duchess of Edinburgh and Princess Marie will start for Sigmaringen, Prussia, to prepare for the marriage.

Intense Cold in Spain.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—Intense cold and heavy snowfalls are reported from North and Central Spain. The whole of Central and Southern Russia has been visited for three days with an exceptionally severe blizzard. Such severity has been unknown in Moscow for eight years. All railways but the Nikalai are more or less snowblocked and direct communication with the south interrupted. Some lines are entirely stopped.

SURPRISED YANKEES.

The Latin Union Delegates Are Not Strongly Supporting Bimetallism.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 12.—At the meeting of the Monetary Conference Saturday, Herr Hans Hvisell of the Sweden and Norway delegation, referring to Congressman McCreary's declared preference for a fixed ratio between gold and silver of 16 to 1, asked the Americans if they would agree to a ratio of 20 to 1, which would be a nearer approach to the present value.

Senator Allison replied that the Americans would prefer a ratio of 16 to 1, but, if agreeable to the European states, the Americans might accept a different ratio. For himself he thought that silver using states would most logically adopt the ratio of 15 1-2 to 1. America would accept no ratio unless a sufficient number of governments entered into the agreement to make it effectual.

United States Delegate H. W. Cannon, in reply to M. Tierard, said he was surprised at the attitude of the Latin union delegates, as it was supposed they would be very friendly to the use of silver as money. He thought the proposed purchase of 60 million ounces of silver annually by Europe provided that it was in addition to the silver now naturally used might be a bridge to join the money metals again. America up to the present time had had no difficulty in maintaining a parity between gold and silver, and intended to maintain it. If, however, silver was to be further dishonored and used the same as paper money, without regard to price, America would still be in an excellent position to profit by this state of affairs, as has been shown in the conference.

THE MINER'S SUICIDE.

His Widow an Expert Horsewoman and Fine Shot.

TORONTO, Dec. 12.—Richard R. Paulison, the mining prospector, who committed suicide by shooting himself in a lavatory of the Hotel Thorndike at Boston, had gone to Boston to form a company to work some iron mines at Port Arthur, but met with poor success.

"Paulison was well known at Port Arthur," said a resident of that town last evening, "as he had been locating claims in the vicinity for years. His wife visited the Port every summer. She is a woman of extraordinary personal charms, an expert horsewoman and a fine shot with rifle or revolver. She used to appear on the street in full hunting costume with a rifle slung across her shoulder. She it was who caught the 7-pound speckled trout at Nepigon with a hook and line which created so much talk all over Ontario."

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL COUNTERFEIT

Is the one which is so NEARLY like the real thing as to be often mistaken for it. The business of turning out Ready-Made Clothing is carried on upon lines, in some cases, so near those of the honest manufacturer, that its products look and sell nearly as well, and deceive many good people into believing that it is just as durable as the article honestly made up.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

Appearances are very often disappointing, and scarcely ever more frequently than in the matter of Clothing. It is satisfactory, therefore, to know that you have a safe investment—always. We mean that you can never be deceived by it—that it is never misrepresented—and that the goods that bear our name and stamp, carry with them our own guarantee.

IN GRAFTON'S CLOTHING

If people would look a little deeper than what appears on the mere surface, they would soon see the difference between good and counterfeit Clothing. The one is constantly putting something solid into its structure, which will stand the wear and tear, while the other is full of dressing and shoddy, which cannot stand even the light of the sun.

Besides we sell DIRECT to our customers at close WHOLESALE PRICES, thus saving them a straight TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

NO WONDER PEOPLE LOOK SURPRISED

as they pass our store and see good garments marked at such low prices. That line of $6.50 Suits and $6.50 Overcoats, for instance, are surprisers, and are being picked up more quickly than expected. We are honestly selling twice as many as anticipated, but we have stock enough to meet all demands, if you come before New Years.

The demand for Boys' Overcoats and Suits has also increased this week, and we are quite prepared for any rush. Prices $1.50 to $5.75.

A FREE SLEIGH RIDE.

We still continue to give away a dandy Hand Sleigh with every Boys' Suit or Overcoat.

See our Men's Melton Overcoats, in five shades, at $6.50, $8.00 and $11.00.

PREPARATION SALE.

NOW that the November leaf is torn from the Calendar, we must get in shape for the great gift festival.

Christmas goods come rolling in and demand that room shall be made for them. Everybody foretells a brilliant holiday season at the GOLDEN LION. It is budding time now. In a few days everything will be in full bloom.

Meanwhile, here is just a foretaste of the good things in preparation for our patrons. December has started in right good earnest, and we must have every inch of room we can spare for the holiday trade. Some lines MUST, therefore, be MARKED DOWN and sold out at a sacrifice.

Ladies' Mantles marked down.

FOUND OUT BY A FORGERY

HALTON COUNTY CONTRIBUTES A PECULIAR CASE.

The Wife of a Farmer Confesses That She Has Been Attaching Her Husband's Name To Notes For Years Without His Knowledge.

MILTON, Ont., Dec 13.—Halton County, and particularly the town of Milton and adjoining township of Trafalgar, is just now discussing one of the most peculiar cases which has ever crop'd up in Canada.

Ever since Landlord Robson of the Commercial Hotel, Milton, died, his son, D. A. Robson, who is now 23 years of age, has been living the life of a high roller. For several years he was employed as office boy and clerk for Barrister Duncan McGibbon. A year ago Mr. McGibbon discovered that there was a leakage in the funds of the office—that remittances from clients which had been forwarded in registered letters and by money orders had not been credited to the senders. The fact of the shortage was never made public, but Robson was allowed to "sever his connection" with the office, and, it is claimed, agreed to make restitution. This was a year ago. Shortly afterwards Robson opened an office in the town hall and issued the card:

D. A. ROBSON,
Fire, Life and Accident Insurance Agent, Conveyancer, Notes discounted. Money to loan on real and personal property. Auctioneer, Valuator. Collections promptly made. Estates wound up, etc.
Office, Town Hall, Milton, Ont.

For several months past he has been flying high, playing billiards and indulging in other extravagances. The culmination arrived a few days ago when he was arrested on an information lodged by Robert J. Campbell, farmer of Trafalgar, on a charge of having on Dec. 1 uttered and sold a promissory note for $300, dated at Milton on Dec. 1, payable to the complainant and purporting to be signed by John Dixon, a well-known Trafalgar farmer, and Matilda Dixon, his wife.

On Nov. 29 Campbell called at Robson's office and asked him if he had any notes to sell. Robson said he had one for $375 made by Mrs. Dixon, and arranged that Campbell should again visit the defendant's office on Thursday. Campbell went to Milton as agreed, and Robson produced a note for $300 purporting to be signed by the Dixons. Campbell went to the bank, drew the $300 and was given the note. He thought that the signature "R. A. Dixon" did not look like a man's writing and he asked R. born if he saw the note of not. He replied: "Yes, I saw them sign it in the office." Campbell was still dubious, however, and on the way home called on a Mr McClellan, who possessed a note signed by Dixon, and compared the signatures. He thought they differed, and, returning to Milton, he saw Robson and told him that if McClellan's note was genuine the other was a forgery. Robson replied that there was no doubt about the note being genuine, as Mrs. Dixon had given it to him. Campbell still doubted the genuineness of the note, whereupon Robson asked him to wait a few days and he would see Mrs. Dixon and make it all right.

Campbell saw Dixon, however, and he stated that the signature was not his, nor was that of his wife her writing. Robson's arrest followed.

When arraigned Robson denied that he had forged the note, and claimed that it had been given him by Mrs. Dixon, and he asked that a warrant be issued for her arrest, but his application was refused.

With the arrest of Robson a new phase was given to the case. When Dixon was placed in the witness box he swore that he never signed any notes in conjunction with his wife for money borrowed or otherwise, and that he never gave his consent to his wife to sign notes on her own account.

This statement caused a sensation, for it was known that Mrs. Dixon had negotiated at least half a score of notes purporting to be signed by her husband during the past six or seven years, and totalling in value $2,000 or $3000.

Mrs. Dixon was called as a witness and admitted that she had been in the habit of borrowing money for several years in sums of $200 and $300 on notes signed by herself and husband. She handled nearly all of them personally. She admitted that a note for $300 in the possession of John Sproat was made by her, and claimed that she signed her husband's name to it by his authority. He had not given her authority to sign notes for him whenever she liked. She decided, on the ground that it might incriminate her, to say whether Hugh Campbell, Mayor Dice James Henderson, John Jones, Dr. Stuart and Henry Carrique had notes purporting to bear her husband's signature, but which signature was made by her, and also declined for the same reason to say whether there are 15 or 20 notes floating around the county.

What Mrs. Dixon, who is 55 years of age, did with the money she borrowed is not in evidence. It is rumored that she dabbled in Minden real estate seven years ago, and issued the first note at that time. As the notes became due she issued others to raise funds to retire the first and by this system of financing kept the knowledge of the existence of the floating paper from her husband. Dixon is a well-to-do farmer and his wife had no difficulty in getting the notes cashed. She always gave a plausible reason why she it was who presented it, her husband was busy in the harvest field, or he was engaged elsewhere. Two daughters have been married recently and "we want some ready cash for the wedding" explained the reason for the loan on a couple of occasions.

This was but a subterfuge, however, as Dixon states he paid all the wedding expenses himself. Whether her mistaken action was the outcome of real estate speculation or not it is certain she had frequent occasion to visit Toronto. It is believed that all the notes have been accounted for and that the total sum which Mr. Dixon will have to pay as the result of his wife's kite-flying experiment will not exceed $3000.

Two of the notes, those held by Henderson and Jones, were negotiated through Robson, but Mrs. Dixon swears that she never had a transaction with the accused since, giving as a reason why she failed to go to him again that he failed to hand over all the cash he received as the proceeds of the former notes.

Robson will be tried before Judge Kingsmill on Friday. His defence is that he received the Campbell notes from Mrs. Dixon in the same way that he received the other notes; that if there was forgery committed Mrs. Dixon must have committed the forgery. He admits that the money he received from discounting the note he did not pay to Mrs Dixon, but still retains.

On the other hand, Mrs. Dixon swears that she did not sign the note, that she was not in Robson's office on the day he told Campbell she called, that in fact she had no relations with him whatever for several months.

There is another point of evidence to which the prosecution attach considerable importance. Expert evidence will be called to prove that the signatures on the notes acknowledged by Mrs. Dixon differ materially from those on the Campbell note discounted by Robson, the formation of the capital letter "D" and the "x" being totally dissimilar.

The prosecution also advance the theory that Robson, from previous dealings with Mrs. Dixon, knew that she was signing notes without her husband's knowledge, and that being hard pressed by some of his creditors he floated one on his own account. Theories are not evidence, however, and the prisoner's counsel, Mr. Elliott, is satisfied that the result of the trial will be the acquittal of his client.

Robson's widowed mother and her family are much respected in the village, and it is hoped that he will be able to emerge with flying colors from the net in the meshes of which he is entangled.

Meantime Mr. Dixon will take up all the notes issued by his wife as they mature.

GLADSTONE'S PORTRAIT.

The Unveiling Celebrated By a Banquet—Edward's Blake's Speech.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—Lord Rosebery presided at the banquet of the National Liberal Club this evening, held to celebrate the unveiling of the Gladstone portrait, done by the Canadian artist Forbes.

The Hon. Edward Blake, Nationalist M.P. for South Longford, made the speech of presentation. It was an eloquent eulogium of the Premier. Canadian Liberals regard Mr. Gladstone as the foremost of living men, Mr. Blake said, and believed that they understood his high aims and clear methods. They themselves knew the blessings of Home Rule and, therefore, had been most strongly attached to Mr. Gladstone by his efforts to solve the Irish problem. Mr. Blake elicited repeated applause from his hearers, and sat down amid a storm of cheers.

Lord Rosebery prefaced his reply with flattering remarks as to Mr. Blake's "noble speech," compared with which, he said, his own address would "shine as a farthing rushlight."

Proceeding, Lord Rosebery spoke of the presentation as a strictly imperial event. He had often been taunted with a lack of sympathy with the Home Rule ambitions of those parts of the empire outside of Great Britain. He hoped that the feeling developed by the Canadian Liberals in sending the picture would spread so far and wide that the taunt would be deprived of all its malice.

He wished to see the bonds uniting the Empire drawn more tightly. All present rejoiced that Canadian and Australian interests had been brought forward more conspicuously of late in English life.

Mr. Blake, the most brilliant orator and one of the most capable statesmen produced by Canada in this generation, was evidence of the maturing unity of interests in the Empire.

In mentioning Mr. Gladstone, Lord Rosebery spoke of the sympathy and courage of the Premier, and likened the situation of the Government with that of Marie Antoinette in her first accouchement, when the courtiers nearly suffocated her in their eagerness to see her first-born.

THE YELLOW METAL.

Germany is on Record as an Opponent of Bi-Metallism.

BERLIN, Dec. 12.—In the Reichstag today Count Von Miquelshash asked the Government to assist the bi-metallists at the monetary conference at Brussels.

Chancellor Von Caprivi replied that the German delegates to the conference had been instructed not to give their assent to any proposal that restricted Germany's right to decide what should constitute her own currency. They had also been instructed to declare that Germany was content with her present system and would not depart from it. The Chancellor concluded his remarks by declaring Germany would continue to adhere to the gold standard.

HOSMER AND BUBEAR.

To Row a Match In England Jan. 30 For £400 and a Cup.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—Bubear and Hosmer have signed articles for a match on the Thames to come off Jan. 30, the match to be for £400 and The Sportsman challenge cup, value £200.

A POET GONE INSANE.

He Received £200 for Writing the Best Ode on Tennyson.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The poet William Watson, who was recently granted £200 from the Royal Bounty Fund for writing the best ode on Tennyson, has become violently insane and has been placed in an asylum.

LIZZIE WYLLIE.

She is Working in a Bookbindery in Toronto—Longfield Exonerated.

DETROIT, Dec. 12.—John G. Longfield, whose name has been connected with the sudden and mysterious disappearance of Lizzie Wyllie, returned to Detroit yesterday.

He says he has been in Akron, Ohio, since he left, and he has not seen Miss Wyllie at all.

Mrs. Wyllie says she received a letter from her daughter Saturday, dated at Toronto, which stated that she was working for Hunter, Rose & Co., bookbinders. The girl's mother makes no explanation, and she exonerates Longfield.

Against English Officers.

CARACAS, Dec. 12.—Gen. Belancourt Sacre has been named Venezuela's High Commissioner and ex-officio governor of the districts which have long been in virtual possession of English colonists from British Guiana.

He will lead an expedition charged with preventing further encroachments and to especially forbid English settlers from entering the country along the Orinoco west of the mouth of the Amacuno, pending the arrangements of the boundary dispute.

A Usurper Flees.

CALCUTTA, Dec. 13.—It is reported that the Nizimul-Mulk, brother of Afzulul-Mulk, the reigning sovereign of Chitral, who was murdered with his younger brother in November last by Sheratul Khan, his uncle, who afterwards usurped the throne, has defeated the forces of Sheratul Khan and captured Chitral. The usurper is said to have fled the country.

BULLET IS NOT LOCATED.

A P. O. CLERK SHOOTS A BUCKLE INTO HIS BODY.

James Pope, Aged 24, is in a Critical Condition at the Hospital, as the Result of a Revolver Shot, Which Carried a Suspender Buckle in With It.

TORONTO, Dec 13.—James A. Pope, post office clerk, shot himself with a revolver at 4.30 p.m. yesterday. He has been living with his father, James Pope, who keeps a flour and feed store on 397 Davenport-road. He went into the bedroom, where his mother lay ill and began searching in a drawer in the dresser. His mother, knowing that a loaded 38-calibre American bulldog revolver was in that drawer, asked him what he wanted, and receiving no answer began to scream. This brought the servant girl upstairs, and at the same moment young Pope ran into the hall, placed the weapon toward his left breast and fired. The bullet struck the metal buckle on his suspender and carried a portion of the buckle into his body.

Drs. Henwood, H. H. Wright and Johnson were soon in attendance. Dr. Johnson succeeded in removing the portion of the buckle, but the bullet could not be located.

The wound was situated a little more than an inch below the left nipple and was an inch and a half long, opening into the pleural cavity. There was a good deal of bleeding and at every breath air rushed in through the wound. The doctors were unable to come to definite conclusions as to the direction of the bullet, owing to the extreme danger of probing. Appearances showed, however, that the sixth rib was shattered and the ball was still in the body.

The wounded man was conscious and talked with the doctors, but did not admit that he attempted to take his life. The father was also reticent on that point, and when questioned by the physicians simply said, "You know Jim was always a queer tempered lad.

On the advice of Dr. Johnson the wounded man was at once removed to the Hospital, where he lies in a precarious condition.

WANTS WESTERN JUSTICE.

Hamilton Is Troubled With An Impudent Gang of Horse Thieves.

HAMILTON, Dec. 12.—About a year ago Manus McGowan of Dundurn-street had a horse stolen out of his stable, and he never got any trace of the lost animal since it was stolen.

Last Thursday night the door of his stable was again tampered with, but the thieves did not succeed in getting in this time.

Last Monday night a horse belonging to S. S. King, corner of York and Dundurn-streets, was stolen, the thieves having entered the stable during the night and taken the animal away.

Up to the present time Mr. King has not heard anything of it. Last night the stable of William Burwell, at the end of York-street, was visited. The thieves didn't get in, but they left behind them an evidence of their visit in the form of a bundle of hay.

Two or three other stables in the neighborhood have been visited at night within the past week or two, and horse owners are thinking of organizing a mutual protection association.

WHO WILL HAVE $1,500?

Or Will It Revert to the Crown?—Wanted, Relatives of John Dunn.

TORONTO, Dec. 13.—John Dunn of the township of Thorold, in the county of Welland, died in April, 1892, intestate, unmarried and without heirs or next of kin, leaving real estate worth $1200 and personalty worth $300. It is believed that he was born in Roscrea, Tipperary, Ireland, that he went to the States in 1854 and came to Canada in 1878. Advertisements have been put in different papers, but though some claimants have appeared none could prove relationship. The Attorney-General is applying to the court to-day under chap. 39 of R.S.O to have it decided whether the Crown is entitled to the estate after payment of the deceased's debts.

THAT SUICIDE.

The Jury Agree That Teenie Henderson Died from Exposure.

HAMILTON, Dec. 13.—An inquest was held at the Plains school house on Saturday evening by Dr. McGregor on the death of the young woman, Teenie Henderson, who was found dead. The jury elected John Easterbrook foreman, and after viewing the body, proceeded to take the evidence.

Alexander Henderson, the girl's mother, and Patrick Haggarty and Charles Shears, who assisted in bringing the body to the house, and several other witnesses were examined.

The girl's friends said she had only been insane about three months. Dr. Malloch gave medical testimony as to the condition of the body and the jury brought in a verdict of death from exposure. The body of the unfortunate girl will be buried to-day.

BORDER WAR.

The Notorious Garza Makes It Hot For Mexico's Troops.

LAREDO, Texas, Dec. 13.—Further particulars of the battle between Garza's followers and the Mexican troops near St. Ignacio are to the effect that a band of 300 followers of Garza crossed the Rio Grande boundary at the Mexican barracks just over the border in Mexico.

The Mexican troopers came out and at the first fire several were killed and the soldiers were driven back. The revolutionists captured the barracks with its guns and supplies.

After stripping it entirely, the place was burned and all the soldiers dispersed, and the revolutionists then returned to the American side of the Rio Grande.

Uncle Sam's men are now hurrying through the Masquitt to head off the returning insurgents. A courier from west of here says Garza can get 8000 men together at a call. President Diaz has ordered Mexican troops massed at the border.

WINTER DAIRYING AT WELLMANN'S CORNERS.

Anyone acquainted with our little village knows it to be a thriving one, and it has lately had added to its industries an experimental dairy station under the control of the Dominion Government, and efficiently managed by Mr. J. B. McEwen, of the Dairy Commissioner's office.

Prof. Robertson some time ago addressed a large gathering of farmers in this interest, and so ably set forth the benefits to be derived from winter dairying, that their co-operation was secured, and arrangements were speedily made for the establishment of this station.

The Plum Grove Cheese Mfg. Co. leased their building for the purpose and the necessary machinery for butter making was at once put in at the close of the cheese season.

A very successful start was made and some 500 lbs of butter was manufactured the first day, and Nov. 28th 16,300 lbs. of milk were received, which yielded nearly 770 lbs. of fine butter.

The butter making is attended to by Mr. Adelard Bergeron, who has had a widespread experience at the business and thoroughly understands it.

An important and interesting feature in the creamery is the daily use of the "Babcock" milk test, by which the percentage of butter, fat contained in the milk is known, and the patrons are paid accordingly.

The station is also a dairy school and Mr. McEwan answers all queries, showing himself to be an expert in all matters pertaining to dairying, and is ready to instruct any one who may wish to avail themselves of the opportunity of learning butter making or the manipulation of the Babcock.

Mr. McEwan will be assisted by Prof. Whitton, late instructor for the Dairyman's Association of Eastern Ontario, and so well known as as a successful cheese maker.

Several cheese makers have already availed themselves of the opportunity of gaining knowledge in this business, and many more will no doubt do so, as all instructions are given free of charge.

Judging from this start made we predict a grand success for the station this winter, and as we hear numbers of farmers talking of silo building we have no doubt but that succeeding seasons will give greater results and ultimately prove that this scheme of winter dairying pays.

Yours,
OBSERVER.

FRAZERVILLE CHEESE FACTORY.

THE ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING.

On Friday the 9th the Patrons of Frazerville Cheese Factory held their annual closing and business meeting in the cheese factory. Early in the afternoon the Patrons met for the purpose of winding up the past season's business and the election of their officers for the ensuing year. The president, Mr. J. W. Fisher, occupied the chair and after a brief address called on the auditors for their report which was read by T. M. Hunter, which gave an exhaustive report of the season's business, showing that the books have been fairly kept, and that the season has been one of the most profitable in the history of the factory. The amount of milk received at the factory was 736,153 pounds which produced 69,048 lbs of cheese, which netted the patrons $8,540.17. The average number of lbs of milk required to make a lb. of cheese for the season was 10 45-100, average price obtained being 9 3-11 cts. Messrs. T. M. Hunter and Jos. Harrison were the largest contributors of milk for the season, sending 37,121 lbs. and 34,977 lbs. respectively, for which they received $261.97 and 247.91. (Signed)

R. WATERMAN,
T. M. HUNTER,
Auditors.

After some slight discussion it was moved by D. McIlmoyle, seconded by T. Donaldson, that the auditors report be adopted which was unanimously carried.

The election of officers was the next business to be taken up which resulted in the election of Mr. J. W. Fisher president and salesman. Directors, T. Donaldson, D. McIlmoyle, J. Clarke, jr., Alex. Hunter, J. Howson, W. J. Laing. Auditors, R. Waterman and T. M. Hunter.

SHEARER'S RIGHT RECORD.

A Shearer patron writes:—I beg leave to call your attention to an error that crept into your report of the Shearer Cheese Factory. As this is the banner factory of the county we do not wish it misrepresented. Instead of the return per standard being $12.60 as reported, and inserted it is $32.60 which is the highest in the county. Besides we have more cheese per pounds of milk than any other factory in the county which goes to prove the honesty of the patrons and also the efficiency of our cheese maker. Mr. Renwick. It is his first year of superintending a factory.

Yours truly,
A SHEARER PATRON.

NORWOOD CHEESE FACTORY.

Annual Meeting of Patrons.

A meeting of the patrons of the Norwood cheese factory was held on Saturday afternoon last and was very largely attended. The report was very satisfactory. The amount of milk bought was 1,720,603 pounds, the amount of cheese made was 157,247 pounds, and the amount of money raised was $14,817.98. The amount of milk used for pound of cheese was 10.94, and the average price for each cheese was $9.42.

THE BIGGEST DAY IN 7 YEARS!

Saturday, December 3rd was the biggest day MR. J. J. SHEEHY has had in seven years. Why is this? Surely not because there is less competition. Certainly not because inducements are not being held out by others. Most assuredly not because prices of farm products are showing an upward tendency. Then why??

Simply because the purchasing public of the town and surrounding country have read Mr. Sheehy's advertisements, have inwardly digested them and have concluded that cheap sale or no cheap sale Mr. Sheehy is bound not to be undersold.

We want every day in December to be a big day. How are we to accomplish this? Simply by offering to the public better value for the money than can be had elsewhere. Just cast your eye over the following quotations:—

All Wool Flannels, 26 in. wide, - -	17½	Good Linen Towels each - - -	5½
9 lb. Wool Blankets, - - - - -	$3.75	Grey Wool Blankets, - - -	31c. a lb.
14 yds. Heavy Grey Canton Flannel,	$1.00	25 yards Factory Cotton, - -	$1.00

These few quotations will probably give an idea of what we are doing and a glance at our BARGAIN TABLE in the centre of our store will convince the most skeptical that when it comes to general bargains we certainly are very decidedly "in it."

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR COLUMN.

"FOR CHRIST AND THE CHURCH."

[All communications intended for this column must be marked "Christian Endeavour" and sent to Box 113, Peterborough, not later than Friday previous to date of issue.]

Leave God to Order all Thy Ways.

Leave God to order all thy ways,
And hope in Him whate'er betide;
Thou'lt find Him in the evil days,
An all sufficient strength and guide.
Who trusts in God's unchanging love,
Builds on the rock that naught can move.

What can these anxious cares avail—
These never-ceasing groans and sighs?
What can it help us to bewail
Each painful moment as it flies?
Our cross and trials do but press
The heavier for our bitterness.

PRAYER MEETING VISITORS.

The Christian Endeavor constitution does not encourage the prayer meeting gadabout, the young man or young woman who thinks any prayer meeting better than his own. This is because one's own prayer meeting is almost certain to be better than any other.

There are occasions when it is well for us to visit other societies, to gain new ideas and fresh inspiration, and to cultivate the spirit of fellowship. This has so many advantages that in numerous localities it is wisely provided for by a regular system of inter-society visitation, with resultant reports. But all experienced prayer-meeting workers will agree that, on the whole, the best meeting to attend is the home meeting.

In the home meeting we know the folks. To a stranger, Susy Timid's faltering testimony may seem weak and meaningless, but you know how much determination and prayer it needed to help the dear girl say those stammering words. A stranger might be repelled by Tom Biglow's slips of grammar, but you know the schoolless, poverty-weighted life of the brave young fellow. A stranger might deem Jack Saunders egotistical, with his loud voice and abrupt, positive manner; but you know Jack's warm, impulsive, gentle heart. There's a wonderful deal, when you think about it, in knowing the lives that lie back of the talking.

Then, too, in the home meeting the folks know us. They know our faults, and possibly some warning or advice for us may speed from some gentle, prayerful lips direct to our own consciences. They expect us to do our duty. Their knowledge of our lives makes us more guarded and modest in what we say. At the same time the consciousness of their loving sympathy urges us to do our best.

In a prayer meeting among strangers, however cordial the welcome, the faces are new, the experiences behind the words you can hardly even guess, the forms used are novel and distracting, the songs are not familiar, there will be a thousand novelties to draw your thoughts from worship. At home, every one in the room, every word, every song, nay, all the past with its accumulated habits, help you worship. To abide at home is best.

A DEPARTED CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOURER, MR. O. C. ROWSE.

To The Editor:

SIR,—It being desired to have something written on the life and death of the late Mr. O. C. Rowse, I as a member of the Endeavour Society in which he was such an active worker, would offer a few words.

We have said many times during the year, since he fell ill, "Lord, he whom Thou lovest is sick," and prayed for his recovery. But God, Who is allwise has seen fit not to answer our prayer in that way, and our hearts are sad,—

God hath his mysteries of grace,
Ways that we cannot tell,
He hides them deep like the secret sleep
Of him he loved so well.

The world will say, "don't cry." How can you help crying when the heart's treasures are shattered, and brother is gone, and companions are gone, and everything seems gone? What we want is to know that the loved ones shall rise radiant in the resurrection and that God shall wipe away all tears.

It was the late Mr. Rowse who first started the Charlotte street branch of the Epworth League, was its first president and held that position until his health failed; and was the most active member. Even when ill his thoughts often reverted to the society, making plans for its progress. He led many persons from inactive to active service in the Master's vineyard, and we miss him who has been removed from us, whom to know was to love and trust, who as a son was affectionate and thoughtful, as a brother loving and kind, as a friend faithful and true, as a church member most affectionate, esteemed, earnest, active, and intelligent as a business man, and believing that "an honest man is the noblest work of God," and that true riches lay in being rich, not for time, but for eternity: a good and honoured citizen, public spirited; in the social circle, being genial, unselfish and agreeable.

His demise is deeply regretted by the church to which he was such a faithful member, and especially by the Sunday School, where he was Superintendent. He will be missed by all, but some will miss him more than others. As Rev. Mr. Edwards said when in Oshawa at the funeral, "He was my Joshua, my right hand man, wise in counsel, helpful in spirit, ever ready to give a helping hand to every good word and work."

We cannot penetrate the deep vista of the future, but as we look on the face of our dear brother before he is laid away, we seem to hear the words: "He giveth His beloved sleep."

AN ENDEAVOURER.

Following are a few clippings sent by our beloved departed Brother Rowse, a short time before his death:

Every thing that God does is beautifully done. His stars are jewels set in velvet; His flowers are sapphires set in emerald. Everything of His creation, in shape and color, as it lies bathed in sunlight, has upon it the touch of the beautiful. And this teaches us to do beautifully everything that we do. Especially in our conduct towards each other ought there to gleam the beauty of star and breathe the fragrance of flower.

Every one knows what it is to have written a letter or performed some other work requiring time and painstaking care, and then to have spoiled it by a blot or a wrong move made in a moment of time. So it is in life. To build a character is the work of many careful years; to mar or destroy it is often the result of a single careless movement.—Sabbath Recorder.

Did you ever feel the joy of winning a soul for Christ? If so, you will need no better argument for attempting to spread the knowledge of his name to every creature. I tell you there is no joy out of heaven which excels it—the grasp of the hand of one who says: "By your means I was turned from darkness to light."—H. C. Spurgeon.

APPLE PILFERERS.

Shut Up in a Dark Cellar and Made to Grind Coffee.

MONTREAL, Dec. 13.—For some time past a grocery firm in Catherine-street west has been bothered by boys pilfering apples from the barrels in front of the store. One evening last week they succeeded in capturing three of the juvenile depredators, all stealing fruit, and instead of handing them over to the police, locked them up in a dark room in the cellar.

From this the boys were taken out one at a time and compelled to grind coffee until they were thoroughly exhausted. When they were finally released they made complaint to their families, who claim that the grocers had no right to take the law into their own hands, and say they will take action against them in the courts.

LIGHTNING ROD AGENT

Taken to Milton On a Charge of Defrauding a Farmer.

TORONTO, Dec. 12.—J. W. Rynall, 41 Wellesley-street, was arrested here Saturday as the result of a telegram from Milton claiming that he had defrauded a farmer there in a lightning-rod deal.

Rynall was taken to Milton yesterday and was remanded by Mayor Dice until Wednesday.

The complainant, Mr. Ramer, a farmer living near Milton, states that Rynall called on him, and saying that his son had purchased some lightning-rods from him, placed them in position and induced him to sign notes to cover the amount of purchase.

Young Ramer, on his return home, denied any knowledge of the transaction; hence the lightning-rod agent's apprehension.

Would You Buy,

If the Prices Were Low?

Most men who do not own houses would become owners if they could do so at a moderate cost.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house, well built, good location, Aylmer street, between Townsend and Rink streets—$2,600. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie street, work now going on.

Ayer's Pills

Are better known and more generally used than any other cathartic. Sugar-coated, purely vegetable, and free from mercury or any other injurious drug, this is the ideal family medicine. Though prompt and energetic in their action, the use of the pills is attended with only the best results. Their effect is to strengthen and regulate the organic functions, being especially beneficial in the various derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels.

Ayer's Pills

are recommended by all the leading physicians, and druggists, as the most prompt and effective remedy for biliousness, nausea, costiveness, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, jaundice, drowsiness, pain in the side, and sick headache; also, to relieve colds, fevers, neuralgia, and rheumatism. They are taken with great benefit in chills and the diseases peculiar to the South. For travelers, whether by land or sea, are the best, and should never be omitted in the outfit. To preserve their medicinal integrity in all climates, they are put up in bottles as well as boxes.

Ayer's Pills

"I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and always found them to be a mild and excellent purgative, having a good effect on the liver. It is the best pill used."—Frank Spillman, Sulphur, Ky.

Important Announcement to the Public!

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS SALE.

Hall, Innes & Co.

Having decided to retire from the Dry Goods Business in Peterborough announce that they will on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23rd, commence a

GENUINE MAMMOTH CLEARING SALE for CASH

Covering Every Department of their Extensive Business.

HALL, INNES & CO.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Gents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

HALL, INNES & CO.

130, 132, 134 SIMCOE STREET.

FORCED
REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 8 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, so we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well if not better, in the future.

A Good Business Stand—at present occupied by Mr. Jno. Garvey. Now open to lease for a term of years. Apply to James Dolan, at T. Dolan's & Co's corner store. A good man can do a big business.

To the Ladies—On the Quiet.

Ladies! if you want to present your father, husband, lover or son with a nice warm fur cap, cheaper than you can buy it at any fur store, drop into the Montreal clothing store, 390 George street and make your selection before they are gone. It can be packed up and laid away for you on the quiet until Xmas. dw

Mark Street Church, Ashburnham.

The Ball Family of Jubilee Singers, which have scored such a triumph in Peterborough and whose entertainments have been greeted by large numbers, will appear at the Mark street Methodist church, Ashburnham, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Don't forget the date and place. Admission 25 cents. Everybody go and hear the melody pure and delightful.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to thank the public for their kind patronage through the summer months, and hoping the same will continue at my present stand which I was compelled to take through the winter months. You will find me obliging in my business; I have a fine lot of choice confectionery on hand and also hot peanuts. I have a handsome sign handsomely painted by Cook & Cletheroe. It reads thus: 'The Royal Candy Store," 419 Water street, Walter Kerr, Prop.

Patronize Home Industry.

It is always more loyal, sometimes more satisfactory, and always safer to patronize home institutions. Any citizen who wishes to get a portrait, ordinary or enlarged, can get as good, and in the majority of cases better portraits, and as cheaply (quality of work considered) from our local photographic artists than from any other source. In this connection the following from Mr. P. H. Green, will be of interest to those who may feel inclined to think they are getting something for nothing—a thing that seldom happens in this matter-of-fact world.

(ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC PUBLISHING COMPANY.)

TO THE PUBLIC:

During the past few days I have been called upon by a number of citizens with regard to their portrait which, they stated, an agent of the above named company had represented that I would execute for them as a premium to a certain "Family Magizine," for which he had solicited subscriptions. In order to prevent more of the citizens of the town being similarly deceived by such representations, I beg to state that I never made any arrangements with the said alleged company, nor any one representing them, nor have I any intention of so doing, and have not seen or spoken to their agent, so far as I know.

Yours truly,
P. H. GREEN,
Photographer.

At the Opera House Last Night.

The Dean Presentation Party appeared at the opera house last night for the first time in their week's engagement. The audience, which was composed principally of ladies and children, was the largest which has filled the opera house this year. The crush of humanity was simply solid. The company gave a varied and refined performance containing many amusing and instructive features which thoroughly pleased all present. The ventriloquism of Prof. Alf. J. Dean was good and perhaps the best ever heard here. McEvoy's splendid and realistic views of scenes in Ireland were capital. Prof. Harry LaBelle's performances on the slack wire were loudly applauded. Among the other features were Heamann's latest New York sensation, clever exhibition of the black art, and comic songs by Mr. Barney Fegan, both of which were lustily applauded. At the close many valuable and useful presents were given away to those fortunate enough to hold numbers, among them being Mr. Jas. Sloan, who drew a handsome parlour lamp; Miss Maud Trombley, a silver cake basket, Mr. E. Kendry, a butter cooler. The company appear again this evening.

Hello! Is that you Mr. McComb, you have some very pretty designs of Silk Handkerchiefs, haven't you? What's the price?

MR. MCCOMB—The prettiest, only cost from 25c to $1.00.

Fancy Trimmed Baskets.

For photographs, paper-racks, hair-pin holders, letter racks, etc. Commenced work in great variety for Christmas. Fancy ribbons in new shades, suitable for fancy work. Miss JENKINS, 428 George street.

A Peterborough Vocalist.

On Thursday last—Immaculate Conception Day—the singing and music in St. Paul's church, Lakefield, was of a very high order. Miss Jackson, of Peterborough, distinguished herself as a soloist, while Miss Sullivan, of Lakefield, presided at the organ with her usual ability.

Nassau Orange Lodge.

In the list of officers of Nassau Orange Lodge supplied to the daily and weekly EXAMINER there were some inaccuracies and omissions. Bro. G. Sloman was elected chaplain instead of D. Armstrong; Bro. Davidson was re-elected lecturer, and Bros. J. Curtis and W. Johnston, auditors.

Mr. Torrance's Condition.

Fire in Cavanville.

The dwelling house of Mr. Fisher, farmer, of Cavanville, and father of Mr. Wm. Fisher, town, was burned to the ground Sunday evening, together with all its contents while the family were absent at church. The loss was partially covered by an insurance of $1000 on the house and contents. The cause of the fire could not be learned.

Died in the Hospital.

Mrs. John Downey who has been suffering from a severe attack of typhoid fever for some weeks past died in St. Joseph's Hospital last night. Deceased formerly resided in Campbellford, and was in the twenty-third year of her age. She leaves a sorrowing husband to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock from the family residence, Simcoe street, to the Roman Catholic cemetery.

They are Here Again To-night.

Dean's Presentation Party will be at the Opera House again to-night. Hundreds were present last night and many turned away unable to gain admission. Songs, black art, farces, views and ventriloquism are all well given and provide a rare night's amusement. Lots of presents given away to-night including a gentleman's solid silver watch, value $25, cruet stands, silverware, glassware, silver butter knives, cups and saucers, etc. Be sure and go to-night to the opera house.

Remanded for Sentence.

John Doheny was up before the magistrate yesterday afternoon on the charge of stealing a promissory note made payable to him to the amount of $50 on Dec. 2nd. Mr. R. H. Reid was the man who made the note and who issued a warrant against Doheny charging him with the theft. A great many witnesses were examined, the magistrate sitting about three hours ajudicating on the case. He on the evidence submitted, remanded the prisoner until Monday next for sentence. Mr. Wood appeared for the Crown and Mr. Poussette, Q.C. for Doheny.

A Peculiar Verdict.

An interesting jury case was tried before the division court here yesterday in which a peculiar verdict was rendered. Rose Bros. and Spears, brickmakers, of Otonabee, sue one Ed. Fell, of Peterborough, for the sum of $97.50 for breach of guarantee of a horse which the plaintiffs purchased from the defendant some time ago. The jury brought in a verdict for the defendant and that the defendant should pay the costs of the court. The judge on this verdict of the jury entered judgement of 5 cts damages an for plaintiff and ordered that the defendant should pay the costs. E. A. Peck for plaintiff's, C. W. Sawers, for defendant.

St. Paul's W. F. M.S.

Mrs. Layyah Barakat, a Syrian lady, will deliver addresses in St. Paul's church, Peterborough, on Thursday and Friday evenings, Dec. 15th and 16th, under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, the subject for the first evening being "Her Life and Conversion," and for the second evening "The three Orient Covenants." Mrs. Barakat comes to us highly spoken of. She is a fluent and pleasant speaker and treats her subject in a manner to invest the theme of foreign missions with a new and lively interest. The meetings will be open to both ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. Barakat has spoken in the principal churches of New York City—Dr. John Hall's and Dr. W. W. Taylor's; also Dr. Kittridge's, of Chicago. Wherever she has spoken immense audiences have greeted her, and her addresses have been of a great benefit to the Foreign Missions of the church. Silver collection.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The roads are fine.

—Town council Thursday night.

—The bicycling season is over.

—Wanted, cold weather and skating in the rink.

—Regular meeting of R. T. of T. this evening. Election of officers.

—The Fire, Water and Light Committee will meet on Wednesday night.

—There was no police court this morning. No arrests were made last night.

—Otonabee Lodge of Oddfellows at its regular meeting last night initiated one candidate.

Mr. Jas. Little, general agent of the Sun Life Assurance Company, Belleville, is in town.

—The Thistles will organize at the rink on Friday evening. There should be a large attendance.

—County Police Magistrate Edmison will hold court at Norwood on Thursday adjudicating on a dispute between two school trustees.

—Peterborough Lodge, Sons of England, met in regular meeting last night and re-elected all the officers for the ensuing term.

—A fine handsome ornamental sign has been put up on Hunter street by Mr. Bond, who will open out an English cured ham and bacon shop in a few days.

—Mr. James H. Rowland, who is well known in Peterborough, is one of the principal members of the Dean Presentation Party now exhibiting in the opera house.

—The Court of Revision met last night in the town clerk's office and dealt with all the petitions for remission of taxes which had been referred to them by the council.

—Messrs. J. J. Turner & Son yesterday received a large order from the Millbrook council for supplying that village's fire brigade with rubber hats, caps, boots and mits.

—Messrs. J. D. Collins, E. Webb, Sabine, and T. Fitzgerald were out rabbit shooting at Cavanville. They shot five hares. The season for shooting rabbits closes to-morrow, the 14th inst.

—Mr. Bert Gowdy, traveller for Muckleston & Co., Kingston and Peterborough, met with a bad accident while boarding an express train at Camden East. He slipped and falling severely sprained his leg.

—The Bobcaygeon schools, which have been closed for some time past on account of the ravages of diphtheria, reopened yesterday, all the second buildings having been fumigated and thoroughly cleansed.

—Carswell Lodge, No. 312, I.O.G.T. intend holding a grand reunion on Thursday evening, Dec. 15th, at 8 o'clock. All old members are requested to be present. At the close an initiatory service will be held.

—Mr. Jas. Byrne, who is superintending the erection of the stone fence around the custom house building, will as soon as he completes the contract for Mr. Rutherford, leave for Pigeon Lake, where he will take out stone for the World's Fair.

—The municipal election nominations come on early this year. Nomination takes place on Monday, Dec. 26th, the day which will be duly celebrated as Christmas, owing to that day coming on Sunday. The elections will take place on Monday, Jan. 2nd, the day rightly observed as New Year's.

—There is every prospect, the Bobcaygeon Independent says, of a large forest trade being done this winter. Mr. Thexton is having a lot of work done at the elbow, near Ball Lake. Wm. Tate will take out a great stack of wood, and Mr. S. Swanton, it is said will clear out his cedar swamp near the Bee Hive. Those having spruce should hold them, they will be valuable in a few years. Lindsay's stock of firewood is reported to be low, and that market will consume a considerable quantity. It is not likely that much advance in prices will be plad, but all that can be cut will find sale.

PERSONAL.

Rev. Father Lynch of Port Hope, was in town yesterday.

Miss Bertha Maitland, of Smith's Falls, is in town on a visit to her sister, Mrs. T. H. Graham, Gilmour street.

The Port Hope Times says: Mr. James Stevenson, M.P., Peterborough, was the guest of his brother, Mr. W. G. Stevenson, on Saturday.

Dr. Hassard, V.S., of Millbrook, has sold out his veterinary practice in that place and will remove to Peterborough this week, occupying the office lately held by Dr. A. R. Stephenson, V.S.

Mr. P. J. Moloney passed through Peterborough yesterday on his way back to Toronto from Montreal, where he had been to represent Trinity Medical College at the annual banquet of Bishop's University, Montreal.

Injured by a Scaffold Falling.

This morning as Mr. Wm. Johnson, carpenter, while working on a scaffold on Mr. J. A. Cameron's new house on Stewart street, the scaffolding suddenly gave way precipitating him to the ground. Mr. Johnson fell a distance of 16 feet, striking his face upon a pile of stones. He was taken to his home in Ashburnham and Dr. King summoned. No limbs were broken but it is feared the patient has sustained internal injuries.

Successful Surgical Operation.

Mr. Wm. Cardwell, of the Cardwell House, this morning had an operation performed on his little boy with a view of correcting a serious deformity of one of his feet. The operation was performed by Dr. Greer, and so far promises to be a perfect success. The operation consisted in cutting (under the skin) the structures that by contraction pulled the foot out of shape, and then, after restoring the parts to their normal position, placing the limb in a plaster of Paris dressing. The latter will in time be replaced by a mechanical appliance which Dr. Greer is having made for the boy and which he will be required to wear for some months, when a permanent cure will be effected.

Simply Awful

Worst Case of Scrofula the Doctors Ever Saw

Completely Cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"When I was 4 or 5 years old I had a scrofulous sore on the middle finger of my left hand, which got so bad that the doctors cut the finger off, and later took off more than half my hand. Then the sore broke out on my arm, came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of one eye, also on my right arm. Doctors said it was the

they ever saw. It was simply awful! Five years ago I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Gradually I found that the sores were beginning to heal. I kept on till I had taken ten bottles, ten dollars! Just think of what a return I got for that investment! A thousand per cent? Yes, many thousand. For the past 4 years I have had no sores. I

THE LATEST PETERBOROUGH SENSATION!

A Great Money Losing Sale

At the Clothing Store Under the Opera House, No. 342.

The entire stock of Winter Overcoats, Suits, Gent's Furnishings, Hats, Caps and Furs, in the store formerly known as the "Grand Union Clothing Hall,' must be sold out at whatever prices it will bring.

The peremptory orders leaves only 60 days to clear everything out. The proprietor says:—"Forget profits, forget cost, forget everything—but sell the goods."

This is no bluff, but absolute facts. The slaughter will, therefore, go on to the finish—until the whole business is wiped out of existence.

Better come quickly if you want any of these dead-sure bargains.

BALL JUBILEE SINGERS.

Delight a Large Audience in the Charlotte Street Methodist Church Last Evening.

There was a large audience, which completely filled every part of the building, assembled in the Charlotte street Methodist church last evening. The Ball Family of Jubilee Singers was the drawing attraction and they provided a pleasing and refined entertainment which delighted all present. The duets, choruses and trios were all admirably rendered and many encores demanded. The family, which consists of eight members, all possess clear resonant voices and their selections last evening exhibited much melody, sweetness and pathos. The evening throughout was one of delight, listening to the sweet melody which permeated all the good old plantation songs. "The Jubilee Chorus," "Away over Jordan," "Turn Back Pharaoh's Army," "Wrestling Jacob" and "Old Sheep Know the Road," were particularly well rendered and with excellent effect. Among the worthy specialties may be mentioned the duet rendered by Master Charles and Miss Edna Ball, "The Battle of Sebastapol," the guitar selection by Mr., Mrs. and Master Richard Ball and the several motion pieces by individual members of the talented family. To-night views from scenes narrated in Uncle Tom's Cabin will be exhibited by means of lime light, and their history and connection explained. Several songs as sung by Uncle Tom will also be given.

Everybody Suffers Pain.

It is the result of violation of nature's laws. Perry Davis has done much to allay the suffering of the people by giving them out of nature's store-house "a balm for every wound." Such is the Pain-Killer; it stops pain almost instantly, is used both internally and externally, and is of all other pain remedies the oldest and best. New size Big Bottle, 25c.

What is Dadruff?

A disease of the scalp that causes falling of the hair, fading of the hair, in fact, death of the hair. It irritates the scalp and causes scales and eczematic eruptions—produces baldness. Bear in mind that Anti-Dandruff removes Dandruff with three applications—stops falling and restores fading hair to its original color. Sold by druggists at 75 cents per bottle.

COUNTY COURT SITTINGS.

December Sittings of the County Court and Sessions of the Peace—The Grand Jurors—His Honour's Address.

TUESDAY, Dec. 13th.

The December sittings of the county court and sessions opened at the Court House to-day at one o'clock, His Honour Judge Weller, presiding.

The Grand Jury was empannelled as follows:—

John Lang, foreman, Jas. Baptie, Jno. Calder, Thos. Gordon, Geo. Hunter, J P Hurley, Richard Hall, Edward Lynch, David Lawrie, John Lockhart, W. Langford, C. H. Moore, Geo. W. Morrow, W. Quinn, A. Roseborough, W. Stevenson, A. R. Tully, W. Wason and John Fife.

His Honour in addressing the Grand said he was happy to inform them that their duties would be light. The recent assizes, the county judge without a jury, the town and county magistrates had disposed of considerable business that might otherwise have engaged the attention of the Grand Jury. The cases they would have to investigate would be a charge of house-breaking with intent to do bodily harm, and charges of keeping and frequenting a house of ill fame—charges which seldom came before a Grand Jury, but which were within their competence to consider. His Honour concluded by pointing out the other duties of the jury. He had been informed by the sheriff that young and old prisoners were confined together in the jail, and the jury might report upon this fact.

THE BAR

was represented at the opening of the court by R. E. Wood, County Attorney, in charge of the Crown business, W H. Moore, R. R. Hall, John Burnham, Q.C.; R. J. McLaughlin, Lindsay; Wallace Nesbitt, Toronto; E. B. Stone, W. F. Johnston, J. H. Burnham, J. W. Bennett; D. R. Anderson, Lindsay, Geo. A. Payne, Campbellford; C. W. Sawers and E. B. Edwards.

The first case to engage the attention of the court was Varty vs. McMillan.

THE GREAT LIEUT. BLAKE, A.D.C.

A Gentleman With a Wonderful Military Outfit—A News Reporter's Interview With Him—He is Highly Connected but his Uniform is Hardly Regulation.

(Toronto Evening News.)

The Toronto Evening News of yesterday contains the following:—

"Lieut. Blake, A. D. C., 10th Hussars, Lakefield."

When a News reporter saw this written on the register at the Walker House this morning, he wondered, for he had not heard that the 10th Hussars were quartered at Lakefield, Ont.

"Is Lieutenant Blake in?" inquired the News man of the courteous clerk.

"No," was the answer, "He said that he was going up to the Fort to get some papers signed."

At noon to-day the reporter was more fortunate, for he met the distinguished military gentleman in person.

The lieutenant was a sight to behold. As he clanked out of the dining room the crowd parted to the right and left to give him room.

He wore an undress infantry patrol jacket, black trousers with two gilt stripes down each leg, buttoned boots and jack spurs. At his side dangled a small sword with a brass hilt, across his shoulder a red sash while on his left breast were two medals suspended by gorgeous red and blue ribbons. For head dress he had a peaked forage cap such as infantry officers wear.

Surely such an Hussar officer was never seen before.

"Yes, I am Lieutenant Blake,' he said pleasantly enough. "I am not out here on official business, but I have some private matters to attend to. I joined the service in 1882 and went through the Egyptian campaign of that year. Then I went up the Nile with General Wilson's expedition. I have medals for both of the campaigns."

"I am a stepson of Sir John Freo, of the Royal Horse Artillery, and my mother was Miss Latrobe, daughter of General Ferdinand C. Latrobe, mayor of Baltimore."

"Are those the medals you received for active service?" asked the awe-stricken reporter.

"Oh no," said the Lieutenant. "I won those for shooting at Wimbledon."

"Is it usual for British officers to wear their uniform when on private business?"

"No, it is not," admitted he of the dazzling habiliments, "but you see I am going on to Washington and I want to get a new rig out. Of course they wouldn't understand how to make uniforms out here, so I wore mine in order to get the new one correct."

Lieutenant Blake told much more about himself that was highly interesting not to say amusing.

By some curious mistake on on the part of the British authorites they have neglected to put his name on the army list. He should communicate with the Horse Guards and have this matter attended to.

He will probably be heard of again before long.

Lieutenant Blake has evidently not journeyed to Washington, as he mentioned in the above interview. He was seen in Peterborough yesterday, and is now staying in Lakefield.

A WONDERFUL RECORD.

It will interest newspaper readers to learn that Canadians have the advantage of the best cough medicine in the world. This celebrated remedy is known as Harvard Bronchial Syrup, and its record is a truly wonderful one. In the worst cases of asthma, bronchitis, irritation of the bronchial tubes, and hacking cough, the action of this syrup is prompt and effective. When the Harvard is once used, no other is ever sought after. Read what Mr. Franklin Minard has to say about it. This gentleman writes from Milton, N. S., as follows:

"I was very bad with asthma, and at nights suffered much from it. I tried several doctors but received no good, I found the trouble was fast injuring my health, and I decided to try Harvard Bronchial Syrup, which had been recommended to me. I bought four bottles, which I used, and have not been troubled with asthma since. I can now recommend it to all as the best remedy for such troubles; and I will ever praise it for the wonderful good it has done me."

MADAM LAYYA BARAKAT'S LECTURES.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—In conversation with people to whom I have spoken with regard to these lectures, I learn that a misapprehension exists, which I desire to correct. It is assumed that because these are lectures by a woman, and under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, women only are to attend. This is a mistake. Men as well as women are invited to be present, and judging by the accounts of the great crowds of people who have thronged her lectures in the States, and by the personal information given us by some of our Peterborough friends who heard her last summer at Old Orchard Beach, there is no doubt that a treat is in store for all who shall hear her. Another mistaken idea I wish to correct. This is not a money making project on the part of our society. We do not raise our funds in that way. But we have made ourselves responsible for somewhat heavy expenses in bringing Madam Barakat all the way from Philadelphia expressly for these lectures, and we count upon the generous support of our friends to help us meet these expenses. But beyond all this we ask the attendance of men and women of all denominations, feeling sure that the extraordinary ability of the Syriac lady, and the graphic account she gives not only of her own life and conversion but of the manners and customs of the East, will amply repay them for their attendance. Madam Barakat is under engagement to lecture in Philadelphia during Christmas week, and we were able to secure here only for Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

HIS MOTHER'S PIE.

A dainty young wife made a "beautiful pie,"
For him who was king of her heart;
It suited her taste, and it suited her eye
And was a production of art.

She gave him a piece at the table with pride
And watched her dear idol partake;
"I made it myself," said the dear loving bride,
"And how do you like what I bake?"

The bridegroom gazed down at the wonderful pie;
The bride sat in tremulous fear,
At length he returned her this doubtful reply
"It isn't like mother's, my dear."

Tears shone in the depths of her gentle blue eyes,
How could he such language repent?
"No, love," he continued, "this pie is a prize; Mother ne'er could make one fit to eat."

A WOMAN'S HAIR.

One of the current fashionable styles of hair-dressing is sketched herewith. You will note that the hair is fluffed, not banged, over the forehead. If you are wise you will not follow the modes too closely in the matter of hair, but will so modify them to suit your head. The woman in the picture, observe, has followed that rule with perfect success.

Good-bye bang, beautiful bang, bang of popularity since first the Seventeenth Century brought you into vogue, bang that suited all faces, that made the old young and the young old, bang so easily cut, so easily grown and so easily dressed, farewell! It is all right and to be expected that the bang will not accept its conge like that. It insists on banging, no matter how much we part it, it won't lend itself to a psyche wave and it won't be Greek. It serves us right. The bang, so long a willing slave, is at last asserting a will and a won't of its own. The faithful worm has turned, and now it cowlicks and stands up straight and actually hoots at any attempt to make it over into the fashion.

Do you know how the fillet was first brought about? I mean after the Greek girls who wore it had passed away. Well, once upon a time there was a haughty lady who lived in the Seventeenth Century. She had the king tied around her finger, and one day when she was at a royal hunting party the wind blew her pretty hair about and threatened her head dress. Just as the other ladies were hoping a headdress awry would ruin her, she took off her ribbon garter and tied it around her head, and she looked so tremendously fetching that the king was more in love than ever. Thus the fashion was set at once. FLORETTE.

How They Do in England.

In England the rule is to allow four cubic feet of air space for each 100 pounds weight of an animal. Allowing air according to the weight, however, is not a correct system, but it is a rule that is better than none, as animals are usually more crowded than should be the case.

Designs for Next Spring.

The shapes that have been in vogue for ladies' suits during the past summer and fall have been used as a basis upon which to build new creations. The Eton jacket effect is very largely utilized, and it, with silk blouse combination, and the new Coronet skirt (with pleat in the back) are among the new features shown.

The young lady of next spring and summer, if she appears in the styles as now designed, will have a very fluffy appearance. Flounces, furbelows and ribbons will be features of the upper part, while the skirt promises to have a few graceful folds, and will undoubtedly be shorter Gale On the English Channel.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—There is a [illegible] gale on the English Channel. Several [illegible] have occurred. Two schooners [illegible] ashore yesterday in the vicinity of Dover and were towed off, badly damaged. A galley bringing a pilot at Deal was capsized and the pilot was drowned. A brig struck Beachhead. The crew was rescued.

The Spanish Government.

MADRID, Dec. 10.—The Queen-Regent has summoned Senor Sagasta and told him she will consider his declination to form a cabinet and communicate with him today.

The public are greatly disappointed. There are rumors of serious obstacles to delay a settlement, the powerful military party opposing a Liberal cabinet.

LOST HER BALANCE.

A Woman's Arm Cut Off by a Trolley Car.

TORONTO, Dec. 12.—About 11 a. m. Saturday Mrs. Charles Wilson of 57 Alice-street attempted to board a southbound Yonge-street car while in motion, but, losing her balance, was thrown violently to the ground. The wheels of the trailer passed over her left arm, crushing it in a horrible manner. Her right leg was broken at the ankle, and it is feared she also sustained internal injuries.

She was removed to the General Hospital in the ambulance, where her arm was amputated at the shoulder. She will probably recover.

Embezzlement $25,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Alfred J. Price, bookkeeper for Street & Smith, publishers of The New York Weekly, pleaded guilty yesterday to larceny in the first degree. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years.

Price was guilty of embezzlements by which the firm lost about $25,000.

A Dash of Winter Makes the Furs Fly, Such has been the Experience at Fairweather & Co.'s

MANUFACTURING FURRIERS.

Who have opened the Holiday Season with a regular FURORE of Fashionable Furs. The sensitive pockets of the people have been touched by the low range of Prices for elegant Furs which we have established all over our Fur Store.

Not CHEAP Furs, But Furs CHEAP.

That's our idea of the business, and we strictly adhere to it.

LADIES' FUR COATS:

The Ladies' "Comforter" in cold weather, Coats of Seal, Otter, Astrachan, Mink, Persian Lamb, &c. Coats Fur-lined and Trimmed with Furs in the most Fashionable Styles. Seal Skin Jackets, Astrachan Mantles, Mink Wraps, Persian Sacks with or without Storm Collars, that completely cover the ears. Fur Caps, Muffs, Boas, Mitts and Gauntlets.

FUR CAPES:

One of the blessings of fashion; we have them in Beaver, Sable, Astrachan, Persian Lamb, Greenland Seal, Grey Lamb, Black Opossum, Siberian Beaver, &c. Shapes right, lengths full.

CHILDREN'S FURS:

The tender little blossoms must be guarded against the bitter frost and cold. Nothing so effective as Furs. Small Furs, too, in conceits as pert and bright as the antics of the natural owners of the skin.

GENTLEMEN'S FUR COATS:

Fur-Lined Coats, Gauntlets, Collars, Cuffs, Caps, &c., in any style or quality of Fur desired. We make a specialty of Mink-Lined Coats, very stylish, warm and comfortable.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

Europeans are Not Frightened at Threats From the U. S. Delegates.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The Standard's Vienna correspondent says: The probable failure of the monetary conference is so discounted here that its failure would make no impression. The principal Austro-Hungarian papers ridicule the prophecies of terrible consequences, contending that any such action as is foreshadowed in President Harrison's message would be a breach of faith toward creditors which public opinion in America would not permit.

Neither Republicans nor Democrats, it is said, dare repeal the Wisdom Act for fear of an unparalleled commercial crisis. In the meantime the removal of the hope of an international agreement for many years to come will exercise healthy influence in checking the output of silver, and the price will gradually find its level without harming anybody except the American silver kings.

Practical experience in the transformation of silver currency to gold currency has resulted in converting bi-metallists to the view that rehabilitation of silver would fail to remove the causes of agricultural depression.

ACONITE POISON.

Said to be the Drug Used to Cause Baron Reinach's Death.

PARIS, Dec. 12.—At the session yesterday of the Panama Committee M. Brisson, the president, stated that he agreed with the proposal made by M. Bourgeois, Minister of Justice, that a sub-committee composed of seven members of Committee, including its president be appointed to examine the Panama legal documents to ascertain if any members of the Chamber of Deputies were compromised in the scandal.

The sub-committee was then selected. It was decided to keep secret the contents of the document, whether they were favorable or unfavorable to the Panama defendants.

M. Bourgeois to-day communicated to the committee a schedule of 490 legal documents bearing on the affairs of the company, that are in possession of the procureur.

Dr. Brouar denies the rumors that he has already found evidence that Baron Reinach's death was due to unnatural causes. The viscera and the brain were to-night brought to the toxicological laboratory at Paris.

The Libre Parole, nevertheless, persists that the examination revealed that death was due to aconite poisoning.

The Paris correspondent of The London News says that the autopsy was performed on the body of Baron de Reinach. All newspaper representatives were excluded from the cemetery, but were allowed to watch from a barn loft overlooking the grave. It will be impossible for three weeks to say whether or not Baron de Reinach died of aconite poisoning. The suspicion that he did is due to the fact that the partly empty phial of aconite was found near his bed.

The London Times Paris correspondent says: The Reinach scandal is worthy of the middle ages. The Parliament, the magistracy and the press are all erving for the corpse. Only the brush of a Callot or a Hobein could do justice to the scenes presented at the cemetery. When the autopsy was performed there was an unseemly scramble between the doctors and the reportors to reach the grave. The doctors were victorious. They whitened the windows of the room in which the autopsy was performed so that nothing was visible from the outside.

A CASE OF BIGAMY.

Wife No. One Renounced Her Claims For Fifty Dollars in Cash.

BELLEVILLE, Dec. 12.—The village of St. Ola has a bigamy sensation. Samuel Crozier, a pleasant young man, went to the village about two years ago and in a year married Miss Hattie Solmes. Recently wife No. 1 appeared and proved that Crozier married her at Carleton Place in 1889. Her maiden name was Niel. She agreed to renounce her claim for $50. An attempt was made to arrest Crozier, but he skipped.

A Widow's Suicide.

ALMONTE, Ont., Dec. 12.—Mrs. John Potter, a widow living three miles from Gatineau Point, while despondent last Thursday shut herself up in a room and took a heavy dose of Paris green, from the effects of which she died on Tuesday. She leaves three children. After taking the poison she gave as a reason for the act that she had been led astray by a widower of the neighborhood. There is a great deal of excitement over the affair.

Dr. Butler's Golden Pills have earned a great reputation wherever employed. As a nerve tonic and blood builder they are unrivalled. They increase the appetite and promote a healthy performance of all the functions of the body. A thoroughly scientific preparation, they never fail to effect a cure if directions are faithfully carried out. Nothing harmful in their composition. The most delicate system will be benefitted. Ask for Dr. Butler's Golden Pills and take no others.

"It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

E. WESTON,

When the kidneys are clogged, good health is an impossibility; but when working properly the reverse is the case. That dull back-ache is the kidney's cry for relief. If Dodd's Kidney Pills are used the result will be marvellous. We emphatically state that we have never known a case of kidney desease that a persistent use of Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure.

Blotches Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—In 1890 my body was covered with blotches and I was at last induced to try Burdock Blood Bitter; by the time I had used 3½ bottles of it I was completely cured, and I cannot speak too highly of it.

GERMANY'S ARMY.

The Tendency Now is to Allow Caprivi to Adopt Free Measures.

BERLIN, Dec. 12.—On the evening of the first reading of the Army Bill Chancellor von Caprivi gave a parliamentary dinner that brought together members of the Reichstag of all parties and press representatives of all shades of opinion, except Socialists.

For the first time leading journalists were invited to such a gathering. It was a memorable recognition of the influence of the press.

While the dinner was proceeding the Socialists were holding meetings in every electoral district in Berlin against the Army Bill. Resolutions were adopted denouncing militarism and urging the formation of a people's militia. Women attended, although by their fervid enthusiasm gave more trouble to the police than their socialistic brothers.

When the debate opened on the Army Bill in the Reichstag to-day the House was crowded and the galleries were full of visitors. The tenor of the speeches from all sides disclosed no uncompromising hostility to the measure.

Major Von Hoiningen Huenay, a member of the Centre party, announced that the Centrists were willing to concede the reduction of a year in the term of service, but were not prepared to increase the strength of the standing army. But they admitted that the measure would be hailed by the country as adding to the defensive strength of the empire and probably even as leading to an alleviation of the economic situation.

Herr Richter said that the Freisinige party would grant whatever funds were necessary for the introduction of a system of two years' service, but the Chancellor would have to apply to a more complaisant Reichstag than the present to obtain demands beyond that.

The Chancellor's response to the speeches against the bill was mainly directed at Herr Richter. He styled Herr Richter an able political statistician, but said he was scarcely in a position to offer a right opinion on details of a military system. On this subject views that are expressed in the highest military circles must have the most weight.

"So convinced am I," said the Chancellor, "of the necessity of the bill for the continued existence of Germany that if the Reichstag wished to throw upon me its own responsibility I would tranquilly accept it."

This statement was greeted with cheers.

The Chancellor said that under the provisions of the bill 60,000 young men would be yearly added to the army, so that in a few years 450,000 more men would be ready to take the field against a hostile army.

This statement elicited cheers.

The Chancellor appealed to the House not to throw the country into confusion by opposing the measure.

The general opinion in the lobby after the House adjourned was that the bill would pass its first reading by a good majority. Before debate on the bill is resumed on Monday, the Brussels Monetary Conference and the army rifles will form the subjects of interpellation.

Something like popular demonstrations of anti-Semitism have occurred in several centres. Twice this week considerable crowds have passed along the Friedrichs Strasse crying: "Down with the Jews!" Leading Conservatives and the Moderns Herr Heldorf and Count Buglas are confident that the Emperor is ashamed of the Jew-baiting done by the party, and they have protested against including an anti-Jewish plank in the party program.

For Sweet Charity's Sake.

WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 12.—The will of Robert Coultis of Merses, who died a few days ago, is a strange one. It provides that all his property shall be sold, and that $3000 of the proceeds shall go to his wife, the remainder, estimated at $18,000, being placed in a chartered bank, and the interest levoted to aiding the poor of Leamington and the Township of Merses.

A Farmer's Suicide.

MADOC, Ont., Dec. 12.—George Haggerty, a well-to-do farmer residing about two miles from Madoc village, committed suicide yesterday by cutting his throat. Despondency is the supposed cause. He was about 45 years of age.

Bye-Election in North Hastings.

OTTAWA, Dec. 12.—The writ for a bye-election in North Hastings, caused by Hon. Mackenzie Bowell's elevation to the Senate, has been issued. Polling is fixed for Dec. 30.

People who have tried it, say that there is no better medicine for dyspepsia than Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It may not give one the stomach of an ostrich, but it so strengthens the alimentary organs that digestion of ordinary food becomes easy and natural.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

POISON AT HOMESTEAD.

The Strikers Deny the Story, and Claim They Are Persecuted.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 12.—Informations are to be laid shortly against persons implicated in the alleged poisoning plot against Homestead steel workers, and sensational developments are expected.

As yet, the attorneys for the Carnegie Steel Company are reticent, as the publication came before their plans had been fully matured.

The alleged conspiracy was the principal topic of discussion here to-day. The strikers discredit the story and claim they are being persecuted, while counsel for the Carnegies assert they will be able to substantiate the charges.

William H. Gaches, treasurer of the Advisory Board, denies indignantly that any member of the Advisory Board was a party to any plot to poison non-union men.

Capt. E. Y. Beck, Deputy Sheriff Farmer and William G. Lindsay left to-night for Louisville with requisition papers for Robt. Beatty, charged with being implicated in the alleged plot to poison non-union men.

To guard against any complication, a new information was laid against Beatty. It is sworn to by J. H. Ford, a Pinkerton detective, and alleges that on or about Sept. 1, and on other days previous to that and thereafter, Beatty did administer, or cause to be administered and taken by William E. Griffith and others, a certain deadly poison with the intent to commit murder.

TWO MEN STABBED.

They Were Shooting Rabbits On a Farm in Southern Manitoba.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 12.—A bad stabbing affray occurred at Bromhill yesterday.

Harry Vaughan crossed George Randall's farm with a gun, following a rabbit.

Randall ordered him off and went to the road allowance, where the two had words.

Vaughan threw his gun on the snow and started to fight.

Arthur Randall, a brother of George Randall, ran up and joined in the fight and broke the gun stock over Vaughan, who brought out a knife and stabbed both.

George is dead and Arthur is seriously injured. Vaughan is highly respected. Randall was of a quarrelsome disposition.

THE BANK CLERK'S CASE.

Up Before a Police Magistrate and Wants Trial by Jury.

CHATHAM, Ont., Dec. 12.—The case of Angus Pennefather, charged with stealing $6700 from the Standard Bank, was on tria yesterday. Prisoner pleaded not guilty and asked for trial by jury. The court then adjourned till to-morrow.

The Strike Spreading.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Dec. 12.—The strike of the telegraphers on the Rock Island road assumed a more serious aspect yesterday when the balance of the brotherhood men in the employ of the road left their keys.

The men claim now that they are sure to win.

Lines connecting with the Rock Island have issued orders to take no perishable freight from that road, and difficulty is experienced by the Rock Island in moving freight trains.

Blaine's Critical Condition.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—A special from Washington states that Blaine is critically ill. The impression is that he is dying.

A Serious Fall.

HAMILTON, Dec. 13.—A very serious accident occurred to a young immigrant lad employed by Mr. William Ryckman of Waterdown yesterday. He was riding when a dog ran out and frightened his horse, which threw him, and he fell upon his head on the rough frozen road.

He was picked up and carried into a house in the village. The young man was still unconscious shortly after 1 o'clock and was suffering from concussion of the brain.

Fattening on Olive Oil.

JAMESBURG, N.J., Dec. 13.—James Still, a colored boy who is an inmate of the Jamesburg reform school, reached the 65th day of his fast yesterday. He is if anything heavier in weight than he was two weeks ago, and seems to grow stronger. The only nourishment he takes is a spoonful of sweet oil, which is rubbed into his body twice a day.

Actor Townsend Dying.

HAMILTON, Dec. 13.—Mr. John Townsend, the well-known actor and theatrical instructor, is peacefully dying at his home here.

After the Wily Indian Kid.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 13.—Lieut. Wallace, with three non-commissioned officers, 15 privates, six scouts and Indian trailers, has left Fort Bowie in pursuit of the Apache renegade, Kid.

A treaty with Mexico, permitting United States soldiers to cross the frontier, has been renewed. This concession, with the liberal reward offered by the territory for Kid and eight of his principal followers makes it likely that the wily Indian will be captured.

Gold For Austria.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—It is stated the gold to be exported to-morrow is all for Austria, where a premium is being paid for the metal.

'Clear Havana Cigars.'

A MARRIAGE THAT FAILED.

Mrs. Gibbs Wishes To Have the Custody of Her Children.

TORONTO, Dec. 13.—Charles Gibbs, assistant accountant of the Senate of Canada, was married to Caroline Thompson at Christ Church, Ottawa, in September, 1877. As issue of the marriage two daughters were born, Lilian May in 1878 and Florence Ethel in 1880. The marriage was a failure, and in 1887 the wife left her husband's home, taking the children with her. She has resided in Ottawa since with the children, but has refused to have anything to do with her husband, having received some money from the estate of her father, the late Philip Thompson. She is now about to remove to Boston, and as she proposes taking the children with her Mr. Gibbs yesterday made application to Mr. Justice MacMahon, who made an order for the issue of a writ of habeas corpus. The motion for the custody of the children will be argued on Friday next.

MURDER IN THE AIR.

One Man Killed and Three Others Wounded in Georgia.

SPARTA, Ga., Dec. 13.—A shooting affair occurred on the street yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Gilmore, who wrote third party political letters, was killed.

"Dude" West, a member of the Legislature, was shot in the arm.

Edward Brown, assistant marshal, shot in the hand.

Burt Ames, shot in the groin.

Gilmore's sons were engaged in the shooting.

D'Alton McCarthy's Grandson Killed.

PORT HOPE, Ont., Dec. 12. — Mr. D'Alton McCarthy was summoned here to-day, owing to the death of his grandson, Philip Pepler, the 10-year-old son of F. E. P. Pepler of Barrie. Young Pepler, who was attending Trinity College School, was playing in the gymnasium a week ago last Saturday, when he fell down the well of the stairs, striking on his feet, the concussion breaking the base of the skull. The best medical aid was secured, but without avail. His mother, who is a niece of Lady Macdonald and a stepdaughter of Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, was sent for and has been in constant attendance.

Where Cholera Scourges.

TURIN, Dec. 13.—A deputation of the municipal authorities of Buda Pesth, accompanied by a number of prominent Hungarians, presented to Louis Kossuth, the aged Hungarian patriot and exile, the freedom of the city of Buda Pesth that was recently conferred upon him by his countrymen.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL COUNTERFEIT

Is the one which is so NEARLY like the real thing as to be often mistaken for it. The business of turning out Ready-Made Clothing is carried on upon lines, in some cases, so near those of the honest manufacturer, that its products look and sell nearly as well, and deceive many good people into believing that it is just as durable as the article honestly made up.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

Appearances are very often disappointing, and scarcely ever more frequently than in the matter of Clothing. It is satisfactory, therefore, to know that you have a safe investment—always. We mean that you can never be deceived by it—that it is never misrepresented—and that the goods that bear our name and stamp, carry with them our own guarantee.

IN GRAFTON'S CLOTHING

If people would look a little deeper than what appears on the mere surface, they would soon see the difference between good and counterfeit Clothing. The one is constantly putting something solid into its structure, which will stand the wear and tear, while the other is full of dressing and shoddy, which cannot stand even the light of the sun.

Besides we sell DIRECT to our customers at close WHOLESALE PRICES, thus saving them a straight TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

NO WONDER PEOPLE LOOK SURPRISED

as they pass our store and see good garments marked at such low prices. That line of $9.50 Suits and $6.50 Overcoats, for instance, are surprisers, and are being picked up more quickly than expected. We are honestly selling twice as many as anticipated, but we have stock enough to meet all demands, if you come before New Years.

The demand for Boys' Overcoats and Suits has also increased this week, and we are quite prepared for any rush. Prices $1.50 to $5.75.

A FREE SLEIGH RIDE.

We still continue to give away a dandy Hand Sleigh with every Boys' Suit or Overcoat.

A FAST CANADIAN LINE

SOON TO BE ESTABLISHED ON THE ATLANTIC.

The Feeling in London and England Ab at Canada and the Colonies is Most Extraordinary—Not Much Possibility of Protection in England.

MONTREAL, Dec. 14.—The despatches publishes the following interview with Hon. C. H. Tupper, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who has been for some months in England preparing the case for the British Government in the Behring Sea matter as agent of Her Majesty the Queen.

The first subject broached was the death of the Hon. W. H. Cross, who was the British associate counsel in preparing the Behring Sea case for Britain. The reporter showed the Hon. Mr. Tupper the cablegram announcing the death of Mr. Cross and asked him would it in any way affect the pending negotiations.

Mr. Tupper said: I have already heard the sad news, and was exceedingly pained to hear that my friend had been so suddenly taken away. We had worked together on a great deal of the preparation of the case and counter case in the months of June, July and November.

Mr. Cross was the son of Lord Cross and was a counsel at the London bar, while representing also in the House of Commons one of the divisions of Liverpool. He seconded the motion for the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne last session.

He was working hard with me up to the day on which I left, and just before my departure he was suddenly stricken with typhoid fever. He was in a precarious condition, but he was only about 35 years of age and I imagined that with his splendid physique and youth in his favor he would survive the attack.

I was very much surprised this morning to learn from the cablegram that he was dead.

Singularly Fortunate.

I may say that in the preparation of the British case we have been singularly fortunate in our legal associates. In the first place we have the Attorney-General under the Gladstone Government, Sir Charles Russell; the Ex-Attorney-General, Sir Richard Webster; the Solicitor-General, Sir John Rigby, and Christopher Robinson, Q.C., of Toronto, who, together with Mr. Cross, gave their constant and most earnest attention to the work, not merely directing many particulars of it but actually working out much of the actual preparations. The staff of the Foreign and Colonial, as well as my own immediate staff of the Fisheries Department, have also thrown themselves into the work with the liveliest interest."

"That leads me to ask," said the reporter, "while you were in London what department of the Imperial Government were you specially connected with?"

Mr. Tupper replied: "The Foreign Office, immediately under Lord Rosebery, the foreign secretary, who has the direction of Her Britannic Majesty's case, as they say, in the convention. The Foreign Office placed a room at my disposal and afforded me every facility for doing the work. I was there from day to day."

"Have you completed your part of the work for the Canadian Government?"

"The bulk of the work," said Mr. Tupper, "has been done in connection with the counter-case, but very important finishing touches remain and the counter cases will be served on or before Feb. 3."

"Then I suppose," said the reporter, "you expect to go back to England in connection with this matter?"

To Return to England.

"Oh, yes," said Mr. Tupper, "as agent of Her Britannic Majesty I must attend the convention, which meets not later than Feb. 23."

"So that if there is an early session of Parliament you will possibly not be present most of the session?"

"I am sorry to say that I will not," said Mr. Tupper, with an air that he would wish to be in it and like to have a hand in the fight as the son of the old war horse from Cumberland. He added, "But Sir John Thompson is acting Minister of Marine and Fisheries."

The reporter then asked: "Mr. Tupper, would you care to say anything in reference to the report of misrepresentation of the Behring Sea case on the part of an official in the service of the United States Government?"

The Behring Sea Case.

"It would be impossible for me to make any statement touching either the United States case or the British case, as both the case and the counter-case are confidential until the arbitrators meet in Paris."

"Are the reports true," asked the reporter, "that the mis-statements in the United States case were detected by the Canadian representatives?"

Mr. Tupper said: "I am precluded from answering that question, for the reason given to your last question."

"Just now," said the reporter, "there is a great deal of talk about the mission of Sir John Abbott and Mr. Foster to England, and a great deal of news in the Canadian and London papers about what they did over there; did you meet them?"

"Yes. I met Sir John Abbott and Mr. Foster over there, but I was so busy at my duties in the Foreign Office that I probably saw less of them than I would during a session of Parliament in Ottawa. Sir John Abbott is not in very good health, but he was able to attend to some most important matters in connection with the Canadian Government while he was Premier, but on account of the state of his health he was necessarily very retiring and attended no public ceremony or banquet.

"The Finance Minister was able to speak before representative British audiences on several important occasions. Mr. Foster was well received and made in England a reputation and impression that any Canadian might well be proud of.

Mr. Foster's Favorable Reception.

"I not only formed this opinion of the effects of his speeches myself, but all the leading London dailies commented in the most favorable manner upon the subject of his various addresses and have commended unstinted praise. His speech at the Mansion House was admittedly the speech of the day, and his address at the Chamber of Commerce was not only well received by those who heard it, but was much talked out in financial and political circles.

"The feeling in London about Canada and the colonies of England is most extraordinary. Canada occupies in England today an unprecedented position in the feelings of the governing classes and the masses of the people, and there is the liveliest interest in the welfare and progress of our Dominion on all sides.

"There is evidently the heartiest goodwill in connection with everything Canadian, or, indeed, colonial. Indeed I may say that in this regard there is no distinction between the parties in England, Liberal or Conservative.

"I need not speak of the doctrine of protection in public favor in England; the recent important meeting of the agricultural societies and other industrial associations in England attest that."

"From your experience of the public mind in England, what do you think of the chances of a policy of protection being adopted there?"

"I think there is not much possibility of the adoption in England of a protective policy for the near future, but I believe that radical fiscal changes are impending in England and looking towards an Imperial policy."

"Which means to say," asked the reporter.

"Differential duties in favor of the products of the Empire," briefly replied Mr. Tupper.

Canadian Fast Steamers.

"There is a lively interest," said the reporter, "with reference to a fast line of steamers between Canada and England, and much comment as to whether it shall be established or not."

Mr. Tupper replied: "I know that there is a lively interest in Canada, but the interest in England on this subject is just as intense with reference to the fast Atlantic line. That is due in a large part to the success of the Canadian Pacific steamers, the Canadian Pacific Railway system and the interest in the development of Canadian commerce between Canada and the Mother Country."

MURDER AT PORT ARTHUR.

A Brother-in-Law Suspected to Be the Criminal.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 14.—Fire broke out in the Galt coal mines last night, but fortunately was discovered in time, and with a supply of water from pumping engines was under control in a couple of hours.

Mayor Macdonald of Winnipeg was last night voted $1200 by the City Council for the year's services, and donated it to city charities.

Archie Cammill, who has been working in the silver mines at Port Arthur, was shot and killed last night by some one unknown, who is, however, supposed to be his brother-in-law, John Rowe. The man suspected of murder was last seen with Cammill, and is now missing.

To-morrow a meeting of Winnipeg Board of Flour Examination is summoned to pass an opinion on some samples of flour sent from Japan. The flour is supposed to be from Oregon, and it has been sent from Japan for a comparison with Manitoba flour. The branding of Ontario soft wheat flour sold in the east under the name of Manitoba flours will also be considered. There is some pretty straight evidence of this commercial infamy, so damaging to the reputation of the Northwest.

The petition brought by Greenway Government supporters against the return of W. A. MacDonald, member-elect of Manitoba Legislature for Brandon, is now being heard in the courts here. MacDonald has been selected to lead the Opposition in the local House.

A STRANGE LETTER.

It May Throw More Light On the Cause of Baron de Reinach's Death.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The Herald's Paris correspondent says: "M. Clemenceau has written a letter to The Figaro relating that on the eve of the death of Baron de Reinach the latter came to see him with M. Rouvier, Minister of Finance, and asked him to go and find Cornelius Herse, in order to try to stop the attacks made.

"Clemenceau accepted and went with Rouvier to Herse, who, however, declined to do anything. Baron de Reinach then said:

"'If we do not succeed all is lost. Let us go to M. Constans.'

"All three went to see Constans, who declared he could not do anything.

"On leaving, Baron de Reinach said, 'I am lost.' The letter ends with these words: 'After which I saw him no more.'

"The consequences of the letter will be incalculable. Rouvier will no longer be Minister of Finance. To-morrow the political careers of Clemenceau and Constans are ended We are only just entering into the mud which, nevertheless, there is enough of it."

GRABBED HIM AT ONCE.

He Stole $2000 From His Employer and Was Nabbed in a Few Hours.

MONTREAL, Dec. 14.—Chief Detective Cullen has received a telegram from Chief of Police Vohl of Quebec informing him that a young man named D. Lesserer had decamped on the Montreal train with $2000 in notes stolen from his employer. The telegram also gave a full description of the absconder.

Detective Robinson was entrusted with the case and at once proceeded to Mile End to await the incoming train. While there, however, a telegram was received from Three Rivers saying that the police at that place had the man in custody. He will be taken to Quebec this morning.

After More Profits.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—The publishers of subscription books have formed a trust with the intention of forming the largest publishing house in the world. It is to be called the Werner Company. It embraces Peale & Co., who absorbed Belford, Clark & Co., the Werner-Clark Printing Company, and the Webster Dictionary Company. Rand & McNally are not in it.

The capital is $3,500,000. Messrs. Werner, Peale, Alexander Belford, D. H. Coobersperger and J. T. Edson are shareholders. Business will commence Jan. 1.

THE PENNEFATHER CASE.

HE PROPOSED THE JOB BUT OFFERED SMALL PAY.

A Star Sounder Gives Startling Testimony—He Furnished Materials for the False Keys for the Vault—Would Not Be the Last Man to Pull on a Pull.

CHATHAM, Ont., Dec. 14.—In the Standard Bank robbery case very startling evidence was given by the principal Crown witness, Geo Gregory, of Windsor, who was until recently a resident of Chatham and kept the bar at his father's hotel.

Gregory's story was in substance that Pennefather, the young ex-lodger-keeper, now in custody on the charge of being the robber, procured materials from him with which to make keys for the middle door of the vault and for the teller's compartment in the treasury.

He then proposed to him to rob the bank.

Gregory refused on account of Pennefather being drunk, but subsequently agreed to go with him. He only followed him, however. Saw him come out of the bank and then go back to the hotel, in which place later on Pennefather pulled 12 packages of bank notes out of his pocket and offered them to him.

Gregory refused them because they were only ones, and the upshot was that Pennefather left the place and the deal between the two was at an end.

Would Not Have the Small End.

Gregory admitted that he did not think Pennefather was treating him right in giving him only the small end. He declared he would not be "the last man on earth to go back on a pull of this kind."

The reason why he told of the affair to the police was that he was afraid Pennefather would be caught and would drag him into it. He therefore decided to knock him under first and so save his own liberty.

After hearing the evidence of Teller Brown as to the circumstances of the loss, his story not agreeing with the other in essential points, the police magistrate decided that the case was one that should go before the judge.

An alleged accomplice, William Ritchie, who has for a long time been an intimate friend of the young banker, has been arrested at the instance of Detective McKee. Ritchie is a stage carpenter at the Grand Opera House, unmarried and of respectable family. The Crown consented to bail, which was furnished by his father, and the prisoner was set at liberty to appear for trial.

GEORGE BRIGGS DEAD.

Such Was His Strength That Few Ordinary Men Could Overcome Him.

KINGSTON, Dec. 14.—Yesterday morning George Briggs, about 53 years of age, customs officer at Wolfe, died from the effects of dropsy.

Through the intervention of B. W. Fogler deceased was appointed to the customs department about 15 years ago and made an efficient officer. He was well-known in the city, and was a big, strong man. Such was his strength that few ordinary men were able to overcome him.

For many years he and his brother conducted the summer hotel at Simcoe Island and made the business a success. He had been a resident of this district for many years and told interesting stories of the times during the American war, when men as well as goods were smuggled from Canada to the United States.

A better natured man than the deceased was hard to find. He was a great favorite with the young men of the city. He was attacked by disease about two years ago, and for many months lay in a critical condition.

Some physicians thought he could not live. He was treated by a Yankee physician, who prescribed a remedy that prolonged his life, and he became so well that he was able to come to the city and do business. The disease had not been entirely eradicated and death conquered. He leaves a wife.

WIRES DOWN.

Another Storm Is General Throughout the West.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Another storm of sleet, snow and rain combined is general throught the west to-day and has caused an almost complete interruption of telegraphic communication.

Neither of the telegraph companies can handle any but the most urgent despatches and press matter is almost at a standstill.

The storm extends eastward into Pennsylvania and west beyond the Missouri River, and the outlook for better weather is not at all encouraging. Wires are down in all directions.

CYCLONE IN MISSOURI.

House Blown Down and Three Killed and Five Wounded.

SUMMIT, Mo., Dec. 14.—A cyclone yesterday blew down the house of Rev. R. R. Young, a Baptist minister, two miles from here, burying the inmates in the ruins.

S. A. Love's house also was completely wrecked. Those killed are a 9-year-old daughter of William A. Freeman, colored, a colored woman and a colored man, names unknown.

S. R. Young, Mrs. Young and a son and daughter are seriously wounded, as is Mrs. S. A. Love. Several others were less seriously hurt.

Attempt at Train Wrecking.

WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 14.—The Michigan Central express, due in Windsor early yesterday morning, ran into something a few miles this side of Maidstone. The engineer, upon arrival here, notified the operator at Maidstone, who investigated and found a dastardly attempt had been made to wreck the train.

Several ties had been placed upon the track, but the cowcatcher drove them to one side. Detective Heenan is at Maidstone investigating.

Welland Canal Closed.

PORT COLBORNE, Ont., Dec. 14.—The Welland Canal closed at midnight last night for the season.

J. W. Bain Elected.

COTEAU LANDING, Dec. 14.—In the federal election at Soulanges to-day Bain (Conservative) defeated Bourbonnais by 51. The vote was: Bain 226, Bourbonnais 175.

A New Premier for Quebec.

QUEBEC, Dec. 14.—De Boucherville has resigned the premiership of this province.

SMITH.

Entertainment and Presentation to Miss Barker.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Gilmour Memorial Baptist church held a social in the church on Friday evening, Dec. 9th. It was largely attended by the young people of the neighbourhood and by a good representation of the societies both from Selwyn and Peterborough.

After partaking of the good things provided by the ladies we adjourned to the audience room where the following programme was rendered:

Mr. Wm. Paul, the chairman, before introducing the programme, in smoothly flowing language compared the Christian life to a warfare, showing that good soldiers always obeyed the command of their captain, and were ever ready when duty called to answer "Here am I." The following programme was rendered: Chorus, "Marching On," by the Endeavour choir; recitation, by our President, Miss McEwen; solo, with autoharp accompaniment, Miss Minnie Barker; recitation, Miss Mary Mann; solo, Miss Mabel Walton; chorus, "On the Way," Endeavour choir.

Before the last chorus Miss Laura Mann, our Vice-President, with Miss McEwen, stood up before our ex-President, Miss L. Barker, and presented her with a handsome gold watch, accompanied with the following address:

DEAR MISS BARKER:

Your friends in the congregation of the Gilmour Memorial Baptist church, Smith, learn with deep regret that your assumption of a new responsibility—the acceptance of the position of secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association, Peterborough—deprives them of the pleasure of the personal association with you which has been for some time so greatly enjoyed, both in the way of pleasure and profit on our part. We congratulate you on the possession of abilities and the desire for good which received such practical recognition. And while we congratulate we must also deplore thereby the loss which we sustain, not only in the sense of pleasant Christian communionship, but in every department of the church's work.

In the Sunday school where your services have been abundant both in toil and fruit; as president of the Christian Endeavor Society, a position which you occupied before you bid us farewell, you have both by your energy and example directed and dignified the work of the young people for the edification and the interest of the church. When we remember your ever true Christian zeal, the high qualities of mind and heart that make you a power for good, and win for you the universal love you have gained from all who know you, we feel that in parting with you we are suffering personally and as a congregation a decided loss, though still your work for good goes on. Yet we bow in submission to the Master at whose call you have gone to work in another part of his vineyard. And now seeing that we must be separated from you, though not forever, for we know that if we abide by God's word we will meet some day in that beautiful land which knows no parting, you have our most earnest prayers for your personal happiness and for what we feel sure you will prize most highly, success in the noble work you have undertaken.

We now ask your acceptance of this little gift as a remembrance of the many friends you leave behind you here in this place.

Signed on behalf of the congregation, Sunday school and Christian Endeavor Society.

Mary E. McEwan, Laura Mann, Fred Scott, Alex. McGregor, Harold Brown, J. N. Mann, Sarah Tindle, Wm. J. Paul, H. B. Tapscott.

Miss Barker, though somewhat overcome with surprise, mingled with sorrow at parting, stood bravely up and replied as follows:

Dear Brothers and Sisters: Such a surprise! What shall I say? Such a gift, and one so useful, and accompanied by such a flattering address, requires a brilliant response, but I do not feel capable to do it justice. If my tongue could express the feelings of my heart then could I suitably reply. My efforts have not been deserving of such recognition for they have been but small, yet with the assistance of my Master I have tried to do my duty. We have had many pleasant seasons together, and have had no trouble to mar our peace. We, of course,, have had our ups and downs, and while I have helped to water souls my own soul has been watered. Thank you for the recognition of my services; it will help me and encourage me in my future work for God. All who have contributed to this elegant present I ask again to accept my heartfelt thanks, and may God reward and crown you is the prayer of my heart.—[COM.

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—In spite of all that has been said and written about the recent fire investigation the fact remains that several fires indicative of incendiary origin have taken place in our midst; thousands of dollars worth of property has been destroyed and more imperilled, and the culprits are still at large. And not only that, but the members of the council and police force instead of exerting themselves to discover and punish the culprits, are seeking to shift from one to the other the responsibility of what little has already been done in that direction, as if the the performance of so manifest a duty was something to be ashamed of. The charge against the four members of the fire brigade was certainly an unfortunate mistake, but if, as appears to have been the case, it found its origin in their own foolish talk, they have themselves largely to blame for it; and it should not deter the authorities from continuing their investigation and prosecuting it irrespective of persons.

If a semi-private corporation like the Standard Bank can secure the services of a Government detective to investigate theft from them, why should not a public corporation like ours receive similar assistance in investigating the more serious crime of arson? Comparatively insignificant as these fires have been any one such may sweep the town and leave us lamenting our insane inactivity. The threatened lowering of our insurance rating is a serious matter for the town, and if the present council go to the polls having done nothing to avert it, and without further effort to arrest the prevalent incendiarism—they will find what the silent but voting citizens of the town think of it. Offer rewards for the detection of the criminals; encourage the police force to exert themselves; engage detectives to assist them, if necessary; accept the resignation of the firemen and replace them with a permanent brigade paid and under proper control; procure a chemical engine and raise the the insurance rating to the best available tariff and put our town upon the business footing which such a town should be on, says

THE BIGGEST DAY IN 7 YEARS!

Saturday, December 3rd was the biggest day MR. J. J. SHEEHY has had in seven years. Why is this? Surely not because there is less competition. Certainly not because inducements are not being held out by others. Most assuredly not because prices of farm products are showing an upward tendency. Then why??

Simply because the purchasing public of the town and surrounding country have read Mr. Sheehy's advertisements, have inwardly digested them and have concluded that cheap sale or no cheap sale Mr. Sheehy is bound not to be undersold.

We want every day in December to be a big day. How are we to accomplish this? Simply by offering to the public better value for the money than can be had elsewhere. Just cast your eye over the following quotations:—

All Wool Flannels, 28 in. wide, - -	17½	Good Linen Towels each - - -	5½
9 lb. Wool Blankets, - - - - - -	$3.75	Grey Wool Blankets, - - -	31c. a lb.
14 yds. Heavy Grey Canton Flannel,	$1.00	25 yards Factory Cotton, - -	$1.00

These few quotations will probably give an idea of what we are doing and a glance at our BARGAIN TABLE in the centre of our store will convince the most skeptical that when it comes to general bargains we certainly are very decidedly "in it."

WOMEN'S WORK FOR MISSIONS.

The Annual Meeting of the W. F. M. Society of St. Paul's Church.

At the annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of St. Paul's church, Miss Davidson, the secretary, presented the following work for the year now closing. Following is the report:

The annual report of St. Paul's Auxiliary of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society for 1892:

In making my report for the past missionary year I have endeavored to make it as concise as possible. Our meetings have been held as regularly as in other years with the average attendance, which is 23, but I happy to say that the interest manifested by the individual members and by the Society as a whole has visibly increased.

The amount contributed during the year is $254.12, an increase of $43.12 over last year, which is encouraging. As in former years, the Stewart settlement have kindly donated $10.13 towards the funds of the Society.

The number of members of the Society is 52, 10 of whom are life members, Mrs. Henderson and Miss Mulholland being added this year. $3 was raised by the scattered helpers. The number of subscribers to the Monthly Letter Leaflet has increased from 48 to 54, but we would wish it to be larger still.

In May our Society was asked to contribute $20 to the Muscowpotung's Reserve, Lakesend Industrial School, to provide clothing for two boys and one girl. The request was nobly responded to and the sum of $40.75 was raised, the balance, $18.75, after the $20 had been given to the Presbyterial, was donated for clothing for the aged and various useful articles for the children.

The "Interior" was as usual sent to the lady missionaries in India.

A party of ladies from our Auxiliary attended the Presbyterial, which this year was held at Port Hope. The annual meeting of the General Society was held in Toronto. Our Secretary, Miss Davidson, was appointed delegate. Several other ladies from our Auxiliary manifested their interest by attending. At the semi-annual meeting held at Grafton in July we were represented by Mrs. Macpherson. In October our regular meeting took the form of a thanksgiving meeting and a thank-offering of $37.35 was collected.

This year a new feature was introduced into our monthly meetings. In place of reciting as formerly a passage of Scripture, we have had each month a given topic and each member was expected to have a verse from the Bible, having especial reference to the topic. This was found to be some improvement on the former method. We derived much pleasure and profit in attending the annual meeting of the W.F.M.S. in connection with the Church of England, which was held this year in St. John's church, Peterborough. In March the Y.P.S.C.E. invited us to attend one of their meetings at which the Rev. Mr. Winchester, a missionary to the Chinese in British Columbia, delivered an address. Our society has been fortunate in obtaining the services of Mrs. R. E. Wood as organist, while several young ladies have volunteered to lead in the singing.

Whilst we cannot help rejoicing over the increase in interest and contributions, still we are looking forward to Mrs. Barakat's addresses next week to arouse the women of the congregation to greater interest.

It is my painful duty to record the death during the year of two of our oldest members, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Kingan, who during their lifetime were faithful supporters of the Society.

I feel I must not close without special reference to our pastor, Rev. Mr. Torrance, for whom during the past three months, and especially the past few weeks, our minds have been filled with the keenest anxiety. But under God's blessing his illness has taken a turn for the better and it is with thankful hearts and earnest prayers that we beseech God to still further restore him, that he may once again be able to come in and out and minister to us.

FLORA H. DAVIDSON,
Sec. W. F. M. S.

MILLBROOK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

It is a sad duty to record the death of Martha A. Hunter, the sixth daughter of the late Mr. Wm. Hunter. The deceased had been ill for some time and continually growing weaker until last Tuesday, Dec. 16th, when the spark of life fled. Miss Hunter was a member of the Presbyterian church, Millbrook, where she was an active worker and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. The funeral took place on Thursday from the family residence and proceeded to the Presbyterian burying ground for interment.

MISSIONARY WORK IN JAPAN

Inspiring Address by Miss Lund, a Returned Missionary.

The Sunday School room of the George street Methodist church last evening was severely taxed in order to accommodate the scores who wished to gain admission. The pastor, Rev. J. H. Locke, presided, and after announcing a couple of hymns and leading the audience in prayer, in a few suitable remarks introduced the speaker of the evening, whom he felt sure all would be pleased to hear. The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the church was stirring up zeal and interest in spreading the Gospel of the Christian religion by inviting Miss Hannah Lund to address them. Miss Lund was present to help them all and tell them of the same religion among the people of Japan. Every true Christian church had one supreme end, to save people from their sins. It greatly encouraged all Christians that the Gospel was being sent to the Japanese, and Miss Lund would tell the congregation of the good work being done there.

Miss Lund said that although in a strange place, she scarcely felt herself a stranger, as she was in her Father's house. The foreign missionary work was not only done by those who went abroad, but by those who stayed at home as well. Another reason why she felt at home was, she had met Miss Munro, of Peterborough, when she first went there, and had lived in the same house, and engaged in similar work with her during the past five years, and the way they had been thrown together in a strange land, created a bond of friendship, more stronger perhaps than that of the family circle. The speaker said she had come to tell what God of the rising sun. The work there was now under a conference of the Methodist church and organized into four districts, covering several provinces each. The speaker said that of the three girls branches she was connected in her work at the girls school in Tokio, formerly called Yeddo, and she would speak more particularly of the work there. The work in the school there closed at midsummer with 70 pupils, 50 of whom were Christians. The girls made and contributed for religious purposes some $250. In connection with the school there was a king's daughter's society and all the Christians belonged to this circle. $130 was saved by the members each giving 15 minutes every day to some kindly object. In the school there were three Bible classes a day which the girls attended. Examinations were held on this subject as well as in other subjects. The attendance at the Sabbath morning service was compulsory, and all the other services had to be strictly attended as well. The girls regarded Sunday as the happiest day of the week. In the afternoon of each Sabbath a girls' class meeting is held led by the Christian girls selected from the senior classes. The girls also hold other meetings voluntarily. Some people thought that these girls' schools were not needed in Japan, but such was not the case. The strongest native workers for the evangelization of Japan must come from the girls' schools. In the schools at Tokio they had twenty-five girls giving the whole or part of their time to earnest Christian work. Miss Lund described the work in schools established for poor children, and the great good that was being done thereby. She also described the benighted and uncivilized condition in which the women were kept in Japan, how Buddhism was the prevalent religion, and temples with false gods were found on every street corner, using forcible illustrations of the dark condition of spiritual affairs in her impressive address.

In closing she spoke of the progress of the work in that land, how the faith of those who had become converted remained unshaken and how they had much to be thankful for. Their great need was money to carry on the work and scatter more broadcast than ever in that heathen country the glorious gospel of the cross. At the close a hymn was sung and after a few words from Rev. Mr. Locke the meeting dispersed.

Ayer's Pills

Are better known and more generally used than any other cathartic. Sugar-coated, purely vegetable, and free from mercury or any other injurious drug, this is the ideal family medicine. Though prompt and energetic in their action, the use of the pills is attended with only the best results. Their effect is to strengthen and regulate the organic functions, being especially beneficial in the various derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels.

Ayer's Pills

are recommended by all the leading physicians, and druggists, as the most prompt and effective remedy for biliousness, nausea, costiveness, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, jaundice, drowsiness, pain in the side, and sick headache; also, to relieve colds, fevers, neuralgia, and rheumatism. They are taken with great benefit in chills and the diseases peculiar to the South. For travelers, whether by land or sea, are the best, and should never be omitted in the outfit. To preserve their medicinal integrity in all climates, they are put up in bottles as well as boxes.

Ayer's Pills

"I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and always found them to be a mild and excellent purgative, having a good effect on the liver. It is the best pill used."—Frank Spillman, Sulphur, Ky.

Important Announcement to the Public!

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS SALE

Hall, Innes & Co.

Having decided to retire from the Dry Goods Business in Peterborough announce that they will on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23rd, commence a

GENUINE MAMMOTH CLEARING SALE for CASH

Covering Every Department of their Extensive Business.

HALL, INNES & CO.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Gents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

HALL, INNES & CO.

130, 132, 134 SIMCOE STREET.

FORCED

REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 8 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, so we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well if not better, in the future.

Resolution of Acknowledgment.

At a regular meeting of Peterborough Lodge of A.O.U.W. held in their Lodge Rooms, Simcoe street, Dec. 13, 1892, the following resolution was unanimously carried:

Resolved, That Peterborough Lodge, No. 135, A.O.U.W., gratefully acknowledge the generous donation to this Lodge of the sum of fifty dollars by the executors of the will of the late Charlotte Nicholls for the purpose of relieving members in need.

And that a copy of this resolution be sent to the executors and the local papers by the Recorder.

Signed on behalf of the Lodge,
D. W. DUMBLE, M. W.,
THOS. GILLESPIE, Recorder.

They Appeared Again Last Night.

The Ball Family of Jubille Singers appeared again in the Charlotte street Methodist church last night giving an excellent entertainment. There was a very large audience. Several views illustrative of Uncle Tom's Cabin and the history of the times of slavery were thrown upon a large canvas and by means of lime-light distinctly produced. Mr. Ball explained the history and connection of each of the scenes. The family at intervals sang several old-style plantation choruses with melody and pathos. The solos by Miss Ball and Master Chas. Ball were admirably given. The evening was, as on the previous night enjoyably spent by those present.

Gough's Christmas Boxes.

Gough Bros. the wonderful cheap men have beaten all their past records in bargain giving for the holiday season. They have applied the pruning knife to prices. People wonder how such goods can be given for such low prices. The clothing offered at give-away-prices is part of a $40,000 manufacturers stock, secured at 60 cts. on the dollar. Bought at half price, they can be sold accordingly. See? Idlw

They Meet and Elect Officers.

The annual election of officers of Branch 30, C. M. B. A., was held on Tuesday evening last in Catholic Order of Forester's Hall on Hunter street, which the C.M.B.A. sub-lets. There was a large membership present, and considerable business was done. The regular order of business was taken up and two candidates initiated. The adoption of a code of bylaws governing a weekly sick benefit, and in which the greater portion of the members is taking membership, was also entertained. The C.M.B.A. is now financially separated from the United States and controlled by Canada Grand Council. The following officers were then elected:—

Annual S. S. Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Murray street Baptist church Sunday School was held last evening. There was a large representation of officers and teachers present. Superintendent Dr. Scott occupied the chair. Rev. J. E. Trotter was also present. Mr. C. P. Watford, acting secretary, read the annual report of the school, showing a substantial increase in point of attendance and contributions, particularly in the cause of missions. An interesting conference was then held to decide upon the programme of the work for the coming year and everything was satisfactorily arranged. Most of the officers and all the teachers were re-elected for the ensuing year. Supt., Dr. Scott; Asst. Supt., Mr. L. Croly; Sec.-Treas., Mr. C. P. Watford; Ass. Sec.-Treas., Mr. Hoover; Librarian, Mr. H. Webber; Asst. Librarian, Mr. Robert Anderson; Organist, Mr. Hoover; Leader of singing, Mr. Geo. Matthews.

Another Interesting Debate.

The students of the Collegiate Institute engaged in another debate which was full of interest, on Monday afternoon in the assembly room. President W. Cragg presided over a large attendance. The subject was, Resolved, that the poet is a greater benefactor to mankind than the statesman. The affirmative side of the question was ably upheld by Messrs. E. Porter and C. Munro, while the interests of the statesman were logically handled by Messrs. T. Dwyer and E. Bolton. At the close the committee of judges, consisting of Principal Fessenden, M. O'Brien and Miss Fife, decided in favour of the negative. Mr. F. Heap was critic and reviewed the debating qualities shown by the pointing out where improvements could be made. The students here have received a challenge to engage in a debating contest with the Lindsay Collegiate Institute and the numerous debates held have been with an idea to reap benefit and culture from numerous practices in order to encounter Lindsay pupils here early in January.

St. John's Church Mission.

A business meeting of the congregation of St. John's church Mission was held last evening. There was a fair attendance, Rev. J. C. Davidson presiding. The financial report for the year ending on Dec. 1st, was presented, and showed extremely satisfactory results. The financial receipts were shown to be double those of the previous year. The prospects of financial assistance for carrying on the work of the coming year are bright, and extra amounts will be voted for church purposes. Various topics of general interest concerning the congregation were also talked over, and all the parishioners expressed themselves thankful to the Great Head of the Church for the prosperity and success of the work in the south part of the town during the past year. To a number of friends interested, particularly to Mr Thos. Sabine, all the congregation are thankful for the putting in recently of a splendid furnace in the basement of the building.

An Interesting Personage.

Madam Layya Bakarat arrived in town last evening, coming all the way from Philadelphia. She is the guest of Mrs. Fairbairn, president of the W. F. M. S. of St. Paul's church. Madame Bakarat is an interesting personage. She is thirty-five years of age, was born on Mt. Lebanon, and educated in the city of Beyrout. The Syrian lady was a refugee from the bombardment of Alexandria in 1882, and her husband was private secretary to General Gordon on his first expedition to the Soudan. She has been lecturing to intellectual audiences in the United States for the past ten years, and her reputation is well known. This is only her second visit to Canada, and she should have large audiences of all denominations. To-morrow night in St. Paul's church she will lecture on "A Message from Mount Lebanon," and on Friday evening "Three Sacred Covenants of the East." Go hear this talented lady. Everybody invited.

Simply Awful

Worst Case of Scrofula the Doctors Ever Saw

Completely Cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"When I was 4 or 5 years old I had a scrofulous sore on the middle finger of my left hand, which got so bad that the doctors cut the finger off, and later took off more than half my hand. Then the sore broke out on my arm, came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of one eye, also on my right arm. Doctors said it was the Worst Case of Scrofula

they ever saw. It was simply awful! Five years ago I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Gradually I found that the sores were beginning to heal. I kept on till I had taken ten bottles, ten dollars! Just think of what a return I get for that investment! A thousand per cent? Yes, many thousand. For the past 4 years I have had no sores. I

Alarm Clocks!

There are a great many small Alarm Clocks which have been running for a few years and are now out of order, which the owners are allowing to remain idle, because they think it will cost too much to repair them. If you bring them to us you will find that we will make them run as well as they ever did, at a very small charge. We have already changed hundreds of them from being merely rubbish into good timepieces. If you want to buy a new one, we will sell you an Alarm Clock at a lower price than any one else in the trade. We sell only the very best make and warrant every one.

THE LATEST PETERBOROUGH SENSATION!

A Great Money Losing Sale

At the Clothing Store Under the Opera House, No. 342.

The entire stock of Winter Overcoats, Suits, Gent's Furnishings, Hats, Caps and Furs, in the store formerly known as the "Grand Union Clothing Hall," must be sold out at whatever prices it will bring.

The peremptory orders leaves only 60 days to clear everything out. The proprietor says:—"Forget profits, forget cost, forget everything—but sell the goods."

This is no bluff, but absolute facts. The slaughter will, therefore, go on to the finish—until the whole business is wiped out of existence.

Better come quickly if you want any of these dead-sure bargains.

Beautiful wheeling.
Little or no sickness.

Dr. Chas. E. Cochrane, who has returned after six weeks absence in the Northwest, visiting Carberry, Calgary and Edmonton, is quite satisfied to remain in Ontario. He intends to begin the practice of his profession in Norwood.

Municipal efforts are now in contemplation for 1899. Mr. T. H. McQuade will oppose Mr. Switzer for the township as Reeve.

There was great interest and the result anxiously looked for by our citizens over the arrest of the Peterborough firemen on a charge that our citizens could not believe, particularly so. Kincaid, who was well and favourably known here.

It has never yet been discovered what was the cause of our last fire resulting in the death of J. McGowan. Those places destroyed are not yet re-built.

Prof. Seward of Peterborough, has completed a very satisfactory term. His pupils are highly pleased in every respect.

The Mechanics' Institute is now open and proving quite an attraction to our young people.

Holiday entertainments are now in contemplation in all the churches.

The Presbyterians are intending having Prof. Struthers on January 1st with his Scriptural views.

COUNTY COURT.

Continuation of the Business, Civil and Criminal.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 14.

Yesterday afternoon the attention of the court was engaged with a civil case tried by his Honour without a jury.

Varty vs. McMullen—An action brought by Henry Varty, of Belmont township, to recover from Francis McMillan, Asphodel, $200 damages for wrongful conversion of goods. Judgment for defendant, Mr. Stone for plaintiff. Mr. Payne, Campbellford, and Mr. Nesbitt, Toronto, for defendant.

The grand jury brought in a true bill in the matter of James Dickson, of Keene, charged with breaking into the house of his wife in Keene on Nov. 12th with intent to shoot her. The case was tried this morning. The details of this case as brought out in the preliminary investigation have already been given in the EXAMINER. Mr. R. E. Wood appeared for the Crown, and Mr. John Burnham, Q.C., defended the accused.

The jury after a short absence returned a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy. His Honour sentenced the prisoner to three months imprisonment in the county jail.

In the case of Queen vs. Wm. Taylor, et al, charged with keeping a house of ill fame, the grand jury returned a true bill.

Edison L. O. L. No. 821.

The officers were then duly installed by Past Master Bro. Joseph Saunders.

There is to be a union degree meeting on the 4th Tuesday of this month when several degrees including the Royal Arch will be conferred.

The regular monthly meeting of the above lodge will be held next month on the 2nd Monday, as the district meeting is to be held on the 2nd Tuesday, the regular meeting night. Members will please govern themselves accordingly.

SUBSTITUTION.

It is universally conceded that when a manufactured article has been a standard and staple for many years amongst the trade the profit thereon through competition simmers down to almost a cash discount, of which there are comparatively few who can avail themselves; therefore other brands than those that are standard and staple are substituted in their stead, upon which there is considerable margin. Competition has increased to such an enormous extent amongst wholesales and retailers that a great many of them consider it necessary and advisable to substitute other brands that seemingly produce large profits. Some are of the opinion that by so doing they benefit thereby. Others prefer to handle standard and staple lines, upon which, although the profit is small, the turnover is much greater; and in the aggregate, profit larger; not taking into consideration the fact that it is much easier and less expensive, and more satisfactory to sell staple lines than those that are unknown. The consumer unfortunately does not understand that when he enquires for a certain class of goods and is informed that they "have none in stock," or "are just out," or "we don't handle them" (which are remarks frequently made by dealers), that their object is to push articles that pay a larger profit. To the thinking public it is obvious that the consumer is a loser thereby, and that in order that he should get the best value obtainable for his money, he should insist upon having standard and staple lines. It is a well known and indisputable fact that the celebrated brands of cigars "La Cadena," "La Flora" (manufactured from the cream of the Havana crops), "El Padre," "Madre E Hijo," "Cable Extra," (our new line), "Kickers," and "Mungos" and are standard and staple goods; and are mannfactured under conditions which for the production of a first-class article in every respect are unexcelled. Therefore it behoves them for there own sake to insist upon having these brands; thereby insuring to them a reliable smoke, and full value for their money. The cry that is repeatedly heard is that "it is difficult to obtain a good cigar" will be unnecessary and uncalled for if they insist upon having the brands mentioned. For nearly half a century we have endeavored to place before the public the best value obtainable consistent with the prices charged; and it is well known that our goods are staple, and reliable; and that the demand for same is increasing. We therefore respectfully beg to state that when our brands are enquired for, and the answers above mentioned are given, we will upon application to us undertake to deliver, in small or large quantities, any of our brands that are desired. Our goods are better than ever. Our aim has always been to produce nothing but fine goods, which the public have shown their appreciation of by the enormous quantities that are sold annually. We aim to protect the consumer as well as the dealer, and by his enquiring for our goods, he protects himself.

A HOME-MADE PORTFOLIO.

Explicit Directions How to Make a Good and Cheap One.

A home-made portfolio to contain writing materials would be useful to many a busy mother whose children are beginning to wander east and west, says the Orange Judd Farmer. Cut two pieces of paste board 10 by 12 inches and two of factory 13 by 21 inches. Paste the factory on the paste board, one piece on each side, leaving the extra inch of cloth in the middle that the portfolio may fold over. For inside cut a piece of green cambric, red calico or whatever may be preferred about 12 by 20 inches. Cut pasteboard 9 by 10 inches and cover one side with this, letting the extra project on one side and the ends and turning over on the other side. Paste fancy paper or cloth on the other side of this paste board and on the right inside of the portfolio. Make a two-inch fold, such as one finds in pocket books, of the extra cloth at the ends, and put the fold between the cover and extra pasteboard; lap the other two inches at each end over on the right side and paste down firmly. Sew or paste the extending cloth along the middle of portfolio; this gives a large pocket for paper. Cut lining for other side 12 by 15 inches. Stitch two pockets on this lining with bright colored silks, made 6 inches deep, 5 inches wide, with an inch fold at each side, to hold envelopes and postals. Place two narrow pockets at one end for pencil and penholder. Hem this pocket along the upper edge with bright silk, and stitch the lower edge to the lining. Above these pockets stitch a shallow one for stamps. Now paste this lining on the inside of the other cover, lapping the ends and upper side over on the outside, and pasting them down. For the outside, velvet, plush, plain or fancy oilcloth may be used. If of oilcloth cut to come just to the edge. I recommend using glue in putting on oilcloth, instead of paste, and that heavy pressure be applied until dry. Make a band of web elastic to go around. In one corner, over pockets, put a calendar of the coming year cut from an almanac or fancy calendar. This portfolio well stocked with paper, envelopes, etc., would also be an appropriate gift for a son or daughter, going from home for study or work. A spray of flowers, or a monogram, might be put on the outside with tube paints. Somewhere about it, on the outside or in, put some such hint as this: "You write for but one, but all the world may read it."

Dutch Universities and Women.

Of the four Dutch universities, three, Leyden, Utrecht, and Amsterdam, are open to women, of whom a goodly number avail themselves of the privilege. The co-educational system prevails at the smaller schools, and the gymnasiums are open to girls. A large number of women have adopted the profession of chemists, and there are women pupils at every dispensary in Amsterdam.

To Clean Zinc.

Mix common whiting with ammonia until it forms a smooth paste, and apply to the zinc with a soft, woolen cloth; when it becomes dry, rub off with a piece of dry flannel.

How to Roast Meat.

The glory of a piece of roasted meat lies in the preservation of its juices. This may be best done by placing the meat in a very hot oven, at first, until it is slightly browned. This "sets" the juices and causes a coating to form on the outside to keep all juice from escaping. After the first fifteen minutes the oven may be allowed to cool somewhat, so that the meat has a chance to become thoroughly cooked without being burned on the outside.

In boiling meat the piece should be plunged into a pot of briskly boiling water. It should then boil more slowly until cooked through. In this way the natural flavor and nourishing juices are preserved.

Treatment of Furs.

Possibly the children's furs may need treatment after the Russian fashion: Put rye flour into a pot and heat as long as the hand, keeping it in motion, can endure the heat. The flour is then spread over the fur and rubbed into it. After this the fur is brushed with a clean brush, or better, is gently beaten until all the flour is removed. The fur thus resumes its natural lustre and appears as if new.

Preserve Your Poultry Wings.

The usefulness of poultry wings should cause their preservation. Lay them upon the reservoir or stove hearth with a weight upon the fleecy part of them and they will soon be firm enough for service. A new wing is without a superior for dusting books, window frames and upholstered nooks.

Feeble and capricious appetites are best regulated by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They do not debiliate, by excessive stimulation; but cause the stomach, liver, and bowels to perform their functions properly. As an after-dinner pill, they are unequaled.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE "IN IT"

A Life Agent called at a friend's place one day,

HE WASN'T IN IT;

He had seen "the bare" coming and that from his way,

HE WASN'T IN IT;

He had heard so much said, he was tired and sick

Of insurance and agents—"just all a blank trick,

When one's coil must be shuffled to win it,

HE WASN'T IN IT.

A bit of a draft blew o'er his bald head,

HE WAS IN IT;

Pneumonia sent him straightway to his bed,

HE STAYED IN IT;

His doctor made of it a "quite special" case,

To save him for running still more of life's race,

But the grave took some chances to win it,

AND HE'S IN IT.

When approached by a gent for insuring your life,

GET RIGHT IN IT;

It's the right thing to do for your children and wife,

THEN STAY IN IT.

Remember that fires take your goods "out of sight,"

And that accidents happen each day and each night.

While insurance protects every minute,

IF YOU'RE IN IT.

A Bank Manager's Opinion.

HE IS "IN IT."

The General Manager of one of the leading banks in Canada, writing to a personal friend, says:—"I have no hesitation in saying that I place the CANADA LIFE upon the highest platform. It is in my opinion carefully, economically and honestly managed; its Reserve Funds are well invested; its rates of Premiums are low, and its future is, I think better assured than a great majority of Companies. I have my own life insured in the Company for a round amount, and would not hesitate to increase the amount of my policies should I decide upon taking out further insurance."

A Government Insurance Actuary's Opinion

On the Relation between Ordinary and Tontine Service.

It is frequently asserted by Companies whose business is nearly all tontined, that although the CANADA LIFE may and does pay large ordinary profits, yet it cannot compare so favourably on a long term distribution or tontine period, and that in the end better results can be obtained on a tontine policy in a large American Co. than on an ordinary or tontine policy in the CANADA LIFE. To prove the absurdity of this statement, the following piece of common sense is quoted from Mervin Tabor, late Actuary of the Illinois Government Insurance Department. In his well known book, "The Three Systems of Life Insurance," he says: "A company that gives large dividends on the ordinary kind of policies, can give much larger on the same kinds when Tontined, and a company that pays but meagre dividends on the usual forms, adopting perhaps the Tontine system to "cover up" its small surpluses, cannot be relied on for large returns of surplus under the Tontine Forms of Insurance."

The CANADA LIFE does not "cover up" its Quinquennial profits as some Companies do, but publishes them throughout the country.

It can and does surpass other Companies on Quinquennial profits. It should and will surpass them on Tontine profits.

WHY TO BE "IN IT."

BISHOP HAWKE'S REASON:—"I claim that Life Insurance is not only a humane, but I might say a Christian Institution."

LORD LYNDHURST'S REASON:—"A Policy of Life Insurance is always an evidence of prudent forethought. No man with a dependent family is free from reproach if not insured."

WHEN TO BE "IN IT."

The younger, the cheaper. Therefore insure when young. Besides by insuring in the CANADA LIFE now, you will share in three years' profits.

WHERE TO BE "IN IT."

The best place to be "in it" is in the Company that gives the best returns for the least money, consistent with absolute security. Therefore, in order to be "in it," choose the

AFTER A STRONG FIGHT

MANITOULIN ISLAND CAN WIRE THE MAINLAND.

The Island Line Cut Through a Dense Forest—The Revenue Cutter Constance Gone Into Winter Quarters—Dewdney's Private Secretary.

OTTAWA, Dec. 13.— Information was received here yesterday that telegraphic communication had been established between Manitoulin Island and the mainland, thus giving about 12,000 people, who have hitherto been cut off from communication with the outside world during the winter, telegraphic connection with the rest of the Dominion.

The line is from Nelson Station on the Canadian Pacific Railway to Little Current on Manitoulin Island, a distance of about 35 miles.

It has been built by the people of the island, aided by a grant of $1000 from the Dominion Government. The line in the mainland had to be cut through dense forest and has been rather expensive.

No cable is used, the wires being carried on high poles across the steamboat channel, and from a series of island, to the mainland. It is intended to extend the line to Gore Bay and other points on Manitoulin Island.

Visited the Printing Bureau.

Hon. John Costigan, accompanied by Senator John Ferguson, paid his first visit to the Printing Bureau to-day and was shown over the building by Dr. Dawson.

The revenue cutter Constance has completed her service for the year, her last work being to bring up from Grosse Isle to Quebec the workmen who have been putting up the steam disinfector and completing the buildings there. The crew was paid off to-day and the vessel has gone into winter quarters.

Mr. E. A. Jacob, who for the past two years has been employed as assistant to Mr. George Johnson, Dominion Statistician, has been appointed private secretary to Lieutenant-Governor Dewdney and will leave for British Columbia in time to enter upon his new duties on Jan. 1.

There will be a meeting of the Treasury Board to-morrow morning, the first held since the formation of the new Ministry. All the old members of the board have been re-appointed with the exception of Hon. Mr. Chapleau, whose place has been taken by Hon. Mr. Ouimet.

A DANGEROUS COURSE.

To Travel It Is To Run Against Hard Presbyterian Facts.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 13.—The Cincinnati Presbytery, in secret session, voted late Monday afternoon upon the second and third charges against Prof. Smither, Lane Theological Seminary, and he was found guilty of both charges.

The second charge was that he taught contrary to the fundamental doctrine of the Word of God and of the confession of faith, that the Holy Spirit did not so control the inspired watchers in their composition of the Holy Scriptures as to make their utterances absolutely truthful, i.e., free from error when interpreted in their natural and intended sense.

The third charge accused him of teaching an inscription of the Scriptures in a sense different from that taught by the Scriptures themselves and by the confession of faith.

These two charges were so nearly alike that it is said that the court argued them together.

The final vote is reported to be: Charge second, guilty, 36; not guilty, 20. Charge third, guilty, 32; not guilty, 26.

A committee was appointed to consider and report the penalty for the action of the Presbytery at their meeting to-morrow.

In view of the close vote it's surmised that the penalty of excommunication will not be recommended, and possibly not even more than admonition, as the committee is made up to include several supporters of accused.

MR. GLADSTONE

May Be Invited to Be the Orator at the World's Fair.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—William Ewart Gladstone, the Grand Old Man of England, may be the orator at the opening of the World's Columbian Exhibition, May 1. Mr. Gladstone's name has been seriously considered by the Ceremonies Committee, and Secretary Culp believes the committee can secure him.

Some weeks ago the name of Emilio Castlebar was prominently mentioned. That a Spaniard and so eminent an orator as Castlebar should be chosen seemed eminently acceptable, but it was found that when it came to speaking English he was at a disadvantage.

"It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

When the kidneys are clogged, good health is an impossibility; but when working properly the reverse is the case. That dull back-ache is the kidney's cry for relief. If Dodd's Kidney Pills are used the result will be marvellous. We emphatically state that we have never known a case of kidney desease that a persistent use of Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure.

Blotches Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—In 1890 my body was covered with blotches and I was at last induced to try Burdock Blood Bitters; by the time I had used 3½ bottles of it I was completely cured, and I cannot speak too highly of it.

TWICE BELTED.

Our Daily Fashion Treats of Belts and Belting for Ladies.

You can't put too many styles of belt on. You cannot make up anything too ornate, provided always that all the belts and so on go up, instead of down as they did a little while ago. I am sure the girl I saw last night had on two belts at once. One was a bodice-like affair that came to a point just below the waist-line, and was cut into a lot of points on the upper edge. It was like a king's Sunday crown put about her waist. Then another business which was around her waist was all marked with narrow velvet like the ribs of a Japanese sunshade, and the edge of the sunshade had fringe. All this went up instead of down, so that the sunshade was inverted. The bodice itself was made with a yoke, and fastened in the back. The yoke was transparent. So were the sleeves. On the shoulders were draperies of stuff like the dress, scalloped and buttonhole stitched on the edges. The plain skirt was finished by a double row of scallops made in buttonhole stitch. The girl's hair was a sort of red gold, and her dress was just the shade of orange yellow you would have thought she could not wear, but which made her quite lovely. All the stitching was in black, and the transparent yoke and sleeves were dazzling white, so her cream skin showed through like peaches in snow, as the novelist would put it. Maybe you think the arm below the transparent part was bare. It wasn't, but the sleeves were skin tight, and one hardly noticed them except for the line of buttonholing at the wrists. No matter whether or not you are pretty—this girl certainly was not—there is no excuse for your not being chic and attractive and good to look at and quaint. Fashion gives you carte blanche.

FLORETTE.

MARY JANE.

I have thought of getting married
When I've seen thee, Mary Jane,
With thy dainty silks and satins,
With thy petticoat and train;
But a whisper came across me,
Like a sigh with omen rife.
"Ah, 'tis very well to marry,
But oh! canst thou keep a wife?"

If the last new bonnet suits thee,
Canst thou wear it still the same,
Though a newer pattern tempt thee,
Lately handed down to fame?
Will a dress or two content thee,
When stern fashion orders more,
And a solitary headdress do,
Instead of half a score?

But they tell me I am raving,
To expect so strange a thing,
And they laugh to scorn my musings
And the hopes to which I cling.
So I fear I must resign thee,
And a bachelor remain,
Yet I never can forget thee,
Oh, too costly Mary Jane!

People who have tried it, say that there is no better medicine for dyspepsia than Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It may not give one the stomach of an ostrich, but it so strengthens the alimentary organs that digestion of ordinary food becomes easy and natural.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

What is Dadruff?

A disease of the scalp that causes falling of the hair, fading of the hair, in fact, death of the hair. It irritates the scalp and causes scales and eczematic eruptions—produces baldness. Bear in mind that Anti-Dandruff removes Dandruff with three applications—stops falling and restores fading hair to its original color. Sold by druggists at 75 cents per bottle.

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

SANTA FE TRAIN WRECK

THE PASSENGERS FARE BADLY AS IS USUAL.

It is said the Baggageman Was Killed—The Train Went Through a Bridge—The Baggage Car and One Coach Are in a Creek.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 13.—Eastbound Santa Fe passenger train No. 2, which left Kansas City at 8.55 this morning, went through a bridge between Camden and Floyd, 40 miles east of here.

The baggage car and one coach went into the creek and several passengers are reported badly hurt.

It is said the baggageman was killed, but as wires are all down it is impossible to get details of the wreck.

THE BULLETS FLEW.

Four Masked Men Make a Lively Attempt to Rob a Train.

IRON GATE, Va., Dec. 14.—A desperate attempt at train robbery was made last night just as the C. & O. vestibule train, No. 4, was pulling out of Huntington, W. Va. The doors of the cars were thrust open and four masked men with two pistols each called upon the passengers to throw up their hands.

Two of the passengers seized one of the robbers, throwing him down and attempting to disarm him. In the scuffle one of the passengers, a German from Cincinnatti who with his wife was on his bridal trip to Europe, was mortally wounded.

Peter Drake was twice wounded. Meanwhile Ticket Collector Seingley was trying to secure a pistol, which he finally succeeded in getting in the baggage car, and, returning, opened fire on the robbers, emptying all the barrels of the pistol. He again returned to the baggage car, secured another pistol and commenced firing.

In the meantime the robbers had torn off their masks and the whole train was in intense excitement—women fainting, children screaming, and everybody who could was seeking shelter under the seats. The robbers, seeing their game was up, pulled the bell-cord, stopped the train and jumped off in the darkness.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

Dr. Bryce Tells of the Result of the American Conference at Mexico.

TORONTO, Dec. 14.—Dr. Bryce has returned from the convention of the American Public Health Association held during the past three weeks in the City of Mexico. There were 500 delegates at the convention, about one-half of whom were Spanish-speaking Mexicans. Dr. Bryce says the Mexican Government fully appreciates the aims of the association. Papers were read at the meetings in both Spanish and English and all English papers were published by the Government in Spanish and distributed throughout the city.

Of course the chief matters of discussion were the schemes proposed by which Mexico, the United States and Canada might by joint or separate action protect themselves from the cholera epidemic next summer. A special committee on the matter reported a resolution calling upon the American Government to at once establish a bureau of health, with headquarters at Washington, and with complete control of the external quarantine of the United States. The resolution also stated that it was quite essential for the proposed bureau to be vested with powers enabling it to co-operate with the Canadian and Mexican authorities. This resolution was unanimously adopted.

The association also expressed itself in favor of a proposition to close all but a limited number of ports to immigrants from Europe. A more effective method of excluding the fell pestilence would be, they thought, to prevent all immigration for one year, but in case that was impracticable the steamship companies ought to be compelled to obtain for each vessel sailing from European ports for America a clean bill of health from the American consul.

Dr. Bryce expressed himself as well pleased with his visit to the convention, and with the intelligent interest our dusky neighbors to the south take in sanitary matters.

YOUNG BLAINE.

Says His Father Is Improving and Progressing Nicely.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—James G. Blaine, jr., said last night to a reporter of The United Press: "Father is improving and progressing nicely. We have no apprehension as to the final outcome of his indisposition."

"Has your father, or the family, made any definite plans for the proposed trip when the weather will permit?" was asked.

"No, not as yet."

"How about the rumors that Dr. Ducey and Cardinald Gibbons inducted your father into the Catholic Church?"

"There is no truth in the rumor. Dr. Ducey called to see father one day last week only in a friendly way, as did Cardinal Gibbons yesterday. That is all there is to it."

No Result Expected.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The statement is made in high official circles that the International Monetary Conference at Brussels will within a few days adjourn to meet in March or April of next year. No result is expected to be secured at the present session of the congress.

Dunraven's Challenge Accepted.

THE ARMY BILL.

The Saxon Minister of War Favors Caprivi's Measure

BERLIN, Dec. 14.—The general debate on the Army Bill was continued in the Reichstag yesterday. The Saxon Minister of War spoke strongly in favor of the bill. He said that his Government endorsed it in every particular, and thus contradicted the rumors to the effect that the King of Saxony was irreconcilably opposed to the passage of the bill.

Rudolf Von Bennigsen, National Liberal leader, opposed the bill conditionally. It could not be passed unless altered, he said, and nobody should expect a parliamentary majority for it as it was presented.

August Bebel, social Democratic leader, denounced the bill from beginning to end. It was merely a provisional measure, he said, and the assurance given to the contrary should be considered in the light of the ever recurring demands of the last 20 years. The so-called Scharnhorst system was a theory which could never be realized under the provisions of the bill.

ANOTHER PROPOSAL.

That Warrants Be Issued Against Deposits of Silver.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 14.—M. Foville, a French delegate to the monetary conference, has submitted a proposal to the conference to the effect that warrants shall be issued against deposits of silver on same system as that which prevails in Glasgow, Scotland, where warrants are issued on deposits of pig iron, the warrants not to have recognition as international currency, but simply to bear the statement that they are good for the weight of silver specified.

It is understood all the countries in the Latin union will support the proposition, which is likely to secure the support of every section of the conference.

HOME RULE BILL.

The Measure Menaces the Unity of the British Empire.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The union of Conservative associations held its annual meeting in Sheffield yesterday. The attendance of delegates from all parts of the Kingdom was very large. The Earl of Scarborough was elected president.

Charles Stuart-Wortley, M.P., made the opening address. He declared the whole Conservative party would support the burden of rejecting the Liberal gerrymandering electoral reform bill and the Irish Home Rule bill, which latter measure menaced the unity of the Empire.

The conference adopted a resolution declaring in favor of the return to Parliament of candidates of the Labor party.

DREADFUL PSORIASIS

Covering Entire Body with White Scales. Suffering Fearful. Cured by Cuticura.

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and almost covering my face. It ran into my eyes, and the physician was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head, and shoulders being the worst. The white scabs fell constantly from my head, shoulders, and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I could see a change; and after I had taken four bottles, I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the REMEDIES. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight.

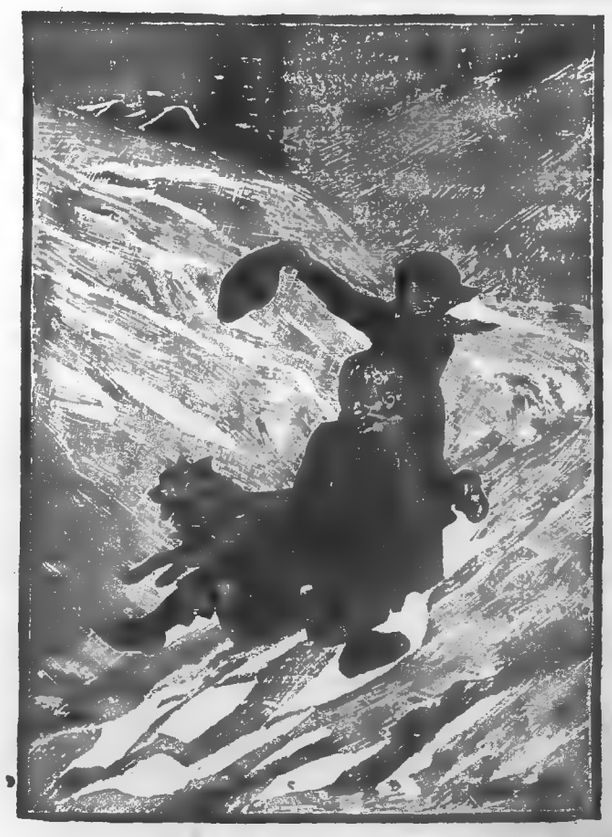
THE MOST SUCCESSFUL COUNTERFEIT



Is the one which is so NEARLY like the real thing as to be often mistaken for it. The business of turning out Ready-Made Clothing is carried on upon lines, in some cases, so near those of the honest manufacturer, that its products look and sell nearly as well, and deceive many good people into believing that it is just as durable as the article honestly made up.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

Appearances are very often disappointing, and scarcely ever more frequently than in the matter of Clothing. It is satisfactory, therefore, to know that you have a safe investment—always. We mean that you can never be deceived by it—that it is never misrepresented—and that the goods that bear our name and stamp, carry with them our own guarantee.

IN GRAFTON'S CLOTHING

If people would look a little deeper than what appears on the mere surface, they would soon see the difference between good and counterfeit Clothing. The one is constantly putting something solid into its structure, which will stand the wear and tear, while the other is full of dressing and shoddy, which cannot stand even the light of the sun.

Besides we sell DIRECT to our customers at close WHOLESALE PRICES, thus saving them a straight TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

NO WONDER PEOPLE LOOK SURPRISED

as they pass our store and see good garments marked at such low prices. That fine of $6.50 Suits and $6.50 Overcoats, for instance, are surprisers, and are being picked up more quickly than expected. We are honestly selling twice as many as anticipated, but we have stock enough to meet all demands, if you come before New Years.

The demand for Boys' Overcoats and Suits has also increased this week, and we are quite prepared for any rush. Prices $1.50 to $5.75.

A FREE SLEIGH RIDE.

We still continue to give away a dandy Hand Sleigh with every Boys' Suit or Overcoat.

A HOT FIRE IN TORONTO

IT DESTROYED A FIVE-STORY BRICK BUILDING.

The Conflagration Was of Short Duration But It Occasioned Nearly $40,000 Damages—A Number of Firms Lose Their Machinery and Stock.

TORONTO, Dec. 15.—Ruin never rode on swifter wings than in the fire which startled the business portion of the community at lunch hour yesterday. At 12.45 the first fierce sweep of flame was seen; at 1.15 the roof had tumbled in, and at 1.30 the fire was under but not rein, but within the 45 minutes nearly $40,000 worth of property had been destroyed.

The scene of the fire was a five-story brick warehouse in Pearl immediately in rear of Bay and King streets, owned by Mr. George Proctor of the Bay Tree Hotel, and occupied by these firms: Aylesbury Dairy Co., basement; John M. French, wholesale oil and paint factory, first floor; Schaefer's cigar factory, second flat, and the American Watch Case Co., third flat.

It is supposed that either a can of naphtha exploded or a barrel of methylated spirits in the J. M. French premises overflowed and the liquid ran down into the furnace of the Dairy Company below. Almost instantaneously the two lower flats were aflame like a lady's gossamer dress caught on an August candle. The fire swept up the elevator shaft and wrapped the entire building in a red winding-sheet, which emitted a dense volume of thick black smoke that curtained the centre of the city as with a pall.

The combustible nature of the building caused it to burn with astonishing rapidity. A prompt alarm had been turned in to the Bay-street Fireball, and hardly had this been received than it was followed by another from box 13, and this in turn by a third or general alarm, which summoned every division.

Within two minutes after the alarm had been sounded from the box several streams of water were playing on the flames. But even before the firemen arrived the fierceness with which the oil-impregnated interior burned created a hurricane which drew the fiery billows up the elevator shaft, as if it were sucking them through a tube. Every window hung out a red festoon, while great coils of black smoke hovered around the eaves and met above the roof with the flames already bursting through.

Hampered by the mud, which was ankle deep the firemen made a plucky fight. The wind had piled up a pyramid of rustling flame and smoke into the mid-air, and there was every indication that many buildings would be burned. The firemen, convinced of the impossibility of saving the factory attacked, confined their efforts to checking the progress of the fire. They were valiantly aided by anxious workers, who crowded the roofs of contiguous buildings and buckets were in constant use to subdue the living bits of fire that were constantly clinging to shingles and cornices.

The spectators had grown from two or three to a squad, and then from a company to many thousand people, who stood eagerly watching the fascinating revel of the flames, or cursed at the firemen, soaked to the skin and smoke-begrimed, emptying their watery ammunition on the flame-swept building, melting away as if Old Boreas were at the bellows. Now and then a section of the loosened bricks would come toppling down with a crash, and several of the firemen had narrow escapes. Finally the interior collapsed like a tar barrel which had burned itself out, and all danger of the fire spreading was obviated, although the bricks and charred timbers hissed and sputtered like Medusa's snakes and the steam and vapor rose above the ruins for an hour or two.

In the brief hour that the fire had raged as much damage had been occasioned as in any fire that has visited Toronto in years. The building, which was built five years ago at a cost of $10,000, was completely gutted. The tenants lost their entire stocks and machinery. There were about 75 men at work in the building, but all escaped with their lives. Many lost their personal effects, with the exception of the clothing they had on.

The American Watch Case Company is the heaviest loser. Besides valuable machinery destroyed, in the neighborhood of 400 gold and gold-filled cases were melted.

W. D. Grand & Co.'s stables flanked the burning building on two sides. It was at one time feared that the fire would spread to it, and 23 horses in the rear stable were removed. The only damage done was by water and $100 will cover it.

Across the lane and immediately south of the burned building is the woodenware factory of Taylor, Scott & Co. The flames, fanned by a northwest wind, reached across as if to devour it, but the firemen, aided by the employes of the firm, who had been placed on the roof with pails of water, prevented the roof being ignited. Several panes of glass were broken and the stock was damaged by water, but a hundred or so dollars will repair the loss.

No Personalities.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 15.—The last scene in the trial of Prof. Smith was enacted yesterday. Rev. Dr. A. Ritchie, acting moderator, read the sentence of the court.

Prof. Smith broke the silence by saying he was gratified that the trial had been conducted without disagreeable personalities.

BROOKLYN, Dec. 15.—Peter Hart, a veteran of the late war, who distinguished himself by nailing the flag to the staff at Fort Sumter, died last night.

MURDER AT PORT ARTHUR

AN AUTOPSY OF THE BODY SHOWS INTENTION OF CRIME.

His Brother-in-Law, the Suspect, Has Surrendered Himself—The Young Man's Evidence Contradicted That of His Mother's.

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Dec. 15.—The inquest on the body of Archie Cammill, who was shot Monday night, was opened yesterday before Coroner Beck.

Dr. Macdonald performed the autopsy, which revealed the fact that deceased was shot in the right side just above the nipple.

The wound was an awful one, being 3 1-2 inches in diameter, descending nine inches from the right nipple to the spinal column, and the second and third ribs shot away.

The evidence taken proved a straight case of murder, and James Rowe, a brother-in-law of the murdered Cammill, is generally looked upon as the guilty party. He was in company with the deceased on the fatal night, and they had quarreled.

Mrs Prynn, the first witness called, swore that Cammill and his wife lived on unfriendly terms.

Other witnesses swore that they saw a man, whom they believed to be James Rowe, run from the house.

Charlie Williams, a 10-year-old son of the deceased, was examined at some length. The boy had evidently been carefully schooled, as it took some time to get full particulars from him. His evidence contradicted that of his mother's. Mrs. Cammill, who is the principal witness, was examined at length. Her evidence was very unsatisfactory. Judging by appearance she is a woman whose moral responsibility is not great.

The inquest was postponed till Friday. James Rowe, who is believed to have fired the fatal shot, and who disappeared immediately after the murder, returned to town this evening and surrendered himself to the authorities.

NOT TO KILL.

Merely to Cause a Stampede Among the Non-Union Men.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 15.—The story of the selection of the poison alleged to have been used in the execution of the Homestead plot was learned yesterday from an authoritative source.

As has been stated, the design was not to cause the death of any of the non-union men, but to produce such an epidemic of sickness as to create a panic among them and thus effect a stampede from the works.

A prolonged discussion ensued among the conspirators as to the kind of poison to be used, and it was finally decided to consult a druggist. The conspirators reported that they wanted to disable a pugilist so that he could not win a fight in which he was engaged.

They were asked if they wanted the drug to act quickly or otherwise. It was stated that they preferred something that would affect gradually so as not to arouse suspicion.

The conspirators were told that a certain preparation could be made that would gradually undermine the strength, and if persisted in would knock the victim out in three or four days. The formula of the preparation was obtained and it is said the ingredients were found in the samples of coffee and soup which were analyzed by the chemists of the company at Braddock, Homestead and Duquesne.

NOT IN THE PLAY.

The Engineer of the "Blue Jeans" Buzz-saw Severely Cut by It.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—There was excitement on the stage of Col. Sinn's Park Theatre in Brooklyn yesterday afternoon during the dress rehearsal of the "Blue Jeans" company. This organization opened a week's engagement at that playhouse last night.

Trouble began during the buzz-saw act. Everything went along all right until Edward Wagner, who lives in Fifteenth-street, near Fifth-avenue, New York, and is the engineer of the company, began to oil the machinery which runs the big saw.

The saw was revolving at the usual speed when Mr. Wagner thought he detected a grating sound at one end of the shaft, and went to give the point of friction a few drops of oil.

While doing this Wagner's clothing was caught somehow in the belting and the next moment his body was moving towards the saw.

He gave a shriek for help, but before any one could reach him or appreciate his position he had passed the saw, and then the blood was oozing in a steady stream from a nasty zigzag gash on the left side, the saw having cut his clothing into threads.

Mr. Wagner shrieked with pain and became unconscious. The stage floor was dyed with his blood.

ON HIS DEATHBED.

James G. Blaine's Disease Is Now a Strength-Sapping Malady.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The following despatch from Washington has been received:

James G. Blaine is now on his deathbed. The strength-sapping malady from which he has suffered for so long a time has assumed a form which warns his family and friends of a speedy termination.

The disease attacked his lungs a short time ago and its course has baffled the skill of his physicians.

The visit of Dr. Janeway of New York to Mr. Blaine is indicative of the extreme anxiety of the family.

"Very much better," was the reply given this evening at the family residence to the inquiry about the health of Mr. Blaine.

Blown to Atoms.

NEWPORT, Ky., Dec. 15.—A huge boiler in Swift's rolling mill exploded last night with terrific force. Two tramps were blown to atoms and Herman Weisling and George Read were mortally wounded. Loss $15,000.

WAITING IN TURKEY.

The Latin-Americans Threatened to Have Arousing Fun Ahead.

VALPARAISO, Dec. 15.—A [illegible] at Santa Anita telegraphs that the [illegible] there are in terror, expecting an [illegible] of the province by federals. Barricades have been erected to resist the [illegible]. The garrison stationed there hope that aid will be sent by Col. Portegal of the republican forces.

Severe high military chiefs among the republicans, who had been imprisoned in San Borba preparatory to their execution by Porto Alegre, were killed by their guards escorting them to the capital of the province. It is also reported that many executions were practised on the wounded republicans in San Borba by the soldiery.

Frequent skirmishes between the federal and republican forces have occurred in Rio Grande do Sul. It is believed a serious battle is imminent. Both sides are accused of cruelties. The federals are indignant at the Government of Uruguay for permitting alleged violations of neutrality in allowing purchases of arms and ammunition in their territory.

Secret meetings have been held in Montevideo with a view of initiating a revolution against Herrera. It is proposed to force him to resign his position. The financial outlook, as made public, is brighter.

A correspondent in Buenos Ayres writes that a private navigation company has ordered five steamers of 10,000 tons measurement each. They will receive subsidies from the government, and be made so as to be used as armed cruisers in time of trouble.

Troops have been despatched to the frontier to enforce the neutrality of the territory, and prevent refugees from Rio Grande entering.

DR. BRIGGS' DEFENCE.

He Believes the Doctrine of Presbyterianism Much Too Illiberal.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Rev. Dr. Briggs resumed the reading of his defence in his trial for heresy yesterday afternoon. He declared that he was a rationalist.

He recognized that the Scriptures are really the greatest authority of the Christian religion. He thought, however, that the authors of the Westminster Confession had not sufficiently recognized that the logos was the light of the world, as taught in the prolog of John's gospel.

If the Presbyterian doctrines, as taught by the Westminster divines, were alone accepted and the better beliefs of the more liberal modern Presbyterian Church rejected, then must the soldiers of the Salvation Army, the members of the Society of Friends, the unnumbered heathen, and the unbaptized children be considered eternally lost.

The heathen could be saved by the shining of the logos in their minds and not by belief in a Bible they know not of.

As the Pharisees of old were rebuked by Christ for maintaining that they alone possessed all goodness, so now should these modern pharisees of the Presbyterian Church be rebuked for denying salvation to the millions who do not subscribe to their narrow belief.

Permission was given Dr. Briggs to print his reply to charges four and five and submit it to the members.

THE NEW CHIEF JUSTICE.

It Is Probable That He Will Have the Further Honor of Knighthood.

OTTAWA, Dec. 15.—His Honor Judge Strong will probably be sworn in as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada this afternoon by His Excellency the Governor-General in Council. It is rumored that following the custom adopted of late years with respect to the Chief Justices of important colonies the new Chief Justice will shortly have the honor of Knighthood conferred upon him.

That the financial position of this city is well thought of is evidenced by the excellent offers for the civic debentures advertised for sale within the last couple of weeks. The debentures were for local improvements. There were $40,000 worth of 20 years', and bearing interest at the rate of 4½ per cent. and $33,000 worth of 10 years' at the same rate. The offer of J. C. Brent was accepted. He offered 103 cents for the 20 years' debentures and 101½ cents for the 10-year debentures.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has completed the selection of its land grant, with the exception of 1,000,000 acres.

ROAD AGENT CONFESSES.

Tom Collins Tells of the Plan to Hold Up a Vestibuled Train.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Dec. 15.—Tom Collins, arrested yesterday morning, charged with being the other train robber, made a complete confession this evening of the entire affair to Chief of Police Turner and Detective Fitzgerald at the jail.

He said that the plan to hold up the vestibule was planned by Forgey two weeks ago and that he was induced to go into it by promise of a full share of the spoils.

He was drilled by Forgey at his house a number of times for the attack. Mrs. Forgey had full knowledge of the details.

Collins and Forgey are both wounded. Forgey's wound is in the right arm, near the shoulder, while Collins has a bad wound in the fleshy part of the right leg above the knee.

The prisoners waived examination and were bound over to court without bond.

A Sudden Death.

KINGSTON, Dec. 15.—That dreaded malady heart disease has claimed an old resident in the person of Martin Staley, proprietor of the Jubilee Hotel, Wellington-street. Mr. Staley left his hotel to go to the Court House, but had only proceeded a short distance when he felt a weakness at the heart and stepped into W. Harkness' butcher shop.

Leaning against one of the counters Mr. Staley became worse. Finally he asked for a glass of water. The water was procured, and Mr. Harkness sent for Dr. Bell. As the doctor entered Mr. Staley threw up his hands, gasped and would have fallen over had not the doctor caught him in his arms. Everything possible was done to restore the man, but he was beyond medical aid and expired shortly after.

Would Close Their Schools.

MONTREAL, Que., Dec. 15.—A fight is at present going on between the Order of the Sacred Heart nuns and St. Patrick's congregation over the proposed erection of a Sacred Heart convent within a few doors of St. Patrick's Church.

The St. Patrick's Church people claim that they will be forced to close their school should the Sacred Heart nuns come near them, and have petitioned the archbishop to move the Sacred Heart nuns to another portion of the city. Great antagonism has existed between the two bodies for many years.

Weddings are all the "go" now. W. H. Tucker & Bro., have to have five wedding cakes ready between now and Christmas.

The Methodist Sunday school at Wildman's gave a very interesting tea and entertainment on Friday evening last. There was a very large attendance. Musical selections, recitations and dialogues were given by the scholars and others. Proceed amounted to $28.

Mr. A. Cox, Peterborough, was in town on Wednesday last.

Dame Rumour gives notice of a number of weddings between now and the new year. The first of the series took placeat the residence of T. Rahal on Monday last. The parties interested were C. L. Graham, merchant, Belleville, and Miss Maggie McGill. Only the intimate friends were present, Rev. Mr. Buchanan performed the ceremony.

LAKEFIELD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The council meets Thursday night.

R. C. Strickland returned home on Tuesday afternoon quite recovered from his recent illness.

The village constable placed three young cattle in the pound last week which he found starving on the streets. If anyone has lost stock they had better see him as they will soon be sold.

A regular meeting of the Lakefield school board was held in the town hall on Tuesday evening. Dr. Fraser in the chair in the absence of Mr. T. Gordon, chairman; all the members present. Head Master's report presented and received. Mr. Thos. Gordon sent in his resignation which was accepted, to take place at the end of the year. Several accounts were ordered to be paid.

Wm. Smith was re-appointed janitor of the Ward school at a salary of $45.

Moved by R. Q. Dench, seconded by Levi Payne, that the bylaws be amended making it compulsory to put out tenders for janitors for both the brick and ward schools for future years.—Carried.

Isaac Watson, sr., was appointed janitor for the brick school at a salary of $80 per annum.

Annual Meeting—Auditors' Report.

The shareholders of the Lakefield Dairy Company entertained their patrons to their annual oyster supper at the factory last Thursday evening. There was a good turn out of the patrons and invited guests. The president, Mr. G. J. Galvin, occupied the chair. After refreshments the annual statement was read and a number of addresses followed. One of the principal speakers was the Rev. John McKwan, who seems to be as much at home when addressing audience of farmers as when on the church or Sunday-school platform. Some of his advice was pointed and well worthy of consideration, viz., that it was better to mortgage the farm to buy a thoroughbred bull and improve their stock than to mortgage the farm to buy a self-binder to save a little hard labour, and that it would pay better to try and breed good stock than to try and grow big pumpkins. It was also shown by the reports, that the tests made by the cheese maker of the milk supplied by each patron proved that if each were paid according to the amount of cheese material their milk contained, some would have as much as $17 more than they had received, while others would have got $3 to $4 less for their milk. So much for good and bad feeding. A number of good speeches were made, but as no reporters were invited a fuller report cannot be given. The following is the auditors' report of the season's operations. The figures are not as full as they might be, as some 320 cheese, of about 15,400 lbs., were sent to the English market, and returns are not in yet from them, which will pull up some of the averages beyond what is given in the figures:

In presenting the second annual report of the Lakefield Dairy Co. I am pleased to report progress and congratulate the company, the maker and the patrons, on the very successful season's make. I have to report that although the amount of milk received at the factory this year is 13,846 lbs. less than last year, yet the amount of cheese made this year is 198 lbs. more. I have to remind the patrons that I have not gone through each separate milk account as the pass book is supposed to be a check on that account. I have gone through the monthly receipts of milk and the monthly productions of cheese, the cheese sold in the factory, the local sales, also other sales and shipments.

The monthly totals are as follows:—

	lbs. milk.	lbs. cheese.	ave lbs milk.	price cts.	per 100	cts.	total price

It is a Very Sad Thing

To see young and beautiful people die when they might just as well live and enjoy health and strength. Many who suffer with coughs, colds and lung troubles, leading to consumption, imagine there is no hope for them, when in reality there is every hope if Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is taken regularly. Spread the news everywhere that this great emulsion will make flesh and blood, cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, sore throats and lung troubles tending to consumption. THE BIGGEST DAY IN 7 YEARS!

Saturday, December 3rd was the biggest day MR. J. J. SHEEHY has had in seven years. Why is this? Surely not because there is less competition. Certainly not because inducements are not being held out by others. Most assuredly not because prices of farm products are showing an upward tendency. Then why??

Simply because the purchasing public of the town and surrounding country have read Mr. Sheehy's advertisements, have inwardly digested them and have concluded that cheap sale or no cheap sale Mr. Sheehy is bound not to be undersold.

We want every day in December to be a big day. How are we to accomplish this? Simply by offering to the public better value for the money than can be had elsewhere. Just cast your eye over the following quotations:—

All Wool Flannels, 28 in. wide, - -	17½	Good Linen Towels each - - -	5½
9 lb. Wool Blankets, - - - - -	$3.75	Grey Wool Blankets, - - -	31c. a lb.
14 yds. Heavy Grey Canton Flannel,	$1.00	25 yards Factory Cotton, - -	$1.00

These few quotations will probably give an idea of what we are doing and a glance at our BARGAIN TABLE in the centre of our store will convince the most skeptical that when it comes to general bargains we certainly are very decidedly "in it."

LACE AND RIBBON.

Our Fashion Plate and Text To-day Deals With Extras.

The petticoat front is upon the horizon. The first sign of it is the elaborate trimming of the front breadth of a skirt, and a trimming of the front of the bodice to correspond. Meanwhile, the fashion affords a good way of using extras of lace and ribbon. The style of trimming adds height to the figure, too, and seems to convey a dignity especially suited to elderly and middle-aged woman. A lovely gown may be made for evening of clear gray heavy silk. Have the skirt trained, the front of it covered with black lace, and the skirt-length of black lace that hangs from the belt just full enough to be graceful. Let the belt be of ribbon to match the silk. From the belt hang four pieces of ribbon ending at the bottom of the skirt and there finished with handsome bows. The bodice, round in front, is of the silk covered with the lace, the latter drawn close, if of delicate enough pattern to permit. The bodice should be cut low, the neck being filled in with lace. For an elderly lady do not draw the lace into a round collar at the throat. The effect is more dignified when the lace comes to a point, kerchief like, at the throat. A band of jetted gray ribbon may be worn if the throat needs relief. There should be very full sleeves of the lace, showing the arms, and ending at the elbows with a full ruffle. delicate gray gloves to meet the sleeves and black or gray slippers with stockings to match. Granted a somewhat stately woman of good figure and with gray hair, and she will be attired most beautifully. Ah, me, that beauty of gray hair is neglected! And it is such a gracious beauty, so well worth dressing, and so worthy of admiration.

Ye Churn of Ye Olden Time.

It is a mistake to suppose that the dash churn used by our grandmothers was the original method by which to extract the butter-fat from the milk or cream. It is hard to tell, in fact, what the first idea was. Some say it was to put the milk in the skin of some animal, probably a goat, sew it up and then tie it to a horse, mount his back and take a gallop. We doubt this. Women must have churned before men learned to ride horses. The method now used in Palestine is probably as near the original as we can get. W. D. Croffut, an American traveller, thus describes it, as follows:

"One of the oddest things encountered in Palestine is a woman at the churn. The churn of this region was once animated, having been a goat in its better days. Now, the goat has vanished from it, flesh and bone for the epicure, and the good wife hangs up to a spike on the ceiling his skin by the neck, and pours into the uncanny vessel her wooden trays of milk. Then she churns by seizing the ghastly thing by the dropsical hind legs and swinging it half round her and back again in tiresome oscillation, as monotonous as any old wooden churn in a Yankee kitchen. When the butter "sets," she rests her weary arm and rejoices, and then she carefully unties the hind foot, which has served for a handle, and draws out the buttermilk, afterwards removing the butter by way of the slitted brisket. This seems to be the universal churn of the Orient. Whose milk is it? A goat's, probably. A sheep's, perhaps. A camel's occasionally. I am tired of goat's cheese, sheep's milk and camel's butter, and when I get home shall hug the first cow I see."

The box or barrel churn run by steam, when compared with the above, measures the advance made in dairying.—Ohio Farmer.

Ayer's Pills

Are better known and more generally used than any other cathartic. Sugar-coated, purely vegetable, and free from mercury or any other injurious drug, this is the ideal family medicine. Though prompt and energetic in their action, the use of the pills is attended with only the best results. Their effect is to strengthen and regulate the organic functions, being especially beneficial in the various derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels.

Ayer's Pills

are recommended by all the leading physicians, and druggists, as the most prompt and effective remedy for biliousness, nausea, costiveness, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, jaundice, drowsiness, pain in the side, and sick headache; also, to relieve colds, fevers, neuralgia, and rheumatism. They are taken with great benefit in chills and the diseases peculiar to the South. For travelers, whether by land or sea, are the best, and should never be omitted in the outfit. To preserve their medicinal integrity in all climates, they are put up in bottles as well as boxes.

Ayer's Pills

"I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and always found them to be a mild and excellent purgative, having a good effect on the liver. It is the best pill used."—Frank Spillman, Sulphur, Ky.

A Great Money Losing Sale
At the Clothing Store
Under the Opera House, No. 342.

The entire stock of Winter Overcoats, Suits, Gent's Furnishings, Hats, Caps and Furs, in the store formerly known as the "Grand Union Clothing Hall," must be sold out at whatever prices it will bring.

The peremptory orders leaves only 60 days to clear everything out. The proprietor says:—"Forget profits, forget cost, forget everything—but sell the goods."

This is no bluff, but absolute facts. The slaughter will, therefore, go on to the finish—until the whole business is wiped out of existence.

Better come quickly if you want any of these dead-sure bargains.

Important Announcement to the Public!

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS SALE.

Hall, Innes & Co.

Having decided to retire from the Dry Goods Business in Peterborough announce that they will on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23rd, commence a

GENUINE MAMMOTH CLEARING SALE for CASH

Covering Every Department of their Extensive Business.

HALL, INNES & CO.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Gents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

FORCED
REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 8 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, so we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well if not better, in the future.

A Delightful Evening.

The Ball Family of Jubilee Singers gave a splendid entertainment in the Mark street Methodist church last evening. There was a fair number present and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The programme rendered was substantially the same as that given with such admirable effect in the Charlotte street church on Monday evening. The encores last night were numerous. To-night they will appear again in the Mark street Methodist church, when several views illustrating the history and home of Uncle Tom's Cabin will be shown by limelight, and interspersed with melodious plantation songs.

IN LETTERS OF GOLD.

One great advantage (in addition to the splendid stock to select from and the low prices) in purchasing Bibles, Prayer Books, Church Services, Hymn Books, Purses, Card Case, Letter Cases, and all goods of a similar character, is the fact that you can have any desired name stamped thereon in gold letters, free of charge, and while you wait. The Peterborough Bookstore has the finest and largest selection of the above goods, and in fact of all holiday goods, in town.

An Oddfellows' Window.

Mr. Bert Shaw, dry goods clerk in Mr. J. J. Sheehy's store, has given a practical exhibition of his skill and taste as an expert window dresser in the shape of what is known as "an Oddfellows' window." Suspended in the middle of the window are the three magic links of the order made of surah silk in red, white and blue, surrounding the three well known letters "F. L. T." The sides of the window are draped with strips of surah silk in red, blue and yellow, with a bordering of pretty gypure lace. To the rear are two long heavy folds of shot silk in navy blue and gold. A sky blue watered silk covers in graceful folds the bottom of the window. In the centre is a handsome, deer wearing a fine pair of antlers. Each of the panels on the sides of the window bear the emblems of the initiatory and three degrees in Oddfellowship. The whole is a marvel of neatness, beauty and attractiveness, and many eulogiums are heard on every side of Mr. Shaw's exquisite arrangement and finish. A throng of spectators may constantly be seen peering into the window of Mr. Sheehy's store.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Wedding Bells.

Tuesday a very pleasant time was spent at Mr. William Bell's home, North Monaghan, the occasion being the marriage of his eldest daughter, Lillie May, to Mr. Walton Burns Mabee. The interesting ceremony was pertormed by the Rev. A. MacWilliams of St. Andrew's church, in the presence of some of the near relatiqes and friends. After a very elaborate dinner the happy couple took the 1.40 train. Returning in a few days they will settle in North Monaghan on the farm owned by the bridegroom.

Rare Antique Curiosities.

THE EXAMINER was shown yesterday a medium sized stone tea pot, cream coloured. It was used by the celebrated Lord Montrose in drinking "his sups" during the time of the Covenanters in Scotland, and has been handed down from generation to generation as a desirable heirloom. It is now the property of Mr. A. P. Melrose, town, who as is natural prizes it very highly. Mr. Melrose has also in his possession an ancient Portuguese penny, bearing the date of 1732. It is about the same size and weight as the Canadian currency penny.

Resolution of Thanks.

At a regular meeting of Peterborough Lodge, No. 13, Sons of Canada Benevolent Association, held on Wednesday evening, the following resolution was unanimously carried: "Moved by Bro. James Kennedy, seconded by Bro. F. S. Schneider, that the donation of the sum of fifty dollars made by the estate of the late Mrs. Nicholls be thankfully received and placed to the credit of this lodge, and that a vote of thanks be tendered Messrs. C. McGill and Richard Hall, executors of the said estate, for their generous gift; and also that the secretary be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to those gentleman and also to both the EXAMINER and Review.

It can be packed up and laid away for you on the quiet until Xmas. dw

The Weights and Measures Inspectorship.

The EXAMINER learns that the announcement in yesterday's issue to the effect that Mr. R. W. Errett had received the appointment of inspector of weights and measures for the county of Peterborough was premature. The EXAMINER is informed that no appointment of this kind has yet been made.

A Window of Ties.

A very attractive window of Ties, made-up and four-in-hand styles, is that of the Montreal Clothing House, 390 George street. These are imported ties — not bankrupt stock — and are in colours, patterns and material to suit every taste. The prices are marked at 10, 15, 20 and 25 cents, and are extraordinary value at that.

An Interesting Person.

Mrs. Layya Barakat, the Syrian lady who lectures in St. Paul's church this and to-morrow evening, is not a Jewess but a gentile — a descendent of the ancient Poenicians, who occupied the northern portion of the land of Canaan before the Israelitish invasion, among whose ancestors Paul and Barnabus worked on their mission to Antioch. Mrs. Barakat is a woman of 35 years of age, with a comely appearance and a very Oriental caste of countence.

A Conductor Dead.

To-day at noon the remains of Conductor W. Wood passed through Peterborough to Port Hope in charge of the deceased's brother, Conductor George Wood. The late Mr. Wood died at Lindsay on Wednesday, and his remains were being taken home to Port Hope for interment. The coffin was opened at the G. T. R. station and the remains viewed by a large number of fellow employees. Deceased was about 35 years of age, and one of the oldest and most respected conductors on the Midland.

Died in St. Joseph's Hospital.

Last evening Miss Ella Fitzgerald, of Rochester, who has been confined in St. Joseph's hospital for the past three months, died of consumption. She leaves no relatives except a sister, a member of the Order of St. Joseph, who resides in Rochester. Deceased was a pupil of Notre Dame Convent, and was highly respected by all who knew her for her devoted Christian character. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning to the Roman Catholic cemetery.

Gough's Christmas Boxes.

Gough Bros. the wonderful cheap men have beaten all their past records in bargain giving for the holiday season. They have applied the pruning knife to prices. Men's overcoats of tip top quality from $3.90 to $8.00. Magnificent bargains all. A bonanza in boys' suits, from $1.25 up. In the boot and shoe department the same slaughteringprices obtains. People wonder how such goods can be given for such low prices. The clothing offered at give-away-prices is part of a $40,000 manufacturers stock, secured at 60 cts. on the dollar. Bought at half price, they can be sold accordingly. See? 1d1w

PERSONAL.

Mr. Thos. Blezzard, M.P.P., and Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., are in Toronto to-day.

Mr. Ed. Whitehair left this morning for Chicago where he has accepted a good position. Ed. was a fine lacrosse player and his effective home playing will be sadly missed among the juniors.

Rev. Father Dube, of Arthur, formerly curate in St. Peter's Cathedral here, is spending a few days in town. His numerous friends are pleased to meet him and see him looking so well.

Mr. Wm. Houston, M.A., formerly of the editorial staff of the Toronto Globe and Government Librarian Toronto, is in town, the guest of Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P. Mr. Houston who is Director of Teachers, Institutes will attend the sessions of the Teachers' convention to morrow and Saturday.

MRS. LAYYAH BAKARAT.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Through the kindness of friends, I had the privilege last evening of meeting and conversing with Mrs. Bakarat, the lecturer of this evening. I was perfectly delighted with her clear and forcible descriptions of Oriental manners and customs in illustration and explanation of several passages of Scripture and would urge that every effort be made to hear this gifted lady. It is an opportunity which the people of Peterborough may never again enjoy. This is written in the interests of those who might afterwards regret their absence. St. Paul's church should be crowded to the doors to-night.

Yours truly,
J. W. BENNET.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Sillsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

Article of Merit

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

HAVELOCK HAPPENINGS.

Oddfellows' Concert a Great Success—C. P. R. Oil House Burned to the Ground Last Night.

The first annual concert and entertainment given under the auspices of Havelock Lodge No. 276, I.O.O.F., Bro. Burnett N.G., was held last evening in the hall over the public school house, and was a signal success. The building was crowded to the doors with Oddfellows their families and friends. Bro. W. A. Jackson, Toronto, presided, and proved himself an agreeable chairman. A fine programme of vocal and instrumental music contributed by local talent, was pleasingly carried out. About twenty-five members of Peterborough Lodge No. 111, I.O.O.F., left yesterday afternoon in a special coach attached to a freight train to take part in the concert. The visiting brethren gave the popular Oriental parade, which was well received. The team also put in the mock initiatory degree, which was loudly applauded and evoked much merriment. Bro. Stewart, D.D.G.M. of Norwood Lodge, was present and gave a stirring address on the benefits and growth of Oddfellowship. At the close dancing was indulged in until an early hour this morning. The Havelock brethren entertained their Peterborough friends in royal style. Two suppers were served in the large C. P. R. boarding house, and eagerly partaken of. The Havelock Lodge is a flourishing condition. It was organized by brethren from Otonabee Lodge about a year ago, and is composed principally of C.P.R. employees. The home brethren returned at five o'clock a.m.

A fire occurred last night in Havelock about 11 o'clock, when the oil storehouse of the C.P.R., situated between the depot and the large boarding house, was discovered to be on fire. How the blaze originated is a mystery. The size of the building was 18x20, and in it were contained some 2,000 gallons of oil. The structure and its contents were swept out of existence in no time, the oil blazing up furiously. A line of hose was attached to the engine water tank and thrown upon the seething mass of flame, which, by this means were kept within bounds. The loss to the company will result in a few hundred dollars. When the fire first started the shrill whistles of four locomotives rang out and an immense crowd congregated round about.

The Queen's Hotel, under the able landlordship of Mr. T. Smith, formerly of Peterborough, is enjoying a liberal patronage.

COUNTY COURT SITTINGS.

Continuation of the Civil Business.

THURSDAY, Dec. 15th.

Yesterday afternoon the court was occupied with the case of Revell vs. Tallman—An action in which Mr. J. O. Revill, lumber merchant of Lindsay, brings suit against Henry Tallman, of the same place to recover the amount of a promissory note, $183.50. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiff and $71.50, and that each party pay his own costs. His Honour held the question of costs in reserve. G. R. Anderson, Lindsay, for plaintiff; R. J. McLaughlin of Lindsay, for defendant.

Hayes vs. Connors—This was an action brought by James Hayes against Martin and Thomas Connors, of the Hub saloon, to recover damages in the sum of $200 for assault and battery. The case began about five o'clock yesterday afternoon and the hearing of the several witnesses on both sides consumed the greater part of this morning. The plaintiff claims that on August 18th, Civic Holiday, he went into the saloon and that in the course of an altercation that ensued the assault was committed. It is claimed that Thomas Connors struck the plaintiff from behind and that Martin Connors struck the plaintiff several severe blows in the face which caused profuse haemorrhage from the nose; that secondary haemorrhage ensued in the course of six or eight days, and that from the result of the blows inflicted by the defendants the plaintiff's life was in danger. Several medical gentlemen gave evidence and the testimony of other persons both for the defence and the prosecution was given and was somewhat contradictory in its character. Verdict for defendant. Mr. Sawers, for plaintiff; Mr. Moore, for defendant.

The Grand Jury made the following presentment:

To His Honour Judge Weller:

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOUR.—We, the Grand Jury of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, at the County Court and General Sessions, beg leave to make the following presentment:

We have examined the jail as instructed by Your Honour, and found everything neat, clean and well kept, in a manner which we think reflects great credit upon the jailor and matron. We found confined in the jail fifteen prisoners, four of whom are in for no crime but poverty, being aged and not able to work; and an insane girl who, we understand, will be removed to an asylum as soon as there is suitable accommodation. We did not deem it necessary to visit the hospitals and like institutions of the town, they having being examined so recently and reported on by the grand jury at the fall assizes held about one month ago.

JOHN LANG, Foreman.

December 14th, 1892.

Kidd vs. McDonald. — An action brought by Daniel Kidd to recover from Charles McDonald the amount of a promissory note of $187.30, with interest. Verdict by consent for plaintiff for $170, without costs. Messrs. Hall & Hayes, for plaintiff; Mr. J. Burnham, Q. C., for defendant,

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Chief Hazel arrested a young man this morning charged with being a vagrant.

—Liverymen complain that business in their line is dull and could not possibly be worse.

—There was no police court this morning.

—Peterborough Branch No. 21, E. B. A., elects officers to-night.

—The Teachers' Institute open a two days' session to-morrow in the Peterborough Collegiate Institute building.

—The eloquent Bishop Hawkins (coloured) will preach in the George street Methodist church next Sunday morning and evening.

—Mr. R. Tivey, late bridge inspector of the Midland, is building two large brick-veneered houses on Stewart street, Ashburnham.

—The next meeting of the Peterborough Presbytery will be held in St. Paul's church on Tuesday, January 10th, at 9.30 o'clock a.m.

—The Fire, Water and Light Committee held a meeting last night but it is understood they transacted no business of public importance.

—A party of Port Hopers, including Mr. R. R. Pothick and others, who have been north on a rabbit hunt, passed through Peterborough last night. They captured about a hundred hares and had fine sport.

—The municipal election notices have been posted by town clerk Cobb. Nomination takes place on Dec. 28th, and polling on January 2nd. The indications are that the elections will pass off very quietly.

—Lovers of curling should not forget that the Thistles will organize at the rink on Friday night. There should be a large attendance of all interested, as the season for the roarin' game is nighat hand.

—Mr. J. J. Turner this morning received a nicely designed diploma from the Victoria exhibition held at Lindsay on Sept. 26th, 27th and 28th, in recognition of the fine display of tents and rubber goods which Turner & Son made at the exhibition.

—Mr. J. H. McLean, of the Empire, Toronto, was in town to-day in the interest of the special Xmas number of the Empire. This fifth anniversary edition will contain 40 pages and will be printed on extra fine toned paper, illustrating by means of photogravure, many Canadian industries.

—Messrs. John Clancy, Alex. Patterson, Wm. Gould and Wm. Clancy were out on a rabbit shooting expedition in Smithtown yesterday. They slew thirteen rabbits in all and copied a magnificent silver fox which they gave chase to but were unsuccessful.

—At the opera house last evening Dean's Presentation Party was extended another jammed house. The presents given away were numerous and valuable. The coveted one, the gentleman's silver watch, was won by Mr. Geo. Shrover; Mrs. J. Landers won a fine silver butter cooler, and Mr. Revoir a cake basket.

—At a regular meeting of Peterborough Lodge No. 13, Sons of Canada Benevolent Association, held last evening, two propositions for membership were received and one candidate initiated into the mysteries of the order. The new lodge rooms for the Sons of Canada, in Bradburn's Block, over Mr. M. T. Ostrom's store, are being handsomely painted, plastered and papered, and will be ready for occupancy early in January, when an opening "at home" will probably be given in celebration of the event. The election of officers will take place at the next meeting, on Wednesday, Dec. 28th.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Remember the Bible class to-night at 8. Teacher, Mr. Isaac Richardson. Topic, "Why and How Should we Study the Bible?"

Gymnastic drill will commence to-morrow night with Sergeant-Major Rundle as instructor. All full members of the Association, or those wishing to become such, are eligible for admission to the gymnastic class.

Baths can be obtained now any day after 4 p.m. and on Saturdays after 9 a.m. The new heating apparatus is working well and not only heats the water but makes the bath rooms perfectly comfortable.

"OUR CHURCH CHOIR."

A lady writing from a western Canadian city, says: "Some half dozen members of our church choir have used Harvard Bronchial Syrup with wonderful results. I am never without it in my home or when I go abroad. I find that one small dose is quite sufficient to clear the voice and remove huskiness."

This lady voices the opinion of thousands of other singers in Canada. No other cough remedy is so popular with our amateur and professional vocalists. All use it because it is reliable, prompt, effective and pleasant to the taste. Every druggist in Canada sells the Harvard. Ask for the large twenty-five cent bottle.

Peterborough, December 12th, 1892. 160

To the Electors of Ward No. 2

AT the urgent request of a number of the electors of this Ward, as well as those from other parts of the town, I have consented to allow myself to be placed in nomination for a seat at the Council Board for the ensuing year. If honored with election I will do my utmost to advance the best interest of the whole town. As my time is fully occupied I may not be able to see all the electors personally and take this means of soliciting the votes and support of the ratepayers of the Ward to secure my return.

THE COMPOST HEAP.

THIS BASIS OF FERTILIZATION SHOULD BE FOUND ON EVERY FARM.

Waste Nothing But Turn Ashes, Weeds, Mortar, Etc., Etc., Into Manure That Will be Twice as Rich and Valuable as Commercial Fertilizers.

How to fertilize our fields thoroughly and at less cost is one of the problems of agriculture that demands solution every year. The tendency is to reduce the cost of production, and by so doing we often begrudge our land its proper amount of food. Study and experiment in this line are making it possible to fertilize at less cost. The great waste of the farm exists on every side and how to utilize everything must be solved before we can hope to make composts of the right manure and at least cost. The making of composts is as old as the hills, but it is none the less capable of improvement. It is in this work that we save direct outlays of money and improve the soil more than if twice as much was spent for commercial fertilizers. All vegetable matter contains the very essentials which make a good pile of compost and this, fresh or decayed, must all be gathered. In autumn all of the vegetable matter that is not needed for fodder should be gathered in one heap, moist earth and lime mixed with it, and the whole mass exposed to the sun and rain. In a short time such a heap will be so rich in nitric acid that it would stimulate plant growth to an abnormal development. Such a compost enriches the soil beyond all comparison.

Turn under buckwheat or grass, in order to enrich the soil, and then add lime to penetrate into the mass during winter. By spring a fine field, rich in nitric acid, will be prepared. It is on this principle that we gather decaying vegetation in the barnyard and mix earth and lime with it. Leaves of the woods and forest are vegetation that will answer this purpose just as well as other growths. They can be gathered by the cart-load every autumn, and by keeping them mixed with moist earth and lime all winter, one can make a compost heap that is worth a great many dollars. Wood ashes are now used very generall for fertilizers, and unleached ashes are becoming a most valuable agent in restoring lost fertility to soils. In burning, however, there is a great deal lost, and it is really unprofitable work to burn wood in order to use the ashes as a fertilizer. If the wood could be decomposed by the processes of nature, all this loss by fire could be prevented. It follows then, says the Wisconsin Agriculturist, that all vegetable and plant life contains the best fertilising material that the soil needs. It can be gathered on every side, from the woods, swamp and fields. Weeds cut before they go to seed are just as good as other plants. Leaves of the woods and forests, the broken and decayed pieces of wood and bark are rich in nitrogenous food. Swamp muck is made up of all decaying matter mixed with moist earth, and it needs but the application of lime and the warming effect of the sun to convert it into nitric acid. Black earth from meadows and ditches, and in fact all conceivable mixtures of dead plants and earth are valuable to the farmer. Nothing should be wasted.

A Sure Gate Closer.

The annoyances resulting from open garden and lawn gates can be avoided by the contrivance shown in the accompanying illustration, drawn from a sketch sent us by R. C. Hollins, of Kentucky. This gate closer will not only close the gate every time it is opened to the usual width, but if the gate is swung completely back to the fence, it will also hold the gate open. This is a great convenience, as all realize who have tried chains or ropes with weights, and self-closing hinges or springs. With self-closing gates, the carelessness of children and callers will be overcome, and the trees and plants saved from injury by trespassing cattle and swine.—American Agriculturist.

A SELF-CLOSING GATE.

Feeble and capricious appetites are best regulated by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They do not debilitate, by excessive stimulation; but cause the stomach, liver, and bowels to perform their functions properly. As an after-dinner pill, they are unequaled.

National Pills are a mild purgative acting on the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, removing all obstructions.

Little Jennie was Cured.

DEAR SIRS.—My little Jennie was very bad with La Grippe which left a bad cough. I gave her Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and it soon cured her.

MRS. MCARTHUR, Copleston, Ont.

If there was a specific for any one complaint, then Carter's Little Liver Pills are a specific for sick headche, and every woman should know this. Only one pill a dose. Try them. dw

Palpitation of the heart, nervousness, tremblings, nervous headache, cold hands and feet, pain in the back, and other forms of weakness are relieved by Carter's Iron Pills, made especially for the blood, nerves and complexion.

Convenient Stable Tools.

At a cost of very little time, and no money, every horse owner may have several convenient stable tools. The scraper at a has a handle four and a half feet long, the scraper head being fourteen inches long, six inches wide, and one and a half inches thick at the center, and tapering toward each edge. The scraper at b has the same length of handle, also the same length and thickness of head, the solid portion, however, being but four inches wide, the upper edge set with pointed wooden pins two and a half inches long and three-quarters of an inch in diameter. Provided with these wooden teeth, the stable can be nicely and expeditiously cleaned without the use of a fork. It will also prove convenient for separating the coarse from the fine litter. The wooden pin at c is for clearing out the holes, made through the floor for drainage, and should be one foot long, a hole being provided near the upper end for a string or wire loop by which it may be hung up.—American Agriculturist.

FULL OF NERVE.

He Killed Two Murderers of His Father and Captured a Third.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—Mail advices from Japan report that three escaped Japanese convicts recently found shelter in the house of a family. They were kindly treated and supplied with food for three days.

On the fourth day, during the absence of the son and daughter, they murdered the father, pillaged the house and fled. The son overtook the men, killed two and captured the third.

POISON AT HOMESTEAD.

The Victim at Toronto is Not Known by Carnegie Officials.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 14.—The Charles Stanford, who died in Toronto, Oct., last night from supposed poison administered at Homestead during the strike, is not known by the Carnegie officials. Secretary Lovejoy said the company sent several sick men home, but kept no record of them.

The officials and members of the Homestead Advisory Board continue to denounce the poison plot as a scheme to further injure them.

Niagara Reservation

ALBANY, N.Y., Dec 14.—The commissioners of the Niagara reservation will meet Thursday in New York to prepare their annual report and prepare estimates for many repairs and improvements to be made the coming year. The number of visitors to the reservation from Oct. 1, 1891, to Sept. 20, 1892, was 196,580, and the receipts will almost equal the expenditures, regardless of improvements.

Up Instead of Down.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 14.—The indications are that to-morrow morning whisky will be sent up another five cents and alcohol 10 cents a gallon, and the present unsettled state of the market becomes more confused and uncertain in consequence.

Producers Paid It.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—During the month of September the collector of customs at Marquette, Mich., collected canal tolls to the extent of $8326.79 on Canadian vessels. For October the sum was $14,130.58.

No Hostility at Rome

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The Standard's Rome correspondent says: "In response to letters from foreign organizers of pilgrimages, expressing fears of a hostile reception in Rome, the Vatican gives assurance that there is nothing to fear, it being to the interest of the government to prevent a repetition of the scenes of October, 1891. The Pope has intimated that offerings of money would be the most suitable jubilee gifts."

Mrs. Langtry Angry.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The Morning Post says: Mrs. Langtry has offered a reward of £50 for information as to the origin of an unpleasant story about herself. She was the heroine, the story has it, of a disreputable scene at supper at the Savoy Hotel, when it is alleged she threw butter at a number of gentlemen, and was requested to finish the meal in a private room and then to quit the hotel.

Home Rule Trouble.

DUBLIN, Dec. 14.—John Dillon, in addressing a National Federation convention at Boyle yesterday, admitted that there was some danger and risk of trouble in Parliament over the coming Home Rule, but he said it arose rather from the dissension in Ireland than from the condition of the parties in England.

On the Retired List.

PARIS, Dec. 14.—Lieut. Count Reine de Segonzac has been placed on the retired list in consequence of his failure to give a satisfactory account of the death of Lieut. Paul Quiquerez, his companion in an exploring expedition on the Ivory Coast Busy Watchmakers.

ROME, Dec. 14.—The Naples Courier says that the Jesuits are trying to arrange a matrimonial alliance between Don Jaime, son of Don Carlos, and Infanta Mercedes, daughter of the late King Alfonzo. Don Jaime is 22 years of age and Mercedes 10 years younger.

He Startled the Crowd.

MADRID, Dec. 14.—After Sagasta's statement in the Cortes yesterday, while many of the deputies were cheering for the Queen Regent and the young King, the Republican, Salmeron, arose and in a ringing voice cried, "Viva Republic!" A scene of intense excitement followed.

A Torpedo Boat Lost.

KIEL, Dec. 14.—A Turkish torpedo boat left here Nov. 18 and has not been heard of since. She is supposed to have been lost in the Atlantic.

Delays are Dangerous.

At this season the effects of catarrh and cold in the head are most seriously felt, and endanger life and health if not promptly treated. For this purpose there is no remedy equals Nasal Balm. Prompt in giving relief and never fails to cure. Sold by all dealers. 50c. a bottle, by mail, post paid. Address G. T. Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

"It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

E. WESTON,

When the kidneys are clogged, good health is an impossibility; but when working properly the reverse is the case. That dull back-ache is the kidney's cry for relief. If Dodd's Kidney Pills are used the result will be marvellous. We emphatically state that we have never known a case of kidney desease that a persistent use of Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure.

Blotches Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—In 1890 my body was covered with blotches and I was at last induced to try Burdock Blood Bitter; by the time I had used 3½ bottles of it I was completely cured, and I cannot speak too highly of it.

HIS RESIGNATION.

Will Probably Entomb the Official Life of the Ribot Cabinet.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—M. Rouvier [illegible] upon President Carnot yesterday and tendered his resignation of the former presidents.

In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday M. Rouvier confirmed the statement made by M. Clemenceau that he and Baron de Reinach visited Clemenceau on the eve of the Baron's death.

Paul de Roulede, former president of the suppressed Patriotic League, made a violent attack upon Rouvier, declaring he ought to be compelled to appear before the High Court to answer charges made against him in connection with his conduct while holding a Ministerial position.

M. Rouvier responded, saying he was ready to answer in any court any charge. He added that he had visited Baron de Reinach solely from motives of humanity.

The resignation of Rouvier will probably result in an extension of official life to the Ribot Cabinet.

Shortly after M. Rouvier's visit to President Carnot it was officially announced that the Finance Minister's resignation had been accepted and that M. Tirard, ex-Minister of Finance, and at present representing France at the Brussels conference, had been appointed to succeed him.

Will Be Rebuked.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 14.—The committee appointed by the Cincinnati Presbytery to report upon the penalty to be visited upon Prof. Smith, who was found guilty of charges two and three brought against him, to-day submitted two reports.

The majority recommended a rebuke and the minority a suspension. The court went into secret session to consider the reports.

Free from Poachers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—The United States revenue cutter Bear arrived yesterday, 11 days from Unalaska. She reported Behring Sea free from poachers.

A Cholera Victim.

HAMBURG, Dec. 12.—A servant girl who arrived at Hamburg on Tuesday last from Gustrow ill died from cholera on Thursday.

Employers Win the Fight.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 13.—The fight between labor and capital in New Orleans was to a finish and the victory of the employers is becoming more sweeping every day.

The Amalgamated Council which conducted the general strike is so weakened that it will hardly survive its defeat.

The Knights of Labor withdrew early in the fight and refused to countenance the general strike, leaving the bodies belonging to the American Federation of Labor alone in their glory. Now these are deserting the Council.

A Strike Averted.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—It was stated yesterday that the threatened trouble between the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers representing the Vanderbilt lines and the New York Central Railway has been dissipated, matters having been satisfactorily arranged between the two parties.

A Well Known Editor Dead.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—Sir John Bernard Burke, editor of Burke's Peerage, died yesterday.

People who have tried it, say that there is no better medicine for dyspepsia than Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It may not give one the stomach of an ostrich, but it so strengthens the alimentary organs that digestion of ordinary food becomes easy and natural.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

What is Dandruff?

A disease of the scalp that causes falling of the hair, fading of the hair, in fact, death of the hair. It irritates the scalp and causes scales and eczematic eruptions—produces baldness. Bear in mind that Anti-Dandruff removes Dandruff with three applications—stops falling and restores fading hair to its original color. Sold by druggists at 75 cents per bottle.

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

MURDERED MANY BABIES

YET SHE RECEIVED BUT A YEAR'S IMPRISONMENT.

Shown to Be Guilty of Suffocating 111 Children—The Bodies Found Buried in Her Cellar—The Powerful Influence of Former Patrons.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 15.—The midwife Bodwarska in Lods, tried for having murdered more than 100 babies, has been sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

Great indignation has been caused in Lods by the lightness of the sentence. The woman was shown to be guilty of suffocating 111 children, whose bodies were found buried in her cellar.

As she had been at work at this kind of thing for nearly 20 years there is little doubt that her victims number in the hundreds.

She was saved from the full penalty of her crime by the powerful influence of some of her former patrons.

COLLIERY DISASTER.

It is Expected that Over Fifty Lives Have Been Sacrificed.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—An explosion occurred yesterday at the Ramfurlong Colliery, Wigan, and not less than 50 lives have been lost.

Despite the efforts to extinguish the flames, the fire spread to the engine house at the head of the air tunnel. This stopped the pumping of air into the mine and added greatly to the peril of the men in the pit. The fire was not subdued until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Some time after the bodies of 20 of the miners, who had been suffocated by the noxious gases generated in the mine after the explosion, were brought to the surface by the rescuing parties.

Though the work is extremely dangerous, the exploration of the workings is continued in the hope that some of the miners in the pit at the time of the explosion have reached places of safety where they are awaiting the approach of the rescuers.

Manager Hutchinson of the Bamfurlong Mine went down into the pit with one of the last rescue parties. In his anxiety to make a thorough search for the men he remained below too long and was overcome by smoke. He was brought up apparently lifeless and was revived with difficulty.

In the main roads the bodies lie in twos and threes as the men fell. Large sections of roof galleries have collapsed. Amid the ruins were found mangled bodies and half-burned limbs. The ruins have blocked many parts of the mine, and therefore the men searching for bodies are unable to give any definite idea of the number lost.

Several miners who were just alive when found died on their way to the surface or shortly after being taken from the car. One rescue party reached the surface half suffocated by the heat and smoke caused by the fresh outbreaks of the fire.

The rescued miners believe that the explosion was caused by sparks from the engine house, which is said to have caught fire a few minutes before the explosion. Men were sent through the mines warning the laborers, and many of those nearest the shaft escaped.

The miners who worked further from the shaft tried to rush through fire and smoke and were suffocated in the effort. The work of rescue will be continued through the night, although there is little hope that more men will be taken out alive.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

British Delegates Blamed for Its Not Being Settled Long Ago.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 15.—At the International Monetary Conference Sir Guilford D. Houldsworth protested against the obstructions offered by the British delegates at this and previous conferences. But for the action of the representatives of Great Britain this currency question would have been settled long ago.

Sir Guilford declared that the situation in Great Britain had greatly changed since Nov. 22, the date of the first meeting of the conference, and suggested that the conference adjourn for a few weeks to enable the British Government to reconsider the whole question.

He gave as the reasons for the change in the situation in Great Britain the statement in favor of bi-metallism made by Archbishop Walsh of Dublin, the resolutions adopted by the agricultural conference held a few days ago in London and the petitions forwarded to the Government by various chambers of commerce.

To See About It.

LONDON, Dec. 15. — The Chronicle's Vienna correspondent says that according to information from a semi-official source the United States immigration regulations will form the subject of an international exchange of ideas, and the European powers will probably make representations on the subject to the government at Washington.

MURDERER SLAVIN.

Prayers Offered Up for Him in the Cornwall Churches.

CORNWALL, Dec. 15.—Prayers were offered up in all the Roman Catholic and Protestant churches here yesterday for Slavin, the unfortunate who is to be executed between 7 and 8 o'clock Friday morning. During the 40 hours' devotion, which began here Sunday, all the Roman Catholics who received were requested to also receive for the doomed man.

The Rev. Mr. Hastie, pastor of Knox church, who had an interview with Slavin, some days ago, during his sermon on Sunday, referred in feeling terms to him. Slavin had informed him that had he remained in Cornwall and abandoned the use of liquor, he might now, instead of wearing the convict's clothes, have occupied a prominent position among the people of his native town. He would not relate the conversation that took place between the condemned man and himself further than one point, which professing Christians should take to mind. Slavin said he first lost faith in professing Christians from observation of their outward life, and having thus lost faith in them he lost faith in the Bible, and, as a natural result, lost faith in a personal God. He urged upon all Christians to live a life pleasing to God and by their conduct bear out the divine teachings.

Radelive, the hangman, arrived here this morning and is creating more excitement than did Barnum's show, which visited Cornwall some few years ago.

COMING FROM SCHOOL.

Run Over by a Rig—He Dies Two Hours After Being Taken Home.

TORONTO, Dec 15.—A 6-year-old schoolboy named Henry Russell was run over and fatally injured at noon yesterday in Sumach-street by the delivery cart of Morgan J. Kelly, wine merchant, Gerrard and Sackville-streets.

The little fellow was on his way home from school and was chasing a companion across the street, when the accident occurred. He died a 2 o'clock.

A reporter saw Mr. Kelly. He said: "I was driving south on the right-hand side of the street. In front of me and near the middle of the road was a coal cart going at a walk in the same direction. When a little below St. David-street two boys ran across the street in front of the vehicles. One boy got across all right, but young Russell stood still as if paralyzed right before my cart. My horses were only jogging along, but before I could pull up one of the wheels ran over the boy. If he had been one of my own boys I could not have done more to save him. The little fellow jumped up and he did not seem to be much hurt. He told us where he lived and we took him home. When I came — hours afterwards Dr. Cleland told me the boy was dead. I was dumfounded. I have already notified Coroner Dingman and he referred me to Coroner Aikins."

Mr. Kelly keenly feels the sad event and has notified the parents that he will bear all expenses.

Dr. Cleland is of opinion that internal injuries were the cause of death, there being no marks or bruises.

The boy's father is James C. Russell and he lives at No. 9 Sackville-street.

Coroner Aikins has decided that an inquest is unnecessary.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL COUNTERFEIT

Is the one which is so NEARLY like the real thing as to be often mistaken for it. The business of turning out Ready-Made Clothing is carried on upon lines, in some cases, so near those of the honest manufacturer, that its products look and sell nearly as well, and deceive many good people into believing that it is just as durable as the article honestly made up.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

Appearances are very often disappointing, and scarcely ever more frequently than in the matter of Clothing. It is satisfactory, therefore, to know that you have a safe investment—always. We mean that you can never be deceived by it—that it is never misrepresented—and that the goods that bear our name and stamp, carry with them our own guarantee.

IN GRAFTON'S CLOTHING

If people would look a little deeper than what appears on the mere surface, they would soon see the difference between good and counterfeit Clothing. The one is constantly putting something solid into its structure, which will stand the wear and tear, while the other is full of dressing and shoddy, which cannot stand even the light of the sun.

Besides we sell DIRECT to our customers at close WHOLESALE PRICES, thus saving them a straight TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

NO WONDER PEOPLE LOOK SURPRISED

as they pass our store and see good garments marked at such low prices. That line of $6.50 Suits and $6.50 Overcoats, for instance, are surprisers, and are being picked up more quickly than expected. We are honestly selling twice as many as anticipated, but we have stock enough to meet all demands, if you come before New Years.

The demand for Boys' Overcoats and Suits has also increased this week, and we are quite prepared for any rush. Prices $1.50 to $5.75.

A FREE SLEIGH RIDE.

We still continue to give away a dandy Hand Sleigh with every Boys' Suit or Overcoat.

Alarm Clocks!

There are a great many small Alarm Clocks which have been running for a few years and are now out of order, which the owners are allowing to remain idle, because they think it will cost too much to repair them. If you bring them to us you will find that we will make them run as well as they ever did, at a very small charge. We have already changed hundreds of them from being merely rubbish into good timepieces. If you want to buy a new one, we will sell you an Alarm Clock at a lower price than any one else in the trade. We sell only the very best make and warrant every one.

FLOUR IN THE WEST.

The Mill Output Last Week Was One Of the Heaviest.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 16.—The Northwestern Miller says: The mills made another big run last week, the output being the heaviest in three weeks. The aggregate production for the week was 194,390 barrels, against 186,515 barrels the previous week.

The flour market remains dull, and prices, in sympathy with those of wheat, are gradually settling down. For a week back there was quite an excess of flour ground over the volume of orders received. The failure of dealers to give shipping directions on all orders is still a very serious drawback. This sort of thing causes millers to talk about establishing their own distributing agencies in the east and displacing the middleman.

The trade in flour the past week has been largely in carlot orders, coming from home markets. Direct export shipments by the mills last week were 30,940 barrels, against 30,420 the preceding week.

A SHOTGUN.

It Brought An Escaped Murderer Back to Imprisonment.

SARATOGA, Dec. 16.—Martin Foy, the race track jockey, who murdered Henrietta Mihon in cold blood in this village last May, who escaped from jail in July and was re-arrested in Oakland, Cal., in November and brought back again, escaped from Ballston county jail yesterday.

He presented a pistol to the jailer's face and walked out of the jail unmolested and took to the woods. A dozen officers and 100 citizens went in pursuit.

Irving W. Wiswell, a lawyer, came to the jail with Foy in front of a shotgun. He captured him half a mile below the village.

SHELLED VILLAGES.

The British Warship Rapid Administers Severe Punishment.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 16.—The steamer Australia arrived from Honolulu yesterday, bringing the following advices:

The Legislature has appropriated $4000 for the tour of Princess Kaiulani and heir-apparent through Europe and the United States and $12,000 to send the Hawaiian band to the World's Fair.

News has reached Honolulu of the shelling of seven villages on Solomon Islands by the British warship Rapid for the killing of white traders.

A Fatal Skating Accident.

LENOX, Mass., Dec. 16.—Harvey A. Corley, 24, and Eliza Vandenburg, 22, were drowned last night. Corley was clerk for a local druggist and was studying medicine. He was born in Medford, Canada, where his mother and two sisters reside. He also has a sister, Mrs. Dinsmore, residing in New York. Miss Vandenburg's home is at Troy, N.Y., where her parents reside. She was a teacher in the Lenox Grammar School and very popular. They were skating on a pond with which they were unfamiliar, and skated into an open space at an inlet where the swift water was not frozen.

A Long Sheep Drive.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, Dec. 16.—Early in May Frank Fordyce, a young stock baron of Idaho, will attempt to drive from the centre of state to Ogallalla, Neb., a band of 45,000 sheep. The distance to be traveled by the animals is more than 1000 miles, and Fordyce hopes to accomplish the trip in six months.

International Curling Match.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The Grand National Curling Association met last night at Caledonia Hall, and it was decided to play the Gordon International match at Albany City rink between Feb. 5 and 15. Edwin L. Thomas was elected vice-president of the association, vice James Kelly, resigned.

Results of Cholera.

PANAMA, Dec. 16.—In consequence of official news that cholera has broken out again in Hamburg, the Colombian Government has closed this country's ports against all vessels having left Hamburg after Dec. 10.

ROUVIER'S DOWNFALL.

Regarded as the Result of a Carefully-Concocted Plan.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—The Paris correspondent of The Times regards Rouvier's fall as the result of a carefully concocted plan, which is advancing steadily with complete precision.

While it cannot be said that the leaders and the fighters in this campaign against the Republic have already capsized in their stables the black horse pawing with impatience to get out, he continues, it cannot be doubted that they are aiming at the destruction of the Republic by rendering it a suspect in the eyes of the country.

This they will doubtless accomplish, for however complete the Panama exposure may be they will always affirm that more was concealed than revealed. Indeed, should elections occur in the midst of the present excitement, the Conservatives, by showing their presumable honesty in contrast to the torrent of Republican corruption, would be almost certain of success.

The Radicals, with characteristic short-sightedness, may play into their hands. Should a Radical and Royalist coalition accept the Boisserin bill, the overthrow of the Cabinet would precipitate a Cabinet crisis."

Denouncing Freemasonry.

ROME, Dec. 16.—The Pope will shortly send to the Italian bishops and the Italian people a circular letter denouncing Freemasonry. His Holiness will declare that the Freemasons are pursuing the Satanic aim of replacing Christianity by naturalism.

INSOLVENCY LAW.

A Delegation from Ontario and Quebec at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16.—A delegation representing the Boards of Trade of Ontario and Quebec arrived in the city yesterday and had an interview with the Government at 2 o'clock on the advisability of passing an insolvency law for the Dominion.

The delegates from the west were Paul Campbell, Q. C., Clarkson, S. Caldecott, W. F. Wyld, Hugh Blain, Edgar A. Wills, D. E. Thompson, Toronto; M. Macnee and T. S. Hobbs, London. There was a big delegation from the Montreal Board of Trade, representing the Province of Quebec.

The delegation presented the draft of a bill to the Ministers, which has been laid before all the boards already. It may be said that there is at present no insolvency law in the Dominion.

The act of 1875 was amended from time to time, and finally abolished in 1879. In 1880 Sir John Abbott, then a member of the Commons, introduced a bill, but it did not become law. While the local Legislatures can deal with many of the questions included in the proposed bill, still to the Dominion Parliament belongs the jurisdiction of dealing with the matter of insolvency.

The local laws are not very satisfactory now, and a general Dominion Act applicable to all the provinces is required. The Draft Bill, which was presented to the Government to-day, is framed on the basis of the act of 1875 and the Abbott Bill of 1880. Composition settlements will be done away with by the new bill, and the debtor must get his discharge from the Superior Court instead of the County Court.

Took the Oath.

This afternoon at a meeting of the Cabinet, Justice Strong was sworn in Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

To Remove the Embargo.

It is learned here upon good authority that the Ottawa Government has invited the Imperial Government to send commissioners to Canada to inquire into the sanitary condition of Canadian cattle. The expenses are to be borne by Canada. The ministers feel that this step will result in the absolute removal of the embargo upon Canadian cattle.

EAST SIMCOE.

Dr. Spohn Stated He Had No Evidence to Offer Against W. H. Bennett, M.P.

ORILLIA, Ont., Dec. 16.—The election court, composed of the Chancellor and Mr. Justice Meredith, sat yesterday for trial of the petition against William H. Bennett, M.P. Mr. R. A. Grant appeared for the petitioner, Samuel Warner, and stated that as the petitioner decided some days ago not to file any particulars of the charges in the petition he had no evidence to offer.

The respondent appeared in person and consented to the petition being dismissed without costs.

The Chancellor, after satisfying himself that there was no cross-petition, dismissed the petition without costs.

AN UNSOUND MIND.

And Hung Himself From a Beam in His Barn.

CHESLEY, Ont., Dec. 16.—Yesterday morning Mr. Henry Neilly, a farmer residing on lot 14, con. 4, Elderslie, committed suicide. He went out before daylight as usual to milk the cows and attend to chores, but not coming back when expected his youngest brother, 12 years of age, went to the barn only to find his brother hanging from one of the beams dead.

The lantern had been left on the reaper, and he who contemplated taking his life had fastened a rope securely around a beam and the noose around his neck and then swung himself off into eternity.

Mr. Robert Cannon, who lives opposite the unfortunate man's residence, came into Chesley early yesterday morning to summon Coroner Cooke to the scene.

Deceased formerly lived on the 12th concession of Brant, but bought the property of Richard Kidd of Elderslie in the spring and moved to his new premises. Shortly after buying the property he became anxious to sell it.

He leaves a wife and three children. He has been wrong in his mind for the past three weeks.

SIGNS OF IMPROVEMENT.

Blaine Has a Change for the Better—His Family Not Apprehensive.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Mr. James G. Blaine, jr., said last night that his father was resting comfortably, and if there was any change it was for the better. He said there was no foundation for the rumor that the family was apprehensive. He said his father was a sick man, and while he kept his bed his friends were naturally anxious, but there was no cause for alarm. Mr. Blaine said that as soon as his father's condition permits, the family will leave Washington, but it was not yet decided where they would go.

Niagara Falls Reservation.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The Niagara Falls Reservation Commissioners met in this city yesterday. Secretary-Treasurer Henry E. Gregory submitted a report showing that since July 15, 1885, the state has advanced to the commission for maintenance $103,000 and for improvements $33,718.67, and that the commission has remitted to the state treasurer $43,546.31, making the total advanced by the state $93,172 36, making the average yearly cost for maintaining the reservation in the past seven years about $13,500.

Charged With Forgery.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Guillaume Vervliet, a Belgian, was taken before Commissioner Shields yesterday on a complaint of Charles Mali, the Consul-General of Belgium. The charge against him is forgery and the misappropriation of $20,000 belonging to people in Belgium.

Vervliet said he would go back to Belgium and stand trial. He was re-committed in care of Mr. Mali.

Death or Liberty.

WOODBURY, N.J., Dec. 16.—Annie Myers, the notorious woman burglar who was yesterday sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the county jail, made a sensational attempt to end her life by setting fire to the mattress in her cell.

The flames were discovered in time to prevent the destruction of the building. The woman is so horribly burned that her recovery is doubtful.

A Big Load of Emigrants.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The biggest load of steerage passengers that ever came into any port in this country in one vessel arrived here to-day on the North German Lloyd steamer Stuttgart from Bremen. She carried 2263. The largest previous number was brought in the Darmstadt of the same line and was 2094.

A HUSBAND'S CRIME [illegible].

TORE HIS WIFE'S MONEY AND SCATTERED THE FRAG[illegible]

Because the Woman He Married Did Not Support Him in Idleness—John Windsor Tore $170 Into Shreds and Tossed the Pieces Into the Street.

TORONTO, Dec. 16.—There is at least one man in Toronto who loveth not [illegible] mighty dollar."

His name is John Windsor, and [illegible] sight of money, instead of creating [illegible] breeds an uncontrolable hatred.

John is a laborer, is about 24 years of age and lives at 266 Parliament-street. About two months ago he married a young woman, who, in addition to a comely appearance, possessed several hundred dollars in cash, the result of years of hard work. Since his marriage Windsor has not done a stroke of work.

Wednesday Windsor obtained from his wife two five dollar bills. Instead of going out like a sensible man and spending the money judiciously he tore the bills up and scattered the fragments to the winds. This seemed to have whetted his destructive appetite, for last night about 7 o'clock in a fit of rage he ran to the spot where his wife had hid her hard-earned savings and grabbed a handful. These he began to fiercely tear into pieces, throwing the fragments out through the open doorway into the street.

While Windsor was engaged in this pastime his father appeared on the scene. The sum of $300, which he had hid away in a pillowcase, was missing. He had reason to believe his son had purloined it, hence his appearance at the moment. When he divined what his son was doing he rushed off with all haste to the Wilton-avenue Police Station. Breathlessly he made the object of his mission known, and Constables Armstrong and Montroy were detailed to arrest the man. But although they got their man they were not in time to save the bills. The best they could do was to gather up the fragments. As these were picked up they were laid between the leaves of a book. When all efforts were exhausted it was found that $107 worth of broken bills had been recovered, but there was not a whole one in the lot. There are still $80 or $70 missing, and these the cold December winds are having fun with.

A charge of stealing money from his wife was preferred against Windsor, the money having been possessed by her before marriage. The police are of opinion that the man is either insane or the possessor of an ungovernable temper. The father, Solomon Windsor, lives at 17 Munro-street.

A GENERAL BATTLE.

Cannot Much Longer Be Delayed In South America.

VALPARAISO, Dec. 16.—Another plot of the followers of the late Balmaceda has been discovered by the Government at Santiago and frustrated.

An attempt was made to corrupt the Seventh Regiment, and the fact became known to the Government on Sunday. Shortly before the evening call yesterday sentries of police were stationed around the various barricades, and immediately after the call the sentries closed in, barring the exiles. The police went in and arrested several groups of conspirators. The plans of the plotters were seized. Various points in the city were to have been sacked and there were lists of prominent officials who were to have been killed.

A number of masks, daggers, revolvers and military caps were found, in addition to blue bands for distinctive marks, blue lights and torches. Forty-six prisoners are now in custody. They are all ex-officers of the army, and among them is Malquias Concha, who was the agent of Juan Mo-Kena.

The plotters were divided into groups, each ordered to attack and plunder a certain section of the city.

The Seventh Regiment has been ordered out, and the Executive intends asking Congress for extraordinary powers. Public opinion demands strong measures, and it is the general opinion that the best method is to transport the conspirators to Eastern Iceland.

Claudia Vacuna is said to be supplying funds to the malcontents from Buenos Ayres. Several ex-officers of the army have entered the service of Paraguay.

A correspondent on the Uruguay-Brasil frontier telegraphs that large numbers of federals are encamped along the frontier waiting orders to attack the republicans. They wear badges bearing the inscription, "All for Liberty." Up to this time the federals have not attacked, because they know the republicans are well defended, but a general battle cannot much longer be delayed. The federal residents of Tacuarembero are arming two steamers, with which they intend to bombard Santa Anna. Small fights and skirmishes are daily occurring. Heavy guards of Uruguayan troops are stationed along the frontier to prevent an invasion of Uruguayan territory.

BLOOD IN THEIR EYE.

A Mob of 200 Men Attempt to Lynch a Murderer.

WILLIAMSBURG, Ky., Dec. 16.—Yesterday a mob of 200 men, with the Jellico yard engine and three flat cars, came down from Jellico for the purpose of lynching Leonard Tye, charged with the outrage and murder of Asmelda Bryant at Kensee, Dec. 5, but Judge Boyd had ordered the prisoner taken away, so they did not get him.

The mob left at 3 o'clock, swearing they would hang him yet. The negro was taken to Stanford Jail, but when the mob was here he was hidden in the woods under the guard of Town Marshal Ross.

Taillon Accepts the Premiership.

QUEBEC, Dec. 16.—The Hon. L. O. Taillon, M.L.A., arrived in town yesterday and immediately called upon the Lieutenant-Governor. The honorable gentleman has accepted the office of Prime Minister, with the portfolio of President of the Executive Council.

To Be Contested.

MONTREAL, Dec. 16.—The election of Mr. Bain, Conservative member for Soulanges, is to be contested.

Hanged And Cremated.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 16.—The chase after the negro who outraged Emma O'Brien, the 18-year-old white girl, is said to have ended.

A report comes that the brute was captured and hanged to a tree in a churchyard and his body cremated.

THE WATERWORKS PURCHASE

RESIGNATION OF THE FIRE BRIGADE AND FINANCIAL SITUATION,

Were the Principal Matters Discussed at Last Night's Annual Meeting—The Accused Firemen Recompensed and the Brigade asked to Remain On—The Assumption of the Water Works System will be Voted on.

At the statutory meeting of the council last night all the members were in their places except Councillor Young.

After routine, the following

COMMUNICATIONS

were read:

To the Mayor and Council:

GENTLEMEN,—In presenting you with the resignation of the members of the Fire Brigade, which has been handed to me for that purpose, I also desire to place before you my resignation of the position of Chief of the Fire Brigade. My reasons for so doing are similar to those stated by the members of the Brigade. I have served the town for 25 years as fireman and Chief. For 12 years I have been at the head of the company with these men, and have always found them faithful and zealous, and feeling they are justified in the action they have taken I owe it to them and myself to resign my office. I cannot ignore the fact that the Brigade was placed under espionage and suspicion, and subjected to a public inquiry without the chiefs of the department being asked for any opinion or explanation, or consulted in any way in the matter. I can not regard this in any other light than unfair and unjust to the men and to the officers, and with whom I ask to be relieved from duty at the end of this year.

Your obedient servant,
THOS. RUTHERFORD.

From J. H. Yelland, secretary of the Fire Brigade, sending in the resignation of the whole brigade as a body to Chief Rutherford, and which has already been published in the EXAMINER. This letter was enclosed with Chief Rutherford's.—Received.

REMISSION OF TAXES.

Communications were read from Bernardo Home, Y.M.C.A. organization, Michael Hayes, Catholic Association, Robt. Larmour and others re remission of taxes. Thos. Byers re dog tax.—Court of Revision.

From John Corkery, asking that the taxes paid on Lots 8 and 21, of plan 85, which were purchased by the town be refunded—Court of Revision.

From Coroner Dr. Bell, re fire investigation.

FRUIT GROWERS ASSOCIATION.

From E. B. Edwards on behalf of the Peterborough Fruit Growers Association stating that in response to the invitation sent them by the local branch the Ontario Fruit Growers Association have decided to hold their next annual convention in Peterborough, provisionally, on condition of the assurance of a hearty welcome by the town and the offer of a hall for holding their meetings.

Mr. Dennistoun moved, seconded by Mr. Meldrum, that the Mayor be requested on behalf of the council to extend through Mr. Edwards a formal invitation to the Association to hold their next annual meeting here.—Carried.

ACCOUNT LIST.

Several accounts were presented and referred to the Finance Committee. An account from Mr. Cox, painter, amounting to $15 for numbering houses was ordered to be paid. The accounts of $30 from Dr. Bell coroner, and Mr. Patterson, for wood, $26.25, were on motion also ordered to be paid.

THE FINANCE MINISTER SPEAKS.

Mr. Dennistoun said as this was the statutory meeting it was necessary to present the annual detailed statement of assets and liabilities for the past year. In preparing the statement the committee had been governed by the statements of previous years, and a few assets of small accounts adding little or nothing to the financial position of the town had been omitted in the statement but were still kept track of in the treasurer's books. The assets, in excess of the liabilities, showed an increase of $3000 over last year. This was showed in building improvements, such as the new market scales, buildings, improvements to the fire hall, etc. There was an increase of $3000 on the Nicholls Hospital building which had been spent in permanent improvements and stood as an asset to the credit of the town. They had had some discussion as to whether the Nicholls hospital endowment should be assessed as an asset or not, but on the advice of the town solicitor it was come to the conclusion it should be as in former years. Two separate sheets had been made out by the treasurer of the receipts and expenditure, one from Dec. 14th to Jan. 1st, 1892, which did not come under the jurisdiction of the present council. The other was from Jan. 1st, 1892, to Dec. 14th, 1892.

It is a Very Sad Thing

To see young and beautiful people die when they might just as well live and enjoy health and strength. Many who suffer with coughs, colds and lung troubles, leading to consumption, imagine there is no hope for them, when in reality there is every hope if Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is taken regularly. Spread the news everywhere that this great emulsion will make flesh and blood, cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, sore throats and lung troubles tending to consumption. In big bottles, 50c. and $1, at all Drug Stores.

THE BIGGEST DAY IN 7 YEARS!

Saturday, December 3rd was the biggest day MR. J. J. SHEEHY has had in seven years. Why is this? Surely not because there is less competition. Certainly not because inducements are not being held out by others. Most assuredly not because prices of farm products are showing an upward tendency. Then why? ?

Simply because the purchasing public of the town and surrounding country have read Mr. Sheehy's advertisements, have inwardly digested them and have concluded that cheap sale or no cheap sale Mr. Sheehy is bound not to be undersold.

We want every day in December to be a big day. How are we to accomplish this? Simply by offering to the public better value for the money than can be had elsewhere. Just cast your eye over the following quotations:—

All Wool Flannels, 26 in. wide, - -	17½	Good Linen Towels each - - -	5½
9 lb. Wool Blankets, - - - - - -	$3.75	Grey Wool Blankets, - - -	31c. a lb.
14 yds. Heavy Grey Canton Flannel,	$1.00	25 yards Factory Cotton, - -	$1.00

These few quotations will probably give an idea of what we are doing and a glance at our BARGAIN TABLE in the centre of our store will convince the most skeptical that when it comes to general bargains we certainly are very decidedly "in it."

LENGTHY DISCUSSION ON WATERWORKS PURCHASE.

Mr. Chairman Meldrum said at the last meeting of the council the question re purchase of waterworks had been referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee to report on. Since then they had held a meeting but had arrived at no decision. It was a live question and he moved, seconded by Mr. Best, that it is in the interest of the town of Peterborough at the present time before the Waterworks Company make connections with the new dam that steps be at once taken for the taking over of the waterworks system according to a bylaw by which the Waterworks Company received their franchise."

Speaking to the motion Mr. Meldrum said he had received a letter from Mr. W. Chipman, civil engineer, Toronto, which he read. The letter stated the Brockville arbitration was now over, and the award had resulted favourably to a vote for the purchase of waterworks by the town. Mr. Chipman further states: "I am informed that the water company have constructed a dam and intend constructing a new pumping station, all of which will mean a considerable expenditure of money and upon which the corporation of Peterborough will be obliged to pay a premium of 10 per cent. as provided by statute, unless the corporation takes some steps towards acquiring the works before these extensions are completed."

Mr. Meldrum continuing said it was advisable to take the waterworks over now without assuming the responsibilities and liabilities of the present dam. If they did not take over the waterworks before connections were made they would have to take over the dam also. Brockville had taken over her system of waterworks and in correspondence with other towns they found that it had paid in every instance. Brockville estimated the value of the works at $[illegible], while the Water Company wanted $200,000. By arbitration the town was given a chance of purchasing them at $120,000—a reduction of $61,000 from the company's figures. The expenditure in connection with the arbitration was $11,000, both the company and corporation paying half. If the bylaw, after the arbitration, had not carried, Brockville would have to bear all the costs incurred and the town would not have the privilege of buying the works again for a period of five years longer. The statement of revenue as produced by the arbitration had shown that the income to the Brockville company was $17,000, and the expenditure $5,500, leaving a net profit of 9,500 which would now revert to the corporation and the reduction of the rates paid by the consumers and the tax for fire protection be greatly reduced. In Brockville the town expended $4000 for the use of 86 hydrants, while in Peterborough the company was paid $5000 for the use of 116 hydrants by the town, which figure is too high altogether. The town did not want to assume the system to make money out of it but to give the ratepayers the use of the water at the very lowest cost. It Brockville it was estimated that by the present increase, in ten years time the works would be worth $400,000. The ratepayers could vote on the purchase at the election in January and declare whether they were favorable to the proposal or not. There was no truth in the cry that the town once owning the works could make the ratepayers use the water. This could not be done without sanction from the Legislature.

FAVOURS AN ENGINEER TO ESTIMATE THE COST.

Mr. Cahill favoured submitting the question to the ratepayers in January. It was advisable to get the opinion of some competent engineer to make a careful estimate of the cost of the waterworks system and to obtain any details also from the company itself, if these could be obtained. A legal opinion should be sought as to whether the corporation was liable for assuming the dam or not. It would cost something to employ an engineer estimate, but they could not expect to get something for nothing. Submission to the ratepayers would cost little and it was necessary to get all information possible and obtain a legal opinion regarding the assumption of the dam by the town, when going into a great expenditure of this character. It was not desirable to go ahead without taking these points into consideration. Standing here in this same place ten years ago when the matter was first mooted the ratepayers were utterly opposed to it, said Mr. Cahill, but a great revolution in public opinion has taken place since. We should as I said before obtain all the information possible on the question.

Mr. Meldrum—"I agree with you there Mr. Cahill."

Mayor Kendry—"The bylaw might carry by every voter voting on the question at the forthcoming municipal election, but when submitted to the ratepayers themselves the result would perhaps be different.

THE PEOPLE SHOULD BE EDUCATED.

Mr. Dennistoun said he was disappointed with the Fire, Water and Light Committee. They should have embodied in a report some information and lay it before the council and ratepayers. He had a statement or schedule of all the towns and cities about the size of Peterborough who operated their own waterworks and those who did not, their rates, etc. They might have gleaned some information from this and give it to the public through the local press. They could not ask the people to vote in January unless they gave them some information before hand. He was not in favor of an arbitration until the people saw we were going to take over the waterworks. Again he urged the committee to give all knowledge pro and con in reference to the purchase through the newspapers so that the people might be able to vote intelligently on the matter. Let the matter be voted on for an expression of opinion at the coming election, by freeholders only.

SHOULD KNOW SOMETHING ABOUT THE MATTER.

Mr. Kelly thought the ratepayers should know something about the matter which they would be called upon to vote. He favoured engaging an engineer. Better submit a bylaw to the people, which would not cost much, to see if they were desirous of purchasing the system, which would cost, say some $150,000, than hold an arbitration, when the ratepayers would be assessed for the whole cost, some $12,000, in their taxes next year, if the people subsequently did not take hold of the plan on a vote. The town solicitor's advice should be sought as to whether the town would have to assume the dam or not. If, as he heard, the dam was being built by a private company, we had nothing to do in the matter, but if by the waterworks company, the town should know about the taking of it over. Mr. Kelly closing said:—"What is the use of submitting the question to the ratepayers without knowing what we are going to do or what it is going to cost?"

THE POWER OF THE PRESS.

Mr. Dennistoun said the Waterworks company or new dam had to a certain extent control of the situation. If completed the town, by statute, would have to pay a premium of 10 per cent. on the cost of the dam which it would perhaps be advisable to take over anyway in order that the corporation might have a clean sweep to Nassau regarding location of manufactures and the fine water power as the result of the present dam. He moved in amendment the following, seconded by Mr. Dawson: That the chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee be requested to furnish the local press with all the information pro and con re the purchase of the waterworks collected by the committee, and that the persons entitled to vote on a bylaw for the purchase of the waterworks be asked to express their opinion by ballot at the January election.

HE FAVOURS AN ARBITATION.

Mr. Best favoured the council giving an expression of opinion before asking the ratepayers to vote. No information would be reliable, and the people, ignorant of the cost, would doubtless from their first impulse vote in favour of the purchase and after an arbitration was held and the cost was ascertained they might defeat a by-law submitted to them. He favoured an arbitation. No reliable information regarding cost, etc., could be ascertained otherwise. An engineer could not estimate. An expression of opinion which did not commit anybody and after that they could go ahead.

INFORMATION THE HOBBY.

Mr. Meldrum favoured getting all the information possible. He would not ask that the matter be submitted to the ratepayers until sufficient knowledge was got on the subject. In a matter like this the town could not be too guarded in its action.

Mayor Kendry said an engineer could not get at the books and know the values of certain matters the same as the company. After an arbitration and submission to the people, if lost we could not do anything for the next five years: The value of the works should be got at as closely as possible and then have the matter submitted at the election. If people were in favou of it prepare a by-law, and if the t heywere anxious of going on in the matter; then the arbitration should be called.

Mr. Dawson favoured putting the matter before the ratepayers in the strongest possible light and if they defeated it all right. An engineer meant staving the matter off.

Mr. Bradburn said that this was asking the ratepayers to express an opinion on something they knew nothing about. In Peterborough only consumers were charged, but in Montreal, and he thought Toronto, there was a city water rate as well. He favoured arbitration first.

A FINALE AT LAST REACHED.

Mr. McIlwaine contended that in Peterborough here we were paying a double rate—water for city use, etc., and also for our own private use.

Mr. Kelly moved an amendment to the amendment that the matter be given two months hoist in order that the committee might collect information.

Mr. Bradburn moved that a public meeting be called to discuss the question.

Mayor Kendry said that a good deal of caution should be exercised before demanding an arbitration, which would cost some $11,000 or $12,000.

Mr. Dawson accused Mr. Cahill of shelving the matter by employing an engineer.

Mr. Cahill warmly replied to Mr. Dawson's remarks, denying the statement. He had done more than Mr. Dawson in the matter. He had declared himself in favour of the waterworks purchase. as [illegible]

THE MOTION THAT PASSED.

Finally Mr. Dennistoun withdrew his amendment, and Mr. Cahill urged the embodiment in Mr. Meldrum's resolution of engaging an engineer, and of obtaining the town solicitor's opinion in reference to the dam. This is the way that the motion which passed, was worded:

Moved by Mr. Meldrum, seconded by Mr. Best, it is in the interest of the town of Peterborough at the present time before the Waterworks Company make connection with the new dam, that steps be at once taken for the taking over of the waterwork system according to by-law by which the Waterworks Co. received their franchise, and that the question be laid before the property owners for an expression of their opinion regarding the same and that the town solicitor be asked for his opinion as to our responsibility in regard to the dam and that the Mayor be requested to call a public meeting to thoroughly ventilate this whole question and if deemed advisable that the mayor and chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee employ a competent engineer to make an estimate of the costs.

THE FIRE BRIGADE EULOGISED.

Moved by Mr. Meldrum, seconded by Mr. Cahill, that the council regrets exceedingly that, as a result of the inquiry into the cause of the supposed incendiary fire on Hunter street, and the arrest of four of the members of the fire brigade in connection therewith, the brigade has seen fit to tender their resignation, therefore be it resolved that this council desires to place on record its strong feeling of pride that the brigade which has done such noble and effectual service in the interest of saving the town's property from fire, should be completely exonerated from blame, as they have been as a result of the investigation, and we would respectfully request that they would be pleased to reconsider their decision and to allow the town to still retain their valuable services and in order that a satisfactory arrangement might be arrived at with the brigade, that this council as a whole meet the officers of the brigade at the call of the Mayor to see if an arrangement to this end cannot be secured.

THEY HAVE BEEN HONORABLY ACQUITTED.

Mr. Cahill, seconding the resolution, said he heartily approved of the spirit of it and it was unfortunate that a mistake should have been made in the fire department. He was not present at the committee meetings and know nothing of the investigations until the arrests were made. It was gratifying to know that the men had been honourably acquitted and no one rejoiced over it more than he. Mr. Meldrum, who was chairman of the committee, got more blame than any one else in the matter as chairmen of committees usually got more blame than the individual members. If Mr. Meldrum had done anything wrong, he would not say that he had, then he hoped his action would be overlooked. He hoped the motion would meet the wishes of the whole council, that the firemen would receive it in the spirit in which it was given, and things go on satisfactorily again as in the past.

STILL POSSESSES THEIR CONFIDENCE.

Mr. Dennistoun said he agreed with the terms of the resolution. It was an unfortunate matter and had received a good deal of publicity. The council should place on record that the fire brigade still possessed the confidence of the town. The investigation after all was not an unmixed evil. Certain charges amounting to mere rumours had been made against the brigade, they had been fully investigated and as fully exploded. It was a matter of congratulation to the fire brigade and town council that no opportunity was given in favour of anyone to make any charges against any single member of the brigade. If the enquiry had done this it had done some good. In the interest of justice their liberty had been interfered with for some time, and they having been subjected to espionage and it was but natural that they should feel bitter. Our duty, however, in a public position often conflicts with our inclinations and we do things it would been better not to have done. He hoped the brigade would accept the resolution of the council as now offered, and would meet them in a friendly effort to adjust the dispute.

THEIR SERVICES ARE FIRST CLASS.

Mayor Kendry said he agreed with the two previous speakers. He was sorry the affair had occurred. The firemen had done good service to the town and are more efficient than a paid brigade of 6 or 8.

Mr. Dawson also agreed with the words already spoken. He was sorry affairs had taken the turn they had. He saw a turnout of the brigade the other day and it was the smartest he had ever seen.

This ended the discussion and a vote was taken on the resolution of Mr. Meldrum which was carried unanimously.

REMUNERATION GRANTED.

Mr. Meldrum said that he had another resolution to move, seconded by Mr. Bradburn, that the council make a grant of $50.00 to the firemen for the expense they were put to in their defence and that the mayor be authorised to issue the check of the town for same.

Moved by Mr. Dawson, seconded by Mr. Meldrum that the Street and Bridge Committee purchase by tender 300 cords of field stone—Carried.

Council then adjourned at 10.30 o'clock.

A Great Money Losing Sale
At the Clothing Store
Under the Opera House, No. 342.

The entire stock of Winter Overcoats, Suits, Gent's Furnishings, Hats, Caps and Furs, in the store formerly known as the "Grand Union Clothing Hall," must be sold out at whatever prices it will bring.

The peremptory orders leaves only 60 days to clear everything out. The proprietor says:—"Forget profits, forget cost, forget everything—but sell the goods."

This is no bluff, but absolute facts. The slaughter will, therefore, go on to the finish—until the whole business is wiped out of existence.

Better come quickly if you want any of these dead-sure bargains.

FORCED
REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 8 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, so we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well if not better, in the future.

Sabbath meeting as usual to-morrow evening, half past eight to nine.

150 doz. Silk Handkerchiefs at Armstrong & Co's. Presents for Christmas. Buy some of them.

Jeweller's Profits.

No need paying jeweller's prices for your scarf pins, shirt buttons, collar buttons, cuff buttons, and watch chains when you can buy them at half the price at JAS. MCCOMB'S, the Glove Man on Hunter street.

If You Want Good Bread.

Brown or white, pan or bottom baked, and sweet, just like what your mother baked for you, not puffed up into a soft, sponngy, indigestible mass, you can buy it at MRS. POLLARDS, 456 George street. d

DEAN'S PRESENTATION PARTY

Mr. Torrance's Condition.

The following bulletin was issued at 10.00 a.m. this morning:

DECEMBER, 16, 1892.

Rev. E. F. Torrance passed a comfortable night. His general condition continues to improve.

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,
R. P. BOUCHER, M. D.

Girls' Guild Entertainment.

The Girls' Guild of St. John's church gave a delightful entertainment in the Sunday school rooms last evening. There was a fair attendance and the proceedings throughout were of an informal character. Prof. Butcher's orchestra, the church choir, glee club, Mrs. Seward and Mr. E. Hodgson contributed a splendid programme. Refreshments were served and several articles of fancy works made by the ladies sold at the close.

AT OPERA HOUSE AGAIN TO-NIGHT.

George Street Methodist Church.

Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., of Millbrook, a rising and talented young minister of the Methodist church, has been invited by the official board of the George street Methodist church to accept the pastorate of the church at the beginning of the conference year, in June next, when Rev. Mr. Locke's three years will expire. In all likelihood the Stationing Committee of the Conference, will sanction the invitation, which was a unanimous one.

A VARIED AND PLEASING PERFORMANCE.

The New Canoe Factory.

Mr. Hartley, contractor has completed the brick work of the new factory of the Peterborough Canoe Company, situated on Water street. The new building is in dimensions 42x101 feet, two stories high with basement. It is covered with a flat roof and the inside of the walls are made of white brick. Mr. Hartley is now setting the boiler in position. Mr. Jas. Montgomery had the contract for the carpenter work and roofing. The new factory will, it is expected, be ready for occupancy by Christmas. It is a handsome and substantial structure and a credit to both the Peterborough Canoe Company and the town.

PRICES, 10 AND 20 CENTS.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The town schools close for the winter holidays on Thursday, Dec. 22nd.

—The report of the Ashburnham council meeting held last night is held over until to-morrow.

—The Jubilee Singers appeared in the Mark street church last evening to a fair audience giving a good programme.

—Dr. T. H. Hassard, V.S., late of Millbrook, opened out an office in the stand recently occupied by Dr. Stephenson, yesterday. Dr. Hassard is a young veterinary surgeon of skill and ability —The committee appointed to bring in a constitution for the Collegiate Institute Literary society, reported last night at a meeting of the students. The constitution was adopted with few amendments.

—Carswell Lodge, I.O.G.T., gave a pleasant reunion of old and young members last night. The rooms were comfortably filled with an appreciative attendance. A short but fine programme was rendered.

—Messrs. John McKee, druggist, and Mr. J. C. Turnbull, dry goods, excel in window decorations. Their efforts in this direction are very creditable and universally admired for the taste and arrangement displayed.

—County Police Magistrate Edmison at Norwood yesterday fined two school trustees from Dummer, Geo. Pierce and John Kelly, $2 each and costs for getting to blows over a dispute that arose about the appointing of a teacher.

—A handsome memorial window in commemoration of the death of the late Mr. Chamberlen is being placed in St. John's church on the west side, by the members of his family. It is situated next to the memorial window of the late Mr. Beck.

—The Y. M. C. A. quartette, composed of Stiers, Wesley, Millar and Squires, George Schnieder, accompanist, took part in an entertainment given at the Presbyterian manse, Lakefield, last night under the auspices of the Mission Band. Miss Harris was also present and rendered excellent solos. The evening was enjoyably spent.

Sale of pictures and fancy goods every day during the holidays commencing at 11 o'clock a.m. 325 George street. 142-2d

Study economy by having your suit and overcoat cleaned or dyed and repaired at Parker's Steam Dye Works, Charlotte street.

Tell all your lady friends not to forget to call upon Miss Moote at the Snowden House and learn all about the new massage treatments.

Wools and Ladies' Work.

Knitting and embroidery silks, felts, linens and fancy silks for holiday work, at Miss Melville's, 424 George street. Stamping done to order.

Fancy Trimmed Baskets.

For photographs, paper-racks, hairpin holders, letter racks, etc. Commenced work in great variety for Christmas. Fancy ribbons in new shades, suitable for fancy work. MISS JENKINS, 428 George street.

The Best Christmas Gift.

If you want to give a Christmas present which will be appreciated more than any other, and is suitable for boys or girls, men or women, you cannot do better than call on the "Canadian Canoe Co." corner of Water and Brock streets, and buy one of their nice durable canoes.

To the Ladies—On the Quiet.

Ladies! if you want to present your father, husband, lover or son with a nice warm fur cap, cheaper than you can buy it at any fur store, drop into the Montreal clothing store, 390 George street and make your selection before they are gone. It can be packed up and laid away for you on the quiet until Xmas. dw

A Window of Ties.

A very attractive window of Ties, made-up and four-in-hand styles, is that of the Montreal Clothing House, 390 George street. These are imported ties — not bankrupt stock — and are in colours, patterns and material to suit every taste. The prices are marked at 10, 15, 20 and 25 cents, and are extraordinary value at that.

CLEARING SALE

of Fall and Winter Clothing now going on at T. Dolan & Co's. Boys' and Men's Overcoats at less than cost price. Boys' and Men's Suits cheaper than you can buy the cloth for. All Ready-Made Clothing has to be sold before the 1st of January. Old Stand.

T. DOLAN & CO.

Christmas Philanthropists.

Who are they? This is a preposterious question. Any live citizen who reads the papers know that Gough Bros., the wonderful cheap men, are offering holiday bargains in clothing that surpass everything ever offered even in their marvellous bargain-giving career. Men's and boys' overcoats, men's and boys' suits, part of a manufacturers stock bought at 60 cents on the dollar, selling at the same rate. Now is the time to harvest your bargains. Nothing like it ever before seen here.

The Late Miss Smith.

THE EXAMINER has to regretfully announce the death of Miss Jennie Smith, eldest daughter of the late John Smith. The sad event took place yesterday. The deceased young lady was held in very high respect for her many excellent and amiable qualities, and the sympathy of the community will go out in a very especial manner to the bereaved family in the new affliction that has fallen upon them. Funeral from the family residence, Stewart street, Ashburnham, on Sunday, Dec. 18th, at 4 o'clock p.m., to the Little Lake Cemetery.

Take a Look—Then Take Your Choice.

From the south window of the City Clothing Store, where are displayed handsome rows of worsted and tweed pantings. Until New Years you can have a pair of pants made up to order from any of these patterns you like for four dollars! Until to-day the prices ranged from $4.50 to $5 and $5.50 for the same goods. But to-day the price is only IV dollars! ($4) If you want something still cheaper you can have it, but these are extra value. Suitings and overcoatings clipped down in price in the same proportion, All gentlemen should have a pair or two of trousers for rough wear or rainy or muddy days. Don't spoil the trousers of your suit. H. LEBRUN & Co. 3d

IN LETTERS OF GOLD.

One great advantage (in addition to the splendid stock to select from and the low prices) in purchasing Bibles, Prayer Books, Church Services, Hymn Books, Purses, Card Case, Letter Cases, and all goods of a similar character, is the fact that you can have any desired name stamped thereon in gold letters, free of charge, and while you wait. The Peterborough Bookstore has the finest and largest selection of the above goods, and in fact of all holiday goods, in town.

MR. MICHAEL SANDERSON RETIRES.

The Veteran Reeve of Smith Relinquishes Municipal Life.

At the close of the statutory meeting of the council of the township of Smith, held on Thursday last, Mr. M. Sanderson definitely informed his colleagues that it was his intention to retire from the council. He finds that the weight of years—he is now nearly four score and ten—and the accompanying infirmities prevent him discharging the duties of the office any longer. Mr. Sanderson has been continuously a representative of Smith for about thirty years. For seven of these he was a member of the council and being elected reeve, he has continued to hold the position uninterrupted by till the present time. He has during his time occupied the position of warden, and in this capacity, as well as in the capacity of a member of the council, has done yeoman service to his township and the county generally. His long experience and diligent study made him especially well grounded in municipal law, and his opinion on this as on other subjects was eagerly and never fruitlessly sought by the colleagues in the council. His presence will be greatly missed in both township and county councils, where his wise experience, mature judgment and strong common sense made his services of peculiar value. A general regret will be expressed that so long and useful a career has been brought to a municipal close, and in his retirement Mr. Sanderson will receive the heartiest good wishes that his declining years may be passed in pleasure and comfort equal to the respect and esteem which his long and valuable services in the public interest, and his many excellent qualities of head and heart have won for him.

Mr. James Middleton, who has been a member of the township council for the past 16 years, it is generally thought, will accept the candidature for the position rendered vacant by Mr. Sanderson's resignation.

PERSONAL.

Mrs Dundas, Port Hope, is visiting friends in town.

Messrs. Chas. McKee and Chas. Thompson, Toronto, are home for the holidays.

Miss Louise Yokome, violinista, played very successfully at a Presbyterian church concert in Campbellford last night. She was very heartily received and repeatedly recalled.

Mr. John R. Cobb completed his first year duties as town clerk last night, he being appointed just a year ago at the statutory meeting of the town council. Mr. Cobb is an efficient and painstaking civil official.

His Lordship Bishop Dowling, of Hamilton, his chancellor, Rev. Father McEvoy, and Very Rev. P. D. Laurent, V.G. Lindsay, were in town yesterday, the guests of His Lordship, Bishop O'Connor. The distinguished visitors left by the noon train to-day.

Councillor A. V. R. Young, J.P., returned to town last evening from Belleville, to attend a union meeting of the Peterborough and Belleville Mining Syndicates, which will be held here this evening The object of this joint meeting is to complete the negotiations which have been going on for some months as to the purchase of a share of the Peterborough syndicate's property by the Belleville syndicate.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Sillabee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

Article of Merit

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend these benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

'BOND'S LION BRAND STORE."

Handsome new Premises and Elegantly Fitted up.

Mr. E. Bond, late of London, England, opened out his English cured ham and bacon establishment at 144 Hunter street yesterday. He has considerable outlay on his part. Mr. Bond will occupy three large flats and a cellar. Like the costly sign board over the store bearing the words in raised gold letters "Bond's Lion Brand Store," so are the equipments and appointments of the quarters in the interior. A large mirror which cost a high figure graces the doorway on the left side of the entrance while a large side light has been placed to the right. The store has a splendid plate glass front and doors which transmit a flood of light into the meat premises which are heated throughout with hot air, lighted with electric light and thoroughly drained and well ventilated from cellar to ceiling—no odour being at all perceptible. The walls of the front shop are prettily papered in imitation marble. the counters stained in oak, and two patented reversible chopping blocks are also in use. A stained glass partition divides the front shop from the premises to the rear, which will be used exclusively for sausage making. The

will be used for storing, while the cellar, which has been covered with a flooring of Portland cement, is well heated, lighted and ventilated. every possible precaution being taken to preserve proper sanitary conditions. Large vats are placed here for curing the hams according to the latest English methods and done by experienced men from the Wiltshire packing houses. Mr. Bond has a smoke house on King street, where the hams will be smoked. Mr. Bond will also handle thoroughly English cured bacon, which is very mild, kettle rendered lard, fresh and salt pork, and all kinds of canned goods which he will prepare himself. In the front shop, at a cost of $250, an ornate and latest approved nickel self registering cash register has been placed which is the admired of the admired. Mr. Bond's brand of English cured goods is known as the "Lion Brand" and he hopes that the people of Peterborough and vicinity will patronize him generously as he is able to give the very best satisfaction in the lines in which he deals. 1d

A VOICE FROM LEBANON.

Thrilling Story of the "Syro-Phœnecian Woman"—Stirring Missionary Address by Mrs. Layya Barakat.

Any person who takes up this paper expecting to read a report of the address of Mrs. Barakat in St. Paul's church last night will be disappointed. It is impossible to put an hour and a half's thrilling story into the meagre space the EXAMINER can afford to-day. Nothing but the hearing can give an adequate conception of the excellence of her address. St. Paul's church was well filled with hearers last night. Rev. Mr. Goldsmith conducted the preliminary devotional exercises, Mrs. Ross, of Brockville, presiding at the organ.

Mrs. Barakat is a lady between 35 and 40 years of age and speaks English with a Syro-Phœnician accent. She is extremely earnest in her manner, and her quaint way of putting things adds to the effectiveness of the perfervid appeals that frequently recur in her address. She described the social and religious condition of Lebanon, told the story of her conversion—under the missionaries sent from America—told of the hardships the confession of Jesus subjected her to, of her going to the mission school, of her entering the missionary work in Egypt, of her flight with her husband, from the horrors of the Alexandria massacre of Christians in June, 1882—and of her arrival in Philadelphia to the very Presbyterian Church, whose Sunday school had raised funds to maintain her (Mrs. Barakat) as a missionary. She strongly appealed to the audience to take a deeper interest in mission work—especially the women—for where the light of the gospel shone not, there was woman most degraded and oppressed. She herself was an example of the fruit of missionary work. No one who hears Mrs. Barakat can doubt the genuineness of her burning zeal for the salvation of souls. Those who failed to hear her thrilling address last night missed a treat of the most interesting character. Mrs. Barakat will speak in St. Paul's again this evening on "The Three Covenants." No one should miss hearing this devoted and eloquently earnest lady to-night.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Opens this Morning with a Large Attendance—Lecture To-night.

About one hundred teachers from the town and county met in the assembly hall of the Collegiate Institute this morning at ten o'clock. Mr. Fessenden, principal of the Institute, occupied the chair, and after a short opening address welcoming the teachers present, he called on the secretary, Mr. Blanchard, to read the minutes of last meeting.

After the adoption of the minutes a committee consisting of C. W. Callander, Dean, R. A. Ward, W. Smith, Brick, Blanchard, Jeffries, Miss M. McGrath and Miss Nicholls, was appointed to consider the question of union of the town and county associations. This committee was instructed to make nominations to office and report to-morrow morning.

Mr. W. Houston, M.A., Director of Teachers, Institutes for Ontario, next introduced the subject of "The Teaching of Elementary Arithmetic." He dwelt on the importance of teaching arithmetic inductively, and said that a thorough knowledge of numeration and notation on the part of young pupils was indispensable to their success afterwards. Text books, according to the speaker, should not be placed in the hands of the pupils as they were detrimental to successful teaching. The speaker next explained the method of teaching the elementary rules. He said multiplication should be taught after addition. The Institute then adjourned until two o'clock.

The Institute is in session this afternoon.

Mr. Houston will deliver a lecture this evening at 8 p.m. in the assembly room on the "Teaching of Literature with Practical Illustrations." All are invited to attend.

MEETING TO DISCUSS THE FIRE BRIGADE GRIEVANCE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly permit me to state a few facts. I am of the opinion that the Mayor and council should call a public meeting to inquire into the grievance of the fire brigade before they disband altogether. I think that a brigade which has served the town for 10 or 12 years voluntarily—the ratepayers ought to give them that much consideration. If there is any grievance between the members of the brigade and the police force I am a favor of it being inquired into and see if it cannot be rectified, as I believe that Peterborough has a fire brigade second to none in the Dominion. We would not be doing anything out of the way by holding a public meeting, for if we let the matter drop it will be a long time before the town will secure another brigade as efficient as the present one. Hoping the Mayor and council will give this matter their serious and earnest consideration. I am Sir,

Yours etc.,
RATEPAYER.

POLICE COURT.

At the police court this morning an hotelkeeper charged with having a light in his billiard room on Sunday night last, was fined $5.

Another hotel-keeper charged with selling liquor during prohibited hours was fined $20 and costs.

The case against a young man charged with being in a bar during prohibited hours on Sunday last, was dismissed.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The gymnastic class will commence this evening with Major Rundle as instructor.

To-morrow morning at ten o'clock the Major will be glad to meet any of the junior department who would like to take gymnastic instruction.

A VALUABLE OPINION.

One of our oldest, ablest and most experienced chemists in Canada says. "Harvard Bronchial Syrup is the most marvellous remedy that I have ever tested. It has all the qualities that can be desired in a perfect cough mixture. It is soothing and healing, two qualities which few other remedies can justly claim. From use and close observation I am inclined to assert that its curative powers are astonishing and prompt. I have, within the last year, seen some very obstinate cases of cough and throat irritation yield almost immediately to its healing powers. I sell a large quantity of it, and am always pleased to say a word in its favour."

This Harvard Bronchial Syrup is prepared in Canada, and great care is observed in its composition and proper putting up. It does not, like other preparations, affect the powers of digestion; it is an extremely pleasant syrup, and can be used by the youngest children with grand results.

Everybody Suffers Pain.

It is the result of violation of nature's laws. Perry Davis has done much to allay the suffering of the people by giving them out of nature's store-house "a balm for every wound." Such is the Pain-Killer; it stops pain almost instantly, is used both internally and externally, and is of all other pain remedies the oldest and best. New size Big Bottle, 25c.

To the Electors of Ward No. 2

AT the urgent request of a number of the electors of this Ward, as well as those from other parts of the town, I have consented to allow myself to be placed in nomination for a seat at the Council Board for the ensuing year. If honored with election I will do my utmost to advance the best interest of the whole town. As my time is fully occupied I may not be able to see all the electors personally and take this means of soliciting the votes and support of the ratepayers of the Ward to secure my return.

A LOOSE WINTER JACKET.

How is it that in the midst of all this talk about fashions changing you can go out and see a girl in a get-up which is not a bit new or startling, and she will seem just the all-rightest thing you can imagine? Lucky all girls can't do that, or "fashion" would go out of fashion. That pretty notion of a loose jacket over a silk shirt and a plain skirt is too pretty to ever go out, I fancy. Don't be a bit afraid to get one for winter wear, even if you did do it all summer. I saw one in rich red, the jacket edged with a narrow cord of blue. The skirt was blue, and around the collar and down the front was a band of plaid in blue and red. Even the cut of her sailor hat reminded one of the summer girl (such a nice thing to be reminded of), though it was felt instead of straw—a dark blue felt, with a red ribbon around it. Her waist was big and comfortable, and clasped by a band of the blue and red plaid. The finishing touch to the get up, that which made you remember that it was not a left-over from summer, was the beautiful feather boa she wore. The rig was not a bit expensive, apparently, but that boa gave it away. It was made of feathers, mixed blue and red, just to match the gown. Now, either she was awfully rich or wickedly extravagant thought I, for that boa cost fully forty dollars, and it is meant only for that one dress. Maybe she has a boa for each dress. Lucky girl! Maybe, in spite of taste, she is going to make that one do for any dress. Still, I thanked her as I went on for helping to keep in the popular mind that most serviceable and stylish cut of dress. Long live the jacket and silk shirt style! Long live comfort and jauntiness combined!

Jagson says the race in life is not to the fast.—Elmira Gazette.

A statue of Brigham Young ten feet tall is to be cast at Chicopee, Mass. No one will ever think of thus honoring the memory of his forty and odd wives.

A sweet little four-year old added this clause to her evening petition the other night: "And please help grandma not to talk so much when the pies get burned."—Boston Traveler.

All of the bread served in a well-known Berlin hotel a few mornings ago was found by analysis to have been poisoned with phosphorus. An army lieutenant was made dangerously ill.

A boy not yet out of his teens, just entering upon them in fact, has been sentenced at Coblence, Germany, to twelve years' imprisonment at hard labor. He was convicted of setting sixteen incendiary fires, which caused a direct pecuniary loss of $50,000.

Remembered Her.—Mrs. Ann—I ordered a dress pattern here yesterday, to be sent. I wonder if it has been cut yet? Floor Walker—Certainly not, madam. The saleswoman said you hadn't been in yet to change your mind.

A Good Plan.—Cobble—I just ordered me a dress suit to be married in. Stone—Why, you don't expect to be married for two or three years yet, do you? Cobble—No, but I want to pay for it first.—Clothier and Furnisher.

Harold Frederick says that Lord Lytton's posthumous poem, "King Poppy," 6,000 lines long, and representing sixteen years of labor, has been given to the public press. "It is," he adds, "laid in the realm of pure fantasy, with a gracefully original mythological story as a vehicle of satires on the governmental institutions of our time."

Gen. Ettore Bertole Viale, formerly Italian Minister of War, and the reorganizer of the Italian army, is dead. His military career dates back to the Crimean war, to which he went as captain of a company of Piedmonters. He was made a major-general during the campaign of 1866 and entered the Italian Cabinet in 1867.

Cotton Spinning in Japan.

According to the report of the Japanese Cotton Spinning Mills Association, thirty-four spinning mills, representing 324,000 spindles, were at work during the first six months of the present year. During that period the quantity of yarn spun by these mills amounted to 41,138,791 pounds, giving employment to 5,420 men and 16,110 women.

Down With the Fences.

The next generation of farmers will not spend so much for fences as the present one is doing. The U. S. census of 1880 reported the expenses for fencing, in a single year, at $78,000,000, a drain too heavy to be long supported if any escape can be found.

Feeble and capricious appetites are best regulated by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They do not debilitate, by excessive stimulation; but cause the stomach, liver, and bowels to perform their functions properly. As an after-dinner pill, they are unequaled.

National Pills are a mild purgative acting on the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, removing all obstructions.

HIGHER OCEAN RATES.

This to Compensate for the Non-Carrying of Steerage Passengers.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—Mr. Peters, secretary of the North Atlantic Steamship Association, states that in view of the American regulations in regard to immigrants, the association, at an extraordinary meeting, decided to carry on its vessels only saloon and second-class passengers from Jan. 1 next.

It was also decided to materially reduce the number of sailings during 1893, and to raise the saloon and second cabin rates in order to make up the loss that will be incurred through abandoning the steerage traffic.

All special excursion rates for the Chicago Columbian Exhibition have been withdrawn by the association, and there is no doubt that this action will result in a large falling off in the number of foreign visitors to the World's Fair.

PRESIDENT CARNOT.

Rumor That He Has Resigned the French Cabinet Confirmed.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—A despatch from Paris to The Central News says: The rumors that President Carnot will resign shortly are confirmed this evening. At Tuesday's Cabinet meeting, during the heated dispute between M. Ribot and M. Rouvier, the President interposed the remark:

"Actions of certain ministers render my retention of office at most impossible."

M. Rouvier thereupon left the meeting, declaring that he would resign. President Carnot's difficulty is increased by the reports that his father and his brothers are involved in the Panama Canal scandal.

President Carnot himself, and not M. Ribot, was the one who sent to M. Tirard the despatch: "I call upon you as a friend of my family not to refuse office. If you do I will resign to-morrow."

FRENCH RIFLES.

Their Defections Discovered During the Campaign in Dahomey.

BERLIN, Dec. 15.—The Paris correspondent of The Tageblatt says there is no doubt that the French Department of War is convinced of the inadequacy of the present Lebel rifle to the requirements of modern warfare. A new model has been prepared to substitute for the guns of the obsolete pattern, but during the existing critical condition of politics the Government fears to propose the re-arming of the army.

The defections of the present pattern were revealed, it is said, during the present Dahomey campaign, despite the flattering report made public on the subject.

SMOTHERED IN GRAIN.

A Longshoreman Missed at New York and Found Dead in a Ship's Hold.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The body of Patrick Macadury of Brooklyn, N.Y., was found yesterday in the hold of the steamship Bolivia at Glasgow, from New York, embedded in the grain.

Macadury was smothered in grain when the steamship was being loaded.

Before the Bolivia left New York the mother of Macadury begged and prayed of the captain to search the hold for her son. Rumor said he was buried in the grain. She was refused.

Indian Corn Mills.

HAMBURG, Dec. 15.—Another mill has been started in this city for the purpose of grinding Indian corn exclusively. This is the third mill now running here which grinds nothing but Indian corn from America.

The new mill is owned by Carl Engel & Co. The establishing of these mills is due to the efforts of Mr. Charles J. Murphy, the special agent of the United States Agricultural Department, who was sent to Europe to introduce Indian corn and to point out the various methods of preparing it.

A Large Increase.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—British imports from Canada reached six and a quarter million pounds sterling for the 11 months ending last November. This is an increase of one and three-quarter millions, despite the fact that live stock importations from Canada decreased.

The British importations of Canadian cheese, butter and lumber largely increased.

The Vatican and Russia.

ROME, Dec. 15.—Within the last few weeks the relations between the Vatican and Russia, though not grown so close as to warrant the belief in a near reunion of the Greek and Latin churches, have become extremely cordial.

Delays are Dangerous.

"It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

WHAT BALFOUR SAYS.

The Conservatives Will Support Any Firm and Energetic Foreign Minister.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The National Union of Conservative Associations reaffirmed by a large majority at the meeting yesterday the motion of Col. Howard Vincent in favor of a preferential tariff within the Empire.

Mr. Balfour's speech avoided all reference to the question.

The Times says that the resolution will prove as futile as the similar motion five years ago.

Before the adjournment of the Conservative Conference at Sheffield to-day the Right Hon. J. Balfour, Conservative leader in the House of Commons, said that the Conservatives would support any firm and energetic foreign minister, no matter what his politics.

The condition of international strain in Europe was at present so great that it would be folly to anticipate confidently an indefinite future of European peace. Unless the Imperial force should be kept at the highest possible efficiency, the time might come when a British foreign minister would be powerless to forcibly support the national honor. Mr. Balfour was greeted with great and cordial applause.

The Conservative Conference at Sheffield has adjourned. A resolution was adopted in favor of measures to remedy the depression in the agricultural industry in Great Britain, provided such measures should involve no increase in general taxation.

The conference exhibited great enthusiasm, especially in denouncing Irish Home Rule.

Killed By Dynamite.

HAZELTON, Pa., Dec. 15.—By an explosion of dynamite at Milnesville last evening Thomas Walter and Michael Parrish were killed and Dominick Walter and Mike Marino were fatally injured. Walter and Parrish were blown to atoms and the others so horribly mangled that they cannot recover.

Its Meaning.

"What are you going to call your new paper?" asked the friend who had dropped in to see the aspiring young journalist.

"The Palladium," was the reply.

"That's a good name for a newspaper. By the way, what is the meaning of the word?"

"It means—hum—it means—why, you know what a palladium is, don't you?"

"No. I'm asking for information."

"Well, that's a good one on you! Lived in a civilized community all your life and pretend you don't know what a palladium is?"

"I'm in earnest. What is it?"

"Why, a palladium is— Great Cæsar! Look at that dog fight!"

"Saved!" howled the young journalist, pouncing on the dictionary the instant the door closed on his visitor's retreating form.

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

ABRON REINICH'S DEATH

NEWSPAPER ATTACKS DROVE HIM TO DESPERATION.

His Son-in-Law Said He Did Not Commit Suicide—The Documents of the Late Baron Now in Charge of the Government.

PARIS, Dec. 16.—The principal witnesses examined by the Panama Committee yesterday were M. Rouvier, who resigned the finance portfolio; M. Constans, former Minister of the Interior, and Georges Clemenceau, Radical deputy.

M. Rouvier was the first to be examined. He declared he had nothing to add to what he had said on Tuesday. On being questioned in regard to his relations with Baron De Reinich, he replied that when he visited the Reinich residence the Baron appeared to be greatly agitated; that he asked the baron if he had committed any criminal offences or bribed any senators or deputies, and that the Baron replied: "No, I have realized some profits, which I have shared with certain friends."

Rouvier, continuing, said he could not explain why Baron De Reinich had hoped that M. Herz would have the newspaper attacks upon him stopped. He (Rouvier) had not been aware that De Reinich was to be prosecuted; his impression had been that the baron was to be summoned only as a witness. Rouvier added that he had been assured by the baron's son in-law that the baron had not committed suicide.

Baron Reinich Was Driven Desperate.

M. Clemenceau testified that Rouvier had asked him to see Herz on account of the desperate state of mind to which Baron De Reinich had been driven by the charges brought against him by various newspapers. Witness did not know why the baron had applied to Herz to have the press attacks stopped. When witness and the baron left the house of M. Constans, the last named gentleman having denied that he had instigated the newspaper agitation, the baron said. "I am lost."

M. Clemenceau added that Herz was a shareholder in the newspaper La Justice in 1884-85 to the amount of 700,000 francs and that he himself had had frequent relations with Baron De Reinich, whom he believed to be connected with the Panama Canal Company only in the capacity of banker.

When M. Constans was called to the witness stand he declined to be sworn, but he gave his word of honor that he would tell the truth. He testified that he had told Baron De Reinich that he had had nothing to do with the newspaper agitation. He had never seen Herz.

Georges Duval, the acting editor of La Libre Parol, who had been summoned to testify before the committee, has written a disrespectful letter, in which he refuses to appear before the committee.

The seals were removed from the house of the late baron yesterday, and all the documents belonging to the baron were taken in charge by the Government officials and sent to the committee investigating the scandal.

At a Cabinet meeting, held at Elysee today, M. Bourgeois, Minister of Justice, announced that he would oppose in the Chamber of Deputies the proposal of M. Pourquery, the Boisserin, to invest the Panama Investigation Commission with judicial powers.

When the question came up in the Chamber of Deputies to-day M. Hubbard, member for Seine et Oise, opened the discussion by calling for the immediate discussion of the Boisserin proposals, and M. Ribot, Premier, supported the motion.

M. Brisson, President of the Investigating Committee, moved that the chamber adjourn. The committee, he said, would have no difficulty in fulfilling its task under existing circumstances. If, however, the Boisserin proposals were brought to discussion with the approval of the chamber the committee would support them.

In the name of the committee, M. Brisson then made an attack upon M. Ribot and M. Bourgeois. He accused them of not showing proper zeal in pressing forward the investigation and of giving but half-hearted support to the Investigation Committee. M. Brisson's language was severe and at times intemperate.

M. Bourgeois answered for the government. The ministry, he said, was determined to bring the matter to a settlement, and he stated briefly the reasons of the government for opposing the Boisserin bill.

The question was put to a vote amid some confusion and the decision in favor of proceeding with the discussion of the bill in accordance with the government's desire was carried by 424 against 122.

Immediately after the vote it was reported that in consequence of this reverse M. Brisson would retire from the presidency of the committee.

The way to the consideration of the Boisserin bill was clear, and M. Bourgeois proceeded to state forcibly the objections of the ministry to it. M. Brisson spoke at some length in favor of the bill.

The committee's authority would be weakened if the measure were not rejected.

M. Ribot expressed surprise that M. Brisson supported a measure directed against the Government. If the Cabinet did not command a majority it would then retire, and it would then fall to M. Brisson's lot to discover another one.

The vote at the end of the discussion was 271 to 265 against the Boisserin proposal. It is regarded as tantamount to an expression of confidence in the Government.

Immediately after the vote the chamber adjourned.

Want $15,000 as Ransom.

MADRID, Dec. 16.—The Moorish pirates who recently captured the Spanish steamer Icod and carried her crew into the mountains near Cape Juby refuse to surrender the prisoners until the ransom money to the amount of $15,000 shall have been paid.

They threaten that if any attempt be made to release the prisoners by force they will kill them. It is highly probable the Government will grant the money requested.

The Reichstag Adjourned.

BERLIN, Dec. 16.—The bill providing for the repression of immorality in Berlin, one of the pet measures of the Emperor, is now before the Reichstag, and His Majesty is hopeful that it will become a law.

Yesterday the House referred the bill to a committee, which will probably devote considerable time to its consideration. After the transaction of some routine business the Reichstag adjourned until Jan. 10.

French Revenues.

PARIS, Dec. 16.—The returns of the French Board of Trade show that during November the imports decreased 5,065,000 francs and the exports increased 10,024,000 francs as compared with the corresponding month last year.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL COUNTERFEIT

Is the one which is so NEARLY like the real thing as to be often mistaken for it. The business of turning out Ready-Made Clothing is carried on upon lines, in some cases, so near those of the honest manufacturer, that its products look and sell nearly as well, and deceive many good people into believing that it is just as durable as the article honestly made up.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

Appearances are very often disappointing, and scarcely ever more frequently than in the matter of Clothing. It is satisfactory, therefore, to know that you have a safe investment—always. We mean that you can never be deceived by it—that it is never misrepresented—and that the goods that bear our name and stamp, carry with them our own guarantee.

IN GRAFTON'S CLOTHING

If people would look a little deeper than what appears on the mere surface, they would soon see the difference between good and counterfeit Clothing. The one is constantly putting something solid into its structure, which will stand the wear and tear, while the other is full of dressing and shoddy, which cannot stand even the light of the sun.

Besides we sell DIRECT to our customers at close WHOLESALE PRICES, thus saving them a straight TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

NO WONDER PEOPLE LOOK SURPRISED

as they pass our store and see good garments marked at such low prices. That line of $6.50 Suits and $6.50 Overcoats, for instance, are surprisers, and are being picked up more quickly than expected. We are honestly selling twice as many as anticipated, but we have stock enough to meet all demands, if you come before New Years.

The demand for Boys' Overcoats and Suits has also increased this week, and we are quite prepared for any rush. Prices $1.50 to $5.75.

We still continue to give away a dandy Hand Sleigh with every Boys' Suit or Overcoat.

Alarm Clocks!

There are a great many small Alarm Clocks which have been running for a few years and are now out of order, which the owners are allowing to remain idle, because they think it will cost too much to repair them. If you bring them to us you will find that we will make them run as well as they ever did, at a very small charge. We have already changed hundreds of them from being merely rubbish into good timepieces. If you want to buy a new one, we will sell you an Alarm Clock at a lower price than any one else in the trade. We sell only the very best make and warrant every one.

MANIA FOR FORGERY.

Peculiarities of a Halton Woman.

USED HER BROTHER'S NAME.

And Then Found Her Husband's Name More Handy.

One of the Most Remarkable Cases Ever Heard in Canada Results in the Acquittal of the Accused—Milton's Cause Celebre Attracts More People to the Town Hall Than the Annual Fair—A Farmer's Wife Admits Forging Her Husband's Name to Notes For $2000.

MILTON, Ont., Dec. 17.—The little court house at Milton was yesterday morning crowded as never before in the history by residents of the town and county, anxious to see what might turn up at the trial of "Dode" Robson, the young broker charged with forgery. Robson is a son of a former landlord, recently deceased, of the Commercial Hotel. Born and brought up in the town, he is known to almost every person in the county. The other parties concerned in the case are also universally well known in the district, and it is safe to say that Halton has never witnessed a trial which created so much interest. It will in future be referred to as the cause celebre of the county.

The charge upon which Robson was placed on his trial was that on Dec. 1 last he uttered a forged note for $500 payable in 12 months to E. J. Campbell purporting to bear the signatures of John Dixon and Matilda Dixon, his wife. This is the note:

$500. MILTON, Dec 1, 1891

Twelve months after date I promise to pay to E. J. Campbell or bearer the sum of three hundred dollars with interest at eight per cent.

JOHN D XON.
MATILDA DIXON

During the past few years many notes purporting to bear the signature of John Dixon have been discounted through various channels in Milton, principally the Bank of Hamilton. Dixon is a farmer residing on lot 14, con. 4, Trafalgar and who also owns 200 acres in Nelson township his rating being placed at $15,000.

Since the arrest of Robson, notes bearing Dixon's signature and aggregating in value $6100 have turned up. Here is the list:

Notes (3) of John Jones	$800
" (2) S. Dick	400
" William Sinclair	50
" Hugh Campbell	300
" William McClelland	500
" James Henderson	200
" Dr Stewart	100
" Henry Carrique	400
" John Sproat	50
" R. J. Campbell	300
	$3100

Matilda Dixon, wife of John Dixon, has admitted having forged her husband's name to all of these notes with the exception of those made payable to McClelland and Campbell, and these the prosecution claimed Robson uttered. Within the past ten days all of the notes with the exception of the two named have been taken up and paid by Jacob and Elijah Dixon, brothers of John Dixon, and the evidence against the woman has thus been destroyed. What Mrs. Dixon did with the proceeds of the notes for $3100, which she admits having forged, is as great a mystery as ever, all efforts of counsel and judge to draw the truth from her having proved ineffectual. One theory is that she speculated on realty in Toronto, the fact that she borrowed $40 from Charles Lennox, dentist in the Arcade, on Oct. 9 last, during a visit to the Queen City, being cited in support of this. Another hypothesis is that she used the money to aid her daughters and her "poor relations." Dixon, being generally regarded as a "soloon" man, with all that the term implies. This is all conjecture, however, for all efforts to induce either Mrs. Dixon or her husband to reveal the hole into which the money was dropped have been unsuccessful.

It came out in evidence that the woman first tried her 'prentice hand in forging the name of her brother, George Ford, many years ago, a note purporting to have been signed by him having been discounted by her at the Bank of Hamilton.

No person believes that as the result of her financiering Mrs. Dixon realized much. She was in the hands of sharks and they bled her. All the notes drew 8 to 10 per cent. interest and the commission of the necessitator of the loan, in at least one case aggregating 25 per cent., was taken out of that. Eighteen months ago one or two discounters of the paper were aware that Mrs. Dixon was signing her husband's name without his authority and their made terms accordingly.

It is stated that when Dixon married Miss Ford she was unable to write and he taught her how she profited by the lesson has been told.

In addition to the immense crowd of farmers in the court room there was a deerhound, two fox terriers and a coolie, and they manifested their disapproval of the proceedings at various stages.

Mr. John Wright, for 25 years representative of the county in the House of Commons, occupied a front seat and watched the case through a pair of horn rare spectacles (price $1.50).

Miss May Little, a petite blonde, officiated as court stenographer, and the Judge took the precaution to have her sworn to take the evidence correctly, entering upon her duties, knowing the penchant of reporters for drawing upon their imaginations.

It was exactly 10.45 when Judge Kingsmill emerged from the hole in the wall and took his seat on the bench. The prisoner, who had been out on bail, entered the dock, and the case was called. Robson is a heavily-built youth of 23 with short, sandy mustache. He walks with a crutch, one of his legs being much shorter than the other. He appeared totally unconcerned, and as the case progressed vented his counsel. Mr. J S Fullerton of Toronto and J. W. Elliot of Milton.

County Crown Attorney T. G. Watkeson prosecuted and Mr. Duncan McGillivon looked after the interests of Mrs. Dixon.

Mr. Fullerton took exception to the trial of the case by the judge, claiming that forgery did not come under a county judge's jurisdiction, and quoted the case of Lewis Lovinger, tried in the York County Court for forging a check for $35 on the Quebec Bank, and which had been appealed; judgment on the appeal is still pending. The judge noted the objection, but decided to proceed under the powers conferred by the Ontario Statutes, chapter 18, section 2.

Robert J. Campbell of the sixth line, Trafalgar the man who laid the information, was the first witness called. He is a hard-headed Scotchman, bearded like the pard, and during his evidence kept his right hand deep in his trousers pocket, while with the left he alternately stroked his whiskers or rubbed his knee-cap. Campbell told of his visit to Robson, and his enquiries as to whether he had any notes in dispose of, of Robson's reply that he had a note made by Matilda Dixon, of his (witness') refusal to accept the note unless it was also signed by Dixon in Robson's presence, and of the production a few days later of the note by Robson, and the latter's statement when witness remarked that the signature "John Dixon" looked like a woman's writing, and if there was a pen and ink in the room he would ask Robson to witness it, that he had observed the parties whose names were attached sign it. He also told how his suspicions of the genuineness of the signature grew by what they fed on, until next day he called on Wilburn McClelland, and upon looking at a Dixon note told by him witness' doubts became certainties strong as proofs of Holy Writ. Then he hunted up Robson and told him he believed the note was a forgery. The prisoner replied that he must be crazy—that it wasn't likely that Mrs. Dixon, who gave him the note, would give him a forged document, but to leave matters in abeyance for a few days and he would see Mrs. Dixon. Mr Campbell suggested that Robson return the $300 and take back the note, but the prisoner replied that he had handed the money over to Mrs. Dixon.

John Dixon, the alleged maker of the note, gave his evidence with the greatest reluctance. His farm is near Omagh postoffice and he can't read or write far away therefrom. The entire four-score years that have whitened his hair and stooped his shoulders have been spent in Halton. He enjoys a reputation for honesty and straightforwardness among the thrifty farmers in the county, with one touch of Thomas Dixon, in County Town Attorney of Dixon. His manner of testifying showed how anxious he naturally was to shield his wife, but he was forced to answer questions which proved that she had been for years guilty of forgery. After he had denied that he had signed the Campbell note or authorized any person to sign it for him, and that the signature "Matilda Dixon" was not in his wife's writing, he was handed over to the prisoner's counsel. The fully six hour the old gentleman stood in the box with bowed head toying with his spectacle case, and when unable to parry the questions put to him told the counsel bluntly that he would not answer or "That's my business."

Dixon denied that he heard his wife had an arrangement with the Omagh postmistress whereby she was to receive all her husband's letters.

He also expressed surprise at the fact that his wife had for years kept back and opened letters addressed to him. He swore positively that he was not aware that his wife was in the habit of signing his name to notes, and was equally emphatic in his statement that he did not furnish the money with which the various forged notes had been bought up during the past fortnight. Asked if his wife had independent means of her own Dixon replied that she had not.

Witness was subjected to a long cross-examination as to whether certain documents produced were in his handwriting or in that of his wife. The defence put in this undated letter, which they claimed was received by Robson the day before the Campbell note was negotiated, and upon which they further contended their client was acting:

OMAGH.

Mr. Robson:

Dear Sir,—I return you the note, Mr. Dixon is not at home. He is at the Nelson farm I expect him home Friday. I will send you another note if I can. Will be in Milton in a day or two. I would like to have the money as soon as you can. It will be all right.

MRS JOHN DIXON.

"I guess said he did not think the letter was in his wife's handwriting.

In his evidence Campbell, the prosecutor, swore that Robson told him he saw Dixon and his wife sign the note in his office on Nov. 30. Witness swore that he was in Milton on the 30th, but was in there on the 30th, all the day he was at his Nelson farm all day. He was very pronounced as to these dates. "I'm telling you the truth now," he ejaculated, pointing his finger at the counsel. Asked if he had made a recent conveyance of his farm to his son he replied: "That's my business," and neither the entirety of the counsel nor the request of the judge could get a different answer. Finally Mr. Fullerton found his witness so clever at times that he abandoned crossing swords with him.

There was a buzz of excitement in the court room when an elderly matron, attired soberly in black, her features partially concealed by a thick black veil, entered the box. This was Mrs. Dixon, wife of the last witness, and the woman who, according to her own confession, as forged her husband's name to perhaps a dozen notes for large amounts. She is an ordinary-looking woman, the only striking feature about her being the remarkable strength of her chin. Her appearance indicated that whatever she did with the money she raised she certainly did not expend it upon dress for herself. Her examination was continued for a period of two hours, and during the entire interrogation, in which she admitted not only that she opened her husband's letters but forged his name repeatedly, she never showed by the quiver of a muscle or the slightest change in expression of her expressionless face that she was sensible of the disgrace into which she had brought an honored family.

Mrs. Dixon swore that she had a transaction involving a note of $30 with Robson about July 11 or 12, but had no dealings with him subsequently. She denied emphatically that she had signed either her own or her husband's name to the Campbell note or that she had any conversation or correspondence with Robson with regard thereto. She did not know by whom the note was written, neither had she received any money from Robson as the proceeds of the note. The undated Omagh note published above was handed to her, and after having read it by aid of her husband's spectacles, which the old gentleman handed her, she denied that she wrote it. She did not know that her husband had conveyed the Nelson farm to his son within a month.

At this stage Mr Fullerton proceeded to prove that the witness was not telling the truth when she said she had no dealings with Robson since July. When confronted with William Beck, who presumably spoke by the book, she admitted having met him in the town hall about Oct. 7 and asked him where Robson was. Then he thrust before her several letters which she had received from holders of notes subsequent to Oct. 1 and which prisoner had handed to him. At first witness said she had never given these letters to Robson, that she had burned them and that Phœnix-like they must have arisen from the ashes. Subsequently she admitted that she must have given them to Robson. She also admitted writing this note:

OMAGH, Oct. 10, 1892.

Mr. Robson:

Dear Sir,—As I could not get into Milton just now I would like you to attend to the note [a small personal note of her own for $50] for me.

MRS. JOHN DIXON.

P.S.—I want to get to Milton as soon as I can. I send you $10.

The defence claimed that this letter contained the instructions to Robson upon which he acted in regard to the Campbell note. Mrs. Dixon denied that she wrote the undated notes referred to above. In admitting that she opened her husband's letters Mrs. Dixon said that she did not think there was any harm in doing so. She admitted having forged her husband's name to a large number of notes.

What did you do with the money?—A. That's my own business.

Did you give it to Mr. Dixon?—A. No. It makes no difference what I did with it.

Both counsel and judge endeavored to induce Mrs. Dixon to say what she did with the money, but after wasting one-fourth of an hour abandoned the attempt.

Witness admitted that the holders of notes that she had forged were pressing her for payment about Dec. 1. She at first admitted, but then denied, that she wanted to realize on the Campbell note in order to retire other notes which were overdue.

How then did you expect to pay the notes, aggregating $1500, which were due about Dec. 1? asked Mr. Fullerton.—A. I expected to get some money in. Whose money?—A. My own money.

Another attempt was made at this stage to induce witness to tell where the money was to come from, but like all previous efforts it proved abortive, the good offices of the judge, who ruled that she must answer the query, having no effect. Finally the witness stated that she had no particular source of revenue.

Mrs Dixon admitted that she borrowed $30 from Charles Lennox, dentist, Toronto, but denied that the endorsation "Aney Dixon," upon which the check was cashed, was in her writing. She also denied that she had asked either Annie Kelly, Edward Kelly or Peter McDuffie to sign her name to a note.

After a good deal of quibbling and hesitation Mrs. Dixon admitted that she had forged her husband's name to all the notes with the exception of the McClelland and R. Campbell notes, and also stated that they had all been taken up within a fortnight. She could not say who furnished the money, however. She had never received any of the proceeds of the Campbell note from Robson.

Elijah Dixon, a brother-in-law of the last witness, admitted that he had bought up all the forged notes, giving his check for the respective amounts. He swore that he did not know what had become of the notes and also swore that the money he expended in redeeming them was his own. Elijah swore that the signature, John Dixon, on the Campbell note was not in his brother's handwriting.

This was the case for the Crown.

Mr. Fullerton submitted that the Crown had failed to establish a case. He claimed that as Campbell and the Dixons were all parties to the transaction the corroboration by disinterested witnesses required by the statute had not been brought forward. He cited the Hagerman and Selby cases in support of his contention. He also claimed that in view of Mrs. Dixon's confession to half a score of other forgeries and her repeated assertion that she had no dealings with Robson since July, and her subsequent admission when the proofs in writing were submitted to her that she had one subsequent dealing with him in October, her testimony was totally unworthy of belief.

"The fact of the matter is," continued Mr. Fullerton, "the holders of $1500 worth of overdue notes were pressing her, and she asked Robson to negotiate this Campbell note in order to raise funds to satisfy the other creditors."

His Honor said he was not prepared to say that the signatures acknowledged to be in Mrs. Dixon's writing, including the one she had written in court, were written by the hand which penned the names "John Dixon" and "Matilda Dixon." However, he would adjourn the court for three-quarters of an hour to consider the points raised by Mr. Fullerton.

When the court resumed Judge Kingsmill instructed the defence to proceed. Charles Lennox of Toronto testified to the fact of giving Mrs. Dixon a check for $40, but as he didn't see her endorse the word "Aney" across the note his evidence fell flat.

Thomas McDuffie was called to prove that Mrs. Dixon had asked him some years ago to sign her husband's name to a note, but his testimony was ruled out.

THREE SACRED COVENANTS.

Eloquent and Masterly Address by Mrs. Barakat Last Night.

St. Paul's Presbyterian church was again crowded to the doors last evening to hear Mrs. Layya Barakat deliver her inspiring address on "The Three Oriental Covenants." Rev. Mr. Goldsmith led in the opening devotional exercises and in a few earnest words introduced the Syrian lady, who, he said, had thrilled and edified all her auditors on the night previous in her powerful address, and had, he felt sure, awakened a keener interest and livelier activity in the missionary cause by her God-given message.

Mrs. Barakat, in her prelude, said she intended to speak on the great love of God for humanity. In a beautiful and graphic word picture she carried her hearers back to their childhood scenes and its hallowed associations—to the fond love and kind recollections of father and mother. We had often drunk from the clear sparkling brook that gently murmured past the old homestead door. Often had we sipped the cool water, but now we had wandered away and after long years of absence would fain come back to it again. We all had strayed away from the loving fountain, the refreshing water—the Bible. We wanted the water of Isaah and Jacob to draw from it, drink and rejoice. The Bible was the water which God left for us all. It was hard to realise the truth of the gospel living as we did in the nineteenth century, an age full of restlessness and theories. The world was restless in its faith and religion, art, education and science were the only th ngs wanted. But no it was most of the Gospel. The Bible was not written to a civilized people such as live in the 19th century. It was written in an age when all life and custom of the Orientals was known and exhibited the three sacred covenants, the water covenant, the bread and salt covenant and the blood covenant. The water covenant was in the east, kept for 40 days and entered into with some one never seen or known. Mrs. Barakat then described how the water covenant was made and kept, imploring her hearers to mentioned in Isaah which says "Let him that is thirsty come and drink. She urged all to look up to Christ and imbide the waters of life. This covenant lasted for life, while the water covenant only lasted 40 days. Water was much needed in the East, in the streets and across the deserts, but what was needed most was a great deal of the waters of the life of God, God's covenant with us.

The covenant of bread and salt was kept for forty years between those entering into it. An Oriental could not be pleased more than for one to eat bread and salt with him. The Orientals were a hospitable people, and when a stranger entered into this covenant it meant protection, fast friendship, honour and dependence between him and the stranger for forty years.

There was a higher covenant than this to-day, the covenant of our faith with God. There was the blood covenant, the covenant which Christ entered upon for you and I. The blood covenant in the East denoted lasting friendship and sworn fidelity forever to the parties entering into it—as long as blood ran in their veins. The speaker dwelt upon God's covenant with Abraham and said the world did not know the secret of that covenant, why Abraham had such implicit faith in Providence to lay down his son. For the study of this covenant she pointed out several passages of Scripture for prayerful meditation. The blood covenant of Christ still stood to-day, and she implored all to seek the love and guidance of Him who laid down His great life for us—to wash away our sins in the Blood of the Lamb.

At the close a hearty vote of thanks moved by Rev. A. MacWilliams and seconded by Mr. D. W. Dumble, was tendered Mrs. Barakat for her stirring and persuasive address. The lecturess responded briefly, thanking the congregation for their kindness, saying she was wonderfully impressed with her visit to Canada and hoped she had caused more zealousness for missionary work.

Mrs. W. A. Sanderson, sang a solo very acceptably.

A PHYSICIAN'S SERIOUS CHARGE.

A Toronto physician asserted in conversation quite recently, that some mothers were satisfied when their babies were filled with any thing in the food line. This ignorance and criminal carelessness, he said, was productive of sickness, and very often brought on disease and death.

We fear that too much of this improper feeding is done in our midst; and the sooner mothers realise the danger of it the bettor for themselves and babes.

When Lactacted Food is feed to the baby, it is relished and digested easily. Every particle of this pure and nutritious food is perfectly assimilated. There is no inflammation of the stomach and intestines, as is common when poor and indigestible foods are used. Baby is never cross and peevish; it sleeps and rests well, and becomes a joy in the home.

We trust that every mother who knows nothing of Lactated Food, will give it a trial at once. The Wells & Richardson Co., of Montreal, are willing to send a full sized package to every mother who will send in her address. There is nothing on earth in artificial foods that can give the satisfaction and joy that Lactated Food gives. Try it, mother, if your wish your babe to grow fat and strong.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Friday of last week, Mr. D. Miller. 10th con., Smith concession, Smith, met with a serious accident. It appears that Mr. Miller had gone out to the woods to cut wood and was standing on a slippery log, and in striking with the axe he slipped and fell on his back, striking his head on a knot and rendering him unconscious. On recovering he managed to reach his house, when Dr. J. R. Fraser was summoned and found that he was suffering from concussion of the brain. At latest accounts he is still very low, but it is hoped that he will soon be able to be around.

THE BIGGEST DAY IN 7 YEARS!

Saturday, December 3rd was the biggest day MR. J. J. SHEEHY has had in seven years. Why is this? Surely not because there is less competition. Certainly not because inducements are not being held out by others. Most assuredly not because prices of farm products are showing an upward tendency. Then why??

Simply because the purchasing public of the town and surrounding country have read Mr. Sheehy's advertisements, have inwardly digested them and have concluded that cheap sale or no cheap sale Mr. Sheehy is bound not to be undersold.

We want every day in December to be a big day. How are we to accomplish this? Simply by offering to the public better value for the money than can be had elsewhere. Just cast your eye over the following quotations:—

All Wool Flannels, 28 in. wide, - -	17½	Good Linen Towels each - - -	5½
9 lb. Wool Blankets, - - - - -	$3.75	Grey Wool Blankets, - - -	31c. a lb.
14 yds. Heavy Grey Canton Flannel,	$1.00	25 yards Factory Cotton, - - -	$1.00

These few quotations will probably give an idea of what we are doing and a glance at our BARGAIN TABLE in the centre of our store will convince the most skeptical that when it comes to general bargains we certainly are very decidedly "in it."

Best Cure For

All disorders of the Throat and Lungs is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has no equal as a cough-cure.

Bronchitis

"When I was a boy, I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary remedies, but recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take a bad cold, and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."—J. C. Woodson, P.M., Forest Hill, W. Va.

Cough

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured."—Franz Hoffman, Clay Centre, Kans.

La Grippe

"Last spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete."—W. H. AN AUBURN MIRACLE.

AN ACT OF HEROISM FOLLOWED BY DIRE RESULTS.

Edward Donnelly Saves a Life Almost at the Cost of His Own—After Years of Suffering he is Restored to Health—A Story of Interest to Canadians.

Auburn, N.Y., Bulletin.

It is on record that upon a chilly April day, a few years ago, an eight year old boy fell into the Owasco river at the foot of East Eighth street, New York, and when all efforts to rescue him had failed, Edward Donnelly, at risk of his own life, plunged into the water and, when himself nearly exhausted, saved the boy from drowning. It was a humane and self-sacrificing deed and received deserved commendation in all the many newspapers that made mention of it. Edward Donnelly was then a resident of New York city, but his wife was Amanda Grantman, of Auburn, and sister, Mrs. Samuel D. Carry, of No. 71 Moravia street, which gave a local interest to the incident. All this was some time ago, and both it and Mr. Donnelly had passed out of the mind of the writer until a few days ago, while in Saratoga, he was shown a letter by a friend from which he was permitted to make the following extract.

AUBURN, N.Y., Oct. 26, '92.

I am taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have cured me of that terrible disease, Locomotor Ataxia. When I commenced taking them, I was wholly unable to work and nearly helpless. I am now improved so much that I have been picking apples and wheeling them to a barn on a wheelbarrow.

Yours truly,
EDWARD DONNELLY,
71 Moravia St., Auburn, N.Y.

Immediately on returning to Auburn our reporter called at the above address and found Mr. Donnelly out in a barn where he was grinding [illegible] and making cider with a hand press and he seemed well and cheerful and happy.

Moravia street is one of the pleasantest suburban streets of Auburn, and No. 71 is about the last house on it before reaching the open country, and nearly two miles from the business centre of the city.

"Why, yes, said Mr. Donnelly, "come into the house, I will tell you all about my case and how Pink Pills cured me, and will be glad to do it and have it printed for the benefit of others, for I am sure I owe my restoration to health and happiness wholly to those simple but wonderful Pills." And then in the presence of his wife and Mrs. Carry and Mrs. Taylor, who all confirmed his statement, he told your correspondent the story of his sickness and of his restoration to health by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

"I was born in Albany, N.Y., and am 42 years old. The greatest portion of my life, I have lived in New York City. I was general foreman there of the F. A. Mulgrew Saw Mills, foot of Eighth street, on the East river. It was on the 20th of April, 1882, that the boy fell into the river and I rescued him from drowning, but in saving his life I contracted a disease, which nearly cost me my own. Why, sir I am sure I should have died long ago if Pink Pills had not saved my life, but I wouldn't have cared then, for my sufferings were so great that death would have been a blessed relief; but now, thank God, I am a well man again and free from pain and able to be happy.

"You see when I saved the boy I was in the water so long that I was taken with a deathly chill and soon became so stiffened up and weak that I could neither work nor walk. For some time I was under treatment of Dr. George McDonald. He finally said he could do nothing more for me and that I had better go into the country. On the 1st of last June (1892) my wife and I came up to Auburn. I was then in great pain, almost helpless, the disease was growing upon me and I felt that I had come to the home of my wife and of her sister to die.

"When the disease first came upon me the numbness began in my heels and pretty soon the whole of both my feet became affected. There was a cold feeling across the small of my back and downwards and a sense of soreness and a tight pressure on the chest. The numbness gradually extended up both legs and into the lower part of my body. I felt that death was creeping up to my vitals I must I longed for the hour when it would relieve me of my pain and misery. I was still taking the medicine ("It was Iodide of Potassium," said his wife) and was being rubbed and having plasters put all over my body, but with no benefit.

"The latter part of last June I read of a case similar to mine cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I had never heard of those blessed Pills before, but I thought that if they could cure another case of the same disease with which I was afflicted, perhaps they would also cure me. So I sent and got three boxes of the Pink Pills, and began taking them at once, following all the directions closely. In a few weeks time I was so improved that from being helpless I was able to help myself and to get up and go to work, and to walk every day from No. 74 Walnut street, where I then lived, to Osborne's new twine factory, Seymour and Cottage streets—more than a mile—where I was then employed, but all the while I was taking Pink Pills.

"Then Dr. Potchin, of Wisconsin, uncle of my wife, and who was here on a visit, began to pooh-pooh at me for taking Pink Pills and finally persuaded me to stop taking them and to let him treat me. When he returned to the West he left a prescription with Dr. Hyde, of Auburn, who also treated me, and after a while the old trouble returned and I was getting bad again. Then I began again to take Pink Pills; have taken in all nearly 20 boxes, at an entire cost of less than $10.00. (My other treatment cost me a pile of money) and again I am well and able to work.

"In New York Dr. McDonald said my disease was Locomotor Ataxia. He treated me by striking me on the knees without giving me pain; by having me try to walk with my eyes closed; by trying to stand on one foot and then on the other, but I couldn't do it, and so after a while he said I had Locomotor Ataxia and was incurable, and that I had better go into the country among my friends who would make the few remaining days of my life as comfortable as possible and give me kind attendance. Well I came, or rather was brought from New York into the country, but instead of dying, I am a well man, nearly as well as ever before in my life. Pink Pills did it. If I was able I would, at my own expense, publish the virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to the whole world, and especially in New York City, where I am much better known than I am here."

"Another thing," said Mr. Donnelly, "I am sure that the Pink Pills for Pale People (and they are well named) are the best remedy for impure blood and the best blood maker in the world. Why when I was sick and before I took them, if I cut myself the very little blood that came from the would was thin and pale and watery. A few days ago I accidentally cut my hand slightly and I bled like a pig, and the blood was a bright red. Just look at the blood in the veins of my hands." So indeed they were, and his cheeks also wore the ruddy flush of health with which only good blood and plenty of it can paint the human face.

Our reporter then called upon the Charles H. Sleeper Co., druggists, at their request. They were much interested in the case and cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and told of several other instances which had come to their knowledge, where the use of Dr. Williams's Pink Pills had proved efficacious in making most wonderful cures. These pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves; they are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partic paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, and the tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration, all diseases depending upon vitiated humours of the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, suppressions, irregularies, and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood and restore the glow of health to the pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature.

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N.Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Bear in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form is trying to defraud you, and should be avoided. The public are also cautioned against all other so-called blood purifiers and nerve tonics, no matter what name may be given them. They are all imitations, whose makers wish to reap a pecuniary advantage from the wonderful reputation achieved by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and refuse all imitations and substitutes.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these Pills are sold make a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

TEACHERS IN CONVENTION,

Listen to Excellent Addresses From Messrs. Houston and Fife—Practical Benefit Received by the Teachers—Other Addresses and Discussion on Them.

THE AFTERNOON SESSION.

The second session of the Teachers' Institute was held yesterday afternoon in the Assembly Hall of the Collegiate. President Fessenden was in the chair and about one hundred teachers answered to Inspector Brown's roll call.

Mr. Wm. Houston, M.A., was the first speaker. He finished the subject he had begun in the morning—"Arithmetic in the Public Schools." Having already dealt with addition multiplication and involution he took up subtraction, division and evolution; which latter three, he claimed should not be touched until the first three have been thoroughly grasped by the pupil. In subtraction in that strange process of "borrowing" he insisted on teaching the reason as well as the rule; particularly on the ground that, if subtraction is thus mastered, no mystery and little difficulty will be found in division. Mr. Houston's whole able address was an illustrated plea for teaching "the why and the wherefore of the elementary rules.

Mr. Calleodar, Principal of the Norwood Model School, then followed with a half hour talk on geography. He contended for a greater use of clay models in place of maps with junior classes. He illustrated from a large clay map of North America, about an inch in depth and two feet in length. Rivers and lakes, their existence, their direction, length, current and volume, climate and natural resources, their diversities in different lands. To a real understanding of these, the clay map, he contended, is all but indispensable.

The last address was that of Mr. Fife, B.A., Science Master of the Collegiate Institute. His subject was "Science in the Public Schools." He contrasted the comparatively insignificant position of science in our colleges and high schools ten years ago with the proud position which that subject had now achieved. This rapid and immense change he traced to a growing recognition of the benefits conferred by the study of science. These, he stated, were, first, much useful knowledge of the common objects about us, secondly, and what is of even more importance, a good mental training. This latter, while quite varied, consisted chiefly, however, in the development of the powers of observation. By a practical demonstration he, here, successfully taught an interesting first lesson in Botany to a class of pupils, in the third book, from our Public Schools. Mr. Fife closed with a sound appeal for the teaching of at least one natural science in our Public Schools.

A short discussion followed, several teachers taking part and commending Mr. Fife for his educative address. The meeting then adjourned until 8 o'clock.

THE EVENING LECTURE.

The evening session was well attended. The whole time was taken up by Prof. Houston with a lecturer, or rather a talk, on Poetry. As his text he chose two short poems, one from the Fourth Reader and the other from the H. S. Reader. He brought out convincingly the aesthetic value of poetical studies. Poetry, he showed, is more an artificial mode of expression than prose. Secondly, it is more forcible than prose, and further, what is largely the explanation of its greater forcibleness, it is briefer. As descriptions are more condensed, more is left for the reader's own imagination. Rythm, the lecturer decided, was a positive essential of a true poem, and he protested against the common sneering at the teaching of rythm as a waste of time. Owing to the lateness of the hour Mr. Houston was compelled to leave much of his subject untouched. A vote of thanks, moved by Inspector Brown, seconded by Mr. Jeffries, was unanimously carried, when the meeting adjourned.

"Handsome is that handsome does,' and if Hood's Sarsaparilla doesn's do handsomely, then nothing does. Have you ever tried it?

THE LATEST PETERBOROUGH SENSATION!

A Great Money Losing Sale
At the Clothing Store
Under the Opera House, No. 342.

The entire stock of Winter Overcoats, Suits, Gent's Furnishings, Hats, Caps and Furs, in the store formerly known as the "Grand Union Clothing Hall," must be sold out at whatever prices it will bring.

The peremptory orders leaves only 60 days to clear everything out. The proprietor says:—"Forget profits, forget cost, forget everything—but sell the goods."

This is no bluff, but absolute facts. The slaughter will, therefore, go on to the finish—until the whole business is wiped out of existence.

Better come quickly if you want any of these dead-sure bargains.

NOTE THE ADDRESS:

UNDER THE OPERA HOUSE, NO. 342 GEORGE STREET.

Our stock of Christmas Novelties in Jewellery and Silverware is complete and well assorted.

We have all the latest and best designs in Rings, Brooches, Chains, Lockets, &c.

In Silverware Novelties we have a large assortment of Napkin Rings, Cups, Trinket Stands, Bon Bons, Tooth Pick Holders, Card Receivers, &c.

Our prices you will find right. We aim to give our Customers the very best goods at the lowest figures.

F. S. SCHNEIDER,
391 George Street.

CLEARING SALE
—OF—MILLINERY!

During the next two weeks, before removing from our present place of business, we will sell our stock of Millinery REGARDLESS OF COST. Come early and secure bargains. This is a rare chance to get the newest and most stylish goods at the lowest prices. Remember the place,

DEAN'S PRESENTATION PARTY

Fancy Trimmed Baskets.

For photographs, paper-racks, hair-pin holders, letter racks, etc. Commenced work in great variety for Christmas. Fancy ribbons in new shades, suitable for fancy work. Miss JENKINS, 428 George street.

150 doz. Silk Handkerchiefs at Armstrong & Co's. Presents for Christmas. Buy some of them.

Jeweller's Profits.

No need paying jeweller's prices for your scarf pins, shirt buttons, collar buttons, cuff buttons, and watch chains when you can buy them at half the price at JAS. MCCOMB'S, the Glove Man on Hunter street.

AT OPERA HOUSE AGAIN TO-NIGHT.

If You Want Good Bread.

Brown or white, pan or bottom baked, and sweet, just like what your mother baked for you, not puffed up into a soft, spongy, indigestible mass, you can buy it at MRS. POLLARDS, 456 George street. d

The Best Christmas Gift.

If you want to give a Christmas present which will be appreciated more than any other, and is suitable for boys or girls, men or women, you cannot do better than call on the "Canadian Canoe Co." corner of Water and Brock streets, and buy one of their nice durable canoes.

A Window of Ties.

A very attractive window of Ties, made-up and four-in-hand styles, is that of the Montreal Clothing House, 390 George street. These are imported ties — not bankrupt stock — and are in colours, patterns and material to suit every taste. The prices are marked at 10, 15, 20 and 25 cents, and are extraordinary value at that.

A VARIED AND PLEASING PERFORMANCE.

Christmas Philanthropists.

Who are they? This is a preposterious question. Any live citizen who reads the papers know that Gough Bros., the wonderful cheap men, are offering holiday bargains in clothing that surpass everything ever offered even in their marvellous bargain-giving career. Men's and boys' overcoats, men's and boys' suits, part of a manufacturers stock bought at 60 cents on the dollar, selling at the same rate. Now is the time to harvest your bargains. Nothing like it ever before seen here.

LADY'S GOLD WATCH AND OTHER PRIZES GIVEN AWAY.

A Picturesque Pony Express.

Mr. Alex. Elliott is enterprising and æsthetic. He must have everything pretty and picturesque, from a pleasure park to a pony express. He has had turned out for him the prettiest little pony express delivery wagon you could fancy. Mr. T. Fitzgerald's carriage works deserve the credit of its construction. A neat airy Sudlon gear with gear and wheels painted a lemon yellow with Aurora red striping, supports a box the rear part of which is built in the shape and colour of a bar of "surprise soap" which name in gold letters with carmine shading adorns the sides of the box. The rear end, painted black, with gold ornamentation, is composed of two doors which admit the parcels of the "Palace Grocery." In front of the vehicle is the driver's seat covered by a close hood, which bears on the sides the legend "Elliott's Pony Express." A "dandy" pony imported for the occasion from the west, in a set of Shortly's nobby, abundantly brass mounted, harness draws this pretty pony expres which is to be used for delivering the holiday stock of fine groceries of Mr. A. Elliott's Palace Grocery. This stock so complete, fresh and well assorted, will be in such great demand that a specially adapted system is required to ensure prompt and speedy delivery. Persons in need of any possible kind of choice grocery goods or liquors will find an abundant supply at the Palace Grocery Store, and it will be a pleasure to receive them by the Palace Grocery's pony express, which is a credit to both the capable carriage builder, Mr. T. Fitzgerald, and the enterprising owner, Mr. Alex. Elliott, of the Palace Grocery. 1d

PRICES, 10 AND 20 CENTS.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Sale of pictures and fancy goods every day during the holidays commencing at 11 o'clock a.m. 325 George street. 142-2d

Study economy by having your suit and overcoat cleaned or dyed and repaired at Parker's Steam Dye Works, Charlotte street.

Christmas Ale.

Special brewing of ale and porter in kegs and bottles at Calcutt's Brewery. Telephone 98. 143-6t

Miss Moote will remain at the Snowden House for two or three days longer and invites ladies who wish to consult with her regarding Mrs. Gervaise Graham's Toilet Preparations or treatments, to call early if they wish an interview, as she is being kept very busy.

To the Ladies—On the Quiet.

Ladies! if you want to present your father, husband, lover or son with a nice warm fur cap, cheaper than you can buy it at any fur store, drop into the Montreal clothing store, 390 George street and make your selection before they are gone. It can be packed up and laid away for you on the quiet until Xmas. dw

Fixtures in the Custom House.

Mr. J. H. Greer has been erecting several fine electroliers in the new Custom House block. They will be lighted to-night for the first time. He has placed in the Custom House one three light, two two lights, and five brackets. In the Inland Revenue department he has placed two three lights, two two lights and nine brackets. He will also place several portable lamps in the building.

Christmas Dry Goods.

Among Peterborough's various large dry goods stores there is none more likely to prove interesting to the average Christmas shopper than that of Robert Fair, of the Golden Lion, George street. This old and enterprising firm is at present showing an immensely varied stock of superior goods especially suited to meet the needs of the rapidly growing class who believe that Christmas presents should be of a useful character. In the various departments are to be found the newest lines of English and foreign novelties in endless variety and at every price. The display of imported mantles for ladies, misses and children, and indeed the whole of the millinery department, has been marked down to exceptionally close margin on cost. Plushes, silks, velvets, brocade silks, feather boas, and fancy coloured silks, have likewise been shorn of their regular profits. In the drapery department is an immense stock of curtains in lace, Nottingham lace, Scotch spot muslin, Swiss embroidered muslin, American and German chenille, fancy art stripes, etc. etc. Also a beautiful assortment of artistic table covers in all sizes and in an endless variety of material and quality. In the linen department are fine damask cloths and napkins, separately and in sets, besides a great range of novelties in tray cloths, sideboard cloths, table cloths, doylies, etc., etc. In the fancy goods department is an almost bewildering variety of dainty, fancy handkerchiefs, scarfs, fichus, neckties, shoulder shawls, gloves, draping and art silks, elder down comforters and pillows, portieres and art rugs, etc., etc., in the prevailing materials and styles. It is impossible with the limited space at command to speak more fully of the many attractions of the Golden Lion. We can only assure our readers that a personal visit and inspection will prove more than interesting.

A Pointer for Santa Claus.

It is customary for all dealers to make special efforts for an extra display of their wares for a few weeks prior to the holiday season. Everybody is then on the lookout for something new in the shape of presents. Most of our dealers appreciate this fact to such an extent that people generally find the greatest difficulty in deciding what to get for their friends. Among the displays made for this Christmas there is probably none more extensive or comprehensive than that made by Messrs. Clarke & Gibson, jewellers. They removed from Simcoe street a year or two ago to their present elegant premises on Hunter street, and by the infusion of new blood and new energy have scored one of the greatest successes of the town. While catering to the high class trade, and carrying an extensive stock of gold and silver and expensive articles in the jewellery line, it may be of interest to the public to know that no house in the town offers a greater assortment of articles suitable for Christmas presents at prices as low as one dollar each, and as high as several hundred dollars. In fact the searcher after holiday presents will find almost anything wanted between these figures, suitable for either sex, of any age. It would take more than a column of our space to begin to enumerate the different lines shown by this firm; suffice it to say that a visit will well repay anyone who has money to spend in Christmas presents, whether in small or large amounts. And all can be assured of the greatest courtesy, whether they see fit to buy or not.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—There was no police court this morning.

—Bishop Hawkins speaks at the revival service to-night in George street church.

—Wyatt Ryan, butcher, has purchased from Mr. A. Bowden, 40 fatted turkeys, averaging in weight 20½ lbs.

—Members and friends of the W.C.T.U. please remember the regular meeting on Monday at 3.30 in the Christian Alliance Hall. Come!

—A lady fainted in St. Paul's church last evening during the delivery of Mrs. Barabbi's lecture and had to be removed from the edifice.

—Three men at Minden and two at Haliburton have been fined $20 and costs each for having deer in their possession during the close season.

—District committee No. 34, I.O.O.F., met in Otonabee lodge room last night, Bro. Stewart, D.D.G.M., Norwood, presiding. No business of public importance was done.

—Otonabee Lodge, No. 13, I.O.O.F., held a well attended meeting last night to put on a team practice. The members went through the various evolutions creditably.

—The Inland Revenue and Customs House officials have moved into their new building and although not fairly settled yet, will have very desirable and commodious rooms.

—Mr. R. J. Colville, secretary of the Toronto West End Y.M.C.A. and formerly of Peterborough, will address a meet of the Young Peoples' Christian Union in Belleville on Dec. 23rd.

—On account of the meeting not being officially called and the numerous other attractions on hand, the Granite curlers did not organize at the rink last night, owing to the small attendance.

—Court Peterborough, No. 4, C.O.F., held a very successful meeting last evening. Two propositions were received. A vote of thanks was passed to the executors of the late Mrs. Nicholls' will for their handsome gift of $50 to the Lodge.

—Mrs Barakat seems to be as much pleased with the Peterborough people as they are with her, and she has decided to remain in town over Sunday and has consented to conduct the Y.M.C.A. song and praise service in their hall on Sunday evening at 8:30.

—At the General Sessions in Lindsay on Friday Mark Lockington, of Peterborough, was sentenced to nine months imprisonment for passing a $10 Confederate States bill. The judge made the sentence thus light chiefly because Lockington had voluntarily made good the amount of the bill.

—Complying with a motion passed by the council the civic legislators will as a whole, on Wednesday night, meet the officers of the fire brigade to discuss the existing grievances between the brigade and the council, with a view to adjusting the same and so ask the firemen to reconsider their resignation.

—The Lakefield News says: Things are still lively at the copper mine in Dummer. Work is going on both day and night, several miners having lately arrived there, and indications are improving the deeper down they go. The formation is said to be a peculiar one, beds of tough clay being found beneath the layers of rocks.

—A memorial service in honor of the late Mr O. C. Rowse will be held at the regular meeting of the Epworth League of Christian Endeavour in the Charlotte street church on Monday night. Rev. Mr. Edwards will speak on behalf of the church, Mr. A. Tebb, superintendent, for the Sunday school, and Mr. M. A. Morrison for the Endeavour Society.

—The revival in George street Methodist church still goes on with ever increasing interest and success. While persons of all ages are being converted the work is still remarkable for the large number of young men who are being brought under its influence. The interest last night was so great that it was thought best to hold a meeting again to-night (Saturday) at 8 o'clock. All are invited.

—Rev. Bishop Hawkins, the eloquent coloured preacher, who drew such large audiences here a year ago when he preached and lectured in George street Methodist church, will preach in this church to-morrow, and on Monday evening in the same church he will deliver his popular lecture on "My Reception in England," interspersed with references to his slave life, and with plantation songs.

—A public meeting of the ratepayers has been called by the Mayor in accordance with a resolution passed at the last council meeting to discuss the advisability of purchasing the waterworks by the town. The meeting will be held on Thursday evening next in the council chamber, at 8 o'clock. All interested freeholders are invited to be present and take part in the discussion pro or con.

—Mr. L. D. Letellier reports that a farmer whose name he did not learn, while delivering potatoes in his cellar this morning, got more value than the price of the potatoes. After the potatoes were emptied, Mrs. Letellier, to check the quantity delivered, counted the empty bags in the farmer's waggon, and discovered four bottles of ale which had somehow found their way into the bags from the cellar.

—In the EXAMINER'S report of the council proceedings a paragraph was omitted stating that 500 copies of the financial statement would be printed for distribution among the ratepayers. Since the report was prepared, $800 due by Ashburnham and reckoned an asset had been paid with the exception of $100 which will doubtless be presently forthcoming. Copies of the statement can now be got at the Clerk's office.

—Mr. R. J. Winch returned last night from Guelph, where he has been attending the Christmas Fat Cattle show. He says it was a great success and the exhibition of cattle exceeded all previous year's record. Mr. Winch bought a carload of prime fat cattle, 22 heads in all, for the Xmas trade of Peterborough. Some of the cattle will weigh a ton. This car load of Xmas beef will be divided among Messrs. Winch Bros. Howden and Denoon.

—A Sunday School entertainment was given at Nassau last evening in the Orange Hall, which was well attended. An entertaining musical and literary programme was provided. Mr. Jno. Carnegie made an acceptable chairman, and everything passed off pleasantly. Messrs. W. J. Drope and C. N. Brown were present. The former contributed two well-sung solos, while Mr. Brown did himself credit in his Irish readings.

—Dean's Presentation Party had a fair house last night. They gave an excellent variety show which pleased all. Miss Lillie Sweeney won the ladies gold watch with her number. Several other valuables were given away. This afternoon the company gave a matinee for the ladies and children. To-night will be the company's last appearance here. A ladies gold and silver watches will be given away.

Hello!
Is that the C.P.R.?
Yes; who's speaking?
The G.T.R.
Well, what can we do for you?
Have you been up as far as 420 Water street, where Mitchell keeps sewing machines?
No, not yet.
That's the worse for you. You'd better lose no time. Take the first chance and drop in at 420, and see the handsome sewing machines he has just brought in by our line.
Is this Mitchell the man who repairs sewing machines?
Yes, and he's a "corker" at it too.
Well, I'll drop around.
You should; and take a sharp look at his drop cabinet machine — the finest that ever struck the town—and by Jove! his figures are very reasonable too.
All right; au revoir!
So long!

Christmas Gifts for the Poor.

In view of the fact that the executors of the Nicholls will have so liberally provided funds for the relief of Peterborough's worthy poor, and believing that all the needy will be reached, those connected with churches through the channel, and those having connection with no church, though some one of the secret societies or other organizations, the local union of Christian Endeavour has decided to discontinue the distribution of Christmas baskets as a union. They believe the same end may be the better attained by each society uniting their efforts with the various churches in aiding members who may require assistance.

Take a Look—Then Take Your Choice

From the south window of the City Clothing Store, where are displayed handsome rows of worsted and tweed pantings. Until New Years you can have a pair of pants made up to order from any of these patterns you like for four dollars! Until to-day the prices ranged from $4.50 to $5 and $5.50 for the same goods. But to-day the price is only IV dollars! ($4) If you want something still cheaper you can have it, but these are extra value. Suitings and overcoatings clipped down in price in the same proportion. All gentlemen should have a pair or two of trousers for rough wear or rainy or muddy days. Don't spoil the trousers of your suit. H. LEBRUN & Co. 3d

THE CHRISTMAS MARKET.

What is Going On around the Square Where Farmers Most do Congregate.

The Saturday market was unusually large today, and a brisk demand characterized everything that was offered for sale. The scene of business about the square would make any loyal citizen feel proud of the town in which he lived. Chickens sold readily at 30, 35, 40 and 50c per pair, according to quality. Beef sold at 4 to 4½c lb. for front quarters, and from 4½ to 5½ per lb. for hind quarters—a good supply and an active demand. Pork sold at 7 and 7½ per lb.; lamb, 5 to 6c, mutton 5 to 6c; geese 60 to 65c, and in some cases 75c. Turkeys sold at 65, 70, 75 and 90c, and in some cases at 10c per lb. A handsome large bird weighing 18 lbs. sold for $1.75. Very few ducks were offered, selling at 50c per pair. Butter, 18 to 22c. Most of the buyers were asking 20c and some 21c. Eggs in large numbers, 18c per doz., some selling at 19c. Dressed pork sold at $7.40 and $7.50 per cwt., big sale, live weight $5.50. Apples sold from 40c to 75c according to variety, prevailing price, however, 50c to 60c per bag. Potatoes sold well at 55c, 60c and sometimes 65c per bag, turnips 25c per bag, carrots 50c per bag, parsnips 60c per bag, cabbage 50c per doz., onions 75c per bush. Hay is being disposed of at $7 to $8 per ton and a brisk demand for straw is heard on all sides at $2.50 to $3.50 per load. No change in wood market from Wednesday's quotations. A grain buyer stated to a reporter that the market was very dull at present, farmers seemed to be hanging back in anticipation of higher prices but he thought them hasty in doing so, as the prices paid were slowly decreasing every day. Following were to-day's quotations, spring wheat 60c, (standard), fall 63c, (standard), oats 27c to 29c, small peas 52c to 55c, large variety, 55c to 58c, buckwheat 35c to 38c, barley 30c to 40c, no rye offered.

ON TRIAL FOR 90 DAYS.

The finest, completest and latest line of Electrical appliances in the world. They have never failed to cure. We are so positive of it that we will back our belief and send you any Electrical Appliance now in the market and you can try it for Three Months. Largest list of testimonials on earth. Send for book and journal Free. W. T. Baer & Co., Windsor, Ont.

Y.W.C.A. Notes.

We are sure sure the young women will be delighted to learn that Mrs. Barakat, the lady lecturer from Mount Lebanon, who delivered two eloquent and thrilling addresses in St. Paul's church this week, will speak in the Gospel meeting this evening. We hope to see a large attendance.

IN LETTERS OF GOLD.

One great advantage (in addition to the splendid stock to select from and the low prices) in purchasing Bibles, Prayer Books, Church Services, Hymn Books, Purses, Card Case, Letter Cases, and all goods of a similar character, is the fact that you can have any desired name stamped thereon in gold letters, free of charge, and while you wait. The Peterborough Bookstore has the finest and largest selection of the above goods, and in fact of all holiday goods, in town.

Pull Them Down!

The piles of Men's and Boys' Suits and Overcoats stacked up at the Montreal Clothing House are so high that a short man cannot see over them. We will continue to pull them downward. Scatter these great values during this week. Its like finding money to buy your clothing at 390 George street. dw

PERSONAL.

Mr. Herbert Bell is home from Trinity Medical College, Toronto, to enjoy his holidays.

Mr. Perry Goldsmith, of the Toronto School of Medicine, is home to enjoy the holidays after a hard term's study.

Mr. Jas. M. Redmond, representing Dun, Wiman & Co., Mercantile Agency, Toronto, was in town yesterday on a business trip.

Mr. Walter English, of Shuttleworth Military College, is spending his vocation in town. His regulation military uniform becomes him splendidly.

Mr. Clyde Green of the Edison Works leaves on Wednesday for Toronto, where he has accepted the position of foreman of the company's repair shops, where they will open in that city in January.

Mr. Bert Kent, of Minaken & Dixon's law office, leaves on Monday night next for Toronto, where he has accepted a good position with a wholesale stationery house. His many friends will wish him success.

Rev. Isaac Tovell, new pastor of Cove street Methodist church, Hamilton, has been called by the quarterly Board of First Methodist church to succeed Rev. James Van Wyck, whose term will expire in June, 1893.

A requisition is being circulated asking Mr. J. D. Collins to allow himself to be placed in nomination as councillor for No. 3 Ward, to succeed Mr. Meldrum who announced some time since that he would not again be a candidate.

Mr. Gilbert Thompson, travelling representative for Mr. Geo. Matthews' pork-packing establishment, has just returned from a very successful trip east in the interests of the firm. Mr. Thompson is well known in these parts as a first-class travelling salesman, having represented the Peterborough Oil Company until recently, when he took up his "grip" for Mr. Matthews.

Mr. J. M. Poitras, of Deseronto, representing the Rathbun Company, has been in town for the past two days. As a result of his visit Mr. Thos. C. Irwin has been appointed local acting agent at Peterborough, in the place of the late Mr. Ferguson. Mr. Irwin will no doubt prove himself to be a thoroughly capable man for the position and he is to be congratulated upon securing so important a position with such a large concern as the Rathbun Company has developed to be.

Mr. C. E. Roach, for some years book keeper, and since the death of Mr. Ferguson, acting-manager for the Rathbun Company, has resigned his position, having accepted a splendid position with a large lumbering concern in Montana. Since Mr. Roach came to Peterborough he has made many friends who will regret his departure, but all join in wishing him abundant success. He leaves Peterborough this evening for Deseronto, but will return on Tuesday to say good-bye to his friends, leaving on Wednesday.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.
No. 3 Ward.

To J. D. Collins, Esq:

DEAR SIR,—The undersigned ratepayers of No. Three Ward desire to ask you be a candidate for the representation of the Ward in the Town Council.

We do so because we feel that you would be a faithful representative, and that the ratepayers of the Ward would feel that their interests would be safe in your hands, because your business ability and integrity fit you for such a position.

We hope therefore that you will accept the nomination.

To the Electors of No. 3 Ward:

GENTLEMEN,—While I cannot but feel very much gratified by the contents of the above requisition, and the good opinion held of me by those who have signed it, yet I have grave doubts as to my fitness for the position of Councillor. However, as I have been requested to accept nomination as such, I consent to do so. Should I be elected, I will endeavour to act for the interests of the town to the best of my ability and judgment. I wish to state now, that I do not intend to solicit votes either personally or through the press, not from any feeling of pride or indifference in the matter, but because I believe that every elector should be left free from promise or pressure of any kind to vote as his judgment dictates. Possibly some other candidate may yet appear in the field who would be more acceptable to the majority of the electors than myself. Should such be the case I will be delighted to withdraw and cast my vote for him. Faithfully yours,

J. D. COLLINS.

THE general verdict of the smokers of Canada is that "Myrtle Navy" is the finest tobbacco they have ever used. There can be no mistake upon this point for it is proved by this tangible evidence. The large demand for this tobacco shows it to be true, and the character of the demand gives further proof. It has never been of the spasmodic kind, up one month and down the next. It has been a sustained and constantly increasing demand. The unsurpassed quality of the tobacco accounts for this.

THE CHRISTMAS MARKET.

What is Going On around the Square Where Farmers Most do Congregate.

The Saturday market was unusually large today, and a brisk demand characterized everything that was offered for sale. The scene of business about the square would make any loyal citizen feel proud of the town in which he lived. Chickens sold readily at 30, 35, 40 and 50c per pair, according to quality. Beef sold at 4 to 4½c lb. for front quarters, and from 4½ to 5½ per lb. for hind quarters—a good supply and an active demand. Pork sold at 7 and 7½ per lb.; lamb, 5 to 6c, mutton 5 to 6c; geese 60 to 65c, and in some cases 75c. Turkeys sold at 65, 70, 75 and 90c, and in some cases at 10c per lb. A handsome large bird weighing 18 lbs. sold for $1.75. Very few ducks were offered, selling at 50c per pair. Butter, 18 to 22c. Most of the buyers were asking 20c and some 21c. Eggs in large numbers, 18c per doz., some selling at 19c. Dressed pork sold at $7.40 and $7.50 per cwt., big sale, live weight $5.50. Apples sold from 40c to 75c according to variety, prevailing price, however, 50c to 60c per bag. Potatoes sold well at 55c, 60c and sometimes 65c per bag, turnips 25c per bag, carrots 30c per bag, parsnips 60c per bag, cabbage 50c per doz., onions 75c per bush. Hay is being disposed of at $7 to $8 per ton and a brisk demand for straw is heard on all sides at $2.50 to $3.50 per load. No change in wood market from Wednesday's quotations. A grain buyer stated to a reporter that the market was very dull at present, farmers seemed to be hanging back in anticipation of higher prices but he thought they were in doing so, as the prices paid were slowly decreasing every day. Following were to-day's quotations, spring wheat 60c, (standard), fall 63c, (standard), oats 27c to 29c, small peas 52c to 55c, large variety, 55c to 58c, buckwheat 35c to 36c, barley 30c to 40c, no rye offered.

Y.W.C.A. Notes.

We are sure sure the young women will be delighted to learn that Mrs. Barakat, the lady lecturer from Mount Lebanon, who delivered two eloquent and thrilling addresses in St. Paul's church this week, will speak in the Gospel meeting this evening. We hope to see a large attendance.

IN LETTERS OF GOLD.

One great advantage (in addition to the splendid stock to select from and the low prices) in purchasing Bibles, Prayer Books, Church Services, Hymn Books, Purses, Card Case, Letter Cases, and all goods of a similar character, is the fact that you can have any desired name stamped thereon in gold letters, free of charge, and while you wait. The Peterborough Bookstore has the finest and largest selection of the above goods, and in fact of all holiday goods, in town.

Pull Them Down!

The piles of Men's and Boys' Suits and Overcoats stacked up at the Montreal Clothing House are so high that a short man cannot see over them. We will continue to pull them downward. Scatter these great values during this week. Its like finding money to buy your clothing at 390 George street. dw

PERSONAL.

Mr. Herbert Bell is home from Trinity Medical College, Toronto, to enjoy his holidays.

Mr. Perry Goldsmith, of the Toronto School of Medicine, is home to enjoy the holidays after a hard term's study.

Mr. Jas. M. Redmond, representing Dun, Wiman & Co., Mercantile Agency, Toronto, was in town yesterday on a business trip.

Mr. Walter English, of the Royal Military College, is spending his vacation in town. His regulation military uniform becomes him splendidly.

Mr. Clyde Green of the Edison Works leaves on Wednesday for Toronto, where he has accepted the position of manager of the company's repair shops, where they will open in that city in January.

Mr. Burt Kent, of Stratton & Dixon's law office, leaves on Monday night next for Toronto, where he has accepted a good position with a wholesale stationery house. His many friends will wish him success.

Rev. Isaac Tovell, now pastor of Clare street Methodist church, Hamilton, has been recalled by the quarterly Board of First Methodist church to succeed Rev. James Van Wyck, whose term will expire in June, 1893.

A requisition is being circulated asking Mr. J. D. Collins to allow himself to be placed in nomination as councillor for No. 3 Ward, to succeed Mr. Meldrum who announced some time since that he would not again be a candidate.

Mr. Gilbert Thompson, travelling representative for Mr. Geo. Matthews' pork-packing establishment, has just returned from a very successful trip east in the interests of the firm. Mr. Thompson is well known in these parts as a first-class travelling salesman, having represented the Peterborough Oil Company until recently, when he took up his "grip" for Mr. Matthews.

Mr. J. M. Poitras, of Deseronto, representing the Rathbun Company, has been in town for the past two days. As a result of his visit Mr. Thos. C. Irwin has been appointed local acting agent at Peterborough, in the place of the late Mr. Ferguson. Mr. Irwin will no doubt prove himself to be a thoroughly capable man for the position and he is to be congratulated upon securing so important a position with such a large concern as the Rathbun Company has developed to be.

Mr. C. E. Roach, for some years book keeper, and since the death of Mr. Ferguson, acting-manager for the Rathbun Company, has resigned his position, having accepted a splendid position with a large lumbering concern in Montana. Since Mr. Roach came to Peterborough he has made many friends who will regret his departure, but all join in wishing him abundant success. He leaves Peterborough this evening for Deseronto, but will return on Tuesday to say good-bye to his friends, leaving on Wednesday.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.
No. 3 Ward.

To J. D. Collins, Esq:

DEAR SIR,—The undersigned ratepayers of No. Three Ward desire to ask you be a candidate for the representation of the Ward in the Town Council.

We do so because we feel that you would be a faithful representative, and that the ratepayers of the Ward would feel that their interests would be safe in your hands, because your business ability and integrity fit you for such a position.

We hope therefore that you will accept the nomination.

To the Electors of No. 3 Ward:

GENTLEMEN,—While I cannot but feel very much gratified by the contents of the above requisition, and the good opinion held of me by those who have signed it, yet I have grave doubts as to my fitness for the position of Councillor. However, as I have been requested to accept nomination as such, I consent to do so. Should I be elected, I will endeavour to act for the interests of the town to the best of my ability and judgment. I wish to state now, that I do not intend to solicit votes either personally or through the press, not from any feeling of pride or indifference in the matter, but because I believe that every elector should be left free from promise or pressure of any kind to vote as his judgment dictates. Possibly some other candidate may yet appear in the field who would be more acceptable to the majority of the electors than myself. Should such be the case I will be delighted to withdraw and cast my vote for him. Faithfully yours,

J. D. COLLINS.

GRAY AND STRIPES.

To-Day Our Fashion Hint is Both Quiet and Brilliant.

There is a womanly charm about hair smoothly parted that calls particularly for something of the "kerchief" effect. The figure at the left shows an ideal gown for a woman of thirty-five or so, who does not wish to be too modish. It is a stone gray—the sort of gray that brings out the lustre of well-kept hair, and that makes a gray thread or so an ornament. The skirt falls straight, being set full on the band, and not modishly sheath-like. Black lace is full on the shoulders and comes down the front of the bodice to a point. The space made is filled with the softest white mull, not silk mull, for silk mull never is so clean looking as that of the linen thread. Given a woman with the placid beauty of middle life, and in such a gown she is a gracious and dignified figure, one whose charm is not dimmed by the most stylish of the many women of her own age and even older who wear the same modish fashions that their daughters may, and which undeniably they have a right to wear.

Don't be afraid of the rich bright colors. I wish I could put the colors into the gown pictured on the right. The material was rough, and the stripes were all raised. These were bright green, deep red and a sort of orange. Between them black ran in hair lines. The whole effect was warm and rich and "changeable." The plain skirt had a good long train, just the length that is so easy to carry, and which permits the dress to be well lifted above the short black petticoat. The stripes were used on the bias for the bodice, and were matched so cleverly that one gave up the idea of seams or fastening entirely. Double capes were fastened at the shoulders, the upper one deep red, the lower deep green. Both were edged with black astrachan. The collar and broad belt were of deep red, studded with jewel nail heads of all colors. Such a warm bright looking dress it was. She was like a bunch of belated autumn leaves as she came in.

FLORETTE.

WORLD'S FAIR FARE.

The Restaurant Prices Which Will Rule in Chicago in 1893.

Living will come mighty high at the World's Fair. One restaurant concern, the Gage Hotel Company, was given the concession the other day for operating all of the cafes in the World's Fair buildings. The contract gives it a monopoly of the restaurant business, with the exception of the foreign eating-houses, to be run in connection with certain foreign displays. This monopoly, like all others, will exact outrageous prices. It is by all odds the biggest concessions granted by the Fair.

Two grades of restaurants will be run. In the high-toned ones the following prices will probably obtain, being those charged by the Gage Hotel Company, which secured the concession:

A man with a robust appetite will be lucky if his meal in one of these "bong tong" places costs him less than $5, and a small eater will find no trouble in paying $3 or $4 for a dinner in one of the "cheap" restaurants. As the Gage people expect to feed 10,000 to 12,000 persons at a sitting, they ought to have no difficulty in clearing a fortune every day. Visitors who have not previously mortgaged their estates will do well to come with their pockets filled with eatables.—Chicago Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Feeble and capricious appetites are best regulated by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They do not debilitate, by excessive stimulation; but cause the stomach, liver, and bowels to perform their functions properly. As an after-dinner pill, they are unequaled.

Sir George Trevelyan, Mr. Gladstone's secretary for Scotland, says [illegible] read books, but we must read new[illegible].

The wife of Francis Murphy, the temperance lecturer, is an enthusiast in her husband's work and is almost constantly with him on his travels.

Dr. Herman Strecker, of Reading, Pa., has a collection of butterflies which is commencing to attract attention. It numbers over 100,000 specimens, and represents some thirty years of collectorship on the part of the proprietor.

Labouchere's Truth denies that there is any truth in the rumor that the Prince of Wales contemplates visiting the Chicago Exhibition; nor is it true that there has been any idea of the Duke of York crossing the Atlantic next year.

It has been decided that the numerous young princes of the royal house of Bavaria shall, when old enough, enter the Austrian, Prussian, Saxon and Wurtemberg armies, in order that they may not monopolize all the good posts in the Bavarian army. The son of Prince Ludwig is shortly to enter the Austrian service, and the sons of Duke Carl Theodor, Duke Arnulf, and Prince Leopold are also, in due course, to receive their commissions in the armies of other German States, or of the Austrian Empire.

The ex-Empress Eugenie is at work upon her memoirs, and spends two or three hours every day in their preparation. She is, however, so sensitive that she permits no one to see her manuscript, and she has made special arrangements to have the book withheld from publication until she has been in the grave for a quarter of a century. Whatever Eugenie puts in or leaves out, we trust she will recite and confirm the story that when the rone Emperor was in ardent pursuit of her she said to him: "Sire, the way to my boudoir lies through the church door." Brought up as she was by an unscrupulous mother and led about before her marriage from spa to spa on the continent, and possessing the fatal gift of beauty, this story reflects infinite credit upon Eugenie and upon universal womanhood.

It is a singular fact that the most precious gems are composed of the most common substances. The diamond is the purest form of carbon, and is identical in composition with ordinary charcoal without the impurities of the latter. The ruby, on the other hand, is nearly pure alumina, a substance found in profusion in every clay bank. The scientific name for crystallized alumina is corundum, and the gems comprehended under this designation are sometimes more valuable than diamonds of the same weight. The ruby, the sapphire, the oriental emerald, the oriental topaz, the oriental amethyst, the oriental aqua marine, the oriental chrysolite, the hyacinth and other precious stones are all alumina, the varieties of color being caused by inappreciable quantities of metallic oxides.

SUBSTITUTION.

It is universally conceded that when a manufactured article has been a standard and staple for many years amongst the trade the profit thereon through competition simmers down to almost a cash discount, of which there are comparatively few who can avail themselves; therefore other brands than those that are standard and staple are substituted in their stead, upon which there is considerable margin. Competition has increased to such an enormous extent amongst wholesalers and retailers that a great many of them consider it necessary and advisable to substitute other brands that seemingly produce large profits. Some are of the opinion that by so doing they benefit thereby. Others prefer to handle standard and staple lines, upon which, although the profit is small, the turnover is much greater; and in the aggregate, profit larger; not taking into consideration the fact that it is much easier and less expensive, and more satisfactory to sell staple lines than those that are unknown. The consumer unfortunately does not understand that when he enquires for a certain class of goods and is informed that they "have none in stock," or "are just out," or "we don't handle them" (which are remarks frequently made by dealers), that their object is to push articles that pay a larger profit. To the thinking public it is obvious that the consumer is a loser thereby, and that in order that he should get the best value obtainable for his money, he should insist upon having standard and staple lines. It is a well known and indisputable fact that the celebrated brands of cigars "La Cadena," "La Flora" (manufactured from the cream of the Havana crops), "El Padre," "Madre E Hijo," "Cable Extra," (our new line), "Kickers," and "Mungos" and are standard and staple goods: and are manufactured under conditions which for the production of a first-class article in every respect are unexcelled. Therefore it behoves them for there own sake to insist upon having these brands; thereby insuring to them a reliable smoke, and full value for their money. The cry that is repeatedly heard is that "it is difficult to obtain a good cigar" will be unnecessary and uncalled for if they insist upon having the brands mentioned. For nearly half a century we have endeavored to place before the public the best value obtainable consistent with the prices charged; and it is well known that our goods are staple, and reliable; and that the demand for same is increasing. We therefore respectfully beg to state that when our brands are enquired for, and the answers above mentioned are given, we will upon application to us undertake to deliver, in small or large quantities, any of our brands that are desired. Our goods are better than ever. Our aim has always been to produce nothing but fine goods, which the public have shown their appreciation of by the enormous quantities that are sold annually. We aim to protect the consumer as well as the dealer, and by his enquiring for our goods, he protects himself.

REMOVAL SALE!

The Whole Stock to be Cleared at Net Cost, as we have no Option but to Remove to Other Premises.

We must vacate our present store on account of the near expiry of lease. The rent asked renewal was more than we should or could afford to pay, and as we were allowed only 6 hours in which to reach a decision, we decided to move. This necessitates a Clearance of the Stock, as we now offer

The Entire Stock at Net Cost for Cash.

Every line in the store is new, bought for this season's trade, and consists of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, etc.

We will announce later on the location of the new premises to be occupied by us.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, we trust to be able to do as well if not better, in the future.

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES.

THE WORLD WANTS MONE

AND INTENDS TO HAVE PLENTY OF SILVER COINED.

Senator Jones Says That Mono-Metallism Is Driving English Farms Out of Cultivation and Into the Hands of Loan Companies.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 16.—Senator Jones of the American delegation made a strong speech at the Monetary Conference in favor of bi-metallism. He said that the enemies of silver and of every measure of currency reform were the very men who directed attention to the appreciation of gold.

In nature money was a function rather than a material. That function created by law was vastly more important than the material upon which the money function was conferred.

The fact that during the period when science was busiest railways and other works were constructed and wages and prices were advanced disproved the contention that a fall in prices was due to scientific development reducing the cost of production.

Evidence taken before the British Royal Commission in regard to India showed that the rupee to-day purchased as much in India as it ever did. The Indian farmer gets more rupees for the 30 shillings gold which his wheat realizes in London to-day than he did for 40 shillings 10 years ago.

How could Europe and America market their crops in the face of such competition? The fall of prices in England was driving farms out of cultivation and putting the landed interest into the hands of mortgage companies.

The Imperial Will.

Whatever might be the result of the conference, if some measure of relief was not willingly adopted in the near future they might rest assured that ultimately, in spite of the craft, cunning and wiles of the wicked, the great producing masses of the civilized world would crystallize into law their imperial will.

Senator Jones spoke for two hours.

M. Allard of the Belgian delegation then spoke in support of his own plan, which proposes an international agreement for the purchase under a common account of stocks of silver, against which treasury notes shall be issued by the contracting states, none of which will be obliged to coin the silver thus purchased or to modify its existing currency legislation, the treasury notes to have international circulation. In the course of his speech M. Allard complained of the obstructive tactics of the British delegates.

Senor Osma of the Spanish delegation and M. Raffalovitch of the Russian delegation urged the American delegates not to press a vote on the main question at the present stage.

Short speeches were made by Prof. Andrews and Senator Allison of the American delegation. Senator Allison spoke with some warmth. He said that he and his colleagues did not ask for a vote on the main question. They fully appreciated the cordiality with which the question had been approached by all sections of the conference. The proposals already presented to the conference were of such a character that they would, if adopted, impose a heavy burden upon America. The American delegates could not make concessions without compensating amendments. He promised that the United States would accept any scheme that met with general approval.

The next and probably the last session for the present will be held on Tuesday. A proposal will then be made that the conference adjourn to June 6 without dissolving.

The delegates will be photographed in a body to-morrow before attending the fete, to be given in their honor at the town hall.

VERY LITTLE TRADE.

Ports in India Are Blocked With Unemployed Shipping.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—A Calcutta special states that Mr. Mackay, President of the Indian Currency Association, has retured to Calcutta, after giving evidence in London before the Herschell currency commission.

Mr. Mackay says that if the committee reports against a gold standard the commercial men of India must accept the situation. India, he added, would go on with silver as best she could for a few years longer, when further experience with that metal would lead to a change.

In the meantime business is at a low ebb, and the ports are blocked with unemployed shipping. In reply to the question of the banks as to what notice would be given if the mints are closed the Government states that it can say nothing at present.

Delays are Dangerous.

At this season the effects of catarrh and cold in the head are most seriously felt, and endanger life and health if not promptly treated. For this purpose there is no remedy equals Nasal Balm. "It Cured Mother"

GENTLEMEN,—My mother was suffering from dyspepsia and no appetite. Everything failed to cure her until one day, while visiting a friend's house, I saw a bottle of B. B. B. on the table; on inquiring what they used it for, I soon found out what it cured, and when I went home told mother that she should try it; she said she had no faith in anything and objected to try it. Notwithstanding her objection I went in the evening and brought home a bottle but it was in the house for a week before we could induce her to take it. At last, as she was getting worse all the time she consented to try it, and on taking half the bottle found it was curing her. Another bottle cured her, and we believe, saved her life. We are never without B. B. B. now. It is such a good remedy for headache as well.

E. WESTON,

When the kidneys are clogged, good health is an impossibility; but when working properly the reverse is the case. That dull back-ache is the kidney's cry for relief. If Dodd's Kidney Pills are used the result will be marvellous. We emphatically state that we have never known a case of kidney desease that a persistent use of Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure.

Blotches Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—In 1890 my body was covered with blotches and I was at last induced to try Burdock Blood Bitter; by the time I had used 3½ bottles of it I was completely cured, and I cannot speak too highly of it.

A Confidence.

Bill MacGowan was a "quaker," in a quiet sort of way;
Seems Bill managed to "fill" his bosom (so his mother used to say).
He could fix a check, and fiddle, and a lot of other things,
And he made himself a "glass," and could strong up on the strings.
He could pick out "Annie Laurie," and the chords of "Bonnie Mahoree,"
And would sit and sing at evening in a soothing undertone,
With his dreamy eyes directed to a pale ornament afar,
While he milked the mournful sounds from his primitive guitar.

Well, the years went by, and somehow Bill vanished about the town,
Though his mother died believing he was on the road to fame.
Bill was full of dreams and notions, but achievements seemed to lay;
Bill was fond of "Alice Mahoree, but he married "Martha Bray."
Still he picks out "Annie Laurie," and the chords of "Bonnie Mahoree,"
And he sings them to the babies in a soothing undertone;
And perhaps, sometimes, at evening, as he twangs his old guitar,
William's vision is directed to a pale ornament afar.

Harper's Weekly.

Not Outdone in Generosity.

A week or two since a man connected with a Government office here found on Sansome street a check book on a certain bank. On examination he discovered it was worth $5,000. The finder sent it by a friend to the bank, and in return received a message to "call 'round." His time not being his own, it was impossible to answer the summons for several days. Finally he went. Not being in the latest fashion he was rather curtly received by "Well, what is it?"

"I came in response to a message about that check-book."

"Oh—h—h, you're the man, are you? Well, we're much obliged. Here's a quarter; go take a drink."

Our discoverer took one long look at Mr. Clerk. Then he drove down into his trousers pocket, brought up several dollars in silver, and selecting a bright new quarter, laid it before the gaping gentleman behind the counter with "Here, you go and take a drink, too!"

Then he turned on his heel and walked out.

An Example.

Kind Old Gentleman (assisting boy to get barrow up the gutter)—I don't see how you manage to get that barrow up the gutter alone.

Bright Youth—I don't. There's always some jay a-standin' around as takes it up 'er me.

A Diplomatic Difficulty.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—A despatch from Tientsin states that Mr. O'Connor, the newly appointed British Minister to China, has delivered his credentials to the Emperor. Mr. O'Connor did not insist upon His Majesty giving him an audience in the inner palace, and this action has settled the diplomatic difficulty arising from the Emperor's refusal to hold such ceremonies within the sacred precincts of his palace.

Cotton Duty Increased.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 16.—The Minister of Finance announces that the duty on cotton imported into Russia has been raised to 20 kopecks per load.

Mrs. Parnell's Affairs.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—The court decided yesterday that a public examination into the affairs of Mrs. Parnell was unnecessary.

People who have tried it, say that there is no better medicine for dyspepsia than Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It may not give one the stomach of an ostrich, but it so strengthens the alimentary organs that digestion of ordinary food becomes easy and natural.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

What is Dadruff?

A disease of the scalp that causes falling of the hair, fading of the hair, in fact, death of the hair. It irritates the scalp and causes scales and eczematic eruptions—produces baldness. Bear in mind that Anti-Dandruff removes Dandruff with three applications—stops falling and restores fading hair to its original color. Sold by druggists at 75 cents per bottle.

A Remarkable Case.

GENTLEMEN,—About five years ago I noticed on my hands a great number of soft, spongy warts, very painful, and which bled when touched. I never witnessed anything like it, and was quite alarmed. We are never without Hagyard's Yellow Oil, and one evening my little girls applied it to each wart. They did this several nights and in the morning the pain and itching were so bad I had to cool my hands with snow, but finally the warts dropped out and I have never been troubled since.

ORIENTAL STUPOR GONE

CONCERTED ACTION TO BE TAKEN BY UNCLE SAM'S CHINAMEN.

The Exclusion Act in the United States To Be Fought—There Will Be No Recourse to Arms, but the Chinese Government Will Retaliate.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 17.—A strong concerted movement has been started by the Chinese of the United States to resist the Chinese Exclusion Act. Hon Yung Wung, formerly Commissioner of Education for the Chinese Government, writes Rev. E. A. Donohue of this city that three different plans of resistance have been decided upon.

The constitutionality of the act will first be tested. Then the Oriental Club of New York will try to arouse public sympathy through mass meetings, and Congress will be flooded with petitions demanding a repeal of the law. A poll tax of $1 a head will be levied on every Chinaman in the United States to defray expenses. This will mean a fund of over $100,000.

Finally the Chinese Government will protest, and failing retaliation will follow. There will be no recourse to arms, but there will be an abrogation of treaty rights. All commercial communication will be shut off and the Government will cease protection to the 1500 American merchants and the several hundred missionaries now in China.

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

Will Probably Assemble on Thursday, January the 26th.

OTTAWA, Dec. 17.—To-day's Canada Gazette will not, as was generally expected, contain any notice of the calling of Parliament for the despatch of business, but it is believed that the matter has been practically settled and that Thursday, Jan. 26, has been decided on as the day for the opening of the third session of the seventh Parliament of Canada.

It will be remembered some time ago it was mentioned in this correspondence that a very numerously-signed petition had been received by the Governor-General, praying for the exercise of executive clemency in the case of Robert McGreevy, who was condemned by Judge Bosse on April 22 last to 12 months' imprisonment in consequence of a suit brought against him by his brother, the Hon. Thomas McGreevy. When "Bob" found that he was likely to be convicted he "jumped his bail" and joined his friend, the notorious Owen Murphy, who had preceded him to New York. After a while he grew tired of exile, returned to Canada, delivered himself up, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to one year's imprisonment. In his remarks while passing sentence Judge Bosse said that taking into account the prisoner's age and the state of his health he would have been disposed to regard six months as sufficient punishment had it not been for the act of contempt of court by escaping from its jurisdiction, and for this latter offence he increased the term of sentence to one year. The petition for clemency has been some time under the consideration of the Minister of Justice, who finally reported to His Excellency that in view of the fact that the prisoner had voluntarily surrendered himself he thought three months would have been sufficient punishment for the attempted escape from justice, and His Excellency, concurring in this view, has been pleased to order a remission of three months of the term of imprisonment, and McGreevy will consequently be released on Jan. 22.

An order in council has been passed appointing Mr. J. H. Balderson, private secretary to the Hon. J. G. Haggart, secretary of the Department of Railways and Canals in place of Mr. A. P. Bradley. Mr. Balderson was for several years in the office of the auditor-general, and on the entrance of Hon. Mr. Haggart into the Ministry as Postmaster-General he was appointed private secretary, a position he has filled most admirably. For some time past he has been combining the duties of acting secretary of the department with his own and has proved himself a most capable and efficient officer. Who will be his successor in the private secretaryship is not known at present, but it is considered most probable that it will be Captain H. H. Gray of the Postoffice Department.

Mr. Collingwood Schreiber, Deputy Minister and Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, returned to-day from his inspection of the "Soo" Canal. He reports that he found that the work had progressed very satisfactorily, and very good progress had been made in the construction of the lock. There are no masons at work at present, but there are a number of men still engaged in excavating the approaches to the lock. There is a large quantity of stone on the ground, and there is every indication that the contractor will be ready to commence work vigorously as early as possible in the spring.

The contract for the heating apparatus for the public buildings at Orillia has been let by the Public Works Department to Messrs. McGuire & Bird of Toronto.

To-morrow's Canada Gazette will contain notice of the calling to the Senate of Hon. Mackenzie Bowell in place of Hon. George Alexander, whose seat was declared vacant; also the following appointments: Hon. Samuel Henry Strong as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, in place of the late Chief Justice Sir William Johnstone Ritchie; Rowan Robert Fitzgerald, Q.C., of Charlottetown, to be judge of the City Court of Charlottetown; Edward E. Therius of Bellivaau's Cove, N.S., and Henry Deas Cranstoff of the District of Surrey, British Columbia, sub-collector of Customs.

Frederic Nicholls, managing director of the Canadian General Electric Company (limited), gives notice of the passing of a bylaw increasing the number of directors of the company to 12.

During November the amount deposited in the Government savings banks was $230,284, and amount withdrawn $295,600. The balance at credit of depositors on Nov. 30 was $17,091,458.

Abel Seneca Weeks of Clinton, Ont., having passed the necessary examination, has been granted a commission as Dominion Land Surveyor.

The first three notes signed by Hon. John Costigan as Secretary of State will appear in to-morrow's Canada Gazette. They announce the granting of letters patent increasing the capital of the Canada Switch Manufacturing Co., limited, from $50,000 to $100,000; incorporating the Weather and Waterproof Paint Co. of Canada, with capital $5000, and incorporating the Montreal Silk Mills Co., capital $75,000.

Notice is given of application to Parliament to incorporate a fraternal society called "The Woodmen of the World," with headquarters at London, Ont.

Quite a large number of notices of application to Parliament for incorporation of railway companies and amendments to existing charters will appear in to-morrow's Gazette.

The amount of Inland Revenue accrued during November was $781,235, being an increase of $44,869 over the same month last year.

DEATH SEEMED HORRIBLE.

A French Criminal Begged Piteously for His Life.

PARIS, Dec. 17.—Eugene Crampon, the murderer of two men, paid the penalty for his crimes, and the canaille that gathered to see his execution greatly enjoyed the spectacle afforded by the miserable, cowardly wretch as he was literally carried to the guillotine. When Crampon saw the guillotine, with a terrible shriek he threw himself backward and fell to the ground. All efforts to induce him to rise were fruitless, and he grovelled on the flagstones begging piteously for his life.

While some of the assistants supported him others quickly bound and threw him against the lunette. Even then he did not cease his struggles. His contortions were terrible. The bascule was dropped into place and the assistants shoved it forward until Crampon's neck rested in the lunette. The blade fell and Crampon's head dropped into the basket.

The execution was the most horrible one that has been witnessed in Paris in many years. The crowd, highly pleased with the entertainment the state had afforded them, dispersed laughing and joking with each other.

Dear Sir:—Your Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are the best selling pill in the market. This is a fact. I speak with knowledge on the subject, as I have been dealing in various kinds of Pills, and sell more of Morse's than any other.

If any one does not believe this, I ask him to write any of my customers about it, or better still, I ask him to try a box and see if he will then use any other. I hope I may always have them. Yours gratefully,

DREADFUL PSORIASIS

Covering Entire Body with White Scales. Suffering Fearful. Cured by Cuticura.

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and almost covering my face. It ran into my eyes, and the physician said I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head, and shoulders being the worst. The white scabs fell constantly from my head, shoulders, and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I could see a change; and after I had taken four bottles, I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the REMEDIES. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight.

Mrs. ROSA KELLY, Rockwell City, Iowa.

Cuticura Resolvent

The new Blood Purifier, internally (to cleanse the blood of all impurities and poisonous elements), and CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally (to clear the skin and scalp and restore the hair), have cured thousands of cases where the shedding of scales measured a quart daily, the skin cracked, bleeding, burning, and itching almost beyond endurance, hair lifeless or all gone, suffering terrible. What other remedies have made such cures?

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 75c.; SOAP, 35c.; RESOLVENT, $1.50. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston.

We have 10,000 Booklets and Christmas Cards that cost in a lot of 100,000 from 5c. to 20c. each. They cover all new designs, and we have divided them into two lots. Your choice for 5c. and your choice for 10c. These have usually been sold for from 10 to 50c. each. A good time to get a fine thing for a little money.

We have 200 Bird Cages, and we have reduced the price, 39c. up to 98c. for painted and 89c. up to $1.99 for brass, usually sold for $2 up to $5. Give your bird a Merry Christmas.

Our supply of Fine Baskets, Work Baskets, Manicure Sets, Comb, Mirror and Brush Sets, in leather and plush, was never as good before, and we offer them at half regular prices.

In Toys, you must come to see. Our windows tell you something in this line and in Doll values. We have sold for many days an average of 100 to 200, but we have a great supply; see them. Certainly they are not half what dealers usually think they must get for them. The coming week will be a bargain week with us to be remembered.

Lamps 14c, usually 25c.

We have made a special purchase of Vases filled with the finest of teas. The vases are of rare beauty and could not be imported for less than $1.50. We shall close out two cases of them at 89c. each.

The coming week, in goods wanted all the year round, we will sell two splendid Brooms of choicest corn for 25c. or 13c each.

Do not forget we sell a $45 to $60 Sewing Machine for $17 each, and if want, buy now. Space is up. Come and see

Alarm Clocks!

There are a great many small Alarm Clocks which have been running for a few years and are now out of order, which the owners are allowing to remain idle, because they think it will cost too much to repair them. If you bring them to us you will find that we will make them run as well as they ever did, at a very small charge. We have already changed hundreds of them from being merely rubbish into good timepieces. If you want to buy a new one, we will sell you an Alarm Clock at a lower price than any one else in the trade. We sell only the very best make and warrant every one.

CAMMELL MURDER CASE.

THE BROTHER-IN-LAW AND WIFE ON THEIR DEFENCE.

The Evidence Was very Strong Against the Suspected James Rowe—The Jury Passed a Severe Resolution on the Laxity of the Government.

PORT ARTHUR, Dec. 19.—The coroner's jury, who have been investigating the cause of the death of Archie Cammell, who was killed at the door of his own residence in Pearl-street about midnight on Monday, 12th inst., rendered their verdict Saturday. They had five sittings and examined a large number of witnesses, including the wife of deceased and her son by a former marriage, a lad of 10 years of age.

The verdict was to the effect that Cammell came to his death by a gunshot fired by James Rowe, who is a brother-in-law of deceased, and that his wife, Mary Cammell, was accessory after the fact.

The evidence was very strong against Rowe, who was residing in the house with the Cammell family and disappeared immediately after the crime was committed.

He returned to town on the evening of the second day and gave himself up to the authorities.

Rowe is now in custody and will appear before the police magistrate to-day.

The wife of deceased has not been arrested, but may be at any time.

The jury passed a strong resolution on the laxity of the Government in criminal cases in this district.

BLAINE'S SICKNESS.

He Has Rallied After Being on the Thresh hold of Death.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—All yesterday the life of James G. Blaine hung trembling in the balance. For more than an hour in the forenoon hope was abandoned and the end was momentarily expected. The first crisis was reached between 10 and 11 o'clock in the morning, when a sinking spell set in, from which the worst was feared.

His family were called around the bedside, and his physician sent messenger after messenger to the nearest drug store with prescriptions requiring hasty attention. The distinguished patient lay unconscious and to all appearances dying until shortly before 1 o'clock p. m., when a slight rally set in. His pulse, which had almost ceased to beat, became perceptable and partial consciousness was restored.

The house was lighted early last evening and the physicians held a consultation, but a little after 6 o'clock they said Mr. Blaine's condition showed a slight improvement over the morning. At 11 p.m. Drs. Johnston and Hyatt saw Mr. Blaine again and gave out for publication the following statement:

"Mr. Blaine seems to have rallied entirely from his weakness of this morning and appears to be as well as he has been at any time within the past week, and while it is not possible to say what changes may take place in his condition, he can be said to be in no immediate danger."

TRAVELER'S PERIL.

A Collision—One Man Killed — Several Passengers Injured.

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 19.—Private advices here state that a collision occurred on the Southern railroad near McKinney, about 12 miles south of Junction city, between No. 1 passenger south bound and a north bound freight.

No. 1 was running by the new schedule and by some mistake the freight was running on the old time. Charles Fagin baggagemaster and United States Express Messenger Kinney were killed.

Several passengers were injured.

VAUGHAN'S DEED.

The Man Who Stabbed the Rabbit Hunters Has Been Again Arrested.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 19.—Harry Vaughan, who in a quarrel at Melita recently stabbed and killed George Randall and seriously wounded his brother, and who was acquitted by a coroner's jury on the ground of self-defence, has been re arrested and now lies in jail. He will be prosecuted by the Attorney General on a charge of manslaughter.

TABERNACLE SEIZED.

A Painter Who Has Not Paid $1104.88 Since 1889.

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Dec. 19.—By virtue of an execution issued by Judge Bartlett Saturday Rev. T. De Witt Talmage's tabernacle has been seized by the sheriff to satisfy a judgment of $1104.88 obtained on behalf of Alfred Tong, a painter, who painted the church after the fire in 1889 and has not been paid. An officer is in charge of the seized property.

Alive After Going Over Niagara Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., Dec. 19.—The great falls of Niagara have been conquered, and by a dog. The conquest was witnessed by a little group of people last Sunday afternoon off Luna Island. A large black Newfoundland dog, while lapping the water, slipped off the rock into the rapidly whirling current. In a twinkling he was swept over the American Falls. Out of curiosity the crowd went to the edge to look over the precipice. To the wonder of all the dog was seen to drag himself upon some rocks beside the Cave of the Winds. Four of the spectators descended to the rocks beneath and there found the dog weak and exhausted and bleeding from severe cuts in his flanks. He was carried to the stairs, a doctor sewed up the gashes, and in a few hours the dog was limping around and wagging his tail.

Not to the Shot.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 19.—There is no truth in the report that Col. Nieves Hernandez, who is charged with having aided Garza to escape, would be shot on to-day. The case is now on appeal to Supreme Military Court. The hearing of the appeal was originally fixed for Monday, but has been indefinitely postponed on account of the absence of the defendant's counsel.

Suppressing Immorality.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 19.—The Police Commissioners Saturday unanimously instructed the Chief of Police to close saloons at midnight and keep gamblers under cover at all times, and require both to observe respectability on Sunday.

NEW STYLE OF WARFARE

CROTON OIL WAS TO BE USED AT HOMESTEAD.

But the Cooks Refused—They Were to Get $30 Each and a Gold Watch and Chain — Rhubarb, Snuff and Other Things in the Powders.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 19.—The hearing in the case of Robert Beatty, charged with having been a party to a plot to poison nonunion men employed in the Carnegie steel works at Homestead, was held at the office of Ald. McMasters Saturday. Patrick Gallagher, the informer, was not present.

J. M. Davidson, a steamboat cook, was the first witness. He stated that in August in company with Gallagher they met Beatty in Pittsburg.

"It was understood," he said, "that we were to go to Homestead as cooks, and were to take something with us and put it into food given the non-union men in order to make them sick and render them unfit for work.

"Beatty took us to the office of the Knights of Labor, where we met Master Workman Hugh Dempsey. Gallagher and Dempsey did most of the talking. Beatty suggested dosing the men with croton oil. I said, no. Dempsey said he knew a powder which would do better. He said he had used these powders in Chicago and he would guarantee us $50 each and our expenses.

"We got no powder that day. We then left the hall together. Beatty said we were each to get $50 and a gold watch and chain if we went. Gallagher went to Homestead two days after that. I went up Sept. 22. Beatty gave me some powders to take to Gallagher. There were nine powders in the package and I gave them to Gallagher. I don't know whether they were used.

"Before that Gallagher had been given a small package from Dempsey. One powder was enough to put in 30 gallons of tea or coffee. This was in the K. of L. hall and Beatty was present. Later, when Gallagher, Beatty and I went to the K. of L. hall, Dempsey asked how the powders worked. Beatty said, successfully, and wanted more. Dempsey said he would get more on December 1.

I asked Beatty what was in the powders. He said, rhubarb, snuff and other things. He did not say who furnished them. While we were talking he mentioned Lynch, Crawford and Dr. Purman.

Mr. Brennan gave him a severe cross-examination and did not shake his story in any particular. He insists that he had not administered any powder to the men. He said he was arrested late in November and taken into St. Nichol building and was sworn and told the story he had just told, and was released.

Detective J. H. Ford testified to hearing Beatty describe the powders, and Gallagher says: "Tom Brady suggested using croton oil."

Louis Wolfers, steward of the Homstead mill restaurant, testified to serious and rapid increase of illness among the men after Gallagher's employment. That himself and wife were yet suffering from its effects. His wife, he thought, would die.

W. E. Bullocks and Joseph Leslie, payroll clerks, also suffered from the drugs and testified to its effect upon them.

Mr. Brennan then endeavored to secure the release of his client, but the alderman held him for court in $5000 bail.

Mr. Brennan thought this amount excessive and was directed by the alderman to go into court on Monday and ask the court to fix the amount.

THREE MEN BURNED.

Collision on the Great Northern Railway —Four Men Killed.

ALEXANDRIA, Minn., Dec. 19.—A frightful accident occurred on the Great Northern Railroad yesterday morning at Nelson station, five miles east of here, in which eight men were killed and five were seriously injured. There had been a collision Friday morning at Nelson, and a number of cars were wrecked. The wreck train had been there two days clearing up and making up preparatory to pulling out for the east.

At about 1 o'clock this morning the wreck train caboose was left standing on the main track with a number of cars. An eastbound freight struck the wreck train and threw the caboose on the top of the next car, setting both on fire.

There were 14 men in the caboose. One jumped off, five were hurt, three were burned beyond recognition and four were killed. One was burned up, not a sign of his remains being found.

The men killed were asleep in the caboose when the engine struck it. The injured were promptly removed to this place where medical aid was given them. The men that were burned presented a horrible sight, being literally charred. The coroner began an inquest to-day.

Will Remain At His Post.

VIENNA, Dec. 19.—President Carnot, says a despatch from St. Petersburg, has informed the Czar that he will remain at his post under any circumstances to save France from internal disturbance.

A Tooth for $10,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The steamers City of Paris and Etruria started at 2 p.m. Saturday for a race across the ocean.

GERMANY WILL PREVENT

IF POSSIBLE A RUSSIAN - FRENCH ALLIANCE.

Bismarck Not Mentioned in the Debates—The Probable Effect of the Panama Canal Scandal Discussed—Strikes Reported in Russia.

BERLIN, Dec 19.—Although the composition of the committee of the Reichstag to which the Army Bill has been referred at first might appear unpromising for the Government its elements admit of such grouping under the inducements that Chancellor von Caprivi may offer as will enable the ministers to get a majority. The committee, which comprises 28 members, is made up of three Social Democrats, six members of the Freisinnige party, eight Centrists or Clericals, two Poles, three National Liberals, one Free Conservative and five Right Conservatives.

If the Chancellor reduces the money vote to 40,000,000 marks and modified the Government's demands for an increase in the present peace effective, the bill will have a chance of approval; in its present shape it will stand no chance whatever of becoming a law.

The implied threat of the Chancellor in his speech, when the bill was presented to the Reichstag, to dissolve the House and have a new election in the event of the measure being rejected, has had little, if any, effect upon the Conservatives.

The Kreuz Zeitung, whose editor, Herr Von Hammerstein, is among the Conservative representatives on the committee declares that the bill will not pass, adding that a coalition between the Centrists and Conservatives in favor of supporting Chancellor Von Caprivi was improbable before the Reichstag adjourned.

Lobby report has it that the Chancellor, feeling indisposed and worried at seeing that it was improbable that he would obtain the assent of the Reichstag to his full demands for an increase of the standing army, told the Emperor that he would gladly resign the cares of office. His Majesty, however, was not disposed to give the Chancellor any encouragement in retreating under fire. He expressed his determination to make the army bill a law, even at the risk of an appeal to the country. He assured Count von Caprivi that he would stand by him under all circumstances. The Chancellor gained renewed courage from his interview with the Emperor and assented to remain in office and fighting the battle out through dissolution of the Reichstag if need be.

A notable feature in the debates has been the omission of all allusions to Prince Bismarck or any reference to his opinions. His old adherents avoided introducing his name in the discussions and also avoided indulging in their old comparisons between the policy of Chancellor von Caprivi and that followed by Prince Bismarck.

The developments in the Panama scandal are watched with the keenest interest, and, it may be said, anxiety. The one comfort to Germany is that the spectacle of corruption and confusion among the France political leaders lessens the Russian desire to make France an ally.

Advices received here from St. Petersburg show that information recently reached the Czar that a certain Russian paper had received from Paris the sum of $100,000 for advocating a Russo-French alliance. He at once ordered an enquiry to be made, which resulted in the discovery that the report was not only true, but that part of the bribes distributed by the Panama Canal Company had been accepted by prominent persons in Russia.

The Russian court party, under the lead of M. Pobedonoszeff, are hostile to a French alliance, and they seized the opportunity to work on the Czar's prejudices against French Republicans.

The German Foreign Office is hopeful that Gen. Werder, the new German ambassador to Russia, will succeed in detaching the Czar from France, and so lead to a new grouping of the powers. Another, and to Germany a far more important view of the situation, is that the chaos in France may produce an adventurer who would hazard war with Germany as the best stroke to carry himself into power.

The Hamburg and Berlin bourses were disturbed yesterday by a report that 20 cases of cholera and four deaths from the disease had occurred at Hamburg. Official denials of the story were issued. The report had its origin in the fact that the authorities were cleaning out the people residing in dirty and overcrowded tenements.

The Emperor is little seen in public now. He is constantly away hunting. Social life at the court will commence on New Year's Day with the usual grand reception. The Imperial family will come to Berlin from Potsdam on Dec. 31.

NO RESULT YET.

The Monetary Conference Has Adjourned —Intends to Reassemble.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 19.—After M. Direnzis' motion had been proposed at the Monetary Conference yesterday, Senator Allison made a short speech in behalf of the United States delegation. He laid emphasis upon the fact that throug out the debate no one had suggested that either of the money metals be discarded. During the adjournment he said the delegates would have time to study the Rothschild and other proposals that had been submitted.
